

Rhodes faces Celeste

Voters will go to the polls Tuesday in a gubernatorial election that is rated to be close, with only five days remaining before balloting.

Those who work with election machinery forecast a relatively light vote.

Incumbent Gov. James A. Rhodes faces the challenge of Richard Celeste, a Cleveland Democrat who is now Lieutenant governor.

For the first time in Ohio history, the governor and the Lieutenant-governor will be chosen as one team. Rhodes' running mate is George Volnovich, auditor of Cuyahoga county. Celeste's running mate is Michael J. Dorrian, a Columbus contractor.

Anthony J. Celebrezze, Jr., a Cleveland Democrat, seeks to oust the veteran Ted W. Brown, a Republican, as secretary of state.

Donald E. Lukens, a right wing Republican, opposes the incumbent Democrat, Thomas F. Ferguson, Democrat.

William J. Brown, attorney-general, a Democrat, faces the candidacy of George C. Smith, Republican, Franklin county prosecutor.

Mrs. Gertrude W. Donahay, Democrat, treasurer, is said to have a big lead over her challenger, Republican George C. Rogers.

Incumbent Rep. John M. Ashbrook, 17th district Congressman, is heavily favored to defeat the mayor of Coshocton, Kenneth R. Grier, and win another term.

RICHLAND COUNTIANS will choose two county commissioners and an auditor as well as a representative to the General Assembly.

Incumbent Sherrod Brown, Mansfield Democrat, is favored to win reelection over his old classmate, John Baker, Mansfield, Republican, for the 61st district seat in the General Assembly.

Arthur R. Touby, incumbent Democrat, may be in some trouble as he seeks to defeat Dale E. Cook, Mifflin township dairyman, Republican, for the full term commissionmanship. Organized labor has deserted Touby this time. He is 68 years old and has been on the public payroll half of his adult life.

David L. McGinnis, Republican, a Mansfield stock broker who has been president of the school board there, challenges the incumbent John Griffin for the unexpired term ending Jan. 2, 1981. Griffin got there by appointment of his party when Freeman J. Swank resigned to accept appointment to the post of county auditor, relinquished after 43 years by Norman L. Wolfe.

Swank seeks election to a full term as auditor. He is opposed by Dale E. Bricker, who resigned as director of elections to seek the job. Swank is a Democrat, Bricker a Republican.

LIBERTY COUNTIANS have only a commission-ership to decide. Incumbent Maurice Smith, a New London Democrat, is opposed by Joseph Sherman, a Hartland township farmer, Republican.

Kenneth E. Reed, veteran county auditor, is unopposed.

So is Thomas Heydinger, Democrat, incumbent probate and juvenile judge.

Incumbent Sen. Ronald Neakowski (D-Loxton) is opposed by Scribner Faucher, a Republican member of the General Assembly, for reelection to the Senate. The incumbent Tansey (R-Vermilion) is opposed by Douglas Spitzer (D-Grafton) for reelection to the Ohio House.

ALL OHIOANS WILL BE asked to choose candidates for the judiciary. Thomas M. Herbert, Republican, opposes Frank D. Celebrezze, a Cleveland Democrat, for chief justice of the Ohio Supreme Court.

Richard M. Markus, a Republican who won in the primary by only a handful of votes, opposes incumbent William B. Brown, Democrat, for the full term of justice of the court of appeals, which begins Jan. 1.

Paul W. Brown, incumbent Republican, faces the challenge of Clifford F. Brown, a Norwalk Democrat, for the full term beginning Jan. 2.

Richard county will decide whether Leland Rutherford, incumbent judge of the court of appeals, will be reelected. His opponent is William J. Hamann.

They will also decide if incumbent James J. Mayer, judge of common pleas, will be returned to office. He is running as an independent against Donald L. Lett, Mansfield Democrat, and Max K. Chilcote, Ontario Republican.

Richard M. Christiansen, Democrat, is unopposed for reelection as probate judge.

