

Damage light in two fires

Plymouth firemen answered two calls Thursday. The first call came at noon from the David Jamerson home, 36 East High street, which was a chimney fire from a wood burning stove. The second was to the Vincent Handshoe home, 266 West Broadway, about 9 p.m. A barn in the rear of the house was burning. The blaze was quickly put out and did not spread.

It is surmised that youngsters smoking in the barn caused the blaze.

Mar. 18 set for decision by Firelands

Anticipated changes in the composition of the Firelands conference failed to materialize Feb. 25.

Principals of the eight schools in the league voted to delete Article 14 of the conference constitution, which set the size guidelines of member schools. Mapleton's principal, John Neighbour said in January Edison shouldn't be permitted to continue in the league because of its enrollment of boys in the three upper grades, which is more than double the enrollment of boys in the same grades of the smallest school, as provided by Article 14.

Neighbour said Edison's enrollment is more than double those of St. Paul's, Monroeville, South Central and Mapleton.

Now that's not a question any longer.

Consideration will be given at the Mar. 18 meeting to a proposal to enlarge the league to 10 schools. It is a fact that Plymouth and Crestview have been asked to file formal applications to join the Firelands conference and each has responded.

One plan that some knowledgeable sources say is in the works is to divide the new 10-team league into two divisions, the northern one comprised of Edison, Monroeville, St. Paul's, Western Reserve and New London, the southern one of Plymouth, South Central, Maple-ton, Black River and Crestview. Each year each team would play seven conference games, four in its own division and three of the five teams in the other division. The latter teams would be rotated each year.

The winners of each division would then play a 11th game to determine the league champion.

Unless the OHSAA alters its rule about number of games, and agrees to change its playoff schedule, this wouldn't be feasible.

And some sources dislike the plan for another reason: "We don't mind playing Edison long as everybody else has to," one said.

Another plan is to schedule each Firelands conference team against every other, which would mean playing games. The 10th game would be reserved to settle the conference championship, the first ranking team in the northern division playing the first ranking team in the southern for Nos. 1 and 2, the second ranking teams playing each other for Nos. 3 and 4, and so on. A drawback of this system is that each team would play two games during one season with another team in the league.

Robert Wenner, principal at New London, who is president of the league, has appointed a committee of all eight principals to write new guidelines for the conference.

Spartans oust Plymouth, 60-45

A plucky Plymouth team held St. Peter's even for 16 minutes at Ashland Tuesday night, then came apart in the third period and bowed out of the Class A playdowns, 60 to 45.

It was a string of 12 unanswered points midway through the third period that was Plymouth's undoing.

Twice the Plymouth coach, Mike Tracey, called for time out to try to stop the Spartans. He did not succeed.

Before Plymouth could find itself against the more poised Mansfield outfit, which carried an 8-and-12 record into this contest, the damage had been done.

The nemesis of the Big Red during the third period was Bob Young, who scored eight points on four field goals during the 12-point surge.

Plymouth did not box out well during the second half and St. Peter's got the second and third shot more often than not.

The Big Red shot out quickly to build a respectable lead. It scored the first point, a free throw by Greg Polachek, and held off the Spartans with some success. During the first period, St. Peter's fired for field goal no less than 18 times and came away with four field goals.

St. Peter's began to apply the pressure during the second period, forcing Plymouth into five turnovers and limiting the Big Red to just six shots at the basket, of which it made only two. The Spartans' momentum wasn't setting the world afire but they scored 10 points on four field goals in 14 tries and added a pair of free throws.

In 14 halves, it was 18-20. The Spartans were 9-32 and Plymouth 8-46-14.

Behind by 10 at the outset of the final period, Plymouth strung together five unanswered points, three of them by Steve Tackett, who was to lead Plymouth's team in this, his final, game with 13 points, and two by Rob Smith, who turned in the best shooting performance of his varsity career with a game to go.

But the Spartans went to work again and rattled the basket for 10 unanswered points to put it away. By the time Marty Cary, also playing his final game of school-year basketball, who was able to find the hole from the corner to raise the Red total to 39, St. Peter's was far in front with 54 points.

