

A failure

It is rate that we agree with the Ohio Education association. This time we do so with no reluctance: the new state minimum standards enacted by the General Assembly are a cruel joke.

They do not come to grips with the real problems.

Consider: One million of the nation's college freshmen, about 40 per cent of the class, read and write so poorly that they take remedial classes.

These classes are costing millions of dollars, $32 million in the state-supported City University of New York alone.

The situation is so serious, a conference in Chicago, Ill., was told Dec. 7, every college applicant should be tested for grammar, reading and writing.

The problem, college instructors say, is that high schools don't assign enough homework and rely on "fill-in-the-blanks" tests, which won't develop writing.

"Everybody is embarrassed," says University of Texas's Dr. John Roueche.

But without change, he said, "colleges will be in the remedial business for 20 years".

How did Ohio's legislature fall down?

It didn't require a fourth year of English.

It assigned the testing of pupils to once between grades one and four, and once between grades five through eight, and once between grades nine through 11. What's more, the testing is to be organized, prepared and executed by those whose efforts are to be measured by the testing, the teaching staff of the individual school. Which is about the same as assigning Willie Sutton to lock the bank vault.

It dictated new standards that will cost some districts more money than they have now but didn't appropriate any money to do it.

H'ray, ladies!

The comely young women who lead the cheering (it's Christmastime, and one must be charitable, so please, no remarks about "What cheering?") have, good naturedly but nevertheless persistently, plagued us about the paucity of publicity accorded their efforts.

They know what is the standing attitude of this newspaper toward cheerleading. Some of them know that the management of this newspaper raised a cheerleader, broke bread with her, wiped her tears and praised her efforts, and is so proud of her and her family it's about to explode. Despite these facts, the attitude toward cheerleading hasn't changed one whit.

The young women have been told, "Do something splendid and you'll get some publicity!"

On Friday night they earned this accolade.

The cheerleaders were among 14 Plymouth rooters who paid proper obeisance to the flag and to the national anthem. Deduct eight young women from that total and the remainder is six. Six persons who think enough of themselves and of their country to pay proper respect to its flag and its hymn. One of these, we are happy to say, was a member of the school board.

To the leadership of the cheerleaders, whether teacher or pupil, nice work, splendidly done!

Now please take a little time to teach the other knuckleheads what's what, why, and when. And if you need help, just shout!

Predieri marks quarter century as Donnelley man

On Dec. 3 Ronald Predieri celebrated 25 years with R. R. Donnelley & Sons Co.

His career began in 1967 as a directory compiler in the Willard division. In 1969 he was promoted to linotype operator and in 1980 was transferred to head receiving clerk.

Predieri and his wife, Jean, live in Plymouth where he is a member of Ethel-Parsel Post 447, American Legion, a village councilman and a communicant of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church. He enjoys golf, fishing, bowling and astronomy. He is an avid football fan.

Predieri has three cousins employed in the Willard division. Sam Predieri is a platemaker in OMP; Steve Predieri is an OPG machine operator and Mildred Wurm is a secretary in engineering.

Legion invites children Saturday

Santa Claus will again greet youngsters at Ethel-Parsel Post 447, American Legion, Saturday from 1 until 3 p. m., to listen to gift lists and distribute treats.

A special program has been planned with the Al-Koran Shrine clowns.

Members and their families are invited Saturday to an eggnog party at Ethel-Parsel Post 447, American Legion, from 8:30 p. m. until midnight.

Dora and Keith Gooding will play.

Guests are asked to bring a miscellaneous gift plus a tray of snacks.

Two engaged, no meeting

Village planning commission postponed its regularly scheduled meeting Tuesday night.

The chairman, Mrs. Charles E. Pritchard, and the secretary, Miss Luella Vandervort, were unable to attend.

The next scheduled meeting will be Jan. 4.

USPO to close for holidays, no services

Plymouth Post Office will operate on holiday mail schedule Saturday, Dec. 25, and Saturday, Jan. 1, in observance of Christmas and New Year's day.

Postmaster Ruth A. Pittenger says regular residential and business deliveries and pick-ups from collection boxes will not be made on those days. Usual post office lobby services will not be available.

Delivery of certain expedited mail services will continue during both holiday weeks. This includes special delivery. Mailers should call the post office at 687-5731 for information about holiday schedules.

ASC elects Verne LeSage

Verne LeSage has been chosen chairman of New Haven township ASC committee. Other members are Lee Buckingham, vice-chairman, and Roger Smith, member. First alternate is Joyce Slessman, second alternate Gerald Danne-miller.