All judicial candidates will appear on a non-partisan ballot.

Voters in the 17th Congressional district will decide which of three candidates shall be elected to the state board of education. These are Roy McKinley, William G. McFert, 3rd, and the Rev. George L. Lee.

Plymouth voters must decide a liquor option question: Is it whether the sale of malt beverages, wine and mixed beverages of the same types may be sold in the village on other days of the week shall be permitted to the sold for off the premises consumption on Sundays between 1 and 12 p. m.

23 to roast Booster turkeys

Members of the Plymouth High School Boosters club will roast 23 turkeys for the Nov. 18 turkey supper in Plymouth Elementary school. These are Mrs. John A. Turson, Mrs. Donald Baker, Mrs. Jacque Donnenwirth, Mrs. Charles Cobb, Mrs. James Will, Mrs. Frederick Ford, Mrs. Wilford Postema, Mrs. John Fazzini, Mrs. William Chronister, Mrs. Donald Brooks, Mrs. Roger Daron; Also, Mrs. William Wheeler, Mrs. Ishmel Hale, Mrs. Thomas Reno, Mrs. Charles Osborne, Mrs. Donald M. Echelbarger, Mrs. William Houser, Mrs. William R. Miller, Mrs. Richard L. Horton, Mrs. Charles E. Pritchard, Mrs. Lee Hale, Mrs. William Dent and Mrs. Perry McKenzie. Tickets are being sold house-to-house by fifth and sixth graders before the dinner and will also be available at the door.

The hospital boat

Mrs. Sherman Dull was released from Mansfield General hospital over the weekend. Mrs. John Gayheart was admitted to Willard Area hospital Thursday and released Friday. Also released at Willard Friday were Byron Ream, Rayburn Collins and Maxine Cole.

Red to tackle Crestview

Taken on comparative scores, Plymouth should win at Crestview tomorrow by at least two touchdowns, finishing the second successive 7-and-3 season.

But anybody who'd bet on it ought as well to find himself a place at the funny farm.

Because Crestview can be difficult. The Cougars will affiliate with the Big Red in a new league next year, they've got what amounts to the only blood rivalry among Class A teams in the Johnny Appleseed conference going with Plymouth and they've got a better-than-fair Class A football team.

The Cougars were beaten by Clear Fork, 29 to 0, Friday night and they'll be fighting for a shot at second place in this, the last, year of the league. They've got the wherewithal to do it, too.

Consider Joe Pfister, the veteran on the team, a 12th grader who's a three-year letterman. He scales 180 and plays tackle.

Two classmates who're two-year lettermen are Skip Frontz, who weighs 190, and Gary Miller, a 170-pounder.

There're 11 lettermen among the squad of 42. Other two-year mono-gram winners are Vernon Dyer, Richard Kuhn and Fred Stimpert. The last named is the quarterback.

Bill Seder, the Crestview coach, is a patient man. He took a squad that lost every game two years ago and produced a 4-5-1 season last year. His team is young -- there're 11 ninth graders on the squad -- and somewhat green. As was to be expected, Crestview acquitted itself nobly against the weaker teams in the league this season and not so well against the powerhouses, Loudonville and Clear Fork.

As for Plymouth, which didn't play up to its potential at Loudonville, this one affords some players an opportunity to go out with some glory. Sixteen 12th graders will dress in the red and white tomorrow for the last time. These are Scott Baker, Mike Berberick, Rod Dye, Greg Gillum, Gary Holt, Kevin Kamann, Mark Lewis, Joe Miller, Greg Reno, Jim Robinson, John Ross, Terry Tash, Barry Tuttle, Capt. Jim Wallace and Mike Wheeler.

Game time is 8 p. n. The stadium lies behind the high school. Best route: Proceed east in Route 603, cross Route 13, continue to Route 96, turn right, proceed to school.

