

New school

New Mennonite private school goes up at Free and Wells roads, Bloominggrove township, about eight miles east of here, to house about 30 pupils to be taken from public school enrollment.

Drop in enrollment foreseen because of new private school

Construction by Mennonites of a private school at Free and Wells roads about eight miles east of here will reduce enrollment in public schools by about 30 pupils, Supt. John Fazzini told Plymouth Board of Education Monday night.

He asked for and got authority to transfer some fifth graders from Plymouth Elementary school to Shiloh Elementary school. There are 85 pupils enrolled in that grade, 37 at Shiloh and 48 here. There are 100 pupils in the sixth grade.

To avoid a split session of fifth and sixth graders at Shiloh, some fifth graders assigned here will be reassigned to Shiloh.

The board went into executive session to discuss demands of Plymouth Education association for its next contract.

Methodists set picnic; CWU to fete clergy

Plymouth and Shiloh United Methodist churches will stage their annual picnic today at 5:30 p. m. in Mary Fato park.

Those attending should bring their own table service and their favorite covered dishes.

Hot and cold beverages will be provided by the United Methodist Women of the churches.

Dinner will be served around 6 p. m. Under the direction of Robert A. Lewis and G. Deming Seymour, lay leaders of the churches, plans have been made for special fun activities for all ages after the meal.

A special glass bottle filled with gumdrop candies will be provided for all to guess how many gumdrops it contains. The person guessing the closest or exact number will win a prize. Prizes will also be given to winners of other games or activities. In case of inclement weather, the picnic will be in the Scout hut near the tennis courts.

Church Women United of Plymouth and Shiloh will meet for a picnic dinner at the park tomorrow at 6:30 p. m. Members of this organization are invited to bring their families, table service, covered dishes and beverages. Special guests for this picnic will be the recently arrived ministers of First United Presbyterian church, the Rev. Julian Taggart, the Rev. Volly Atkins, the Rev. Hope Lutheran in Shiloh; and the Rev. Ronald Atkins, pastor of First Evangelical Lutheran church.

Plymouth United Methodist Women will meet Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. for a picnic-meeting at the home of Mrs. Ray Dinninger, Sandusky street. The meeting date for this organization will be provided by the United Methodist Women of the churches.

Richard Roll was treated early Thursday morning in Willard Area hospital for a dog bite.

He was a member of the Plymouth ambulance service which had been requested by the state highway patrol to aid in investigating a one-car collision in Route 598.

It was thought at the time that the driver was pinned under the car, but it was found that he had disappeared. The Willard police department was then asked to bring one of its police dogs to aid in finding the driver.

The dog bit Roll's leg.

The other driver, Wendie Debolec, 23, Mansfield, was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way on a left turn.

Miss Debolec, her passenger, Gerald L. Smith, 26, Mansfield, and Mrs. Pritchard were taken to the hospital but none was admitted.

Severe mechanical difficulties beset the newspaper plant from Friday through Tuesday, resulting in a tardy publication as well as one that is less complete than what the editor would prefer.

It is hoped these difficulties have been permanently overcome. Meanwhile, the indulgence of the reader is appreciated.

Parrotman Frank Dodge on official police duty was driving south in Ganges Five Points road and his car driven by Deborah K. Kinsel, Mansfield route 1.

The Kissel car was going northward and made a left hand turn in front of the cruiser.

She was summoned for failure to yield the right-of-way.

The cruiser was replaced Monday by Police Chief W. Robert Bee, who purchased a used 1976 Plymouth from the state highway patrol from proceeds from the insurance settlement.

Her former pastor, the Rev. Robert Snyder, conducted services yesterday at 1:30 p. m. from the church. Burial was in Greenlawn cemetery here.

Plymouth's oldest family business changed hands this week.

For the first time in this century there will be none of the Webber family connected with Webber's Rexall store.

Thomas J. Webber, the third generation to own and operate the business, sold it to Thomas and Wanda Johnson of New Washington. They are now operating the business.

Thomas J. Webber was called home from Wittenberg college at Springfield in 1931 by his mother, the late Mrs. Karl Webber, because his father died suddenly. Karl Webber succeeded his father, the first Thomas J. Webber, in ownership of the business.

