

Seek four council seats

Throw the rascals out!

This newspaper, for 23 years, has consistently held that where an incumbent seeks reelection, and his performance has been satisfactory, he should be preferred over other candidates and is entitled to reelection.

We cannot in good conscience recommend to our neighbors in Plymouth that the incumbent councilmen who seek election on Tuesday should be returned to office.

There are three reasons for this, and we think they are good ones.

The first is that they have mismanaged the village utilities so badly that there is doubt that anybody, at any time, can straighten them out. It started when the then incumbent utilities clerk and the mayor recommended to the council that the billing machine be replaced. One of the incumbents took it upon himself to arrange for the gift of a used machine. Maybe there was a chance that it might serve the purpose. Nearly $4,000 was spent on it and it was a lemon, from the village's standpoint at least, from the word go. The fact that the incumbent councilman went into cahoots with his sidekick, the then clerk, to have the clerk's business programmed into the machine before that of the utilities department merely compounded the felony. In time, it was clear that the gift billing machine was a turkey. Long after the bird was dead, and while the incumbent councilman stubbornly persisted with his wrong headed notions, the council bought another one. It has more or less been a turkey, too.

The mayor consistently warned the council, in the annual report due by law in the first meeting of the new year, that the water situation is critical and Plymouth ought to look to new sources of supply. Did the council take any action? Not one whit. Last winter, when there was the big break that eventually was traced to the local factory, there was no water for households for several periods. Last summer, when there was a deficient valve in the processing well at the water plant, scores of households went without water for personal sanitation and health uses. An establishment owned and operated by one incumbent councilman was asked to close, because it is the largest consumer of water in town. He point blank refused to close, despite the fact he has other interests from which he derives a profit sufficient to keep his splendid family of wife and three children.

Had the council, including the incumbents, taken adequate action to let bids to repair the old water tower, there would have been less chance of disease, dangerous fire and poor sanitation. But the council refused to re-let bids after the first ones were received in what it ruled was a faulty manner.

The second is that, in the case of two incumbents, they put their names to formal charges against a public official that accused the official of moral turpitude and lack of good character. But when the time came to put their money where their mouths were, they backed off. They asked the village to foot the bill. And they refused the official a day in court. It is hard, very hard, to recommend election of such persons. Every elector has a right to expect that his legislator will comport himself in an honorable and decent fashion.

The third is that each incumbent, as well as one opponent, has come forward to support the spending of tax money to be taken over 23 years from every taxpayer in Plymouth on a project that could as well use Plymouth's water, Plymouth's electricity, Plymouth's sewers, and would probably mean the growth of present business and new start of at least two businesses.

Whatever the incumbents think or may think about the merits of the proposition as individual electors is not of our concern, that as legislators of the village they endorse the spending of OUR money somewhere else is moral dereliction of the worst degree.

Plymouth goes to the polls Tuesday to choose four councilmen, three members of the board of education of the school district, two township trustees and three members of the county board of education.

Five money issues appear on the ballot for voters in Huron county. Three money issues appear on the Richland county ballot.

Ten candidates, including three incumbents, seek the four council seats.

Incumbents are D. Douglas Brumbach, V. Duane Keene and John A. Ray. Brumbach and Ray were elected to four-year terms in 1973. Keene is completing an unexpired term and never before submitted his name to the electorate.

None of the incumbents submitted responses to the questionnaire sent to them by The Advertiser. Only two of the other nominees submitted answers. Brumbach is a 39-year-old retired lieutenant colonel of the Air Force. He was the first village administrator, appointed in June, 1968, and forced to resign in March, 1970. He and his wife, Helena, reside at 290 West Broadway. He is employed by Kar Products Co. He is a member of Plymouth Community club, the Retired Officers' association, the Big Red Boosters club and the village ambulance society.

Ray, 55, 127 Trux street, is employed by Midwest Industries, Inc., Willard. He belongs to the Community club. He and his wife are the parents of a married daughter, who lives here with her husband and three children.