Incumbent Rep. John M. Ashbrook, 17th district Congressman, is heavily favored to defeat the mayor of Coshocton, Kenneth R. Grier, and win another term.

Villager, 77, burns to death in truck

A 77-year-old Plymouth man was burned to death in the cab of his pickup truck in Peru Center road south of Monroeville Thursday morning.

John Gayheart, 326 Trux street, was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. Farid Said, deputy coroner of Huron county.

Norwalk post, state highway patrol, said Gayheart's truck was northbound in Peru Center road at about 7:30 a. m. when the truck went off the left side of the road and struck a concrete abutment head-on. The truck broke the cement and landed in a gully. The cab, which was twisted off the truck bed, burst into flames and burned its occupant beyond recognition.

Monroeville Fire department was called and extinguished the flames within 15 minutes after arrival.

The collision occurred about a mile south of Grangeville. The pavement was slippery, it having rained most of the night. Since highway patrol said there did not seem to be any evidence that Gayheart was speeding.

Room rates up $10 at Willard

An increase in room rates at Willard Area hospital took effect yesterday.

General room rates rose $10 a day to $95 for semi-private and $100 for private. Rates in the "We Care" long range unit rose $5 a day to $35 for private and $30 for semi-private.

Ancillary charges were increased 20 per cent across the board.

Pupils to sell tickets for dinner

Insurance coverage was approved by Plymouth Board of Education in special session Oct. 25, when an exception was made in the long-standing rule that pupils will not compete with local merchants in the sale of retail items.

Because the Booster club is desperate for support, its president, Keith Mowery, was told that fifth and sixth grade pupils may call door-to-door to sell tickets for the annual turkey dinner in Plymouth Elementary school Nov. 18.

McElroy Miter Co., Columbus, was engaged to furnish building and boiler insurance for a year from Nov. 2 for $4,106.

Tallman Agency, Shiloh, will be paid a premium of $377 to furnish insurance on bond and farm equipment.

Phyllis Phillips and Diane Shepherd were approved as substitute bus drivers.

Born in Floyd county, Mrs. Paul Burdge, Shelby, Mr. Gayheart was a retired carpenter. Of late he had a jobber and small retailer of Lake Erie fish.

He is survived by his wife, nee Gladys Cooley; five sons, Vaughn and Edward, Mansfield, Forest, Roger and Lowell, Shelby; four daughters, Jackie, now Mrs. Harley Hoover, Shiloh, Bunice, Rose

Crisis averted Council amends pay scale

A crisis in the village personnel staffing pattern was averted Oct. 24 when village council met behind closed doors to discuss wage levels.

When the discussion was ended, councilmen emerged and took formal action on what they decided privately.

And what they did didn't meet with unanimous approval.

Crisis averted Council amends pay scale

The newest pay ordinance passed this summer, to raise the hourly wage of the head electrician to $7 from $4.90. Both the Howards voted against the motion. David Howard said it is too soon to make any changes in the pay ordinance, since it was so recently passed and it was not fair to the other employees.

What prompted the action is that Terry Jung, who has proven to be a skilled electrician, has threatened to leave his position and the village does not have a likely successor.

Kilgore to get $4,500

The Plymouth man who was stabbed in the throat in a Willard bar sued the bar owner and his assistant for $405,225 but settled for $4,500, a journal entry by Judge Robert W. Smith in Huron county common pleas court shows.

James Kilgore will get $1,500 from Chester A. Collins, who is serving a four to 15-year sentence in Ohio State penitentiary at Marion, and $3,000 from Stephen A. Fox, 4th, owner of the Sportsman's Bar in Willard.

Stabbing puts youth in surgery

A 21-year-old Plymouth route 1 youth was stabbed at Mansfield Saturday evening and taken to General hospital there for surgery.

Timothy Brown received gashes of the face and arm.

An argument developed between Brown and two Mansfielders, one 23 and one 26, in an East Fourth street drinking place and the knifing is said to have taken place at Fourth and Main streets.

