Don Brooks demonstrates his new one-of-a-kind bicycle, a lazy man's way to derive the benefits of bicycle riding. But does it stretch muscles that haven't been stretched for a while, Don?

Crazy, no?

One-of-a-kind bicycle makes debut; 'it's more efficient, but just a toy!'

He built it from a photograph cut from a magazine, and he did so in three days with some spare parts in his shop and the help of a church friend with the welding. And so Plymouth's bicycle specialist, Donald Brooks,

Mayor fines Shelbian on two counts

A Shelbian appeared in mayor's court Thursday night and pleaded no contest to a charge of public intoxication and another of possession of a controlled substance.

James L. Collins was found guilty and fined $50 and costs for each offense. William L. Pruitt, Willard, accused of speeding, 48 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone, forfeited bond of $26.

Six drivers pay stiff fines at Shelby

Six local drivers were convicted and fined in Shelby Municipal court last week. Steven Gowitzka paid $165.50 and received a license suspension of 30 days on conviction of reckless operation.

The same charge against Dennis K. McGinnis resulted in a fine of $210.50 and a 60-day suspension.

Randall L. Workman, Plymouth route 1, accused of reckless operation, was fined $60.50 and received a 30-day suspension.

Robert Devlin, New Haven, was fined $22.50 for an expired registration and $22.50 for speeding.

Terry Adkins, Shiloh, was fined $28.50 for speeding.

Robert A. McKown, Shelby route 3, paid $29.50 for speeding.

12th grader to get top degree

One member of Plymouth Chapter, Future Farmers of America, will receive the coveted state farmer degree during the annual convocation of the FFA in Columbus next month. He is Jerry Miller.

43% hike requested by GTE

A 43.4 per cent increase in residential one-party telephone rates and a 39.1 per cent hike in business one-party charges are proposed by General Telephone Co. in a request to be filed June 30 with the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio.

If the request is approved and the time lag can be cut up to a year from the date the request is filed - local subscribers now charged $9.90 a month for a one-party residential line will pay $14.20, $11.60 a month for a two-party residential line, $10.40 a month for a four-party residential line and $26.85 a month for a one-party business line.

General Telephone says it doesn't expect rates to be changed before April of next year.

Mrs. Gowitzka dies suddenly in hospital at Norwalk

Mrs. James Gowitzka, 37, New London, formerly of Shiloh, died Saturday evening in a Norwalk Memorial hospital, Norwalk, of a sudden illness.

Born Loreta Isaac in Coldwater, Mich., she lived most of her life in the Willard and Shiloh neighborhoods. Eight months ago she moved to New London.

Her husband, three sons, Matthew and Benjamin Patrick and Mark Gowitzka, a daughter, Pamela Patrick, three step-sons, Michael, Steven and Philip Gowitzka, all at home, her parents, the Everet Isaacs, Willard; five sisters, Jeannett, now Mrs. Carl Zorich, Sandusky, and Henrietta, now Mrs. Lummie Reed, Shirley, now Mrs. David Mathias, Mrs. Janice Ewing and Linda, now Mrs. Charles Featheringill, all of Willard, and four brothers, Don, Dewey and James Isaac, all of Willard, and Gary Isaac in Florida.

The Rev. Lawrence Whitney, Church of God, conducted services from that church yesterday at 2 p. m. Burial was in Maple Grove cemetery, New Haven township.

Shiloh signs up for sheriff's help

Limited police protection was assured for Shiloh Mar. 25 when its village council signed a contract with the Richland county sheriff's department to pay $11,000 and "additional expenses" to man a sheriff's post in the village.

The contract took effect yesterday. Sheriff Richard Petty said "additional expenses" will include furnishings for the building to house the deputies he has assigned to Shiloh and to repair the radio owned by the village. Petty's department will supply personnel and equipment to man the post.

Petty said three deputies are assigned to the post, giving the village 20 hours of protection a week. The deputies would frequent the office at other times, he told the council, when there are reports to file. Councilman Gary Fletcher asked Petty if Plymouth, Cress and Bloominggrove townships are contributing to the funding of the post. Petty said the townships turned him down "because they felt they had too many other cuts to be able to help us out."

