

Festival time! Problem is, who'll work?

It is the season for festivals.

The highly successful Firemen's Ox Roast at Shiloh is worth writing home about. A more or less quiet village of a little less than 800 comes alive for two days a year, with upwards of 15,000 folks on hand to see and feel and eat and enjoy.

It is an earnest to the remarkable hometown spirit that characterizes Shiloh, and has done so for as long as we can remember.

Consider the high school alumni association. Plymouth's died what appears to have been an unlamented death in 1954. Shiloh's has continued long after the Shiloh district was put out of business, its debts and its pupils handed to Plymouth by the county school board. That there may be some problem next year, because there won't be any 25-year class to honor, will in all likelihood not deter true Shilohans one whit; they'll find some way to adjust and proceed.

What is, however, ominous is that there are fewer and fewer FFS folks these days. What're they? First Families of Shiloh. Folks who were born there where their parents and grand-parents were born. In the 1980 census (and these data are by interpolation), 63 per cent of the residents of Cass township had minimal tenure of residency there. Last time we looked, Shiloh was right in the center of Cass township.

It's pretty hard to sell those who have'n't been steeped in the tea of hometown spirit on the notion that that spirit ought to be manifested, nurtured and made to flower.

The situation at Plymouth is considerably different.

Where once there was a single summer festival, jointly sponsored and conducted by the firemen and members of the American Legion post, now there are two separate ones.

They're not competitive. In fact, some who work on one also help out with the other.

Neither of the Plymouth affairs is aimed at developing community pride, per se. The events are pure and simple enterprises to raise funds that cannot otherwise be collected.

The firemen apply their profits to the purchase of equipment that the appropriations made by the village council do not fund.

The Legionaires have, in 19 years, made of their premises at 112 Trux street a model of what can be done in a small town. The facilities both inside and out match those anywhere, so far as we know.

But not all of the proceeds go toward capital improvement. A very considerable amount is invested in community activities. There are those who have been, to say the least, disappointed that they did not benefit by expenditures of the Legion post. So far as we can see, they've hardly anybody but themselves to blame. When there are several birds clamoring for one or two worms, the bird with the best chirp, the best presentation, gets fed!

In October an effort will be made to establish Village Days as a recurring event.

Time will tell if this concept is viable.

It is too soon to toll the bell and begin to count the effort out:

There are two kinds of nay sayers in Plymouth: those who openly find fault with the concept, with the thrust, with the staffing, with the execution and/or with the result of a community enterprise, and those who simply do nothing — they're certainly capable, and they thrive to lead, but for some reason, whether valid or otherwise, they just won't or don't participate.

There's hardly anything that can be done with those who sit on the bench and complain. It's the others, larger, qualified group that must be dealt with. And unless we do it soon, we're doomed.

It's a matter of leadership, of salesmanship, of willingness to bleed!

Burggraf gets new position

Formerly elementary school principal here, Gary Burggraf has been assigned as assistant principal of Madison North Junior High school near Mansfield.

He has been principal of Lincoln Hts. Elementary school in Madison district, whence he went from Plymouth.

Burggraf also taught in Ashland schools. An alumnus of Ashland college, he holds the master's degree of the University of Akron.

Mrs. Brown angry: police deny help

Sir:

On Saturday night, July 14, I was unfortunate to have eight little visitors at my home. So like any person with a problem they couldn't handle, I called the police department only to be told there was nothing they could do. Also if someone higher up told them to shoot them, they would refuse the assignment.

They refused to shoot them and I'm not allowed to shoot a gun in town so there I was, not knowing what to do.

I was told they'd smell up the place, which I already knew, but I had to do something. They told me to just leave them alone and they wouldn't bother me. Let them go behind under my house of whatever.

Well, let me tell you. I have a three-year-old boy. Now just how do you tell a child that young to stay away from them? To a child a little skunk would be just like a puppy or kitten, something to pet and play with.

I was told to call an exterminator. Now who in heaven's name could I get here on a Saturday night?

In desperation I called the Willard police to see if they knew of anyone or anything I could do. They referred me to the Huron County Humane department. They said shoot them.

I'm not permitted to shoot them. I don't own a gun. But I might yet!