The two men have been arrested on charges of felonious assault, including mortgage payments, were met;

7. The Rameys netted $23,000 profit during the first six months of 1978;

8. The upstairs apartment was habitable and ready for occupancy.

The Fraleys claim they have incurred obligations of $105,000 to the Rameys as a result of these misrepresentations.

Fraleys sue Rameys

Charges of fraud and deceit and of failure to perform on a promissory note were laid against Edward O. and Lois Ramey, 143 Plymouth street, by Donald L. Fraley and Geraldine L. Fraley, Shelby, in a damage suit filed in Richland county common pleas court.

The Fraleys allege that the Rameys have failed to deliver a warranty deed for premises at East Main and Porter streets purchased by them on or about Aug. 31, have failed to deliver a bill of sale, have retained keys to machines in the premises and have removed monies from the premises of $120,000 are sought.

The Fraleys further state in their complaint that the Rameys knowingly misrepresented to them that:

1. The building in question was located on the lot described in their agreement;

2. The business had been in existence for 25 years;

3. A net income of $30,000 to $40,000 a year could be expected;

4. The business grossed $5,600 during July;

5. The average business being done was six loads a machine a day;

6. The business would produce cash of not less than $300 to $400 a week after all expenses, including mortgage payments, were met;

7. The Rameys netted $23,000 profit during the first six months of 1978;

8. The upstairs apartment was habitable and ready for occupancy.

The Fraleys claim they have incurred obligations of $105,000 to the Rameys as a result of these misrepresentations.

Peggy Thornsberry wed to Calvin R. Tuttle

Miss Peggy Thornsberry was married Saturday at 3:30 p. m. in Little Rebecca church south of here to Calvin Ray Tuttle.

Dan and Marty Carry and Randy and Timothy Tuttle ushered. Mrs. Thornsberry wore a short burgundy dress. Mrs. Tuttle was in blue. Both mothers wore corsages of carnations. A reception took place in the church rooms, which were decorated in fall color. The wedding cake, which was decorated with apricot and white roses, was served by Rhonda Carry and Patricia and Robin Thornsberry. The guest book was circulated by Sheila Fields.

Two recipes for November

By AUNT LIZ
Just a few more days and all the fun will be over. Election day is Tuesday, you know, and hopefully you know what you must do come sun, rain or snow. Please do it.

Polls are showing that voting has been going steadily downhill for years now. Each year fewer come out to make their choices.

There have been times when I have said right out loud that some issues should not be decided by voters, because they would simply make the wrong choice. Fortunately, others do not agree and the law is the law, and don't ever let anyone take the privilege of voting from any of us. Free elections have made this country. I remember a very important election one year in Italy. It really wasn't that the Italians were voting under leadership, but it was one side backed by us and one by Russia. It just happened that one of our large air carriers appeared in the bay, and its planes happily flew over the countryside -- and they flew in formation that spelled "USA" -- to let the Italians know we were behind them. They voted our way and even though I like to think I am a real American, I really thought the whole thing a little shady.

Maybe it is me, but this election seems nastier than any other. I am speaking of Ohio and Michigan because those are where the radio stations I listen to are.

It seems that a lot of people are simply lying about how good they are or have been and how nasty their opponents are. Some of them are really going to have to eat their words.

ALONG WITH WORDS, you do need some nourishment, and this recipe I just found but have not tried yet, but it sounds great.

It is for a three pound roast. Brown the meat in a lightly greased Dutch oven. Then arrange four cut-up onions or more, some potatoes and carrots around the meat.

In a saucepan have ready this mixture: a fourth of a cup of flour, two teaspoons of salt, a fourth of a teaspoon of cinnamon and of nutmeg, two cups of cranberry juice and a cup of beef bouillon. Be sure there are no lumps.

Pour it over the meat. Cover it and bake it for about three and one-half hours.

It sounds so tasty with the spices. Gravy can be made from the drippings, which will be great over it all.