Lee Russell, president of the trustees of public affairs, asked the council to pay the wages of the street commissioner, John Shepherd, and

Mrs. Buurma succumbs at 77

Mrs. Henry Buurma, 77, Marysville, died Thursday in Mt. Carmel Medical center, Columbus, of a lengthy illness.

Born in Columbus Grove, she came to Celeryville in 1926. She was retired from Buurma Bros. Farms, which her husband helped to found shortly after the turn of the century.

Mrs. Buurma was a member of Celeryville Christian Reformed church and of its Golden Hour society and of the Willard Historical society.

She is survived by two daughters, Beatrice, now Mrs. James Graham, Columbus, and Frances, Grand Rapids, Mich.; four grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

The Rev. Bernard Tod conducted services from the church Monday at 2 p. m. Burial was in Maple Grove cemetery, New Haven township.

recommended his pay be increased by $1 to $5 an hour.

The council objected. It said Shepherd works two-thirds or more of his time for the trustees but would be willing to pay for the share of time he devotes to village activities.

Russell said if the council doesn't want to pay 50 per cent of Shepherd's wages, then Shepherd can work full time for the trustees.

Mrs. Barbara Music, a councilman, said the trustees can obtain money from the council when they need it, but the reverse procedure is considerably more difficult.

The trustees asked the council to pay one-half of the wages of a CETA employee, whose funding ends Tuesday. It agreed to pay $2 an hour toward his wage of $4 an hour.

Two hour parking in Main street between 8 a.m. and 6 p. m. save on Sundays and holidays is now law, the council having passed an emergency ordinance to that effect.

Mrs. Myers, 76, dies at home of son here

Mrs. Thomas Myers, 76, Base Line road, died Sunday in the home of her son, Thomas, Jr., in Fenner road of a sudden illness.

Born Iva Sonanetie, daughter of Frank and Ella Waldvogel Sonanetie, in Adario Sept. 25, 1904, she lived in or near Plymouth for 46 years. Her husband died in October.

She is also survived by two daughters, Rosalie, now Mrs. Howard Ewing, Mansfield, and Shirley, now Mrs. Warren Auck, Crestline; three brothers, Clifford and Woodrow Sonanetie, Shiloh, and Kenneth Sonanetie, Ganges; four sisters, Mrs. Lovada Williams and Martha, now Mrs. Loren Hipsher, Crestline; Mrs. Mary Ebersole, Shelby; and Mrs. Vesta Lovens, Stryker, 11 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Three brothers, Willard, Emmott and Russell Sonanetie, and two sisters, Maud, Ethel Smith and Lilly Lovens, also died earlier.

The Rev. William Cramer conducted services Tuesday at 2 p. m. from McGuire's Social Fraternal home. Burial was in Greenlawn cemetery.

How will $500,000 be financed?

Council to proceed with Willard water

Water from Willard was assured Monday night when village council passed two ordinances.

The first gives Mayor Eric J. Akers authority to enter into the necessary contracts for the funding and construction of the line.

The second gives the mayor authority to enter into contracts for the engineering of the line.

Both ordinances were proposed by the mayor during the regular session Thursday. Because Councilmen James Cashman and G. Thomas Moore were absent, it could not be passed as emergency measures, although both ordinances accepted on their first reading.

During a special meeting Brumbach stuck to his guns against the line and voted nay Monday. The vote of Councilman Dean A. Cline, Ervin Howard, James Holloway and Moore carried it.

Brumbach then agreed with his colleagues about hiring an engineering firm and voted yay.

During a special meeting Brumbach had called for on Mar. 24, when he strongly urged the council to consider implementing another well, Howard sided with him. However, Moore, Cline and Holloway voted against any consideration of the well.

By then it was known that the village had successfully applied for a grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Renewal and a $300,000 is assured, providing the village does the necessary paperwork in the specified time allowed by HUD which is May 15.

What yet needs to be worked out is the remainder of the cost of the line, estimated to be about $500,000 to $550,000.

The village has two routes: a loan from the Farmers Home administration, which financed the sanitary sewer system, can be obtained for five per cent interest, but cannot be obtained so quickly as a loan from the Ohio Water Development authority.

Interest on the latter would be about 10 per cent.

Both can be 40-year loans, but the mayor said Monday he hopes it can be worked out on a 20-year basis.

