Merry Christmas! Village's 164th Christmas celebration begins Sunday

Plymouth's 164th Christmas observance will begin Sunday when Christians commence their traditional observance to the birth of their savior.

Lutherans got an early start Sunday when the church school staged its annual program. The traditional crèche this year included a live lamb.

Frank C. Fenner and Mrs. Elton A. Rboertson contributed the altar flowers Sunday, the latter in memory of her husband. Amy Root celebrated her fifth birthday anniversary by giving the candle.

A mass will be said Christmas eve at 10 p.m. in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church.

The special children's mass will proceed it at 8 p.m. Christmas day mass will be at 10:15 a.m.

Confessions will be heard Saturday from 9:30 until 10:30 a.m. and on Monday from 11 a.m. until noon.

The Voice of The Advertiser -
The Christmas story

In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled.

This was the first enrollment, when Quirinius was governor of Syria.

And all went to be enrolled, each to his own city.

And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child.

And while they were there, the time came for her to be delivered.

And she gave birth to her first-born son and wrapped him in swaddling cloths, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

And in that region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with fear.

And the angel said to them, "Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

And this will be a sign for you: you will find a babe wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger."

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying,

"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men with whom he is pleased."

From the Gospel according to St. Luke, second, chapter, Revised Standard Version of the Holy Bible.

On Christmas eve the church will have its candlelight service at 11 p.m.

First Evangelical Lutheran church will also have a candlelight service Monday a 11 p.m.

PEA fears board will turn down compromise

Christmas won't be so merry this year, Plymouth Local School district teachers imply in their latest announcement.

Over signature of Suzanne Farrar, chairman of its negotiation committee, Plymouth Education association charges the board of education now intends to reject "all or part of the impasse panel's recommendation. The teachers met again Dec. 12 to reaffirm their ratification of the entire package."

Impasse was declared in June.

On Nov. 6, the teachers ratified the impasse panel's recommendation.

Miss Farrar's announcement concludes thus: "The teachers also expressed great concern that this problem be resolved as soon as possible without the need of drastic action. They have been working without a renewed contract since July 1, 1979."

Although PEA asked for board to meet with it in executive session Tuesday night, Supt John Fazzini told it the board's negotiation team would appear but not the entire board.

The board is represented by Douglas Stagg, administrative assistant; Edward M. Kinsel, principal at Shiloh, and a representative of the Ohio School Boards association.

PEA is represented by Miss Farrar, Douglas A. Dickson and Charles Willis, a negotiator for Ohio Education association.

The board met yesterday at 4:30 p.m. in executive session to discuss the outcome of Tuesday's parley.

Royal Trauger succumbs at 79 at Dayton

Royal Trauger, 79, who lived above Broadway market until recently, died Dec. 18 in Dayton Veterans' hospital.

He was a member of the Class of 1918, Plymouth High school.

In his youth, he served in the Navy, including considerable time in the Far East.

He is survived by a son, William, Kettering; a daughter, Sandra, now Mrs. Willis Shively, Berlin Hts.; a brother, Harry, Plymouth; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Ronald Atkins, First Evangelical Lutheran church, conducted graveside services in Greenlawn cemetery Friday at 1 p.m.

Firemen set deadline to restore truck fund

Plymouth Firefighters association, Inc. took positive action Monday by handing Councilmen Mrs. Allan Raymond, Michael Taylor, Ervin and David Howard and Mayor Elizabeth G. Paddock a formal letter demanding the fire department's reserve funds be replaced by Feb. 29.

The funds exist on paper but not in the village's bank account, from which checks are written for the several trucks, and most are over drawn.

The firemen said they campaigned for a three mill levy that was to be put aside for the future purchase of a pumper.

At the latest council meeting, Fire Chief Wayne E. Strine threatened legal action against the village to have the money produced.

Richard A. Roll and Terry A. Hopkins, president and secretary, respectively, of the association, said in their letter they supported his action but felt setting the February date is a fair way of handling the problem to give the council time to consider what action it would take.