Grand theft discovered at Shiloh

Theft of $1,245 in cash and a hunting knife valued at $300 was reported to Richland county sheriff's deputies by Garrett-Riest Post 503, American Legion, 4 East Main street, Shiloh, Friday.

The theft is believed to have occurred Dec. 7.

A pry bar was used to break into a window.

Commander Anthony Fenner said the modus operandi was similar to a score of break-ins in the county, according to deputies.

A severe knee injury forced retirement of Jeff Jacobs on Big Red squad, upsetting plan to win 11 varsity letters in high school career. Now he's shooting for 10, assuming rest and prescribed exercise will strengthen knee so he can play baseball, admitted his first love. He's a 12th grader.

Mrs. Strine honored by PFD

Mrs. Wayne E. Strine was chosen "fireman of the year" Saturday by members of the Plymouth fire department.

She is also a member of the ambulance squad.

The presentation was made during the department's annual holiday party at the Oscar Waddles home.

Chamber sets holiday dinner

Plymouth Area Chamber of Commerce will have its annual holiday dinner today at 7 p. m. at Hartenstein's Supper club.

Plymouth High school chorus will sing.

Yule music set by schools today, Sunday

Junior high chorus, sixth grade band and junior high band will present a Christmas concert today at 7 p. m. in the Shiloh gymnasium.

Jeffrey Conklin will direct the instrumental music, Miss Joni Rinaldi the vocal music. Chorus will sing "Jingle Bell Boogie," "A Gallery Carol," "Hallelujah, Glory Hallelujah," "Carol of the Drums," "Let There Be Peace on Earth" and "Was the Night Before Christmas."

Sixth grade band will play "Jole Ole St. Nicholas," "Good King Wenceslas," "God Rest You Merry, Gentlemen" and "Up on the House-tops."

The high band will play "Christmas Carol Suite," "Holy Wreath Melody," "Do You Hear What I Hear?" and "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

High school music department's annual Yuletide program will be presented Sunday at 3 p. m.

Band directed by Jeffrey Conklin will play "Christmas Music for Winds," "Silent Night," "Wintery Scene," "A Christmas Festival," "The Christmas Song" and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas."

Miss Joni Rinaldi will direct the chorus.

The body is in Greger & Wolf Funeral home there.

New industry parleys 'progressing', Root says

Prospect of a new industry here is improving, James C. Root, village administrator, told village council Tuesday night.

He said negotiations for use of a site adjoining the water plant are progressing.

He said he has been consulting with the owners of the roadway from Route 61 over the Chessie system tracks to the water plant and he is asking for 40 feet on each side to allow for the water line, which is in place, and for the installation of a sewer line.

Root said he thinks the matter should now go to a council committee for study.

Mayor Dean A. Cline said it might be wiser to not take any action until the proposed zoning ordinance has been passed.

That ordinance received passage on its second reading and is scheduled for its third and final reading Dec. 28.

Councilman Keith Hebble recommended the village join the Richland Growth association, which will be helpful in attracting industry to Plymouth. The annual fee is about $250. The council passed an emergency ordinance approving the village joining it.

Root recommended the village also join the Richland County Regional Planning commission again. The village had been a member of it for many years and for the last several years had dropped it. He said it has been much more helpful than the North Star council, which the village now belongs to in Huron county.

Councilman Ronald Predieri reported a new weight limitation allows 15 ton rather than three tons over the West Broadway bridge over the Chessie tracks.

Clean-up work has been done by the village at the Walnut street crossing with the railroad's permission.

Root said he has been asked to furnish more figures to John Sawler, Inc., so that the new electric rate study can be completed. It has requested a special meeting with the council to go over its proposed new rates.

Root urged one be planned because Ohio Power Co.'s new rates will go into effect next month.

The meeting will be Tuesday at 7 p. m.

Hebble proposed a resolution that was passed to allow some village employees to fill out time cards rather than punch the time clock, which has been moved to the village garage.

Councilman G. Thomas Moore asked about the village's salt supply for icy roadways. Root said he is under control and furthermore, the price of salt has dropped.

The mayor said he had received two complaints of unsafe driving by the firemen to reach the fire station during a fire call. Fire Chief Wayne E. Strine was asked to caution them.

Councilman John E. Heeden requested the council go into executive session to discuss the requests of Police Chief Robert Conley and Mrs. G. Thomas Moore, income director, for pay raises.