And I have another prize, which maybe I should not share, but it is too good not to.

A couple of years ago we had the most beautiful dinner in San Francisco's Chinatown. Like a fool I just gobbled it all up and did not write down the name of the beef dish we had. Since then I have searched and searched for it and even considered writing for the recipe. Now I have found it. It is in one of specialty cookbooks that people write of their friends' recipes and of some of the good restaurants. I do feel I should leave the restaurant unnamed. But if anyone should ask me where there is a good place to eat out there, I will be happy to recommend one.

This could not be easier, and should do for four servings, which makes it economical.

Start with a half pound of sirloin cut into shoe-string strips.

Cook the meat in three tablespoons of oil for a three-hour five minutes, in either a wok or a skillet at a medium heat.

Then add a thinly sliced large onion, a cup of finely chopped celery, a fourth of a pound of frozen snow peas (cut them up), a three-ounce can of mushrooms, sliced, and a half cup of sliced water chestnuts. Potatoes can be substituted for the latter. You will never know the difference.

Cook it all while stirring over a high heat for about three minutes, then cover and simmer for another three minutes or so.

Masons attend Clark initiation

Six members of Richland Lodge 201, attended the meeting of Shelby Lodge 330 Oct. 17, when Howard Clark, formerly of Plymouth, was initiated. Local Masons were Milton E. Mellor, W. Roger Ross, James L. Jacobs, Jr., Robert A. Lewis, Harvey Robinson and Bernard A. Garrett.

Workshop Master Wayne H. Strine attended the grand lodge session at Columbus Oct. 20-21.

Another public breakfast will be served in the lodge rooms in East Main Street Nov. 11 from 6:30 to 10:30 a. m.

ALWAYS SHOP AT HOME FIRST

Meanwhile, combine a tablespoon of cornstarch with a half teaspoon of sugar, five tablespoons of soy sauce and a half cup of water, mix well and toss into the main mixture, stir a little and eat immediately on steamed rice. Try it and save all that air fare to San Francisco plus a hotel room plus a taxi plus all the time it will take for one dinner. I think this is what our president wants us to do to keep spending down.

Energy Saving Payback

PRICE $30.

PLUS TAX AND DELIVERY

This energy saving Gas Range has an ESP of as much as

as compared to conventional gas ranges.

What it sets you back.

When you're replacing an old gas appliance, be sure to look for the ESP tag. That's Energy Savings Payback--what you'll save in operating costs with new energy-saving gas appliances.

For example, the Lifetime Operating Cost (L.O.C.) of a conventional gas range over 13 years is $310. The L.O.C.

What it pays you back.

of an efficient new pilotless model is just $216. The difference--$94--is your Energy Savings Payback (all figures national average).

New ESP gas appliances save you money over the years. They make America's most efficient energy system even more efficient.

Huron County Deserves:

ECONOMICAL GOVERNMENT
 Government cannot give to the people anything which it has not taken from them first. This requires the wise use of tax money and careful differentiating between NEEDS and FRILLS. By applying my agricultural business experience, I will work to provide an economical county government.

RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT
 Government should be the servant of the people, not the master. To do this, I pledge to be available and responsible to ALL the people of the county and willing to represent ALL areas of Huron County.

CONSERVATIVE GOVERNMENT
 Government officials must be able to recognize and squelch growing bureaucratic trends and grandiose projects. I can assure you I will stand firm on the principles of a balanced budget, funding before spending and JUST PLAIN OLD FASHIONED COMMON SENSE.

JUDGE JAMES J. MAYER
 2084 FLEMING FALLS RD.
 MANSFIELD OHIO 44703

November 1, 1978

Dear Friends:

On November 7, 1978, you will exercise your precious right at the polls of selecting those to represent you in various executive, legislative and judicial offices. Good government and our ultimate welfare rests in the hands of you the individual, not in "the government."