Keene, 29, came here in 1965, he was graduated by Plymouth High school in 1966. He and his family live in Brooks court. He owns and operates Plymouth Car Wash, which he refused to close down during the acute water shortage of the summer, despite requests of the mayor to do so. The car wash operation is the village's highest user of water.

THESE THREE ARE opposed by Allan Cline, William C. Enderby, James M. Fleck, David A. Howard, Ervin W. Howard, G. Thomas Moore and James C. Root.

Cline, 23, lives at 112 East Main street. He was graduated in 1972 by Plymouth High school. He is married to the former Percilla Thornberry of Willard, who is employed by The Advertiser. Cline works as a laboratory technician for Warren Rupp Co., Mansfield. His father, Frank, is a councilman at Shiloh and his uncle, Henry, is mayor of Shelby.

Enderby is 70. He lives with his wife, ne Doris Willford, in Route 61. He retired from Fisher Body division, General Motors Corp., Ontario. He farms 12 acres. Born near Greenwich, he was graduated by Greenwich High school. He served in Australia with the Army engineers during World War II and is a member of Ehet-Parsel Post 447, American Legion, and of the Norfolk Post, VFW.

He and his wife have two grown daughters and a grown son and two grandchildren.

Fleck is 25. He is a manager of stone operations in Shiloh. He and his wife came here from Dayton. They live in a new home in Brooks court. They have two young children. He is a member of Plymouth Lions club.

David Howard was Cline's classmate in Plymouth High school. He is a graduate of Ashland college and now attends Claude Pettit college of law, Ohio Northern university. He is a member of Plymouth Board of Education and endorses construction of the new junior high school out of town. Ervin Howard, 24, is David's elder brother. He and his wife, Neva, who is employed by Dr. Pierre E. Haver, live at 182 Trux street. He has a small son and a smaller daughter. He was graduated by Plymouth High school in 1968 and is employed by Plymouth Locomotive Works, Inc. He is president of the Booster club. He says he will strive to get the council and the community to work together and he wants to help gain the respect back into the council, which I feel has been lost.

Moore, 51, is a 1944 graduate of Plymouth High school who immediately entered the Navy. He is married to the former Betty Mitchell, New Haven, and they are the parents of two married children. He and his brother, Robert, are partners in Moore's Motor Sales, Gallon. He also strives for unity between the council and other elected officials and also unity between the council and persons employed by it.

The problems of Plymouth are many, as in all villages this size and larger. Water and sewer are the most pressing at present. As for water, the new well would be a stop gap, the village should look in the future for water sources other than wells, if the village is to have an amply supply now and in the future.

The sewer problem, I feel, is nearing an end. If not, I hope that if I am elected I can help bring it to a quick conclusion.

James C. Root, 37, is the eldest son of the former Dixie Forney and they are the parents of two daughters. He is employed as salesman by the American Gas Co. He is a lieutenant in the fire department.

JAMES C. ROOT

NEW HAVEN TOWNSHIP will elect two trustees. The incumbents, Frank V. Smith and Willard Baxter, are unopposed.

Plymouth township will elect two trustees. Incumbents Larry Tucker and his paternal grandfather, Joseph acting police chief of Plymouth.

Five candidates seek three seats on Plymouth Board of Education. One of them is an incumbent. Only one of the five did not return a questionnaire sent by The Advertiser.

The incumbent is the Rev. Arthur H. Hamman, 46, Shiloh route 2, where he lives with his wife, Donna. He is pastor of the community gospel chapel east of Shiloh. The Hammans have six children, one married and five living at home. He has been mentioned on his record of "a sound fiscal system, an average to better than average staff and we have made several capital improvements." He aims to obtain passage of the building bond issue, to maintain local control of our schools, to provide the best education we can have for our children with the money available, to continue to upgrade our school system by improvement of some of our buildings and to work for more unity in our school system."

Other candidates are Charles J. Briggs, Don M. Echelsberger, A. George Miller and Larry O. Vredenburgh.