Conley wants his department to receive raises that will put the cost of operating the police department to about $115,000 for 1983.

John Fazzini, clerk-treasurer, had planned expenditures of $107,000 for the department in his tentative appropriation.

Heeden, who met with the finance committee Monday, said this will cut into the capital improvement fund, to which 50 per cent of the income tax money is earmarked, even though the other 50 per cent is already set aside for the general fund for police department costs.

Mrs. Rodman new manager of cafeteria

Mrs. Francis Rodman, a veteran cook in Shiloh cafeteria with 24 years of service, was appointed Monday night to succeed Mrs. Robert D. Foreythe, Sr., who is retiring, as manager of the food establishment.

Recommendation of Supt. Douglas Staggs was accepted without dissent by Plymouth Board of Education in regular session.

She will assume the post effective Jan. 1.

Annual reorganization meeting will take place Jan. 3 at 6 p. m.

Mrs. Kim Christner Nado-lay, an alumna of Plymouth High school who is a certified teacher, was named assistant girls' basketball coach. She will assist Bradley Reas, assistant girls' coach, who is not a member of the staff but has been substituting in Plymouth and Shiloh Elementary schools.

Other coaching assignments were handed to Richard Roll, assistant wrestling coach (he is also head coach, but will receive the additional pay because the number of candidates is sufficient to man a reserve team) and head softball coach, David P. Dunn, head baseball coach; Keith Diebler, head boys' track and field coach, replacing Douglas A. Dickson; Jerry Julian, assistant boys' track and field coach; Paul McClinton, head girls' track and field coach, and Paul Gay, assistant girls' track and field coach.

As is customary at year's end, the board was occupied with routine administrative matters of a fiscal nature, shuffling money from one fund to another to meet state requirements and to accommodate the computer.

Jeffrey Slauson, high school principal, reported the pupils and one alternate from the 19th grade talented and gifted class will participate in February in an Olympics of the Mind, staged by the county board for a brief period. He frankly chosen "Humor from Homer" as its preparation.

He expressed satisfaction that 15 parents attended a coffee hour organized by him at the Public Square program and to encourage establishment of a parent-teacher organization.

High school chorus will cancel in the Public Square Wednesday at 6:30 p. m., he said.

Principal Mark Sheely, Plymouth Elementary school, and Principal Edward Kinosh, Shiloh schools, reported the visit of the state inspector seemed to have gone well. He written report is awaited.

They said parent-teacher conferences were well attended. Sheely said 94 per cent of parents of Plymouth Elementary pupils participated. Kinosh reported 85 per cent of parents of Shiloh pupils took part.

Effect of the impending shortfall in state funds was dwelt upon by Staggs for a brief period. He frankly stated that "politics has so far influenced what is said about school financing and most of what we hear is rumormongering. Many temporary tax-expires in February. If the General Assembly doesn't reimpose them, we can expect a cut of from one to three per cent in our state funding in the current fiscal year."

ERRATUM

In the Nov. 24 issue, it was reported that Sheena R. Tash, 16, Plymouth, was summoned by shelly police for failure to halt at a stop sign. There was no summons issued. The Advertiser relied upon data furnished by the Shelly Police department.

A picnic dinner in December? Why not? asks Auntie. It's easy!

By AUNT LIZ
Are you all getting as tired as I am about all the great things you can cook for the holidays?
Sit back and relax a little. Plan a picnic dinner that you can get ready early in the day.
Hard boil eggs to get them ready to dev. Open a jar of olives and cut up celery and carrot sticks.
Then make a salad, gelatin like.
It is December but you can make it.
Mix a large package of strawberry gelatin with a six ounce package of frozen strawberries with two cups of hot water. Add a can of crushed pineapple, a small one, and about four sliced bananas.

Start half of it out in a large baking dish, 9 x 13.
The next layer is a mixture of two tablespoons of sour cream mixed with an eight ounce package of cream cheese and two tablespoons of mayonnaise and some nuts.
Spread this over the gelatin deal, and add a little milk to help it spread if you think it needs it. Then put the rest of the gelatin on top.
Just chill it until dinner time.
It might be very attractive looking, but it simply is not enough for a meal.
This is more substantial, and left overs can always be eaten.
Buy a cheap roast, boil it, when cool, slice thinly. Combine it with tomato wedges, a couple of large pickles, any flavor will work, a thinly sliced onion and three sliced boiled potatoes. Toss in some chives and tarragon for flavoring.
Then make a dressing of two tablespoons of vinegar, six tablespoons of salad oil, salt, a dash of prepared mustard and a bit of Worcestershire sauce.
Toss it altogether lightly.
Such a Christmas Eve supper will let you have time to sit down and enjoy it all.
There just is no need to have stacks of dishes to wash.
And if you are really smart, you will invest in some nice looking holiday plates so you do not have those to wash.
Some people say (mostly you know who) that paper napkins are for the birds on a nicely set table.