I also called the police back, thinking I'd call somehow talk to the Police Chief, Frank Hodge. Maybe he'd be able to do something. Because I do know for a fact about two years ago he was called to a home in Plymouth to kill a skunk caught in a steel trap. He came and killed it, then hauled it off somewhere. I know it wasn't one of his favorite jobs but he did do it. But Saturday night he was out of town. My bad luck! So here I sat entertaining skunks in my yard and under my car and there was nothing I could do.

Nobody acted too concerned about it one way or the other. Or they could have tried to place calls or helped some way.

So to the people of Plymouth: it's skunk time again! Good luck to my neighbors. It could be your home next, too. That's part of life. So let them go back under your home and plan on them being permanent guests unwelcomed until they decide to move on, bite a child or get killed in the road.

I live very close to the police station and the fire station. So if they should come visiting there or wherever, just do like I was told: leave them alone and they won't bother you. Maybe!

By now you probably think I'm really mad about this situation. Me mad? Malarky! I'm furious!

Taulbees wed 29 years ago

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Taulbee were here Saturday at a surprise party for their 29th anniversary by their daughters and son-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Combs. Their guests were Mr. Taulbee's mother, Mrs. Mabel Newell, Willard; her aunt, Mrs. Rose Grove, Shelby; the Jacque Donnemwirths, Jane Smith, the Michael Barkases and the Charles Huggins.

Cornelius VanderBilt, Anasheim, Cal., and his brother, Henry VanderBilt, Kalamanzo, Mich., visited the Clarence Vogels Monday. The former spent the night with the Kenneth Eichelberrys. His brother visited in Shelby.

ERRATUM

Mrs. Kenneth G. Baker, nee Bonnie Williston, was the Dorthea E. Orens Outstanding Scholarship, not Service, award during the commencement of Medical College of Ohio at Toledo June 8.

A rarity anytime!

Becky Jamerson's triple play unassisted

That rarity in all of softball — and baseball, as well — occurred July 11 in the third inning of Nancy's Salon of Beauty vs. Plymouth Snappy in Major League girls' competition.

Becky Jamerson pulled off an unassisted triple play.

Bill Wambagnas, shortstop for the Cleveland Indians, did it in the 1920 World Series.

Miss Jamerson plays third base. With runners at second and third, Miss Jamerson caught a line drive, doubled the runner at third and tagged the runner from second.

Her team went on to a 14 to 8 victory, on just eight hits. Stacey Branham and Melissa McDougall thrilled the Gaspsippers with only three safeties.

Miss Branham contributed a home run and Nancy Beverly a double.

Trena Snipes was the losing pitcher.

N 2 4 3 5 x - 14

Plymouth Locomotive girls softballers won two last week, one of them the hard way on July 19.

Trailing Nancy's Salon of Beauty by 10 runs going into the fifth, PLW simply poured it on and bagged 10.

It remained tied at 15 through the sixth. PLW took off again in the seventh and scored 10 more to put it away.

Stacey Branham scored a double for the Beauticians, Kathy Farmer hit two homers for the winners, who got a triple from Amy Laser.

Score by innings:
P 3 1 1 0 1 0 10 - 25
N 4 0 5 6 0 0 0 - 15

Two nights earlier, PLW came from behind at 5 to 2 and scored 16 runs in the second inning against Plymouth Sunoco. The game lasted only three and half innings.

PLW out in front, 26 to 9.

Jenny and Missy Young and Amy Laser shared mound duties for the winners, collectively fanning three and walking 12.

Miss Farmer homered, Jenny

Young tripled and doubled, Karis Christoff doubled, Miss Young went four-for-four and the winners collected 16 safeties.

Line score:
P 2 3 1 2 - 9
N 2 16 8 x - 26

Nancy's managed a one run decision over All Seasons Saturday, 13 to 12.

The winners rallied for two scores in the sixth to prevail. Nancy's got only six hits, All Seasons 15.

Stacey Branham tripled for the winners. Elizabeth Stumbo homered for All Seasons. Mia Branham fanned eight and walked eight. Miss Stumbo walked 15 and struck out four.

Line score:

Help as much as you can.

together, we can change things.

What'll we do if USPO strikes?

By AUNT LIZ

Going out on strike has become a real specialty in the country. Whether the hard way to try to write things was waiting. It was all there, and he brought it to us. Those are the things you do not forget.

What you really regard is something you need to cook with. It never fails that when I do go without a list, I come home without. Even with a list, I can do it.