America in action is the millions of men and women doing their daily tasks on the farm, in stores, factories, offices and in the home. Those of us in public office from top to bottom are merely the agents of the people.

For the past nineteen years, it has been my privilege and honor to serve you as your Common Pleas Judge. My every effort and whatever ability our Creator has given me have been devoted to the faithful and expeditious furtherance of this trust. Among other duties, this has included the protection and safeguarding of your personal and property rights.

I have always believed that the voice of law must be the voice of reason -- that justice can only be called such if it is denied to no man, however unpopular his cause or unfortunate his circumstances. Someone long ago said, "Judges ought to be more learned than witty, more reverent than plausible, and more advised than confident. Above all things, integrity is their proper virtue."

I have conducted my campaign with decorum. In no way have I engaged in personalities as such would merely insult the intelligence of the good people of this county.

All three candidates in my race are the same age (three years difference). My cancer is in remission and I feel better than I have for ten years. I am working ten to fifteen hours a day. My record as a judge is now and has been exceptional. My ability as a judge has never been better.

If after careful consideration of my record, it meets with your approval, I would deeply appreciate your vote.

Respectfully yours,
James J. Mayer

Those stars on No. 42's helmet indicate outstanding performance. Here Capt. Jim Wallace tackles Brad Browning in second period of game at Loudonville Friday night, when Redbirds massacred Plymouth, 42 to 0.

C-r-r-u-n-c-h!

Red massacred by Loudonville

Loudonville outplayed and outscored Plymouth in a Johnny Appleseed conference game that assured the 1978 title for the Redbirds at Loudonville Friday night.

The score was 42 to 0. The Redbirds had a fifth touchdown called back because of a penalty, to which they were no strangers: the striped-shirt crew dropped the yellow handkerchief against Loudonville no less than 15 times and marched off 155 yards.

Plymouth was never a real factor. Once the visitors drove to within seven yards of the Redbird goal, as time was running out in the first half, but the Loudonville defense thrust Plymouth back. The Big Red was limited to 45 yards rushing and passing. Loudonville rushed for 262 yards, net, and passed for another 172 more.

After a poor punt by John Moss that carried only 11 yards on Plymouth's second possession of the game, the Redbirds put their ground game to work from their 26. In eight plays they were in the end zone. Tom Mumper bulling home from the 10, Rod Spreng booted the PAT.

The Redbirds committed a second mistake late in the first period when Brent Peoples fumbled after taking a 14-yard pass from Rick Beans. Plymouth recovered but could not move. After losing eight yards in three tries, Plymouth punted 28 yards to the Redbird 41. From here the Loudonville eleven marched 55 yards in 12 plays. Mumper again scored, this time from five yards away. All of the yardage was on the ground. Spreng again kicked the PAT.

It was that way at the half. Plymouth's drive from its 34 after the third kickoff of the half materially helped by a 27 yard run by Mike Berberick down the left sideline with a pitchout from Jim Robinson.

With first down at the seven, Plymouth could not move further and after Robinson lost nine yards center and sought to complete a pass. It failed.

At halftime, it was all Loudonville. Plymouth in 31 plays had three first downs and 45 yards rushing, with one fumble lost and 20 yards lost by penalty. Loudonville, by comparison, in 30 plays had 13 first downs, 163 yards rushing, 14 yards passing, had lost two fumbles and 50 yards in four penalties.

The Redbirds took the second half kickoff and drove 68 yards in 15 plays to score their third touchdown. Beans passed 20 yards to Brad Browning to give the Redbirds possession at the Plymouth 43 and Loudonville went the rest of the way on the ground. The last 15 were by Peoples, who took a pitchout around Plymouth's right end for the score. The clock read 7:08. A pass for PATS was not good.

Plymouth took the kickoff and fumbled away possession on third down. From the 34 on first down Beans passed to Mike Dennis, all alone behind Berberick in the tertiary. Dennis went untouched. Mumper ran the PAT. Peoples intercepted Berberick's pass at the Loudonville 30 to end the next series. Eric Haudenschild passed 48 yards to Peoples and the Redbirds went the rest of the way on the ground for the penultimate touchdown, which was scored with two seconds gone in the fourth period on Mumper's two-yard shot. Spreng again kicked the PAT.