The younger Webber retired about a year ago for reasons of ill health. Since then, his wife, Ailene, has been managing the business.

The score deals in patent medicines and pharmaceuticals that may be sold without prescription, toilet and personal hygiene items, greeting cards, cameras and photographic supplies, candies, tobacco, and sundries.

This transaction included all stock and furnishings of the business but not the building, which is owned by Robert L. McIntire.

Webber's Rexall store changed hands this week for first time in this century. New owners are the Thomas Johnsons, New Washington. Thomas J. Webber, who succeeded his late father, Karl, in 1931, ended with the sale 47 years as a merchant on the Square.

Prices of lunches for elementary pupils were advanced five cents to 55 cents, of high school pupils five cents to 65 cents, of adults five cents to 91. Price of milk to all pupils will remain seven cents a half pint. That for adults was advanced to 15 cents.

Mr. Charles Hopkins, nee Janeane Lunningham, was a substitute instructor for several years, resigned to become vocal music teacher in Perkins High school near Sandusky.

She will be replaced by Miss Kathy L. Knowles, Medina, a 1977 alumna of University of Akron with an impressive record of proficiency with several wind instruments, including the trumpet and English horn.

She has been a substitute teacher in Medina, Cloverleaf, Copley-Fairlawn and Brunswick schools.

John Jeffrey Conklin is the new instrumental music teacher. A 1974 graduate of Ashland college, he obtained music certification there in 1976. Since January of that year he has been instrumental music teacher in Mapleton schools.

A leave of absence for health reasons was accorded Carolyn Seaman, cook in Shiloh cafeteria.

Richland County Council of Churches was accorded for another year permission to use classrooms for teaching of Bible classes during the session Aug. 23, when D. James Crawfish, the consulting architect, will meet with the board. Estimated cost is about $70,000.

Dennis McGinnis was hired as full-time bus driver. Mrs. Elmer Prater and Dan Hamrichous were engaged to drive kindergarten routes.

A diploma was authorized for Matthew Crane, who completed requirements for graduation during the summer.

Donna Janovich, elementary art teacher, was appointed girls' volleyball coach.

Pupil fee schedule was retained. Prices of workbooks have advanced, Supt. John Fazzini said, and a new price list was approved.

Donald M. Echebarger was named principal delegate and Mrs. Roger Pugh alternate to the annual business meeting of the Ohio School Boards association at Columbus Nov. 13.

A two day workshop for teachers participating in the Title IV-C federal mathematic program will be conducted. Pay of $30 a day was authorized for Paula Kessler, Barbara McBride, Michelle Dawson, Ethel Briggs and Doris Chandler. Frank Spanga will be paid $125 as consultant.

Central Plastic, Inc., Williamsport, and the Shelby Manufacturing Co., Sidney, were negligent in not testing the screw conveyor machine and failed to warn him of the danger involved in using the machine.

His attorney is Stanley M. Chesley, Cincinnati.

Charles Lazar, 82 Park avenue, alleges that

Plans to remodel Plymouth Elementary school to prevent loss of heat were discussed and will be further examined in special session Aug. 23, when D. James Crawfish, the consulting architect, will meet with the board.

Claiming 75 per cent of the 70 office employees of Plymouth Locomotive Works, Inc., as petitioners to the National Labor Relations board for authority to organize an independent union, Councilman Ervin Howard has forwarded to NLRB for verification that request.

He is the organizer of the employees.

Howard is a timekeeper in the factory, which he joined in 1971.

Howard is quoted as saying that the new executive vice-president, William Sturman, who joined Plymouth Locomotive Works, Inc., in October, 1977, has arbitrarily taken away fringe benefits from office employees. Howard claims these employees received no Christmas bonus in 1977 and have not been accorded a cost of living increase.

Howard says the office personnel chose to organize a local, independent union because national unions have higher dues. Management has so far made no comment.

Minister seeks state board post

The Rev. George L. Lee, 39, pastor of the United Methodist church in Loudonville, has filed with the board of elections in Richland county as a candidate for the 17th Congressional district seat on the Ohio Board of Education.

Lee, a native of Newark, lived most of his life in the Mansfield-Ontario area before entering the ministry in 1966. He has served the Newville Methodist church, the Gallon circuit, United Methodist churches and the Ashley United Methodist church before coming to Loudonville in 1977.