What will it cost the Plymouth consumer? Akers says about double of what is being paid now with a monthly minimum charge of $10 versus the present $6 charge.

Willard has agreed to sell water to the village on the following scale: $1.29 for each 1,000 gallons for the first 175,000 gallons, the next 25,000 gallons at $1.15 for each 1,000 and over 200,000 per day at 90 cents for each 1,000 gallons.

The village is now pumping about 200,000 gallons a day, but is only billing users for 60 per cent of that. Somewhere the other 40 per cent is being lost in leaks, unmetred usage or bad meters.

The mayor pointed out that Willard can account for 92 per cent of the water it pumps.

Although it has not been officially determined, Plymouth will most likely hire Lester Poggemeyer Engineering, whose engineer, Theodore Jedlinski, has been working closely with the mayor. The firm is also the engineer for Willard.

The mayor is confident the company can serve both municipalities faithfully. Jedlinski, who is a former employee of the EPA office, Bowling Green, is familiar with Plymouth's water system, water plant and its needs, since he was the inspecting officer for a number of years when annual inspection reports were made.

He has made an informal annual study of what it will cost Plymouth. It is based on borrowing money from OWDA at the 10 per cent interest.

He estimates the annual cost will be $178,745. Broken down, it is $92,710 for water, based on 200,000 gallons daily (although Willard is 700,000 daily); $2,035 for debt service; $60,000 for operation and maintenance, and $16,000 for future capital improvements.

Under the agreement reached by the mayor and Willard, Plymouth will receive a $1,000 monthly credit, which is for Willard's share of the line from Skinner road to its treatment plant.

Plymouth will own the line outright from Route 61 and Skinner road.

During the regular council session Thursday, Edward King and Charles Taylor, EPA representatives from Bowling Green, and James Schmidt, Columbus, Department of Natural Resources, met with the council and bluntly said, "Now is your chance, don't cry 'wolf' again. We have gone to bat for you and any delays are your fault."

Both King and Schmidt worked with the village closely several years ago, knowing that a new supply of water was needed for the future. At that time they suggested another well be installed. This was done and has proven inadequate.

King said the sooner the village is connected to Willard, the better. He predicted that the village can survive the spring season, but the summer months can be disastrous. If everything goes as clock work, they predict the line can be installed and working by August or September.

What is now being proposed is that a 10-inch line will be run from Willard to Skinner road and an eight inch line from there into the village.

Only three local residents were at Thursday's meeting to ask questions. One was William C. Enderby, who asked if the local well system is to be abandoned. The mayor told him it will be maintained as a backup service in case of an emergency.

In other action Thursday, James C. Root, village administrator, told the council the village has been notified it will lose four CETA employees. One is a police dispatcher. Three are assigned to the utility and street departments. He said the three permanent village employees will simply have to manage the best they can. Holloway suggested that he look for a fourth employee.

Cline asked how many buildings and houses are not yet connected to the sanitary sewer system. Root said about 30 but that some may be tapped in, although no records exist. Some of these can be buildings on the northeast side of the Square, which were hooked in when the line was laid because of the narrowness of the land. At the time, it was practical to tie those buildings into the system.

After an executive session concerning the salary of the director of the income tax department, Howard moved that the solicitor be instructed to prepare a salary ordinance for the position, which would change the present rate from $5 an hour for a 35-hour week to $7,400 annually, with time specified as to hours.

Holloway said he is continuing to meet with Plymouth township trustees to negotiate a new three-year fire contract.

The contract is due May 5. It had been earlier proposed that this year, from May until December, be prorated at $6,800 for the first 20 fires and $200 for each fire over that number.

Holloway is now working on these figures: $7,500 for 1982, $8,000 for 1983, $8,500 for 1984. The additional runs will remain at $200.

Shilohans held by police; one bound to grand jury

An 18-year-old Shilohian is one of three young men accused in the theft of money orders from a convenience store in Tampa, Fla., a month ago.

Richland county sheriff's deputies arrested Richard James J. Kubitz, 22, Sandusky, on charges of receiving stolen property. Kubitz's brother, Thomas J., 26, Bucyrus, is accused of the same.

Tony Keller, operator of the convenience store, notified Richland county police

Monday that nine money orders and $667 were stolen from the store on Feb. 14.

Keller said James Kubitz worked at the store at the time worked at the store at the time of the theft.