The teams traded baskets until the final buzzer.

Plymouth's shooting record was 20 successes in 37 tries, or 54 per cent, and five of eight free throws.

The Spartans got off more shots - a total of 65, indicating their superiority on the offensive boards - and converted 28 of them, or 43 per cent. They converted four of seven free throws.

Strine chairman - 17 to solicit for Red Cross

Seventeen persons, including the Firelands Chapter chairman, Wayne H. Strine, will conduct the annual American Red Cross canvass of the village to raise funds for the Congressional Hospital chartered organization.

"Community chest and United Way funds do not cover our raw costs," says Strine, who is a member of the board of directors of the Firelands chapter, "so we must resort to individual canvassing."

"Everybody benefits through the Red Cross in time of disaster. Victims of a one family fire, families having members in the armed services, veterans and their families, persons needing blood are just a few of the kinds of instances when the Red Cross helps. The Red Cross as of Mar. 1 will guarantee that anyone treated in a participating hospital in Northeast Ohio need not pay for such blood as is transfused to him nor need he solicit among his family, friends or business associates for donations of blood to replace what he has received."

The Red Cross right here in Plymouth conducts cardiopulmonary rescue classes, stand up and multi-media first aid courses, water safety programs and the blood program. We will appreciate a generous response when the canvasser comes to your door.

Newsy notes...

Plymouth Chapter 231, OES, will meet in the chapter rooms Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The meeting will be devoted to prepare for the annual chapter inspection Mar. 26.

Two thefts show loss of $2,500

Another in a series of break-ins in northern Richland county occurred Thursday.

Swartz Potato farm in Kastor road reported loss of about $44 in cash taken from the register plus $50 in coins. Two toolboxes containing tools worth $350 also were missing.

Sheriff's deputies said two thieves were broken to obtain entry.

Mayor Eric J. Akers, owner of the Shady Lane shop on East Main street, said Monday the business is closed "for lack of business."

It was opened in the afternoon of Monday in premises owned by Akers. His sister, Mrs. Robert Young, operated the business for a time until she moved to Mt. Vernon.

Canvassers are Mmes. Mark Carey, James Fleck, Roy W. Carter, A. L. Paddock, Jr., Max Caywood, Terry Hopkins, Jacques Donnenwerth, Kenneth Eschberry, Ronnie Combs and Vicki Thoman, the Misses Barbara Klemm, Cheryl Garber, Robin Postema, Tina Schriener and Shannon Root and Michael Beck.

Record 99 pints of blood collected

A record 99 pints of whole blood was collected here Friday by the ARC Bloodmobile.

The visit was sponsored by Plymouth Lions Club and Mrs. William Clark contributed an eighth pint and received a one gallon donor pin. Arnold Roberts, Jr. got a two gallon donor pin.

Twenty-one high school pupils contributed.

There were 107 persons who registered to donate, but several others made informal inquiry as to whether their blood could be taken. For several reasons, notably the ingestion of antibiotics, they were told they could not donate on Friday. These included two basketball players and a police officer. Of the 107, three were deferred and five were "UB's" - "unsuccessful bleeds".

Mayor Eric J. Akers sought to attend executive session, on the grounds that McKown's bill might develop into a law suit. At this point McKown objected. The mayor told him he was out of order. McKown denied this. The mayor repeated his finding, whereupon McKown rose and shook his finger at the mayor and said in a loud voice, "If you go into executive session, I'll get an injunction against this whole damn council. You'd better believe it!"

The council went into executive session and invited McKown, who was accompanied by the law partners, John Schaefer and Neil McKown, into the closed meeting. After the council emerged, the three attorneys stalked out the door. Mayor Akers called for a motion to seek approval of the financial commission to pay McKown and to pay $500 in back salary to the former clerk, Raymond L. Brookes. The council declined to pay the bill. Chief Robert Seel for overtime claimed by him during his tenure.

During the vote, Councilman G. Thomas Moore abstained because the motion as submitted by village D. Douglas Brumbach, called for the council "to honor" the bills of McKown and Brooks without specification that deductions applicable to Brooks should be made.