Clerk Raymond L. Brooks was instructed to open a new savings account to deposit $4,684.35 that was received Dec. 10 for the pumper levy.

Strine inquired if the village could produce matching funds if he applied again for the grant through the Department of Natural Resources, which can fund rural fire departments.

Taylor said the committee will review his request and the new council could then act upon it.

The mayor read a letter from the Huron county commissioners, Thomas W. Carabin, Maurice B. Smith and Roy F. Palm, in which they said if Crawford, Wyandot and Seneca counties drop out of the North Star Councils of Governments, Huron county could not fund it alone.

The council replaced the Huron County Regional Planning commission several years ago when the regional concept was thought to produce more federal and state funding because of a larger area.

Mrs. Paddock suggested that Plymouth drop out of the council and also from the Richland County Planning Commission and take the money in its annual dues and put it toward hiring a nearby engineering firm that would be more likely to help the village in receiving grants.

Taylor agreed about dropping out of North Star, but James C. Root, village administrator, suggested the two of them attend a dinner meeting in Willard tonight before a decision is reached.

Root told the four council members who were present (Councilmen G. Thomas Moore and Edward O. Ramsey were absent) the village's salt supply was running probably just enough for three more snowfalls. He is hopeful a new supply will be forthcoming shortly.

New plates to cost $21.50 or $26.50!

Effective Jan. 2, owners of motor vehicles whose surnames begin with the letters A and B may purchase 1980 license tags and stickers.

Residents of Huron county will pay $26.50 for passenger cars, $16.50 for a travel trailer, $41.50 for a motor home, $41.50 for non-commercial trucks, $16.50 for a motorcycle.

Residents of Richland county will pay $5 less for each category.

Some owners wishing to retain a particular license tag number will have another opportunity to do so. Vehicle owners assigned to March through December - those whose surnames begin with the letters E through Z may request retention of a particular tag until Jan. 15.

Owners who request field review tags will be required to pay an additional $10, or $30.50 if resident in Richland county; $35.50 if resident in Richland county.

Deputy registrar at Willard, with offices at 115 Myrtle avenue, will be open Mondays from 1 to 8 p.m., Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., other days save Sundays from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

James Neeley is again hospitalized and most likely will not be able to return to work. His sick leave time has run out. Root said investigation is being made to see if he can receive disability benefits under the Public Employees Retirement System.

The council finally agreed that Root and Brooks should select village bills they feel should be paid immediately from what funds are available and that Ervin Howard and Mrs. Raymond be authorized to sign them. At first Mrs. Raymond did not want

Villager injured at work

A 55 year old villager, formerly village administrator, was severely injured at Greenwich, where he is employed, Dec. 18.

Thomas F. Baker, who lives at Bell and West High streets, has a leg broken in two places and a severe gash on his head as a result of a bizarre accident in Main street east of the rail crossing.

Baker and his son, Wayne, also a village employee, at Greenwich, were strung a cable across Main street. The younger Baker was above in the bucket truck A Ernest Clark, Findlay, snagged the steel cable, pulling from the younger Baker's hands. The cable entangled the legs of the elder Baker and he was pulled under the rig. The rear wheels passed over his legs. The rig was not loaded.

Baker was taken by ambulance to Fisher-Titus Memorial hospital, Norwalk. His leg was broken, but he was released Tuesday evening.

Lucas whips Plymouth in first BVC game ever

Lucas administered an 87 to 58 shelling of Plymouth in its first Blackfoot Valley conference game ever on the new (to Plymouth, at least) Cub floor Friday night. Plymouth never was a factor. The Cubs took an early lead and steadily improved upon it. After eight minutes they were ahead by 14 at 24 to 10.

The Big Red cut the lead to 10 at the half. Plymouth has not been a third quarter team all season and this one was no exception. Lucas produced 23 points, Plymouth only 13. From there it was all downhill for the Cubs.

What broke Plymouth's back early in the game was the outstanding performance of Robin Boone, the Cubs' star. He scored 12 points in the first period, all on field goals, which was half of the Lucas total in that quarter.