We all know how grocery stores are arranged, and I have learned the hard way to try to write things in order of where they are. What can throw you for a loop is when they decide to rearrange things. Once I went for eggs where they had been for years, and not one was in eight. It was unbelievable that this place was plain out of there. I wasn't the only one having trouble and the store finally ended up handing out maps of where they moved stuff.

For a really quick meal, great with corn on the cob, prepare ordinary little meat balls. Just perk them up with a sweet and sour sauce.

Brown them after they are mixed with an egg, some bread crumbs and a little chopped onion. Drain them. Then pour over a sauce and let them simmer until done.

Mix a small can of crushed pineapple with three tablespoons of cornstarch, a tablespoon of soy sauce, a half cup each of sugar, vinegar and pineapple juice. Cook for a little until it thickens, and it is a tasty sauce. Not bad on pork chops either or chicken.

When our kids were away at school, they would dash off a card and always added, "Hi, —", because they knew someone was going to read it.

Complaining about the postal service is like taking care of the weather. It is always with you. Granted some of the services have gone a little down hill, but never, never blame the local people. It's those large centers where even what thing except local mail goes. We have had our problems. Last year I mailed out about 10 things at one clip, and not one ever got delivered. Then there is the famous story of about 15 people who mailed their property taxes on time and about a week later they all got nasty little notes that they had not paid. All that would say was they had sent a check but couldn't prove a thing, then happily about three months later the whole packet appeared in the bottom of a mail sack in Iowa. We once found a dead mouse in a letter. I took hours to figure out what was smelling so badly.

We are lucky we have people who really care for all of us. Two different Christmas I had a problem of something not getting here in time.

Actually one time was in Illinois. What I had ordered in plenty of time simply had not come, so we waited the post office about noon on Christmas Eve. They had closed down and were having a great holiday party, and when we knocked on the door, some guy opened it and the whole package was stuck to the ceiling with undelivered packages. And this was a college town with every one making for something from home.

They deliver them all after Christmas.

A slick plan for a rainy day.

Some people manage to go through life without ever having a rainy day. But most people run into a storm now and then.

So it pays to plan for a storm and then hope it never happens.

The Payroll Savings Plan is one sure, safe, easy way to force yourself to start saving. And savings are a must to keep any financial plan from going on the skids.

The little you set aside each payday for U.S. Savings Bonds will grow. And help to keep you covered come rain or come shine.

And if you're lucky enough to miss the rain, it might help you plant a few shade trees.

When you put part of your savings into U.S. Savings Bonds you're helping to build a brighter future for your country and for yourself.

If you're not careful, your TV or CB antenna could put you in touch with a lot more than you bargained for.

Like many do-it-yourself projects, installing your own TV or CB antenna can save you money. But unless you take proper precautions, it could put you in touch with our power lines.

And the slightest contact between you, your antenna and our lines, could be fatal.

So, before you put up your antenna, here are a few suggestions you should follow.

First, we recommend you have a professional do it for you.

Okay, if you're determined to do it yourself, look out for power lines. The ones attached to poles, and the ones attached to your house.

If you can't tell a power line from a phone line, don't experiment. Steer clear.

Then make sure you locate your antenna (including supporting mast and guy wires) at least one and a half times its total height from all power lines. Which means, a 30-ft. high antenna should be 45 feet away from all power lines in all directions.

That way, if it falls during construction, or gets blown down during a storm, it won't hit any lines and endanger you or your neighbors.

Wait for a calm day, assemble the antenna where you intend to put it up, be sure to ground the antenna properly and get somebody to help you.

And remember: Ladders don't mix any better with power lines than do antennas.

I wish to thank Dr. Donald W. and Donald L. Deward and members of the staff of Mansfield General Hospital for their care; the Presbyterian church and Pastor Meter of the Christian Alliance church for their visits and prayers. And all who sent cards and flowers, visited and telephoned. Everything was greatly appreciated. May God Bless all of you.
Mrs. Charles H. Dick

How To Tame The Bear.

The Wall Street bear is dangerous. But if you're buying U.S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan, forget about him. Bonds have a variable interest rate combined with a guaranteed minimum of 7.5%. So you just can't lose.

Just hold your Bonds 5 years or more, and you're sure to get the best of both bull and bear markets.