Brumbach agreed to amend the motion and it carried.

Free calls in emergencies PFD gets grant of $1,500

A $1,500 grant from the 1981 Rural Community Fire Protection program administered by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources has been made to Plymouth Fire department, Chief Wayne E. Strine announced Tuesday.

The funds are granted on a matching basis: for every dollar spent by the department, the DNR will match the expenditure up to $1,500.

James Arthur will be chairman of the St. Jude Children's Research hospital Bike-A-Thon in Plymouth, to raise funds to support the hospital, according to William J. Kirwen, director of development at the internationally recognized hospital.

Police get 33% raise, others given 10%

A 33 per cent pay raise for police officers and a 10 per cent increase for other employees won narrow approval Thursday.

The vote of Mayor Eric J. Akers was necessary to carry the police raises. Councilmen James H. Cashman, Dean A. Cline and G. Thomas Moore voted nay. Councilmen James Holloway, D. Douglas Brumbach and Ervin Howard voted yea.

The vote to raise pay levels for other employees was all but unanimous.

Cashman was called away to deal with a fire, and the mayor's vote again broke a tie on the issue of whether the pay of councilmen should be raised from $240 to $480 a year. Brumbach initiated the motion.

On roll call, Councilmen Cline, Howard and Holloway voted nay. Mayor Akers joined them.

Salary of the village administrator was raised from $14,980 to $16,500 in a separate ordinance that defines the duties and responsibilities of the position in detail. He will be paid $11,900 an hour for overtime and an additional $600 with the village and sewer licenses.

Because of an error by the Richland county budget commission, the mayor was unable to present the 1981 appropriations to the council for approval.

When the figures of what the village can expect in tax revenues for this year were sent to him, they did not reflect what will be forthcoming from the Huron county of which he is a member.

The thinking appears to be that if they are all on the June ballot, people are too apt to simply vote "no" on all of them.

Moore said he feels passage of the new three mill levy is extremely necessary and probably should be a higher amount. One of the reasons he had voted against the police raises was that he felt they would jeopardize the passage of the levy.

The mayor said the levy is important because of the fact that now a goodly share of the income tax money is being used for the police department instead of for the needed capital improvements the income tax was originally planned.

Root told the council that right now the wells are holding their own.

Brumbach said he discussed the water problem at great length with the Saltzgeber Drilling Co., which had several suggestions to tide the village over the period it will take to install the line from Willard here.

Moore asked Richard Wolfe, village solicitor, if legal action can be taken against a Brooks court resident who has tiled his property, causing the water to run off into the street because there are no storm sewers to pick it up.

Wolfe said that if a hazardous condition exists, legal action can be taken.

Because of the temperatures, Moore said, the water is freezing in the roadway.

Howard suggested that the council set up a comprehensive plan for street repaving, which will help the safety committee for fire runs and police calls.

Osbusn seeks return of inquiries

Villagers who have not returned the questionnaires distributed last week by the Plymouth village planning commission are asked to do so.

They may be left at the village utility office.

There are any questions the office staff will answer them.

The survey is important and necessary for the village to apply for a federal grant for improvements within the village to housing, streets, and utility lines, Kenyon Osbusn, chairman, says.

Driver fined $200 by mayor

A Willard driver was convicted in mayor's court here Thursday and fined $200 plus costs for having no operator's license.

He is Bobby Priest.

Mark A. Toth, Bellevue, charged with driving while under suspension, pleaded no guilty. The case was dismissed.

Steven J. Gowitzka posted a waiver of $15 and costs on a charge of excessive acceleration and loud exhaust.

Brumbach showed his displeasure with the report of Burgess & Niple by saying they are "strangers" to the village while Saltzgeber has worked many years here.

Brumbach said he feels there is enough underground water to serve the village if it is obtained efficiently.

Holloway suggested that Brumbach arrange a meeting with the well digging company and the Willard engineer. It is tentatively set for Tuesday at 7 p.m.

Cashman told the council the safety committee has been working on a manual outlining the duties of the fire chief which is almost complete. Rules for the police department were adopted.