Lucas outshot the Big Red in the early stages of the game and only when the second line players were on the floor did the Cubs falter on their shooting. Overall, Lucas scored with 35 of 80 tries for field goal, including a splendid 11-for-19 record in the first eight minutes. The Cubs bagged 17 of 25 free throws.

For its part, Plymouth didn't get so many shots, only 56. It missed 10 of 22 free throws. Why didn't Plymouth get so many shots?

Mostly because it was making so many mistakes. The Big Red was charged with 28 turnovers, whereas Lucas committed only 15 mistakes. Boone was game high scorer with 25 points, 22 of them on field goals. Rob Smith had 16, Rick Hardin and Dan McGugin 13 each.

For the Big Red, Randy Nesley had what was for him a poor night. He scored 16 points, well below his average for the season. He tried for field goal 18 times and converted six. He made half of eight free throws.

Brad Postema, a promising 10th grader, broke into double figures with 14. Al told, eight Plymouth players scored.

Plymouth's defense did not work so well - it stayed in a 3-2 and a 2-3 zone most of the night - and it could not generate any offense because it made too many turnovers.

Davis wins three matches in tourney

One of two Plymouth alumni to play varsity tennis at the college level, Robert M. Davis is back from New York, N. Y., with an impressive result. He competed with the University of Akron team in a tourney at Concordia college, where the opposition was the host school, Providence college, University of Laval, Quebec, Canada, and McGill university, Montreal, Canada.

Akron finished second to Concordia. Davis won three matches and lost one. Winners: over Providence, 6-3, 6-4; over Laval, 6-1, 6-0; over Concordia, 6-1, 6-1. Loser to McGill, 7-6, 6-4.

Tenth grader Brad Postema came up through the ranks, completely home grown. His father played at New Haven. He played midget ball, then junior high and freshman basketball. Among the three tall members of the squad at six feet two, he's a good rebounder and excellent free throw shooter. He scored 14 at Lucas and will be looking for more against Buckeye Central here tomorrow and Danbury here Saturday.

(A) In the taxation of income which is subject to taxation by the provisions of this Ordinance, if the books and records of a taxpayer conducting a business or profession both within and without the boundaries of the Village of Plymouth shall disclose with reasonable accuracy the amount of net profit is attributable to that part of the business or profession conducted within the boundaries of the Village, then only such portion shall be considered as having a taxable situs in the Village of Plymouth for purposes of income taxation. In the absence of such books and records, the net profit from a business or profession conducted both within and without the boundaries of the Village shall be considered as having a taxable situs in the Village of Plymouth for purposes of income taxation in the same proportion as the average ratio of:

As used in the preceding paragraph, real property shall include property rented or leased by the taxpayer and the value for such property shall be determined by multiplying the annual rental thereon by eight.

Mince meat makes good holiday fare

By AUNT LIZ
Remember way back in high school when you had to read a bunch of poetry you thought was for the birds? Well, one Englishman, and I really think it was Lord Tennyson — if I am wrong which I can be after all these years, perhaps all the English teachers will let me know — said something which is so true.
If I can remember it correctly, it goes something like this, "In the spring, a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love."
Spring is the season for such things, but when the leaves start to fall, there is a good blast of cold wind, my thoughts go directly to mince meat.

It is that time of the year. You can do so much with one jar of the prepared stuff. If you are that ambitious, make your own, which I tried just once. It was a mess and never again. I trust our friendly grocer to stock a nice brand.
Another thing, as far as pies go, you can buy prepared crust, or make your own from your favorite lard recipe, and this I recommend, because if you are making something really good, then go all the way.
However you do the crust, it must be baked as a single crust first. Once that is done, spread a cup and a half of mince meat over the bottom. Meanwhile have three eggs beaten with a half cup of sugar and a fourth of a teaspoon of salt. Carefully and slowly blend in one and three quarters cups of milk which has been scalded and one teaspoon of vanilla.