They are not. They are great, all sorts of seasonal things about them, and furthermore they do not have to be washed nor ironed. I am all for them.
The American housewife has really lived through a revolution in the last 30 years or so, and how many realize it?
Everyone wants to say everything is going to pot and is horrible. It is not, it is great. We have things today never did our grandmothers even dream about.

They scrubbed out muffin tins like mad, and what do we do, use little paper cups for them which lift out beautifully.
In your prayers thank the Almighty for all of this. I like to think He is up there saying, we have got to make this and that easier for those downtrodden housewives!

Last ditch Charger shot costs Red first conference game

Plymouth played its first Firelands conference game ever here Friday night and came within two seconds of victory.

A shot by Mark Frankboner with two seconds remaining produced a come-from-behind victory for Edison, 56 to 58.

Plymouth resumed a lead about 14 minutes into the first period during the third quarter, when the Big Red outscored the visitors, 15 to 2. Leading by 44 to 38 going into the final eight minutes, Plymouth couldn't control Byron Reed, who scored 10, and Frankboner, who bagged eight.

The Chargers shot exceptionally well during the first half. That it was a foreign floor that none of them had ever seen before daunted them not a whit. They got off 32 shots at the basket and made 15 of them. They missed just one free throw.

Meanwhile, Plymouth fired for field goal 30 times and was successful 14 times. The Big Red missed four free throws.

Indeed, had Plymouth done better at the foul line it would have won.

Trailing by seven at the half, Plymouth went to work in the third period. Classically, it has been a poor third quarter team, but this time it was different. The Big Red got off 14 shots and bagged six. Tom Baker, a capable replacement for the retired Jeff Jacobs, who has a severe knee injury, scored six of his 14-point total for the night in the third canto.

It was a bucket by Greg Polchek that gave Plymouth the lead with 3:20 to go in the third quarter. He got a free throw to go with it and the Big Red led at 38 to 36. Dan Frederick tied it at 38 with 1:41 remaining in the period and then Plymouth went on another rampage, scoring six unanswered points.

Mike McKenzie got a layup after a steal at 1:04 and Baker emerged from an unbelievable melee in Charger territory with the ball and a shot that connected. He added two free throws before the horn blew.

After the two teams exchanged baskets to begin the final period, Edison got two quick buckets, Plymouth countered with one and Edison called for time with 5:09 to go.

McKenzie shot a free throw, Reed flung one in from 19 feet out and Polchek fired one home from under the basket. Frankboner got a rebound at 3:34 and Pat Landoll another at 3:04. Landoll's shot established the Chargers' lead, which they held until McKenzie's free throw with 35 seconds left. He missed the second shot or Plymouth might have won.

With 10 seconds left, the visitors called time out. They regrouped and moved into the forecourt to spring Frankboner loose for the final shot.

Plymouth called its last time out and set up a play that was intended to produce a tie, perhaps even a three point play. But the final shot by Rodney Hampton didn't come close.

Reed concluded his play with 20 points. He is a fine athlete. Frankboner and Landoll had 14 apiece and Frederick 10.

Hampton scored 13, Baker 14 and McKenzie 12 for the Big Red.

Doug Fidler contributed to title for Eagles

Doug Fidler, Shiloh route 1, helped the Ashland college football team to a first place finish in the Heartland conference and an overall 8-5 mark this season.

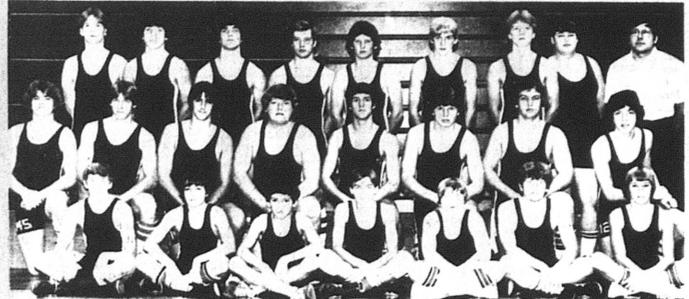

Under head Coach Fred Cox, the Eagles were crowned Heartland conference champions after their 17 to 14 victory against St. Joseph in the 10th week of play. The title game decision came with only 55 seconds remaining in the contest, giving the team a HCC record of 6-1 and their first outright championship.