It was found that eight of the nine money orders were cashed for $1,943 in Shelby Feb. 24, 25, 27 and 28. One money order in the amount of $100 was recovered.

Law is charged with possessing stolen money orders on Mar. 7. He appeared in Shelby Municipal court Mar. 25. He was freed on bond.

The Kubitzes are being held on warrants from Erie county, charging James with burglary and violation of probation and from the Ohio Adult Parole authority charging Thomas with parole violation.

A 35-year-old Shiloh route 2 man is charged with four counts of theft by deception for allegedly failing to fulfill basic repair contracts, after being paid to buy materials, and to three of the four installers did not return to complete the work.

He was bound over by Judge Ralph E. Johns to the Richland county grand jury, bond later county grand jury. Bond was set at $1,000, release available on deposit of $100. Herrick pleaded innocent on Mar. 23. It was said by sheriff's deputies that Herrick contracted to install aluminum siding or remedial home, installed siding to pay the materials, and to three of the four installers did not return to complete the work.

Both Viking teams falter in finales

A come-from-behind effort by sixth grade Vikings fell short in overtime at Mansfield Saturday. Down by 13 at the half, Plymouth tied it with a shot by Steve Hall at the buzzer. But all starters fouled out in overtime and Wendy's was the winner of the spring tourney.

It was the only defeat of the season for the Vikings, whose record for the year is 22-and-1 and for five years 131-and-12.

Hall had 23 and Doug Barnd nine points.

Hall and Barnd had 11 points apiece as the All-Stars, coached by Dave and Randy Hall, defeated the Mansfield All-Stars, 42 to 33, in Pete Henry gymnasium in Senior High school at Mansfield Thursday.

Hall and Barnd were named co-MVPs at the banquet Friday night.

Springmill Cave defeated Plymouth Fifth Grade Vikings to win the Friendly House tourney, 21 to 17.

The Vikings scored only five points in the second half.

Marc Pittenger and Brian Liegey scored five each.

Fifth and sixth grade Vikings will conduct tryouts tomorrow from 7 to 9 p.m. in Dowds Elementary school, Shelby.

Any boy who'll be in the fourth, fifth or sixth grades during the 1981-82 school year is invited to compete. Each candidate should bring $1 to assist with rental expense of the gymnasium.

Parents are welcome to attend.

Marc Rankin was named MVP of the fifth graders during the banquet Friday in Ehret-Parrel Post 447, American Legion.

Competing in a field of eight, boys' team was last with only 14 points. New London won with 130, Lucas had 111, Crestview scored 74, Mapleton totalled 52. Black River with 43, Hilldale with 21 and Crestline with 20 were ahead of Plymouth.

Point scorers for Plymouth were Jim Jamerson, fourth in the shot and James Will, 9.9 m., and James Will, fourth in the pole vault, clearing 11 ft.

There were seven teams, one of them a Class AA school, in the girls' competition, in which Plymouth placed fourth with 57 points.

Wellington won with 102, New London was second at 100, Crestview third at 86, Lucas scored 28, Crestline 10 and Mapleton 8.

McKown's $27,952 bill upsets fiscal planning

A bill of $27,952.70 for legal work done by the former village solicitor, Robert A. McKown, has upset the planning of the finance commission.

The bill covers a period from July, 1974, to Dec. 31, 1979.

Part of the bill, $4,405, is earmarked to be paid from the general fund and the remainder, $23,547.70, from the sewer fund.

Elph roll, Ernest & Whinney, accountants chosen by the state to assist Plymouth in its financial planning, told the commission Friday morning he was not aware of the bill in time to include it nor make provision for the payment this year.

Mayor Eric J. Akers said he believes that by the end of the year the general fund's positive balance could provide for its share.

It was suggested that an arrangement be made with McKown to pay the amount attributed to the sewer fund in installments.

William R. Miller, chairman of the commission, said he thinks McKown would welcome such an arrangement for taxing purposes.

Roll is to work out a repayment plan and notify the mayor as soon as he has done so, so that McKown can be informed.

James C. Davis, a member of the commission, said he believes there is no rush about the bill since it took McKown so long to send it.

Once some kind of an arrangement is worked out and agreed to, the village may have to request a revised budget from the county budget commission.