Council adopted rules for the council as presented by Howard, who made the motion that what the rules committee had prepared be adopted.

Moore asked Richard Wolfe, village solicitor, if legal action can be taken against a Brooks court resident who has tiled his property, causing the water to run off into the street because there are no storm sewers to pick it up.

Teach the very young to read recipes on packaged items

By AUNT LIZ
A few weeks ago I heard a professor of English from someplace being interviewed on the radio, and it maddened me. Like all English teachers he was concerned why youngsters do not read like they should.

His theories were so logical. Loving parents and grandparents kind of live in the past with those unrealistic fairy tales. How can a child who is exposed to television, and some of those programs are excellent, read like the Prince who woke Snow-white up, or another prince found the right foot to fit a shoe?

Even our favorite Christmas story of that brightly colored nose doesn't really sound logical when you come to think about it. This guy's idea is to let kids learn to read and produce something which they can see and taste.

He says teach them to learn to read cooking directions on various packages. His theory is sound. The child is really accomplishing something which is tangible and can be done with pride.

I mentioned this to a very knowledgeable young mother who has one child who must be about the third grade, since this is her second year as a Brownie Scout. Every Sunday they make a big deal of a pancake breakfast and the little girl mixes up the batter, which has now taught her fractions way beyond her age, and she loves it all.

Take advantage of your four-days, teach them to use a measuring cup and a spoon, and you have a child and can sit back. With all the wonderful package mixes, all you need to know is how to read — just a little. I swear they have psychologists write the directions out so everyone can understand them.

I can read, but my problem in some cases has been how to open some of the dumb packages. However, there are a few things best you whip up yourself. In this day and age, you simply cannot waste anything, and most little kids have not had a real crash course in economics and realize what the prices are of some things.

This Chinese beef, onion and green pepper will serve two nicely and possibly a small amount for a young one. It can be doubled. Even though this is their year of the rooster, this is practical and good. It is great on rice, but if you do not like rice, try canned noodles or even thin pasta.

If you decide on pasta, you can make it way ahead and stash in the oven to warm.

Here're menus in cafeteria for week

Here're menus in Shiloh school cafeteria for the week:
Today: Beef vegetable stew, bread and butter, cheese cube, peaches, milk.
Tomorrow: Fish sandwich, tomato or potato soup with crackers, fruited gelatin, cookie, milk.
Monday: Sloppy Joe sandwich, French fried potatoes, fruit cocktail, peanut butter bar, milk.
Tuesday: Chicken noodle casserole, bread and butter, cole slaw, pineapple, milk.

Here're menus in Plymouth school cafeteria for the week:
Today: Chicken sandwich, corn chips, mixed vegetables, apple crisp, milk.
Tomorrow: Fish sandwich, macaroni salad, green beans, brownie, milk.
Monday: Frankfurters and beans, bread and butter, pears, cookie, milk.
Tuesday: Salisbury steak sandwich, pickle chips, scalloped potatoes, fruit cocktail, cookie, milk.
Wednesday: Spaghetti with meat sauce, bread and butter, cheese slice, pineapple, peanut, milk.

Core two green peppers and seed. Place in a pan of cold water, bring to a boil, drain and slice thinly (when cooled a little so you don't burn the tips of your fingers off). Chop up six little green onions with a clove of garlic.
Put two and a half tablespoons of oil in either a good frying pan or a wok at medium heat. Cook the vegetables for about two minutes while stirring. Take them out and put in a half pound of thin slices of beef steak. It doesn't have to be exact, and if you like meat, put more in, but slices very thinly.

Brown all over for maybe three minutes. Put the vegetables back in and mix up. Meanwhile, have a mixture of two teaspoons of cornstarch, two and a half tablespoons of soy sauce and two and a half tablespoons of beef stock ready. Mix it all up until it thickens, and it is ready.