Pour this custard mixture over the mince meat and sprinkle a little nutmeg on the top.
Bake at 350 degrees for about an hour until the custard is set.
Another version of a pie is to line a pan with the crust, fill it with two cups of mince meat mixed with one and a half cups of unsweetened apple sauce and a half cup of drained crushed pie apple.

If you are capable of creating a nice lattice topping, do it, otherwise you can simply put a top crust on and poke a bunch of holes in it.
There is nothing like cookies made with mince meat. And they are so simple. Mix up a fourth of a cup of butter with half cup of brown sugar, cream well, throw in an egg and a cup of mince meat. Then slowly stir in a cup and a fourth of flour mixed with two teaspoons of baking powder.
Drop from a spoon on a greased cookie sheet and bake at 400 for about 10 to 15 minutes.
They can be prettied up with a small slice of colored cherries on the top.
Mince meat actually does, not have to have a meat base. This you can brew up easily and will make one pie.

Get out your food chopper — the contra blade-throw in a bowl a cup of seeded raisins, three tart apples that are cored and cut (leave the skins on, they do no hurt and save time), a half orange and a fourth of a lemon also with the skins, but do see that the seeds are removed.
Once this is all properly ground up, add a half cup of cider, heat it all to the boiling point and simmer for 10 minutes.
Then add a cup of brown sugar (use the dark), a half teaspoon of salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and powdered cloves.
Put it all together and simmer another 10 minutes. Then you are ready to put it all in a crust and bake it.
Holiday cooking this year is going to be a little on the skimpy side for most of us.

Have you looked at the price of raisins lately or spices?

How to make a holiday pillow

By AUNT LIZ
If you are all ready for the holidays, everything under control, bought and wrapped and you still feel a little frustrated and feel you should do a little more, this is a recipe which can really be given as a little extra on Christmas Eve for some little head to rest on.

Rush out and buy a half yard of what you like that looks like the holiday, but this really can work for other seasons.

You will need three yards of ribbon to match up in a quarter inch width and some polyester stuffing. If it is not to be used for an honest-to-goodness pillow, which it is meant to be, but a wall hanging which will look great, buy a smallish plastic ring.

Check your threads, you will need those too.

Follow the illustration and draw the pattern on a large piece of paper. Ex-grocery bags are great for this.

Pin the pattern to a double thickness of the material, inside out, and when you cut leave a nice quarter inch around it all for the seams. Stitch it up, turn inside out, but please remember to leave an opening for the stuffing. Stuff and slip-stitch that opening.

Take your ribbon and make about 15 bows; each will take about seven inches.

Sew them as artistically as you can on the tree, going through all the thicknesses of it.

If you want to hang it, sew the ring on the back of the top.

For a young wife who really wants to decorate her walls, this could be a real long-time project. Add to them each year as decorative hangings. They would be effective, but I like the idea of a small head dreaming away on Christmas Eve of what the morning will bring.

There cannot be one of us alive who can't remember what a joy Christmas mornings were when we saw what Santa Claus had brought during the night. Even though we really knew that Santa was having a little help from our families. For two years I faked up a real belief in it all just to keep my parents happy.

I am sure you all do it, too, but we always left a nice drink for Santa and a couple of cookies, so he could refresh himself.

Over the few years we did this, we made a great discovery. Santa really preferred Scotch and water to milk, but so help me, he did get milk some years.

And what he really relished was date pinwheels. Maybe not so much as Mrs. Claus did. I love them.

They do take time to make, but once you get them together and rolled up, they can be stashed in the refrigerator to chill for a day or two, then you can slice them off and bake away with no fuss.

Stitch it up, turn inside out, but please remember to leave an opening for the stuffing. Stuff and slip-stitch that opening.

Take your ribbon and make about 15 bows; each will take about seven inches.

Sew them as artistically as you can on the tree, going through all the thicknesses of it.

If you want to hang it, sew the ring on the back of the top.

