

Paula Kleman chosen Fire Festival queen

Plymouth Volunteer Fire department's festival got off to a gala start Saturday afternoon. Paula Kleman, daughter of the Raymond Kleman, was crowned queen by Jamie Jacobs.

She led the parade of some 90 entries from Plymouth High school to the scene of the festival behind the fire station. The judges chose the Royal Scots Highlanders, a group of bagpipers and dancers from Mansfield, as the best overall entry. The New London High school band was given first place for a marching band. Plymouth Lions club again took another first place for the best float. Second place went to the entry of J. Frederick Blackford, which was a small volunteer fire department vehicle driven by his granddaughter, Lori Fidler.

Norman Gannett, Northfield, took first place in the best hitch entry with second place going to Leonard and Charles Myers.

First place for the best marching unit was awarded to the Americettes Baton corps and second to the Radiant Cherubs, both from Mansfield.

Dick Lions received the award in the car class for his 1928 Buick.

Drawings in the prize money were won by Donald Vanderpool, $57.75; Arden Kessler, $34.65; and Dale Cook, Mansfield, $23.10.

The highlight of Sunday's activities was the water fights. In the men's division the Madison Fire department was first and Shelby's department second. The Shelby women were first in the women's division and Plymouth second.

In the news media entries, the men of radio station WMAN clobbered WNCO.

Women of WMAN beat those of The Plymouth Advertiser, who put up a spirited fight but had age against them, said a spokeswoman for the paper.

Revised pay ordinance hammered into shape

Village council met in adjourned session last night to discuss additional facets of the salary ordinance, which will reflect pay increases for police, street and utility employees as well as the cemetery sexton.

On Aug. 1, it accepted a proposal by the Bachrach Co.

Ramsey reported he has been in communication with Firelands Electric Cooperative, which sent a crew here for a day to inspect the electrical distribution system since there is a proposal for the village to sell it. He reported the Co-op said the system is in surprisingly good order.

Beginning next month, all village facilities which have not been metered (or a number of years will be metered, so that the village has an idea of exactly what is being donated by the electric fund to the other funds.

Ramsey is to call Onto Power Co. and North Central Electric Cooperative to determine if they have an interest in the system. If the system is sold at the right price and the money invested, the interest can be used for the village's general fund, which does not produce enough to pay everyday costs, such as police protection.

The only other alternative would be an attempt to have the electorate pass a levy or institute an income tax.

Ferry Mc-Kenzie again appeared to ask help to open the alley so he can reach his property from East High street. It is obstructed by a grape arbor installed by neighbors. He told the council that he and adjoining property owners have had their land surveyed, and that they intend, Mc-Kown is to research the possibility of taking the problem to court.

Late registry accommodations set by PHS

High school pupils new to the district should report to the school to register on Monday through Aug. 18 from 9 a. m. to noon and to 3 p. m., Principal Richard L. Horton announced.

Orientation for incoming ninth graders will take place Aug. 29 at 9 a. m. Pupils will receive schedules and handbooks and be assigned to classrooms. Parents are welcome to attend the orientation.

Pupils in grades 10 through 12 will be notified when they may collect their class schedules.

Norwalk fair opens Monday, closes Aug. 19

Annual Huron county fair opens at the fairground south of Norwalk Monday.

Special attractions by the fair board include: Monday: Country Western show with the Country Cavaliers and Lynn Stevens, 7 p. m.

Tuesday: Tractor pull at 5:30 p. m., participants to be 16 or over to enter; junior king and queen selection, 9 p. m.

Wednesday: School teachers' challenge match, 8 p. m.; Obvaded by Harness Racing at 4:30 p. m.; draft horse pulling contests, 8 p. m.

Saturday: Pony pull, 9 a. m., harness racing at 2 p. m., demolition derby at 7:30 p. m.

When Tom Parnell introduces the Crossroads Gospel Group, the Singing Privett family and the Lancens.