Briggs is 39. He is married to the former Edith L. Simmons of Plymouth, who is a teacher in Plymouth Elementary school. He is a driver-salesman for Dada Dog Food, Inc. The Briggses have two children, aged eight and six.

He wants to see more support of the musical department "to show these children we care as much about them as athletes. Echelsberger, a graduate of Plymouth High school, lives with his wife and three children in Base Line road. He is employed in the production department of Plymouth Locomotive Works, Inc. He is a member of Plymouth Lions club.

Miller, 41, is married to the former Janet L. Russell. They have a married son and four other children, an 11th grader, a ninth grader, a fifth grader and a third grader.

He is a 1954 alumnus of Shiloh high school engaged in farming north of Shiloh. He is a substitute please see page 7

Council buys pick-up truck

The bid of Cy Reed Ford-Mercury Sales, Inc., Willard, for a 1978 three-quarter ton pick-up truck was accepted by village council Tuesday night.

It will cost $5,490 and be paid for from Revenue Sharing funds.

Reed's bid was the only one received before the deadline at noon Friday. Three other bids were received too late which made them ineligible to be considered.

Councilman D. Douglas Brumbach questioned Charles Anita L. Riedinger as to the time she actually received the three offers. One was postmarked Oct. 31, and two were hand delivered on Monday.

When the Reed representative was questioned as to how soon the village could expect delivery, his answer was "six to eight weeks."

Both Councilmen Tom Patton and James L. Jacobs, Sr., said the village needs the truck as soon as possible and it was agreed that the automotive agency will look for one from another dealer if the specifications could be met. Brumbach questioned the clerk's monthly financial report, saying the balances in several funds did not coincide with the previous month-end balances. The problem was tabled until the next meeting.

Councilman V. Duane Keene reported the Plymouth Ambulance contract, which made two runs in the village, four in Plymouth township and two in New Haven township for a total of 115 miles, used 54.5 gallons of gasoline.

Plymouth Township Trustees Frank Fenner and Larry Tucker questioned the contract. In their copy, Mayor Elizabeth G. Paddock had changed figures of payment for the second and third years of the contract, which she said had been typed incorrectly. At the time the village solicitor, Robert A. McKown, said it was all right for her to do so, she claimed.

The trustees said they understood they will pay $350 more for the first two years over the present contract.

Mrs. Hoffman was a past president of Richland County Salon, Hutt Chevaux et Quarante Hommes.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Velma Cashan, Pt. Clinton; two sons, Vance C. Hoffman, Sr. Plymouth, and Charles R. Hoffman, Heath, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Bruce Williams conducted services from McQuate-secor Funeral home Friday at 2 p. m. Burial was in Greenlawn cemetery.

Workman boy dies in hospital

Born in Shelby Memorial hospital Oct. 25, Larry Allan Workman died 10 hours later in Akron Children's hospital.

He is survived by his parents, the late Mrs. Mary Ann Workman, 223 1/2 Sandusky street; his maternal grandparents, the Shelby Greens, Plymouth, and his paternal grandfather, Albert Workman, Plymouth.

The Rev. S. T. Adkins, Tiro Baptist church, conducted services in Maple Grove cemetery, New Haven township, Friday at 10:30 a. m. Burial was by McQuate-secor Funeral home.

$10,000 here

A 73-year-old Beelman street fireman takes pride in his garden in Plymouth's newest lottery winner.

Ben Haler, who's retired, won $10,000 on a ticket he bought at Sears in Richland Mall. He and his wife, Carrie, have been living on social security benefits since he retired after six years with the old Shelby Cycle Co. Formerly he was a coal miner in Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

The winning ticket was only the eighth ticket purchased by the septuagenarian, who's the father of three and grandfather of eight.

The former wife of his nephew, Raymond Sexton, also a Plymouth girl, won $1 million with a ticket purchased two years ago. "What's her name? We do with the proceeds?" The government took $2,000 in income tax, and we'll just live on the rest.