Plan this meal ahead or behind, and if you open a can of beef broth or consume, snitch out the two and a half tablespoons so you are not wasting any thing.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR
Sir:
Thursday, Feb. 26, 1981, at its regular council meeting, the village council passed two (2) pay ordinances increasing the rates for pay for the various village employees. The vote on one of the pay ordinances (that pertaining to the police department) was close. It necessitated the tie vote of council to be broken by myself. I voted in favor of its passage.
I would like to state publicly my reasons for passing those ordinances.
I fully recognize that the economic position of the village impels us to be cautious and frugal with the limited resources we have available for our expenses.

Band, chorus to present concert
High school band, choir and jazz band will be heard in concert there Monday at 7:30 p. m.
Band selections are "Military Escort", "A Civil War Rhapsody", "Battaglia", "Variations on a Slough Melody", highlights from "Camelot" and "Novena: Rhapsody for Band".
Jazz ensemble will play "On the Sunny Side of the Street", "Longer", a Richard Rodgers medley, "I Write the Songs", "Honesty" and "September Song" by Kurt Weill.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Thomas Moore were Sunday dinner guests of their daughter and son-in-law, the Philip Fletchers, Mansfield. They celebrated the sixth anniversary of their grandson, John, which occurred Feb. 18, but he wanted to wait until his grandfather was out of the hospital and to be part of the family party.
Mrs. Robert Shackelford, New Philadelphia, spent the weekend with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hawk.
Mr. and Mrs. Michael Beebe, Fairborn, were Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Beebe. His grandmother, Mrs. Bernice Beebe, joined them for dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Harris Postema were hosts to Mr. and J. Harold Cashman for dinner Saturday. Sunday the Postemas visited her aunt, Mrs. Kent Pollinger, Willard, and Tuesday they drove to Medina to see their granddaughter, Karen, daughter of the Russell Easterdays, play in a championship basketball game. She is a member of the Medina High school team which played Norton High school.

A superior!
A ninth grader won a superior rating in the high school solo and ensemble contest conducted at Mansfield Feb. 21 by Ohio Music Educators Association.
Rodney Hampton performed a snare drum solo.
Excellent ratings went to Phyllis Pritchard, trumpet solo; Christine Pitzten, flute solo; Jamie Brooks, tuba solo, and Angela Tallman, Shannon Root, Lynn Snider and Cheryl Garber, saxophone quartet.
A flute trio composed of Christine Pitzten, Jan Wallace and Melanie Wolf received a rating of good.
Mary Ellen Pugh, Shannon Root and Mrs. Kathy Orr were piano accompanists for the entries, who were coached by Jeffrey Conklin.

More people go to museums than play tennis, go bowling, jog, play softball, or go fishing.

Akers tells why vote was yea

Maximizing those resources must be our number one concern. By their passage, the new pay ordinances, I believe, will provide the most benefit to the village based upon what we have been told by the financial supervisor we can afford for wages to which our employees are entitled.
Though the amounts of increases were not evenly allocated among the employees of the village, the change of the required duties of some of the employees justifies the difference in the percentage of increase. If anyone is unaware as to those change in duties, I urge them to contact myself or members of the council to discover those changes.
Additionally, we will be implementing specific procedures for assuring the efficient operation of the various services the village provides. These procedures will inform everyone, including all residents, as to exactly what is or will be expected of or from village employees. This is something that every elector of the village is entitled to know.
I would like to state that the determination of the increase in employee wages was not passed with a "rubber stamp". Every councilman participated, fully informed of all facts pertaining to what extent the wages should be increased. Because of the fact, I would like to publicly commend them. I believe they are working for the best interest of all of us. I would ask that anyone who may question their motives contact the members of the council. They should be, and I am sure that they will be, more than willing to discuss that, and any other matter that is subject to their determination.

Thank you.
Very truly yours,
Eric J. Akers, Mayor

Here's some good news for those already holding or about to purchase U.S. Savings Bonds. The Treasury has announced that effective Nov. 1, 1980, all Series EE Bonds will earn 8% interest if held for 9 years.
Intermediate yields will also rise from 4 1/2% to 5 1/2% after one year and to 7 1/2% after five years.
All outstanding Savings Bonds will also benefit from a 1% increase to their next maturity.
U.S. Savings Bonds are now growing bigger, faster. So they're an even better way to save than they have been over the years.
They're still safe, still guaranteed, still easy to buy through the Payroll Savings Plan. But now the interest rate has been improved.
And the maturity is shortened so that you reach that hot 8% a lot quicker.
Take another look at Bonds. As a saving instrument. At the tax benefits. At the new interest rates. The shortened maturity. Bonds do make sense. For you and for your country.