Demolition derby will take place Monday at 7:30 p. m.

Fairhaven lies in Longview avenue. Best route: 2nd Street in Plymouth-Springmill road to Route 39, turn east to Trimble road, turn south to Longview avenue, turn west in Longview to parking area of fairgrounds.

Harvey Robinson, second from left, was the winner of this race of about five miles (east in East Main street to Towline road 111, thence north to Plymouth East road, west to North street and south in Portner street to the finish line).

Bagpipe outfit from Mansfield was judged best overall entry in second annual Firemen's Festival parade here Saturday.

Train entered by Lions club, which won second place at Shiloh on July 29, won first place here Saturday.

Dick Lions, driving, with Wayne H. Strine as passenger, was awarded the antique car trophy over his protests. His Buggatti is only a replica, not the real thing. But the judges didn't know that!

Shiloh Fire department auxiliary, with Mrs. Raymond Babcock of Plymouth, a member, aboard, was a vigorous competitor but didn't win a prize.

This family of cyclists hearkened back to days when Plymouth was younger and firemen drew their own wagon to the fire.

Cyclist hurt

A 22-year-old motorcyclist was taken to the intensive care unit of Mansfield General hospital Aug. 1 after he lost control of his vehicle in Townline Road 111, near Greenwich.

Charles Lasher's condition was listed as fair.

Jones named to succeed Hawk

Chester Jones, a farmer living in Hazel Brush road, was appointed in July to succeed James K. Hawk as trustee of Plymouth township.

Jones will serve the remainder of Hawk's four-year term, which expires Dec. 21, 1981.

Jones has served on the Richland County Soil Conservation board and the Farmers Home administration board.

New business incorporates here

Articles of Incorporation for B&M Transit, Inc., have been filed with the secretary of state. Officers are Richard A. Myers, Robert L. Bachrach and Richard E. Myers, having offices in Route 603, Plymouth.

McKown & Schaefer, attorneys, Shelby, filed the articles.

Village native dies at Columbus

A Plymouth native, Mrs. Clara B. Knee, 66, Shelby, died Thursday in University hospital, Columbus, of a long illness.

Born Clara Sinsinger, she was a member of First Lutheran church at Shelby, where she lived 40 years.

She is survived by a daughter, Myrna, now Mrs. Arthur Seaman, Shelby; four brothers, Kenneth Sinsinger, Huron; Wade Sinsinger and Willard Sinsinger, both of Willard; and Gerald Sinsinger, Shelby, two sisters, Mrs. John Funk, Willard, and Mrs. Earl Swander, Delhi, and three grandchildren.

The Revs. James McGaw and Donald Aiber conducted services at Shelby Monday at 10 a. m. Burial was in Oakland cemetery there.

Crash at Shiloh injures pair

Two young women were painfully injured July 31 when their car struck a service pole in Route 603 one mile east of Shiloh.

Patti Tippen, driver of the car, went to Willard Area hospital, and Kay Pittenger, her passenger, was taken by ambulance to Mansfield General hospital, the former with internal injuries, the latter with a fractured leg.

Driver charged

A 21-year-old Brooks court youth was summoned at Shelby Friday for failing to keep an assured clear distance near his car struck that of another at Broadway and East Smiley avenue.

Mary Collins' car collided with that of Carl D. Slone, which was parked. Damage exceeded $150, police said.

GOP chooses Martin's foe

A 57-year-old securities broker in Mansfield is the GOP's choice to vie for the post of Richland county commissioner against Dan Martin on Nov. 7.

David L. McGinty was chosen July 24 by the Republican Central committee.

He is office manager in Mansfield for Verco & Co. He is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

He is church school superintendent of First Alliance church, a member of the church board and a singer in the choir. He belongs to the Kiwanis club and BPOEiks.

For eight years he was a member of Mansfield Board of Education, two of them as its president.