For a young wife who really wants to decorate her walls, this could be a real long-time project. Add to them each year as decorative hangings. They would be dark brown sugar (it adds a little more color than the light).

Beat an-egg and add it, plus a teaspoon of vanilla (and if you know a kind friend who has brought real vanilla back from Mexico, you have it made). It is the real stuff, so use a little less.

Chill the dough, bring it out and roll into a rectangular shape on a floured board, match.

Spread the top with the date goop, roll up the long way. Slash away so it really chills, then you can slice at your convenience.

They should bake at 375 degrees for less than 15 minutes, keep looking.

When you take them out of the pan with a spatula, they will seem very soft, but they sure as heck harden up.

The Santa who gets a couple of these to duck in really cold milk has it made. As a long-time Mrs. Claus, I can say this is about the tastiest way to much a few.

The illustration above shows the sewer what and how to cut to make this handy attractive Yuletide pillow. Directions as to procedure are set forth by Aunt Liz above.

Newsy notes...

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Garrett will be hosts to his mother, Mrs. Thomas Garrett, for Christmas dinner. On Christmas eve they will have guests of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elhamon Smith, Willard.

Hayesville, and the Garry Coles, Tro, will be holiday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Cole, Shelby.

Mrs. Charles Woodmansee will be dinner guests on Christmas day of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodmansee, Jr., Crestline.

Pupils say 'Christmas is special time'

Christmas is a very special day, because it's Christ's day of birth. Christmas is special also because people are together for Christmas. I've always been looking forward to Christmas day. I like to be with my family for Christmas. But most of all I like to wrap, and look at the presents under the tree. A lot of people make Christmas cookies. My mother said we'll make them this Christmas. This year I want to make a manger and make a small model of Christ, and lay him in a tiny manger. This year my family and I are planning to have a nice quiet Christmas at home. Lavonne Branham

Dear Santa Claus, I want a real horse, a doll, a teddy bear, a tape recorder and a ring for Christmas. Your friend, Rhonda McDougall

Dear Santa Claus, I want a guitar, a Super Star 2000, a record player, records, and Barbie doll, Baby Alive, a Teddy Bear and a tape player. Samantha Sexton

Dear Santa, I would like to get a Darcy doll and a Creepy Crawlers. And a baton and a Barbie doll. Your friend, Jamey Branham

What Christmas means to me

Christmas means to have fun. And to love others. To give to others. And to give thanks for God.

Christian R. Shepherd

It means to be thankful for the food we have. And to think of others. To think of God. And to be glad you got presents.

Mike Bailey

To think about others and to give others presents, you have a Christmas tree too, it's when it snows with beautiful white snow. I like snow. You go to church on Christmas eve too. God was born on Christmas eve.

William Linville

It means to be thankful for lots of food. Be thankful for the gifts you get. Be thankful for your mom and dad.

Mark Hunphrey

To me Christmas is fun and games, gifts and toys.

Charles Pennell

Christmas is the time to celebrate Jesus's birth to my family and to love other people.

Jenny Lynn Adkins

Jesus was born on Christmas eve. I like Christmas.

Sharon Kay Clagg

When Christmas comes it means to be thankful for others. And to celebrate when Jesus was born.

Elizabeth Stumbo

Dear Santa, For Christmas I want a calculator a Perfection game, a pair of roller skates, Darcy, Connect Four game and a new bike. That's all.

Love, Lori Caudill

Christmas means to get presents from Santa Claus and to give my relations presents. It's also a Christmas party with my family. I like putting the icicles on our tree and decorating the house with colored bulbs.

Christmas is special to me because we sing carols. We decorate the tree together and make Christmas cookies with mom.

We have a Christmas play at school and talk about vacation. At home we watch special TV programs.

The important thing to me is knowing that Jesus was born on Christmas and he protects me in every way. I am thankful for peace on earth.

Melissa Horne

Christmas is very important, not because you get presents but it is important because Christ was born on Christmas day. That's why we celebrate Christmas.

When you celebrate Christmas you are thinking of others. And when someone buys you a present they don't just give you a present just to spend a little money, they get you a present because they are thinking of you.