Shiloh makes lower offer

A counter offer of new natural gas rates was made to Columbia Gas of Ohio by village council at Shiloh Oct. 26.

The difference between the supplier's proposal and that made by the council is in the second year. Shiloh offers a rate of 44.77 cents for each 100 cubic feet of gas up to 2,000 cubic feet, then 20.12 cents for each 100 cubic feet. Minimum monthly payment would be $4.48.

Columbia Gas wants 50.322 cents for each 100 cubic feet up to 2,000 cubic feet and 24.71 cents thereafter. Its minimum monthly bill would be $4.68.

Red dumps Loudonville

Newfound passing game produces three touchdowns

Plymouth rediscovered its rushing game and produced a brand-new passing offense that scored three touchdowns here Friday night as the Big Red upset Class A Loudonville, 30 to 21, in Johnny Applesed conference play.

It was the first league victory of the season for the Big Red, which had to come from behind to prevail.

And it did so with two second period strikes through the air.

The Redbirds drew first blood, crunching 17 yards in five plays after a splendid runback of John Ross's punt. Tom Mumpfer bucked home from the two for the touchdown. The place kick for PAT was wide.

The score came at the end of the first period, with 1:25 remaining on the clock, after Loudonville had had much the better of it in the early going.

COACH MIKE MCFARREN is a canny operator. He knows the rules of play calling.

And he showed that early in the second quarter.

Marty McKenzie, who played splendidly for the Big Red in this his last, outing against the Redbirds, intercepted Rick Beans's pass and ran it up to the Loudonville 48.

On first down, Mike Berberick, the new Red quarterback, stepped to his right and flung a pass down the middle to McKenzie, who had outdistanced the Loudonville secondary. McKenzie ran it in for the tying score.

In the next preceding series, Plymouth had fumbled away a splendid chance to tie. John Ross intercepted a Beans pass at the Redbird 37. Plymouth was nailed with a 15-yard penalty and set up at the visitors' 31. But Mike Messer lost the ball on first down.

Loudonville couldn't do anything with the Red defense in the next two series and the quick kick, one of two the visitors made all night, carried 51 yards to the Plymouth 35.

Seven plays later, the Big Red was at the Loudonville 31. On third down, Berberick lateralized to his predecessor at quarterback, Tom Miller, who threw the halfback pass downfield to Steve Shaver. Shaver caught the ball at the nine and hurried into the end zone.

Plymouth had covered 65 yards in eight plays. The clock read 1:29 of the second period. IT WAS A LEAD THE Big Red never relinquished.

By halftime, Loudonville had seven first downs in 32 plays, gaining 68 yards rushing and 19 yards through the air, with three interceptions and two completions in eight attempts. Plymouth, correspondingly, with only four first downs in 32 plays, had 58 yards rushing and 94 yards in the air, on four completions in six tries.

Plymouth took the second half kickoff and marched 66 yards in 10 plays. Berberick passed to Ross for the final 14, at 7:52 of the third quarter.

Messer, the vaunted offensive star of the Big Red who has been bottled up of late, gained 23 of the yards in the drive and Ross, who came into his own as a running back, got 20.

As was the case after each of the five scores, Plymouth was not able to score any points after touchdown. After this one, Miller hit Messer in the flat, across the field, with a low pass but Messer could not make it into the end zone.

Loudonville struck back in the next series. Led by Bob Crossman, the Redbirds drove with the kickoff from their 33 to the goal line in 10 plays.

Crossman ran up the middle for 11 yards for the score. Mike Hicks kicked the PAT and Loudonville hopes rose.

PLYMOUTH SHOWED the stuff of which it is made with the kickoff. The Big Red stayed on the ground, mostly inside, and punched 54 yards in please see page 4 nine plays for the clinching touchdown. Messer darted home from the seven. Berberick had the PATs well in hand on a rollout but he fell before he reached the end stripe.

Another brilliant defensive play by McKenzie stopped Loudonville with its regular quarterback, Conway, in the lineup at the beginning of the last period.