He served over four years in the Army during World War II, both in enlisted ranks and as an officer, and saw duty in the Panama Canal zone and in Japan.

He is married to the former Lillian Art. They are the parents of three grown children, all married, two sons and a daughter.

Four others were considered before McGinty's name rose to the top. These were Ralph Hult, Carl Shaffer, Paul Baumberger and Mrs. Leo Preston. On the second ballot, McGinty was accorded 41 votes and Hult 28.

The selection was made necessary because incumbent commissioner Freeman Spank resigned to accept appointment as attorney, succeeding the veteran Norman L. Wolf, who retired.

Richland fair open; racing resumes today

Annual Richland county fair is in progress at Fairhaven in Mansfield. It opened Tuesday and continues through Monday.

Fair-mutual harness racing begins today at 7:30 p. m. and resumes tomorrow at 7:30 p. m.

Monday is Kids' day, when rides on the midway from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. will be 25 cents each.

Helen and Billy Scott, former stars of the Midwestern Hayride TV show, will perform on the midway platform today at 4, 6 and 9 p. m.

Tractor pull will take place Saturday at 1:30 p. m. for antique and modified tractors. County-wide tractor pull is slated for Saturday at 7:30 p. m.

Denzil Bandy and the Country Rock will play on the midway platform Saturday at 7 p. m.

Motorcycle racing is set for Sunday at 3 p. m. Gospel singing will begin Sunday at 7 p. m.

Demolition derby will take place Monday at 7:30 p. m.

Fairhaven lies in Longview avenue. Best route: 2nd Street in Plymouth-Springmill road to Route 39, turn east to Trimble road, turn south to Longview avenue, turn west in Longview to parking area of fairgrounds.

'73 alumnus weds Ashlander in church rite there

A 1973 alumnus of Plymouth High school, J. Wayne Blankenship was married July 12 in the United Presbyterian church, Ashland, to Miss Linda Jane McFarlin, a social worker with the Ohio Youth Commission in Columbus.

He is a teacher of business education in Shelby High school.

The Rev. Dr. Calvin Winder performed the evening ceremony.

Mark Gallant, organist; Tom Currier, guitarist; and Linda Soug, vocalist, performed traditional wedding music.

Timothy Nesbitt, Shiloh, ushered.

Mrs. McFarlin chose a light blue floor-length knit with raised waist and softly draped skirt.

It was accented by a short chiffon cape with narrow wedding ring collar and studded with rhinestones. She wore soft pink shaded silk roses and pale blue gypsophilla.

Mrs. Blankenship wore a yellow chiffon floor length gown with flowing attached cape, accented at the Empire waist with an insert of chiffon embroidered with pearls. She wore a wrist corsage of Tallman silk roses and apricot gypsophilla.

A reception took place in the BPOE club.

The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Thomas DeWalt, Shelby; Mrs. David Hildenbrand, Ashland, and the Misses Sharon and Marcia Osburn, Bloomington, cousins of the bride, were hostesses.

The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. McFarlin, Orr-ville, and her niece, Lisa Primrose, Cedar Rapids, Ia., registered guests.

The bride's paternal grandmother, Jeromesville, was an honored guest. The bridegroom's grandmothers, Mrs. Letha Blankenship and Mrs. Mary Frisby, were not able to attend.

The bride is an alumna of Ashland High school and of Findlay college. Son of the James O. Blankenship; Shiloh, the bridegroom is a graduate of Eastern Kentucky State university, Richmond, Ky.

Newsy notes . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lewis and their two children left Aug. 1 for their home in Phoenix, Ariz., after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Lewis.

Shari Einsel, Cincinnati, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don W. Einsel, Jr.

Mrs. Daniel Hockenberry was admitted Monday to Cleveland Clinic hospital for observation and possible surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wayne Blankenship

The bride, daughter of the Robert McFarlin, Ashland, was given in marriage by her parents. She was attired in a daron organza gown of white over bridal tulle, accented with Queen Ann neckline and long full sleeves. Silk Venise lace marked the neckline, the Empire bodice and the sleeves of the gown. The A-line skirt fell into a chapel-length train. Lace topped the hemline ruffle. A ribbon-length veil fell from a Venise Juliet cap.