The progress report of the commission, which is required by law, was discussed. It was agreed that the one prepared by Norwood would be used as a model and will include major actions taken by Plymouth.

The commission also agreed to suggest to the state that a training program for clerks be established by the state and required for all incoming clerks.

Roll has prepared a detailed manual detailing the Plymouth clerks which spells out all the necessary accounting methods that can be followed by any incoming ones.

Two bills presented by Roll were approved by the commission. A combined bill for work done by Ernest & Whinney for January and February totaled $12,915.95 and the other for March was $7,977.94.

Roll said that about 50 percent of time spent in the village was working with the new clerk-treasurer, Mrs. Sidney Beam.

The bills will be forwarded to the state for payment under the financial planning act.

Appropriations of $917,831 for 1981 were approved at an emergency measure during the Monday night recessed meeting of village council.

By law it had to be passed before yesterday.

Mayor Eric J. Akers had the green light from the Finance commission, which met Friday morning, that it fitted into the 1981 budget figures approved by the Richland county budget commission and fitted into the financial recovery plan that Ernest & Whinney, Cleveland accountants chosen by the state to bring Plymouth out of its financial problems, had projected.

The biggest slice of the appropriations is earmarked to pay the monthly bills of Ohio Power Co. This amounts to 35 per cent. The other large amount is earmarked for salaries, 36 per cent. This leaves 29 per cent left for operation and maintenance of the departments and any capital improvements that can be managed.

The only councilman to question any of the items was G. Thomas Moore, who wasn't present Thursday night when Mayor Akers explained the salary for the solicitor set at $6,000 was most likely too high. This is what Moore questioned. He was satisfied when the may-

This cake takes time, one whole month of it!

By AUNT LIZ
If you know you are going to a tasty potluck dinner or planning on a special dinner of your own next month, start cooking now. Apparently this recipe has been passed around the countryside for a while. We just acquired our copy last week, plus a little container of "starter" liquid that a kind friend shared with us.
You must have such a friend. Without one, there is not way to make this tasty sounding Friendship Cake.
First, find a nice glass gallon jug. Pour the starter in, add two and a half cups of sugar and a 28-ounce can of peaches. Cut the fruit into bits. The liquid of the peaches goes in, too.
Stash the jar away, but bring it out every day and stir it.
Do not put the lid on too tight. What you are making can possibly blow your kitchen to bits. You are fermenting the fruit.
Years ago a good friend was alone at home one night and reading in bed when she heard six or seven about that seemed to be coming from the first floor of their house. Being a brave 18-year-old, she locked herself in the bathroom until she heard her family come home.
Her father had taken up wine making and the bottles he had lined up in the kitchen simply blew. They had to have the kitchen repainted, mostly the ceiling.
Bake to the cake. On the 10th day add a 20-ounce can of pineapple and juice and another two and a half cups of sugar.
Keep stirring.
On the 20th day add a 10-ounce jar of maraschino cherries cut up, but no juice, and another two and a half cups of sugar.
Finally the 30th day will come.
Drain the fruit and save the juice to give away so someone else can bake.
Divide the fruit into three parts, about one and a third cup each.

If you use it all up, you will have three cakes. It can keep for a short time.
For each cake you will need a box of orange cake mix without pudding added, a half cup of oil, four eggs, a package of instant vanilla pudding mix and a cup each of raisins and chopped nuts.
This should be baked in a bundt pan but an angel food one will work just as well. Grease the pan and flour.
Mix everything together. It might take several persons to do this because the batter will be stiff.
Bake at 350 degrees for about an hour. Test with a toothpick. It is wise to put a

McKown's bill upsets planning or explained this. The mayor told the council that he had complied with every requirement the finance committee had suggested except for two. One is to raise the cemetery rates and the other to hire an electrical consultant to review the rate schedule.

He also pointed out that the new water rate increase is not included in anticipated water revenues.

The salaries as listed in each fund by the mayor reflect actual wages, public retirement, hospitalization and workmen's compensation. The police department will have $86,760 for the year. Of this sum $69,900 is for personal services and $15,960 for operation and maintenance.

What has been added this year is the permanent police dispatcher's salary, which totals $10,354 with all benefits. This has been divided in half. Part is chargeable to the police department and the other half to the mayor's court.