McKenzie hit Brent Peoples on an end-around play that seemed likely to score from the Red 23. Loudonville died two plays later at the Plymouth 27.

The Big Red promptly cut Loudonville out of reach with its fifth and final touchdown.

Starting from where the Redbirds relinquished possession after falling of first down, Plymouth marched 73 yards in 10 plays. Ross belted into the end zone from four yards out with the big one.

Loudonville wasn't dead.

The visitors took the kickoff and scored in 12 plays that covered 71 yards. Conway rolled out to his left for the touchdown at 1:02. Andy Grassman ran the PATs but it was all over for the Redbirds, who've now lost two straight to Plymouth.

Red ranked 21st by computer in Region 9

Black River advanced one file to fourth place in the computerized standings after seven weeks of Class A football in Region 9.

The Pirates were credited with 34,8333 points. Plymouth was 21st, Monroeville 23rd, Crestview tied for 27th, New London 31st, St. Paul's tied for 35th, South Central 37th, Western Reserve 38th, Mapleton tied for 46th and last.

Among Class AA schools in Region 6, Ontario was 33rd, Clear Fork tied for 37th, Edison tied for 41st, Loudonville 44th.

Lexington, the sole Class AAA team, was 41st in Region 2.

Lambs wed 50 years

Married Nov. 5, 1927, in Gallon, the Homer Lambs will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Saturday with open house in First United Methodist church there.

Their children will be hosts for the event from 2 to 5 p. m.

Mrs. Lamb is the former Blossom Laughbaum. Before their marriage, he was an outstanding baseball pitcher in Crawford county.

He is retired from long service with Ohio Power Co. in 1971. His recipe for braururst is popular locally and he has worked parttime as a butcher.

Their children are Robert E. Perryville, Mrs. Robert Washburn, Eric, Pa., Mrs. Harris Holland, Paducah, Ky., and Mrs. Jack McMichael, Crestline. The Lambs have 11 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

They reside at 316 Trux street.

Fifth graders victors again

Fifth grade Vikings made it three straight by downing a team of local sixth graders, 26 to 15.

Sixth graders played Taylor Marathon, a Mansfield Friendly House competitor Oct. 24 and were beaten 20 to 33. Mike McKenzie scored 13. Wes Johnson and Scott Keifer had five apiece.

Shiloh auxiliary wins award, made quota

Auxiliary of Garrett-Riest Post 503, American Legion, Shiloh, has voted contributions to the Valley Forge Freedom Fund, CARE, Ohio Soldiers and Sailors home, Sandusky, and Dayton VA hospital. Subscriptions were renewed for the Legislative Bulletin and the Carville Times, published for lepers in the federal leprosiarium at Carville, La.

Garrett-Riest auxiliary showed 71 paid members at the 5th district meeting at Bellville Oct. 12. This is one over quota. A ceramic pickle was given to each over-quota unit by the district president. The pickle was given to the membership chairman, Mrs. Berrita Goth. Mrs. R. Eugene Russell, president of the unit; Mrs. H. R. Nesbitt, Mrs. Fred Bauer and Mrs. Robert Smith attended the session.

Mrs. Nesbitt and members of the junior auxiliary presented a program on Americanism during the October meeting. Mrs. Nesbitt explained the origins of the colors of the flag. Girls sang the National Anthem and the meeting sang "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean". Mrs. Nesbitt and Mrs. Goth served refreshments.

Next meeting Nov. 15 will be in charge of Mrs. Cline and Mrs. Merle Lutz as refreshment committee and Mrs. Cline of the door prize committee.

Mrs. Alvin Garrett, veterans' affairs chairman, will take items to the soldiers and sailors home in November. Items needed are work gloves, stocking caps, shaving supplies, shoe string, soap, body powder, sham-poo, playing cards, puzzles and paint by number sets. Mrs. Garrett will receive items until Nov. 5.

Sue Shury, Class of 1976, Plymouth High school, is a member of the Ashland college marching band for 1977-78.

A sophomore music education major, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shury, Plymouth route 1.

