

Aug. 21 deadline set for council action

Formation of a plan of capital improvements, payment of the legal bills owed Robert A. McKown, former village solicitor, and to Squire, Sanders & Dempsey, Cleveland, who advised the village during its long legal battle with the sewer bonding company, and the financing of the water line from Willard were urged on village council Monday night by J. C. Landers and Richard A. Stoff of Ernst & Whinney.

Precise answers to all three problems must be forthcoming by Aug. 21, when the Financial Planning commission meets again. They will be reviewed and either approved or disapproved.

Landers told the council a capital improvement plan for the several departments is vital because this year money was spent from several funds, which the Financial commission had not bargained for, upsetting anticipated revenues.

He said that by Aug. 21 it would be expected the council will have a plan formulated that will carry the village through the remainder of this year and that by October it should have a complete plan for 1982.

He said that most capital improvements usually range over a two-year period. An improvement such as a sewer system or a water line has to be planned differently because of the long-term funding.

The accountants prepared a chart that shows the "chain of command" within the village to determine what improvements are to be made.

They said it begins at the "grass roots", the heads of the several departments. Their recommendations then go to the village administrator, who will either add or detract and make his suggestions.

The next step is the mayor, who also will make suggestions and changes.

The clerk comes next, to determine if the funds will be available.

Depending on what can be done and what cannot, the projects go back to the mayor, who will incorporate them in the annual budget, appropriations and requests for ordinances to carry out the work where it is required.

The last step is to the council for its approval or disapproval.

Councilman D. Douglas Brumbach said the council would be left out in any future planning for the village and the mayor should share his part of the planning with the councilman committees.

Councilman James Holloway inquired about the committees working with the department heads.

Stoff said everyone should work together.

Mayor Dean A. Cline observed the committees should work with the department heads and the administrator before any plans reach him.

The second item, payment of the legal fees, was next on the agenda.

Landers said their thinking was that first the clerk should determine the liabilities and to be sure they are paid from the proper funds.

Secondly, it must be determined what agreement can be made for repayment over a period of time. This cannot be done this year, Stoff said, but that by the end of 1982 both legal bills, which total about $44,000, can be paid. He also said this agreement must be reached before the commission is disbanded.

Landers explained to the council the clerk is wisely making short term investments (30 day certificates) at the best interest rate available.

These are bringing in about $4,000 a month. Of this amount, 40 per cent of the interest gained must go the parent fund from which the investment money came. The remaining 60 per cent of the interest gained can be channelled into the general fund to pay the bills. What is gained this year and next year from the investments will generate about $24,000, leaving $20,000 for the council to work out agreements for repaying.

When the accounting firm entered the financial picture of the village in July, 1980, the water line from Willard had not been anticipated, so it had not included it in its year-end projections of balances or deficits in its overall plan for the village.

The first action the council must take, which will be done at tonight's meeting, is to adjust the water rates to account for the cost of the water from Willard, provide for operation and maintenance, capital improvements and the repayment of the 20-year loan of $125,000 from the Ohio Water Development administration.

Two annual payments of $7,700 will be due Jan. 1 and July 1 each year. The first payment will be due Jan. 1, 1982. Landers said the council must provide money for this payment as soon as possible by a rate increase so the money will be available.

He suggested the council should study the rate schedule prepared by the engineers, which will bring in an estimated income of $185,000 and $170,000 to operate the new system and pay Willard for the water annually.

Brumbach said the line will not be in use until next March because it will be delayed by the installation of the lift station at Route 61 and Skinner road.

The mayor said problems about the lift station have been overcome and the line is on schedule for installation.

Stoff said Ernst & Whinney are pleased with the progress the village has made financially. To date, he said, the fund balances are ahead of what had been anticipated so that at the end of this year there will be a stronger balance to begin 1982.

Landers said the council should look ahead on the funding of the police department, which now uses 50 per cent of the general fund. He warned that when the income tax expires and that money is not available, it should be able to "run on its own".

PHS academic achievement above national average

Academic achievement of Plymouth High school pupils exceeds the national norm, their guidance counselor, David Sotora, told Plymouth Board of Education Monday night.

Sotora reported on four years of results made by pupils who took the ACT (American College test), almost wholly 12th graders, and the PSAT (Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude test), almost wholly 11th graders.

Of 26 in the Class of 1978 who took the ACT, the composite was 20.1, compared to the national average of 18.1; 16 of the class of 1979 scored at 20.8; 22 of the Class of 1980 rated 17.4; 21 of the Class of 1981 scored 20.6.

Thirteen in the Class of 1979 took the PSAT and rated in the 62nd percentile in verbal skills and 73rd in mathematical skills (the national average in each is 50); 18 in the Class of 1980 rated 61st and 65th, respectively; 14 in the Class of 1981 scored 71st and 81st, respectively; 11 in the Class of 1982 rated 69th and 74th, respectively.

At the same time, the board learned, high school pupils are conducting themselves with far fewer behavioral problems. Principal James Craycraft reported.