She carried pink silk rosebuds, white carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath with trailing ivy, all tied with white and pink satin loops and streamers.

Miss Beth Lovering, Louisville, Ky., was maid of honor, wearing a gown of soft pink polyester knit with slightly gathered skirt and raised waistline. The softly gathered bodice was accented with Venise lace along the V-neckline and covered the front sheering strap. A chiffon caplet was caught at the front with Venise lace applique. She carried a hand bouquet of Better Times silk roses, pink silk gypsophilla, baby's breath and fern leaves.

Mrs. Carol Primrose, Cedar Rapids, Ia., was her sister's matron of honor, attired as the maid of honor.

Miss Kim Currier, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mrs. Jean Ryatt, Dayton, and Mrs. Richard Brinkman and Mrs. James Cris, both of Findlay, bridesmaids, were attired as the matron of honor. Their flowers were the same as hers.

David Ball, Kettering, was best man. Donald McFarlin, Orrville, Edward Phillips, Plymouth; Michael Adams, Shelby; Steven Baker, Shelby, and What of doggie bag, with food costs up?

By AUNT LIZ
With grocery stores fast becoming "out of bounds" and everyone is mumbering that it is really cheaper to eat out, I kind of wonder.

Just where does that great American institution which sprung up in the last 10 years or so -- the doggie bag -- stand?

Our very first experience with that little white bag came about with all sincerity.

We had gone to a restaurant newly taken over by people who had already established a reputation for beautiful food. There is a difference between good food and well-prepared food. Just add them together and they turn out to be purely beautiful.

We are at a small table in a corner lighted with one lone, not-too-large candle. The steak for two, which we had ordered, was across the table from me and I simply could not see it. When we had eaten all we could, you know who said "There's some left," so I said, "Let us take it home to Lulu," who was then our cocker.

She loved treats but hardly got any because we never had leftovers.

I brought the bag home, stashed it in the refrigerator, and the next day brought it out to give her a great treat.

I took one look and screamed, "It's our Sunday dinner!" And it was. Poor Lu got a little extra dog food that day.

We ended up slicing it thinly and making homemade mayonnaise and it was delicious cold.

SINCE THEN, I HAVE no qualms about asking to take any leftovers home. In fact, I have no pride at all, and even suggest that I will take other people's leftover steak bones home.

Why waste them? Restaurants really serve too much at times. It really does make me feel badly when I have not eaten all that is served.

As a little girl, it was "clean-up your plate before you get dessert."

But just how much from a restaurant dinner should you attempt to take home? One night I watched two couples -- they looked retired -- take everything which was not nailed down.

I fully expected them to stash the salt and pepper shakers away.

There have been restaurants we have eaten in which had the most attractive candleholders and could almost fit in a doggie bag. Somehow the line must be drawn, and it is almost zucchini and eggplant season. You can do so much with both.

Both can be used as the main part of lasagna in place of pasta. Slice them up, bread them, saute them, and you are ready to build up layers with meat sauce, white sauce and cheese.

Or you can simply slice them up, boil them until about tender, put them in a greased casserole, sprinkle elaborately with grated cheese and any other seasoning or herb you like, and stick them under the broiler. Don't forget to kind of dot it all with butter on the top. Heat until golden.

These can make a really good main dish.

Baker to go to Bluffton next month

Blane Baker has been accepted for admission and is planning to attend Bluffton college, Bluffton, as a freshman in September, announces Dr. Glenn Snyder, BC admissions director.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baker, 106 West Broadway. He was graduated in June by Plymouth High school, where he excelled in basketball.

Lewis to observe 30th anniversary

The Kennel Lewises, who live in Dinger road, Plymouth township, will mark their 30th wedding anniversary Aug. 16.