(Ed. Note: The Advertiser has received a handful of letters to the editor that are argumentative on one side or another of a political issue in next Tuesday's election. In keeping with its policy, unless the letter is rebuttal of a previous letter, none such is published within one week.

Brook rebutted

before the election. These letters include two that relate to a flyer issued by a committee to promote approval of a 4.51-mill building bond issue for the public schools. Since The Advertiser did not publish the flyer, nor any material in it, regrettably the letters have been ruled to be irrelevant.)

Newsy notes —
The Willard Osbornes, Jr., Mrs. Wanda Lynch and Harold Lynch have contributed to Plymouth Branch Library memorial fund in respect to Selvino Predire and Willard O. Garrett.

Church Women United will celebrate World Community day in Plymouth United Methodist church tomorrow at 10 a. m.

These for this year is "Heart Change" - Global Change". It focuses on reaching out with changed hearts to the unfree people throughout the community, nation and the world by striving for unity and world peace.

During the service, there will be a message given by Mrs. Eula Hammock, director of the Neighborhood Opportunity center, Willard.

After the service, there will be a potluck luncheon. Everyone attending should bring her own table service and a side dish. Mothers are asked to bring a sack lunch for their children, since baby sitting service will be available.

Sir:
A clarification relative to the content as published in The Advertiser submitted by John M. Brook is being submitted.
In my promotional appearance presenting the facts relative to the school bond issue, John Gray, in fact, reported by statement incorrectly, as published in the Mansfield News Journal. The amount he reported based upon the $20,000 real value of property will be the increase in school taxes a school patron would have to pay. That amount I recall to be approximately $3; in fact, you can deduct an additional 10 per cent state rollback, which will amount to $27.41.

Example:
$20,000 real value
$7,000 assessed value (35% of real value)
$7,000 x .00451 = $31.57 (yearly tax increase)
$31.57 x 10% = $3.16 (Rollback)
$27.41 net yearly increase
$27.41 x 1/2 = $13.70 six month increase
$27.41 ÷ 365 days = 7.5¢ daily increase

A person can determine his annual increase by using the sample formula. The assessed value of property can be obtained from an individual tax bill.

Real property is reappraised each seven years and Mr. Froom's calculation is that within the life of the bond issue (23 years) his property will be assessed seven (7) times. If it is true that his property appraisal, in the past has increased doubly, then I am sure that his real property value has increased likewise. Therefore, his taxes would be increased. Normally when value of property enormously increases, tax rates are decreased proportionately.

Example: (Before reappraisal)
District evaluation $11,985,947,
School tax rate 47.50
After reappraisal:
District evaluation $18,766,168,
School tax rate 32.90

Auditors will certify a tax rate to equalize the amounts of monies to meet voted school indebtedness and appropriation expenditures.

I wonder if Mr. Brook is willing to sell his property today at the same real value it was 10 years ago, in which he indicated his taxes were lower? To the patrons of the school district, I can and will substantiate all information verbally and/or written pertaining to the proposed school bond issue. If its too bad misrepresented facts are published in newspapers

CY REED INTRODUCES A NEW LUXURIOUS WAGON. MERCURY ZEPHYR STATION WAGON WITH VILLAGER OPTION.

1978 Mercury Zephyr Station Wagon with Villager Option

The Villager Option is a luxurious version of the fine station wagon that bears the new Mercury Zephyr name, a fine family wagon engineered to give America good mileage and roominess. It is also built tough to pass the same durability tests as our big Lincolns and Mercuries. The Zephyr Station Wagon provides 79.5 cubic feet of cargo volume with the spare tire stowed below the cargo floor. In addition, the Zephyr Villager Option offers the beauty of cherry woodtone bodyside and tailgate appliques, bright bodyside moldings and a carpeted second seat back.

Use your own judgment standards. We think you'll find that dollar for dollar, inch for inch, gallon for gallon, Mercury Zephyr wagons are energy engineered to put the squeeze on gas.*

*EPA estimate 29 HWY/19 CITY with 3.1 liter engine and manual transmission. Your actual mileage may vary depending on your car's condition, optional equipment, how and where you drive. California estimates shown.