A new discipline policy introduced last year, which will be continued in the 1981-82 year, showed a 17 per cent decrease in incidents of tardiness, six per cent in class disruptions, 40 per cent decrease in use of profanity, 24 per cent decrease in mischief and insubordination, 78 per cent decrease in fighting, seven per cent decrease in use of tobacco and drugs, 10 per cent decrease in absence without permission and a 16 per cent decrease in overall misbehavior. Only truancy and failure to serve detentions showed increases.

The comparisons, because the new system was in force only a year, are between the first semester and the second semester. In 1979-80, there were over 1,000 detentions ordered. Last year, only 700 were dropped by about 70 per cent.

Main reasons for detentions: talking without permission, class disturbance and coming to class unprepared.

Douglas A. Dickson was hired to perform summer maintenance work at $4 an hour. He replaced David G. Coulter, who underwent ear surgery.

Although chances of obtaining state funding for a new bus are remote, Supt. Douglas Staggs said, he was authorized to apply for the funds and to advertise for purchase of a new bus if funding is approved. Last year the bus was funded 77 per cent by the state.

Price of school lunches was advanced 10 cents. Elementary pupils will now pay 75 cents, high school pupils 85 cents and adults $1.25. Extra milk will cost 15 cents for pupils, 25 cents for adults.

Average cost of each meal served last year, Staggs said, was $1.66. Subsidies amounted to 34 cents, resulting in an average cost of $2.39 cents a meal. If federal funding reductions in pupil nutrition are applied as recommended by President Reagan, Staggs said, the board will have no alternative but to increase the new rates.

Supplemental contracts as head teachers were authorized for Sam Cook, high school; Miss Suzanne Farrar, Shiloh, and Mrs. Paul Gase, Plymouth Elementary school.

Mrs. William Albright will be adviser to the National Honor society.

Nickles Bakery was the low bidder to supply bread products.

Meadow Gold Dairy, Tiffin, was given the milk contract on its low bid of 11.1 cents a half pint for white milk and 11.6 cents for chocolate milk.

Republic Franklin Insurance Co., Columbus, represented by Uts Insurance agency here, was the only bidder on the bus fleet insurance policy. It will be paid $1,908.

Shirk Insurance, Columbus, represented by Tallman agency here, was awarded the contract to furnish pupil accident insurance. This applies as well to football players.

Coal Powered.

Most of the electricity that runs your electric appliances is made from coal. Matter of fact, the American Electric Power System we're part of uses more coal than any other utility in the country.

And, since coal is plentiful and more economical to use than other fuels, and fuel is the major factor in the cost of making electricity, that's one big reason why we've been able to keep your electric rates below the national average.*

Notice of Application of General Telephone Company of Ohio for Increases and Adjustments in Rates and Charges

Pursuant to the requirements of Section 4909.19 of the Ohio Revised Code, General Telephone Company of Ohio hereby gives notice that on June 30, 1981, it filed with the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio an application (PUCO Docket No. 81-383-TP-AIR) for authority to increase and adjust its rates and charges for telecommunications service and to change its regulations and practices affecting the same.

This notice contains the substance and prayer of the application. However, any interested party desiring complete detailed information with respect to all affected rates, charges, regulations and practices should inspect a copy of the application and all attached schedules at the office of the Commission, 375 South High Street, Columbus, Ohio. A copy of the application may be inspected by any interested party at the office of the General Telephone Company of Ohio located at 100 Executive Drive, Marion, Ohio. A copy of the application and the proposed tariff sheets is also available for inspection during normal business hours at any public business office or Phone Mart of General Telephone Company of Ohio. In addition, the proposed tariffs were mailed to the mayors and legislative authorities of all municipalities served by the company on March 27, 1981, as part of the company's notification of its intent to file.

This application affects rates and charges for telecommunications services to all customers of General Telephone Company of Ohio, provided pursuant to its Exchange Rate Tariff, P.U.C.O. No. 6, and General Exchange Tariff, P.U.C.O. No. 7.

Any person, firm, corporation or association may file, pursuant to Section 4909.19 of the Ohio Revised Code, objections to the proposed increases and adjustments in rates and charges, and to the proposed changes in regulations and practices affecting the same. The objections may allege that such application contains proposals that are unjust and discriminatory or unreasonable. Recommendations and wishes which differ from the application may be made by the staff of the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio or by intervening parties and may be adopted by the Commission.

Local Exchange Service

The application proposes to change and restructure the existing exchange rate groups and charges. The proposed local exchange rate groups will identify only the main stations within each exchange. Zone rates for one and four-party charges within each exchange, which some customers pay in addition to their basic rates, will be increased. Other zone charges will remain the same or decrease. The extent of existing extended area service (EAS) will determine the amount of a supplemental charge to be added to the exchange local service and zone rate charges. The EAS supplemental charge will be applied in all exchanges having EAS. (EAS is not optional). Local exchange service customers will pay a separate charge for each telephone provided by the company in addition to the appropriate local service rate, zone rate (if applicable), and EAS supplemental charges (if applicable). Multi-party residence and business service and two-party business service will be eliminated. Certain base rate areas and zone areas within certain exchanges will be expanded. As proposed in the application, General Telephone Company of Ohio will offer only one, two, and four-party residence service, and one-party business service as local exchange services.