On the campaign, Ashland was nationally ranked 10th among Division II schools. Fidler was a backup at the tailback position and in being a member of the Ashland offensive side, he aided the team in gaining recognition as one of the top ten colleges in rushing in Division II.

Overall, the team closed out the season with an 8-3 record, producing their most efficient output since 1972 when they finished at 11-0. Fidler, a sophomore, gained 47 yards on the season and also scored a touchdown. This came in the 56 to 0 rout of Georgetown. Last season in a similar role the 6-1 190 pounder rushed for an 11 yard-a-carry average.

Fidler is an alumnus of South Central High. Among his accomplishments: all-Ohio first team running back, rushing for over 1,500 yards in one of four years he lettered in the sport. He was named the MVP in three sports during his career there and in all won 10 letters. He is the son of the Earl Fidler.

Vikings win two, one in loop, 22 to 16

Fifth grade Vikings, 5-1, recorded two wins last week.

They defeated St. Marys 24 to 22, Tony Haymonds and Aaron Fenner scored eight each.

They whipped Mansfield Madison Gold in league play, 22 to 16, to move back into 1st place. Haymond had 10 and Fenner seven.

The Vikings went to Bucyrus last night to play Holy Trinity sixth grade team.

Saturday they will play a scrimmage game against Crestview sixth grade team at Dows school, Shelby, at 9 a. m.

Fifth graders will play in the Friendly House tournament that begins next week.

Girls defeat Trojans, Mounties in league

Big Red girls won their third Firelands conference contest here Thursday by trouncing South Central, 49 to 34.

Plymouth is now 3-and-2 in the league and 4-and-2 overall.

The winners overcame a brief Trojan lead of 7 to 4 to prevail after eight minutes at 14 to 7.

Plymouth led at the half by 12.

Employing a press, Plymouth forced mistake after mistake and converted them.

Lisa Aaron scored 18 and Rhonda Branham 17. Sue

Ott had 14 for the visitors.

Answer by Hesburgh best heard of yet

By THE OLD TIMER

Comes now the Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C. S. C., president of the University of Notre Dame, with the soundest solution that we've yet heard in the matter of irregularities in college athletics.

He blames himself and his colleagues, the other university presidents.

He's already on record to this effect: unless other university presidents make a concerted effort to end these irregularities, and adopt a code of strict academic standards, Notre Dame will no longer play those universities.

He adds, with some pride, "And if we refuse to play those who won't abide by these standards, the mess will be cleaned up tomorrow morning."

Father Hesburgh, president at South Bend for 30 years, said at the 25th annual banquet of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Dec. 7, "More than 20 institutions of higher learning are presently on NCAA probation for violating rules. There were doctored transcripts. There were credits for courses never taken. There is a long litany of things that have been done that were not right."

Notice of Application of General Telephone Company of Ohio for Increases and Adjustments in Rates and Charges

Pursuant to the requirements of Section 4909.19 of the Ohio Revised Code, General Telephone Company of Ohio hereby gives notice that on October 1, 1982, it filed with the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio an application (P.U.C. Docket No. 82-886-TP-AIR) for authority to increase and adjust its rates and charges for telecommunications service and to change its regulations and practices affecting the same.

This notice contains the substance and prayer of the application. However, any interested party desiring complete detailed information with respect to all affected rates, charges, regulations and practices should inspect a copy of the application and all attached schedules at the office of the Commission, 375 South High Street, Columbus, Ohio. A copy of the application may be inspected by any interested party at the office of the General Telephone Company of Ohio located at 100 Executive Drive, Marion, Ohio. A copy of the application and the proposed tariff sheets are also available for inspection during normal business hours at any public business office or Phone Mart of General Telephone Company of Ohio. In addition, the proposed tariffs were mailed to the mayors and legislative authorities of all municipalities served by the company on June 29, 1982, as part of the company's notification of its intent to file.

This application affects rates and charges for telecommunications services to all customers of General Telephone Company of Ohio, provided pursuant to its Exchange Rate Tariff, P.U.C.O. No. 6, and General Exchange Tariff, P.U.C.O. No. 7.