STEP 1.
To vote, first check in with the precinct official. He will give you a ballot card envelope. After receiving your ballot card and envelope, retire to the voting booth. Lay envelope to one side and using both hands, insert your ballot card in the slot at the top center of the vote recorder.

STEP 2.
Slide the card down as far as it will go and make sure the holes at the top of the ballot card are positioned over the short pins at the top of the vote recorder.

STEP 3.
Start at the front of the ballot page booklet. Examine each office and how many to vote for in each office. Using the stylus or punch device attached to the vote recorder, record your vote by punching the hole opposite the candidate or issue of your choice. HOLD PUNCH STRAIGHT UP AND DOWN WHEN VOTING. DO NOT VOTE FOR MORE THAN IS ALLOWED IN EACH OFFICE OR ISSUE.

Continue turning the ballot pages and vote your selection of candidates and issues.

If you make a mistake, return your ballot card to the precinct official for a replacement.

Here's how on Tuesday

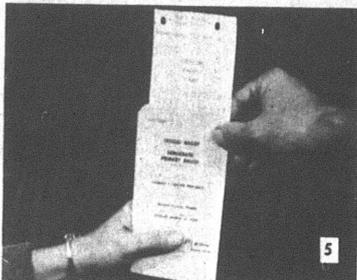

The Advertiser presents again today the detailed explanation of how Huron county voters should conduct themselves when they go to the polls next Tuesday.

Poll judges of both political parties will be on hand to assist those who may be confused. It is lawful to clip these instructions and carry them into the polling booth.

STEP 4.
When your ballot is completed to your satisfaction, remove your ballot from the vote recorder. For secrecy of your vote, place your ballot card in the special ballot card envelope provided. Turn ballot booklet back to first page for next voter.

Should you wish to vote for someone who is not listed in the ballot booklet, you may do so by using the inside flap of the special envelope provided.

STEP 5.
Return your ballot card in the envelope to the precinct official.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS
Sealed bids will be received by the Clerk-Treasurer, Village of Plymouth, Huron and Richland counties, Ohio, at the office of the Clerk-Treasurer until 12 o'clock noon on Friday, the eleventh day of November, 1977, for three hundred fifty (350) tons, more or less, of water softening salt for use in the Village's water softening plant.

Each bid must be accompanied by a bid bond, a certified check or cash in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500) as evidence that a contract to furnish said salt will be entered into. Upon execution of said contract, such bid bond check or cash will be returned to the bidder and to all unsuccessful bidders.

The Village reserves the right to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularities in bidding. By order of the village council, August 16, 1977. Anita L. Riedinger, Clerk-Treasurer

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our deep appreciation to the Plymouth Ambulance Service, Dr. L. J. and the Rev. Marcus and the Rev. Ceranowski, the McQuate-Secor Funeral Home, our friends and neighbors, and the ladies of St. Joseph's church. Your kindnesses and generosity will never be forgotten. AT A TIME OF such sorrow, it is heartwarming to know there are so many to comfort us.

The family of Catherine Alexander

CARD OF THANKS
Our most sincere appreciation to everyone who did so much for us, in so many ways, during our recent loss. Thank you so very much. We shall always be grateful. Mrs. Orville Gullett, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Gullett and family, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Miller and family 3p

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to thank First National Bank, Miller's True Value hardware, McIntire's, Hatch Dress shop, Plymouth Schwinn Cyclery, Mack's Food-Plan, Plymouth Lions club, Nancy's Salon of Beauty for their contributions with which I was able to pass our Halloween treats Monday. I am also appreciative of the Plymouth Police department for its assistance. Silly Tillie Ipswitch.

CARD OF THANKS
I want to thank all my family and friends for the cards, gifts, flowers and calls while I was in the hospital and since I've returned home. God bless each of you. Tom Newmeyer 3c