The average percentage changes in monthly rates for residence one-party, two-party, or four-party exchange service and for one-party business exchange service in representative communities, should the requested increase be granted in full, are shown below. Proposed rates for services in the company's 232 other exchanges are contained in the proposed tariff sheets which can be inspected as stated previously.

R-2 = Residence Two-Party Line B-1 = Business Individual Line

Nonrecurring Charges

The company proposes to restructure its service connection charges into a number of individual elements corresponding more closely to the work functions performed. Under the proposal, residence telephone service could be connected for the minimum nonrecurring charge of $16.00 in a location where telephone service previously existed if the customer accepts the telephone instrument in place. If additional work functions were required, the maximum proposed charge for installation of residence service with one company provided telephone could be as much as $33.00.

Systematic Reclassification

The company is proposing to systematically reclassify an exchange, assigning it to the next higher or lower exchange rate group, and thus raising or lowering the applicable local service or EAS supplemental charges for basic service when the number of telephones which customers can call toll-free exceeds or drops below established limits for a specified period of time.

Optional Equipment and Services

Rates and charges for some optional equipment and services would be increased. The monthly charge for a company provided telephone will be $1.50, the same as the current residence extension rate. There will no longer be a monthly customer credit for each telephone provided by a customer. Varying increases are proposed for such options as two-line telephones with holding features, three-line telephones, sound booster handsets, speakerphones, cradlephones, and chestphones.

Paystation Telephone Service

The company proposes to increase the paystation rate from $.10 to $.20. The proposed rate for semi-public paystation service is a flat rate equal to the business one-party rate plus $12.00, plus zone charges (if applicable). The existing credit against the flat rate for coin-in-box revenues generated will be discontinued.

Mobile Telephone Service

Proposed rates for mobile telephone services are broken into rates for items of equipment which range from $2.00 to $95.00 for monthly rates, and from $20.00 to $75.00 for nonrecurring charges, depending upon the item, and for the exchange access line furnished for all mobile telephone service. The proposed rate for the exchange access line is $35.00.

Private Line Services (Special Circuits)

Increases are proposed for private line channels and associated equipment.

Centrex

Proposed rates for centrex CU service and for centrex CO service are restructured from present rates, but do not involve an increase in rates for this service which is offered only to existing customers.

Private Branch Exchange (PBX Services)

Rates for most manual and electromechanical PBX's would be increased substantially. For example, increases in the monthly rate for the common equipment associated with such PBX's would be: $66.00 for a Leich 40 PABX, $105.00 for a Leich 80 PABX, and $120.00 for a GTD-120 PABX.

Rates and charges for the GTD-1000 PBX would be increased. Significant increases are also proposed for installation and service charges for these PBX's.

Key Telephone Systems and Equipment

Rates and charges for the key telephone systems would be increased. For example, the proposed change in monthly rate for a six button key telephone set is an increase of $3.00. Increases also are proposed for most optional features and equipment associated with these systems and sets.

Miscellaneous Products and Services

Increases in rates and charges are proposed for most of the miscellaneous products and services. Proposed rates and charges may be found in the company's proposed tariff sheets.

Flexible Pricing (Minimum Level Pricing)

The company is proposing minimum level pricing for certain communications systems and equipment. For such systems and equipment, rates and charges will be identified as a minimum level only. The maximum level of such rates and charges would be two times the minimum level. The applicable rates and charges which may be anywhere within the range of the minimum and the maximum levels would be covered in a price list furnished to the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio.

Not less than twenty days prior to the effective date of any changes in the rates and charges for such systems and equipment, the company would furnish to the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio a new price list reflecting such changes in rates and charges.

Station Connection Expensing Adjustment

The company also is requesting permission to adjust its rates and charges on October 1, 1982, October 1, 1983, and October 1, 1984, to reflect increased expense to the company for performing the inside wiring portion of station connection work previously capitalized and charged to FCC Account No. 232.

The prayer of the application requests the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio to do the following:

- Find that the company's present rates and charges and the regulations and practices affecting the same are unjust, unreasonable and insufficient to yield reasonable compensation for the services rendered;
- Find that the rates and charges and regulations and practices proposed are just and reasonable and will provide not more than a fair and reasonable rate of return on the value of the company's property actually used and useful for the convenience of the public;
- Approve the filing of the proposed schedule sheets contained in Schedule E-1 of the application, modified to reflect such revisions thereof as may become effective, pursuant to orders of the Commission, during the interim between the filing of the application and the date upon which the schedule sheets become effective;
- Order that the proposed schedule sheets become effective forthwith;
- Approve the withdrawal of the present schedule sheets contained in Schedule E-2 of the application;
- Grant such other and further relief as the company is reasonable entitled to in the premises.