She is the former Martha Chapman. They were married in Maysville, Ky., by the Rev. H. K. Karl.

The Lewises are the parents of two sons and three daughters. These are Kenneth, Mrs. Esther Adkins, Mrs. Deborah Douglas and Paul, all of Shelby, and Diana, at home.

The Lewises own and operate Lewis Fruit market south of here.

LOCALS

George A. Carlier, Columbus, was a Saturday visitor of the A. L. Paddocks, Jr., 75 Plymouth street.

The Elwood Combes, Columbus, were weekend visitors of her mother, Mrs. D. B. Faust, 18 Plymouth street. Mrs. Combs is the former Vaughn d'Lee Faust.

The Franklin Holts, 223 Plymouth street, were hosts to the Holt family reunion July 30. Mrs. Berna Ray, Ashrabula, Mr. Holt's mother, was the honored guest among 141 attending.

Is this THE year for Big Red football squad?

Stroten letterwinners, including an all-conference back and a second team all-conference lineman, are among players seeking starting berths on Coach Mike McFarren's 1978 Plymouth eleven.

Yesterday was the first few day for contact work for schools playing their first game on Sept. 15. This will be the Big Red's final season in Johnny Appleseed conference play and it's evident there's a strong feeling among players that Plymouth must do well.

Among backs, McFarren has Mike Measor, everybody's choice for all-league running back last season, when he ripped off over 1,000 yards rushing; John Ross, both a runner and a punter; Jim Wallace and Mike Berberick, who may succeed Tom Miller as the Red quarterback; Terry Taah showed well as defensive back in 1977. McFarren needs to replace Marry McKenzie, All-league selection who graduated.

Up front, the redheaded mentor has the Reo brothers, Gary and Greg; Rod Dye, Dave Brooks, Gary Holt, Mark Lewis, Barry Tuttle and Mike Wheeler with a full year of experience under their belts. Lewis came on so well in his first year that coaches in the league assigned him a second team slot when they chose the all-conference teams.

Other letterwinners are Gary King, Doug Miller and Jim Robinson.

Up from the reserve team are Dave Beck, Gary Blankenship, Jeff Barrer, Gary Holt, Kevin Kama, Tim Keene and Joseph Miller.

Plymouth's schedule: Sept. 1, Seneca East, here; 8, South Central, here; 15, Hopewell-Loudon, here; 23, Lucas, here; 29, Danville, here; Oct. 6, Ontario, here; 13, Clear Fork, here;

20, Lexington, here; 27, Loudonville, there; Nov. 3, Crestview, there.

Adams thrice winner

Steve Adams proved himself Plymouth's premier bicycle racer here Saturday.

In every category open to him, he placed first.

He won the men's 10-speed bicycle race of five miles in 13 minutes 6 seconds, Larry Kennard was second and Mike McClain third.

He won the men's five speed bicycle race and the men's three speed bicycle event.

Other results:
Ladies' 10-speed race, Cheryl Beard, 16 minutes 57 seconds;
Boys' 10-speed race, Harvey Robinson, first; Randy Neeley, second; Charles Ridenour, third; 14 minute 7 seconds;
Girls' 10-speed race, Jamie Brooks, 18 minutes 47 seconds;

Boys' five speed race, Mike McKenzie, first; Ron Shepherd, second; Glenn Baugh, third, 16 minutes 47 seconds;
Boys' three speed race, Richard Hopkins, 16 minutes 19 seconds;
Boys' one speed race, Dennis Wadsworth, first; Mark Castle, second; Jeff Redden, third, 18 minutes 19 seconds.

Police arrest park vandal

Plymouth police apprehended David Branch, Shelby, driving through the grassy areas of Mary Fate park in such a manner that considerable work will be necessary to repair the damage.

He will appear in mayor's court Monday on a charge of malicious destruction of property.