Any person, firm, corporation or association may file, pursuant to Section 4909.19 of the Ohio Revised Code, objections to the proposed increases and adjustments in rates and charges, and to the proposed changes in regulations and practices affecting the same. The objections may allege that such application contains proposals that are unjust and discriminatory or unreasonable. Recommendations which differ from the application may be made by the staff of the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio or by intervening parties and may be adopted by the Commission.

Local Exchange Service

Specific rates depend on the rate band applicable to a specific location. The company is proposing base rate and zone rate area expansions in selected exchanges. The average percentage changes in monthly rates for residence one-party, two-party, or four-party exchange service and for one-party business exchange service in the company's 244 exchanges, are shown below by schedule.

Usage Sensitive Service

The company is proposing a limited introduction of nonoptional Usage Sensitive Service in Huron, Ohio. Usage Sensitive Service is a billing system that lets the customers pay for what they use. Under the plan, the customer would pay a substantially lower monthly service or "access" charge for the local telephone service. Additional charges will be based upon the type and number of local calls made, the hour, day of the week and duration of each call, as well as the distance to the called party.

Paystation Telephone Service

The company proposes to increase the paystation rate from $20 to $25. The concept of a flat rate for semi-public paystation service will not change. The existing credit against the flat rate for coin-in-box revenues generated will be discontinued.

Late Payment Charge

The company proposes a late payment charge of 1.25% on the unpaid balance to be applied on the customer's bill.

Private Line/Interexchange Mileage

The company is proposing to increase its private line/interexchange mileage charges.

Centrex Service

The company proposes to increase its rates for Centrex Services.

Touch Call Line Charges

The touch call line charges will remain the same, however, the company is proposing a monthly instrument charge of $.75.

Personal Signaling Service

The company is proposing increases on personal signaling services.

Repair Visit Charge

The company is proposing to partially remove the premise visit cost of maintenance from its local service rates. The charge established will recognize the cost of a repairman making a premise visit in connection with a maintenance call associated with single line telephones.

Extended Area Service Supplemental Rates

The company is proposing an extended area service rate additive applicable only to exchanges filing for new extended area service after the effective date of the tariff.

Miscellaneous Products and Services

Increases in rates and charges are proposed for several of the miscellaneous products and services including:

- increases for special billing number.
- enterprise service.
- maintenance of service charges.
- non-published and emergency non-published service and;
- time announcement service.

Key Telephone and Private Branch Exchange Systems and Equipment

The company proposes increases in trunk rates for key telephone and private branch exchange systems. Proposed rates and charges may be found in the Company's proposed tariff sheets.

The prayer of the application requests the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio to do the following:

- Find that the company's present rates and charges and the regulations and practices affecting the same are unjust, unreasonable and insufficient to yield reasonable compensation for the services rendered;
- Find that the rates and charges and regulations and practices proposed are just and reasonable and will provide not more than a fair and reasonable rate of return on the value of the company's property actually used and useful for the convenience of the public;
- Approve the filing of the proposed schedule sheets contained in Schedule E-1 of the application, modified to reflect such revisions thereof as may become effective pursuant to orders of the Commission, during the interim between the filing of the application and the date upon which the schedule sheets become effective;
- Order that the proposed schedule sheets become effective forthwith;
- Approve the withdrawal of the present schedule sheets contained in Schedule E-2 of the application;
- Grant such other and further relief as the company is reasonably entitled to in the premises.

Look before you reap.
There are many good ways to make your money work for you. And some not so good. So don't leap into anything without taking a long, hard look. Especially if you have no savings in reserve. And if you don't have enough savings, look into U.S. Savings Bonds. Because Bonds do make sense. They guarantee the interest. They're guaranteed against loss, fire, and theft. And the Payroll Savings Plan is a sure, easy way to guarantee savings. Federal income tax may be deferred and there's no state or local income tax. A little is set aside each payday for U.S. Savings Bonds. Your savings will grow until you're ready to reap the rewards of regular saving. Saving is one of the most important financial decisions you'll ever make.

Take stock in America.
When you put part of your savings into U.S. Savings Bonds you're helping to build a brighter future for your country and for yourself.

Save not, have not.

You cannot spend tomorrow what you have not saved today. So the wise save for tomorrow by joining the Payroll Savings Plan today. Because mighty U.S. Savings Bonds from little paycheck allotments grow. And a Bond every payday could keep your doctor-to-be away. At medical school. Or take you away. On vacation. So do put off for tomorrow what you can save today. Join the Payroll Savings Plan. For, remember, a rolling Bond gathers no moss. But it does gather interest. Which is why a Bond in time saves.