Loudonville was to score once more, on a bizarre play. Berberick intercepted a pass by John Van Camp at the Plymouth 57. Capt. Jim Wallace hit left tackle for five yards, only to have the ball snatched from his grasp by Dennis, who ran 42 yards to the end zone. Spreng kicked the PAT.

Loudonville was to penetrate the end zone one more time, with time running out. The second stringers gained materially on Plymouth's third defenses and with two pass completions by Van Camp to Ron Grassman, the Redbirds reached the Plymouth five. Here an illegal receiver downfield penalty cost Grassman a touchdown and on the next play, after the 15-yard penalty, Terry Tash intercepted Van Camp's pass and the game was lit.

Loudonville richly deserved to win. Plymouth's offense simply could not get untracked and it never took enough pressure off the defense to matter much.

Redbirds highest by computer

Loudonville's Redbirds held the highest total classification in computer ratings after eight weeks of play. Loudonville was ranked third in Region 6, Class AA teams. Clear Fork ranked ninth and Edison was tied for 18th. Ontario ranked tied for 62nd.

Among Class A teams, New London held ninth place in Region 9. Monroeville was 11th, Plymouth 18th, Black River 21st, Crestview and South Central were tied for 24th, Western Reserve was 29th, St. Paul's was tied for 46th, Mapleton tied for 48th and last.

Lexington, the sole Class AA team, was tied for 62nd and last in Region 2.

Down and down hard!

"Aw, pshaw!" is what Mike Berberick said after he was dumped by Loudonville defense in this play during first period Friday night.

Crime talk set Wednesday

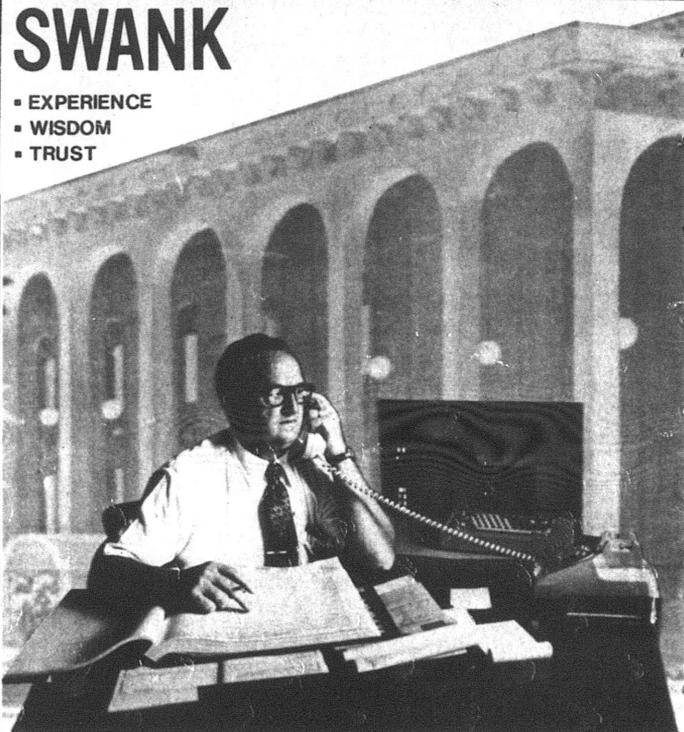

A public discussion of ways to prevent crime will be conducted in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church Wednesday at 8 p. m. by its auxiliary. All women of the community are invited to hear Linda McWilliams, Richland county sheriff's department.

Newsy notes . . .