Also to appear in the same court are Raymond Vogel, Willard, charged with indecent exposure; Randall Howard, reckless operation; Sharon Sponseller, Shelby, speeding; Arnulfo Lazvani, Willard, speeding; David King, Shelby, operating an unsafe vehicle; William Newsome, reckless operation; Roger D. Schriver, Willard, speeding and reckless operation; Randy Justice, speeding.

Over the weekend the police also recovered two stolen bicycles belonging to Michele Hamms and Kenneth King. One was found in the weeds near Weber stadium and the other also in weeds near Mary Fate swimming pool.

During the Firemen's festival the police worked a total of 99 extra hours, of which they donated 35 hours to the fire department.

Stella Amburgy succumbs at 69

Sister of Mrs. Gorman Turner, Plymouth route 1, Miss Stella Amburgy, 69, Greenwich, died Saturday afternoon in Cleveland Clinic hospital of a lengthy illness.

Born in Hueysville, Ky., she lived in or near Greenwich for 25 years. She was a member of Guinea Corners Church of God.

She is also survived by her father, John, with whom she lived; two sisters, Mrs. Marie Horne, Crestline, and Mrs. Alma Kennard, Haines City, Fla., and three brothers, Harold and Ralph Amburgy, both of Greenwich, and Arnold Amburgy, New London.

The Rev. Carlos Dyer conducted services from the church Tuesday at 2 p. m. Burial was in Maple Grove cemetery, New Haven township.

parents for the month. They will return to Germany for a three year tour of duty at Bad Kreuznach.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Mellott were hosts at a small gathering Saturday night to celebrate their 25th anniversary. Their grandchildren, Amy and Brandie Lahmon, left Friday for their home in Kansas City, Kan., after a month's visit with their father, Richard Lahmon.

Mrs. Luther R. Fetters, Youngtown, Ariz., is home after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Hockenberry, Plymouth; her son and daughter-in-law, the F. William Fetterses, M. Vernon, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Donald E. Fetters, Columbus.

A 15-year-old Plymouth girl is one of two Richland counties attending a 4-H conservation camp in Licking county this week on a scholarship.

She is Barbara Kensingner, daughter of the Benjamin Kensingers, who won the $4 award from the Richland County Soil and Water Conservation board of supervisors.

Contributions in respect to Luther R. Fetters have been received by Plymouth Branch Library memorial fund from Mrs. Ray Dintinger and her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Hughes, Rocky River.

The Michael Reddens are here visiting their

CARD OF THANKS
We would like to thank this opportunity to take all of you who helped in any way to make our Firemen's Festival a success. Without your active participation we never would have had the success that we did. A special thank you to firehouse neighbors for your patience and understanding if we caused you any inconvenience. Thanks again to each and every one of you for your help and your patronage. Everything was very much appreciated. Plymouth Volunteer Firemen's Association Plymouth Fire Ladies 10c

If Red Cross hadn't trained young Lars Ackles in lifesaving techniques, last summer Adam Gauthier just might have ended up one more drowning statistic. (Adam's alive and well today, thank you, and in the first grade in Manitowish, Wisconsin.)

We're not asking for medals (Lars is the one who deserves those). But we do need your continued support. Help us. Because the things we do off duty, thank you, in your own neighborhood. And across America. And the world.

Adam Gauthier counted on us.

We're counting on you.

Red Cross. The Good Neighbor.

Older homes with the comforts for a family and the elegance for entertaining. Features four bedrooms, living room, dining room, den, large kitchen and 1 1/2 baths, basement and out buildings. Plymouth.

Through our All Points Referral Service we can help you find a home all across our country and at least 23 locations outside the U. S. A.

Heritage, perhaps, with modern conveniences and your own mini forest. Home has three bedrooms, living room, dining room, kitchen and rec room with fireplace. Basement has a space for every member of the family -- summer kitchen, sewing area, work shop, etc., northeast of Plymouth.