Take stock in America.

Eagles oust girls in sectionals; season 10-and-10

Plymouth girls bowed out of the 1981 Class A play-downs at Wynford High school Saturday evening, defeated by Colonel Crawford, 52 to 54.

The Big Red got off to a slow start that was costly. Plymouth managed only three points in the first period, almost matching the lowly performance of the boys a night before. That the Big Red outscored the Eagles in the three final periods was poor consolation for the big given to Colonel Crawford in the first eight minutes.

The Eagles won it fairly, nevertheless. Lorie Shives is certainly a quality player. She scored 26 points to lead all scorers.

Plymouth outbounded the Eagles but only narrowly, 43 to 42. And the Big Red committed fewer errors, 21 to 26.

It was simply that Plymouth didn't start well that cost Coach Keith Diebler's team. Plymouth fired for field goal 69 times, seven more than Colonel Crawford, and was successful with 20. The Eagles shot 24.

At the foul line, each team managed 14 conversions. Colonel Crawford with 22 tries, Plymouth with 32.

'70 grad chosen coach of year

A 1970 alumnus of Plymouth high school is the 1981 Class A coach of the year in the Northwest district.

He is Jacques E. Daup, mentor of South Central's Trojans, who won the Firelands conference championship.

Younger son of the Harold E. Daup, Shihoh, he played basketball and baseball and ran on the cross country team at Plymouth High school. He is a graduate of Spring Arbor college, Spring Arbor, Mich., where he won letters in baseball as an outfielder.

Daup also serves as cross country coach and assistant baseball coach at South Central.

Four to vie in district wrestling

Four Plymouth High school wrestlers will compete in the Class A district tourney at Bowling Green tomorrow and Saturday.

These are Clarence Moorman, 106-pounder, Mike Stima, 112-pounder, Dale Moorman, 118-pounder, and Jim Jamerson, heavyweight.

Each placed in the sectional tourney at Vermilion Saturday.

Clarence Moorman was third, Stima second, Dale Moorman third and Jamerson fourth.

Shawn DeWitt took fifth place in the 126-pound division and is an alternate for the district.

Seneca East downs Big Red

Plymouth played Seneca East dead even for three periods at Attica Friday night, but it was that fourth period - the first one - that was Plymouth's undoing.

History does not record when a Big Red varsity team went for an entire period without scoring a point.

It does now. Seneca East rattled the basket for 24 points in the first period while holding Plymouth to none and that was the margin of a 64 to 40 victory.

Led by John Schueler, the game's high scorer with 25 points, the Tigers took 15 shots during the first eight minutes and converted nine of them, while Schueler himself was letter perfect from the foul line with six successes.

By halftime, Schueler had 17 points.

Plymouth outscored Seneca East in the second period and during the third quarter.

Fifth graders win title over Spartans

Fifth grade Vikings won the first round championship in Friendly House play at Mansfield last week with a 27 to 14 victory over St. Peter's.

The winners took a commanding 17 to 0 lead in the first period and coasted, thanks largely to defensive play of Matt Messner and Mark Pittenger. Marc Rankin scored nine and Brian Leigey seven.

On Saturday the Vikes, in a second round league game, downed the same Spartan team, 33 to 27. Rankin got 10 and Leigey nine.

The Vikes closed their regular league season with an 11-and-2 record.

Tomorrow in the Band Mothers tourney here, the Vikes will play Mansfield YMCA All Stars at 7 p. m.

To decide the championship of the Friendly House league, the Vikes will tangle with the Springmill Cava, winners of the second round, Saturday at noon.

With an overall record of 16-and-5, the Vikes will also play in the Mansfield and Gallon tournaments.