Councilman and Mrs. Frank Cline were hosts Saturday at supper to honor the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Cline and her twin sister, Mrs. Charles Young, Jr., Mansfield. The Dean A. Clines, Plymouth; the Youngs, Jr., the Steven Bechtlers and the Robert Stootses, Mansfield, and the Lloyd McKinneys, Shiloh, were guests.

SWANK

- EXPERIENCE

The Vital Center . . .

The office of County Auditor is MORE than a record-keeping job! It is the vital center around which county government operates. Freeman Swank has built a solid foundation of practical experience and wisdom, which now prepares him to fill the need in the auditor's office.

As your County Commissioner for almost six years, Swank demonstrated his concern for the northern part of Richland County. He worked, on a regular basis, with Plymouth and Shiloh public officials and township trustees to bring about realistic solutions to problems in the Plymouth-Shiloh area.

Since he was appointed County Auditor in June, Swank has:

- Completed and submitted past due reports to the State Department of Taxation to open up the flow of state revenues back to our county.
- Promptly disbursed funds to Plymouth and Shiloh village governments, schools and township trustees.
- Reorganized procedures in the auditor's office to provide better service to the public.

As your new permanent County Auditor, Swank will:

- Make sure that tax statements are sent out on time, so that disbursements can be made promptly to Plymouth and Shiloh village governments, schools and township trustees.
- Responsibly discharge his duty as a member of the Budget Commission by carefully evaluating every budget submitted.
- Continue to upgrade the service in the auditor's office and utilize its business systems to the fullest . . . thus saving time and money.
- Maintain the confidential nature of property and income information, protecting the privacy of Richland County taxpayers.

Yes . . . our county's financial affairs are in safe-keeping with Freeman Swank.

ORDINANCE NO. 17-78
AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNCIL OF THE VILLAGE OF PLYMOUTH, OHIO, DISBURSING FROM THE REVENUE SHARING FUND OF SAID VILLAGE, SUCH AMOUNT OF MONEY AS MAY BE NEEDED TO PAY IN FULL, THE PURCHASE PRICE OF A 1977 DUMP TRUCK RECENTLY PURCHASED FROM HEISLER, INC. AND APPLYING THE SUM OF SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS ($6,000.00) VOLUNTARILY BORROWED FROM THE ELECTRIC RESERVE FUND OF SAID VILLAGE, BUT IN NO EVENT SHALL THE AMOUNT APPLIED FROM THE REVENUE SHARING FUND EXCEED THE SUM OF NINETEEN THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($19,500.00).

Section 1: That the installation of the electric reserve fund of said Village of Plymouth, Ohio, having purchased a 1977 dump truck from Heisler, Inc., de-termined to purchase the same by borrowing $6,000.00 from the Electric Reserve Fund and by applying the same amount from the Revenue Sharing Fund of said Village to the remaining balance and interest thereon.

Section 2: That the application of Revenue Sharing Funds to purchase and pay for the same is hereby determined to be necessary for the continued efficient operation of the various departments of said Village and in the best interest of the inhabitants of said Village.

Section 3: That the Village of Plymouth, Ohio, a majority of all members elected thereto concurring.

Section 1: That such amount of money as may be needed to pay the balance remaining due and unpaid Heisler, Inc., for the purchase of a 1977 dump truck, after applying Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000.00) from the General Fund previously borrowed from the Electric Reserve Fund. In no event shall the amount withdrawn from the Revenue Sharing Fund exceed the sum of Nineteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($19,500.00).

Section 2: That the Clerk and Mayor of said Village shall be and are hereby authorized to execute and all documents necessary to accomplish the transfer and payment herein authorized.

Section 3: That this ordinance is an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, safety and welfare and shall go into effect immediately, the reason for this emergency being that a new dump truck is necessary for the continuing efficient operation of the various departments of said Village and to insure the health, happiness, comfort and safety of the inhabitants of the Village of Plymouth, Ohio.

Passed this 17th day of October, 1978.
Elizabeth G. Paddock, Mayor
Attest: Raymond L. Brooks, Clerk 26,2c