On Christmas eve you might invite your family down to sit around and you might talk about other Christmas times. When Christmas comes my family decides on a tall or short tree and wide or thin. And when we get our tree we decorate the tree for pretty decorations. That's what Christmas is about.

Jennifer Cole

Christmas to me means having a party at our house and having our relatives over. My grandma and my mother make the Christmas dinner.

Christmas is a time to think of others and not think of yourself all the time. Christmas is a time to be happy.

I like to go Christmas shopping for people in my family. At Christmas we have an unwrapping contest at our house.

On Christmas eve we all sit around our fireplace and tell Christmas stories. A day or two before Christmas we go into our grandpa and grandpa's woods behind their house and cut down our tree. When we get our tree home we put it in its stand, then we put water in the tree's stand.

I think it is fun to decorate our tree. We put bulbs, tinsel, lights, and other decorations and at the top of the tree we put the star the star is the most important thing on the tree. The star is the prettiest thing on the tree.

I like going outside and decorating our trees and bushes. Before everyone leaves we have a drawing. In the drawing you draw a number and we have a box and there are presents in it. The number on your paper if it matches a present you get it.

But above all the most important thing about Christmas is it is Christ's Birthday and this means peace and good will to all.

Jodi Putnam

Christmas means that Christ was born. Christmas comes from Christ.

On Christmas eve my mother will put the presents by the fire place will Christmas morning.

I like to make stockings for presents for cousins. Sometimes I put balloons in their stockings.

Our family goes caroling or someone comes to carol at our house. We sing songs about Christmas.

Mom, my sister, and I make Christmas cookies. I like to decorate the cookies with sugar or icing.

Linda M. Brubaker

Christmas is a happy time to me. I think the best time of all is the Christmas tree. Last year my family got our tree from our farm. Every year on Christmas eve when I go to bed I cannot sleep but I try. Then the next day I open my gifts. Then I give my gifts to my family. After that we go to Grandma Chase's house for a little bit then we have to leave. Then we go home and have a little rest. (At least mom and dad do) My sister and I play with our gifts.

Well, I must go, Good-bye. Merry Christmas

Kathy Chase

Christmas means giving presents and getting presents. Making presents for others. Buying presents for others too.

Christmas means decorating the tree and putting up stockings and putting up ornaments.

Christmas means going to town and singing carols and watching the men put up the decorations.

Christmas means celebrating Jesus's birthday and being happy the rest of the year.

Christmas vacation means making snowmen and snowballs with sugar or icing.

Kathy Welker

Christmas means going to our grandpa's house and putting up all of our decorations. And when we go get our tree, and before we get to our grandpa's. But they have one too.

On Christmas eve I go down stairs and get a little present and come upstairs and unwrap it.

And one time I got a big box and filled it up with newspaper and when he went downstairs he thought it was a bike but it was only a little match box car.

When we all come down the presents filled the room and on New Years we all have a real big party with about 20 people.

Greg Burks

We love Christmas because Jesus was born on this Christmas day. Jesus was born in a stable in a cradle long ago. There were donkeys braying, cows mooing and horses kicking.

We like to exchange gifts because you get lots of presents. Christmas is caring for others. You get love and attention.

David Powers

Christmas means very much to me, why? This is why!

Because I get to pass the presents and get to hit the cart first and get to take the pictures with the camera.

Christmas is the Lord Jesus Christ's birthday and is a day we all should go to church on, in the evening, that is, and tell him happy birthday.

Christmas has decorations and Christmas trees and gifts and Christmas has love.

Christmas makes my brother very happy and makes me and my entire family happy too, and my grandparents come to my Christmas party and my grandparents like hitting the shoe. The shoe is a bag game with shoes.

Angela Sexton

To me Christmas is one of the most important holiday out of the year. It is when you get to exchange presents with the people you love most. It doesn't matter what or how much you get them, it's the thought that counts. It symbolizes the birth date of Christ.

Libby Martin