She and her late husband, Harry, lived in Route 188 south of here for many years.

Born in Tirol July 6, 1894, she lived her entire life in or near there. She started teaching in 1914 in Leibert, school and later taught in Shelby schools for a total of 21 years. She did substitute teaching for 20 years after that.

Mrs. Griffith was a member of First United Methodist church at Shelby, of the Richland County Retired Teachers association and of Hazel Grove Ladies Aid.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Donna Michener and Mrs. Ida Leibert, both of Shelby; two grandchildren, Mrs. Lynne Taylor and Gregory Griffith, both of Shelby. A son, Edwin, died earlier.

Her former pastor, the Rev. Robert Snyder, conducted services yesterday at 1:30 p. m. from the church. Burial was in Greenlawn cemetery here.

Some $2 notes appreciated in value because of stamps

By AUNT LIZ
Remember a couple of years ago? April 13, 1976, to be exact. Everyone was rushing to a bank to get $2 notes, then rushing to the post office to have 13 cents worth of postage attached to the note.

Some invested some healthy sums that day, with the idea they were stashed away for grandchildren and would be worth a great deal more than the $2.13 investment.

Some will be and some not. Those of you who have such bills tucked away should be sure they are well protected. And take a good look at them.

If the stamps have been neatly placed on the bill and are neatly cancelled, then you have something. It also depends on which stamps were used.

Because the $2 note had Jefferson on it, those with Jefferson stamps, which one post office we knew of used (one 10-cent stamp and three penny ones) should really be a bonanza 50 years from now. So hang in there. It's fun.

What isn't so much fun are the loud noises that wake you up before your alarm goes off.

These strange sounds come from certain parts on a car or a motorcycle. Since we live in a status-oriented society, the louder the noise you can make within your peer or age group, the more respect you have.

Each age group has its own status symbols: the young the noise, and the older ones, the kind of vehicle.

Somewhere I read this week about a gal who went to Germany on a vacation and rented a real little car of some kind. One day she was whipping down an autobahn -- they have no speed limits there -- when she passed a large Mercedes. The driver of it immediately speeded up and tail gated her for a distance until they came to the next village, where she stopped. So did the car behind her. She got out of her car, and the driver of the Mercedes also got out. He walked up to her, slapped her in the face, and said "Never should THAT car have passed a Mercedes."

There somehow comes a time when one becomes too old to bother with status in any way. But it is reassuring to know that little cars have as much power as big ones, but if one of ours ever made those terrible loud noises, I would consider it was falling apart and rush it off to be fixed. Since it is not quite time to start canning like

Sutliff quits after 35 years

After 35 years of service, Charles Sutliff has retired from the Chassie System on full disability.

He and his wife, Catherine, reside at 222 Riggs street.

What does he plan to do? "As soon as I feel somewhat better from my fourth heart attack, I would like to move to Hawaii. But my wife prefers Florida. And since she's been the boss for almost 30 years, she'll probably win."

Sutliff was in the Army two years and was wounded in Korea. He was boarding a train at the 38th parallel when "I felt like a bee stinging me, it really wasn't much."

He was only 14 when he shipped out to the old Baltimore & Ohio railroad. "The old fellows kind of resented us but they got used to us because all the rest of the men were in the military service."

He always kept a strict line between official and social contacts with those higher. In the pecking order than he. I respected those in official capacity and always got along with them, but I wouldn't talk to them if I passed them on the street."

Shuty wins

Steve Shuty won the first flight competition in the Crawford County Golf association for 1978 medal play tournament.

Level Off Your Gas Bills For Easier Payments!

This is the way most people use gas during the year.

But here is the way you can pay for it.

It's Easy to Budget Your Gas Bill... if you know what it will be each month. Take advantage of our Budget Payment Plan... it costs you nothing and you pay only for the gas you use each year.

August is Start Up Month. You enroll simply by paying the budget amount shown on the bill. We review your account at the end of the heating season and bring you into line by adjusting the monthly payment if necessary. The bill rendered for the twelfth month balances out your actual usage with the gas you have paid for; so it might be higher or lower than the normal budget amount.

For Easier Gas Bill Payments, Join the Budget Payment Plan.
