Troy Keene, 12th grader, quarterback of the Big Red last year, will complete his interscholastic eligibility this season with, he fondly hopes, a winner. His team will engage Crestline here Aug. 30 in first game.

Four teachers hired by board

Four teachers were hired Monday night by Plymouth board of education.

Wayne Whitehead will teach high school business education. He has had 10 years experience, assisting a year here when he filled the position during a maternity leave.

Dennis Blanchard, a 1985 graduate of Bowling Green State university, will teach a fifth grade class at Shiloh. He will also be junior high football coach.

Kathleen Drager, an Ohio State university graduate with three years of experience, will teach third grade at Shiloh.

Mrs. Curtis Burma was hired for high school art to replace Philip Ferrari, who has resigned verbally after receiving a contract last month to accept a position near Dayton. Mrs. Burma has taught in Willard schools and in Clear Fork district.

Supplemental contracts were approved for Kevin Steinmetz as assistant varsity football coach. Blanchard will take over junior high school football, to which Steinmetz had been previously assigned. Gary Holt will be his assistant. Holt is completing his degree at Ohio State university.

Mrs. Burma was assigned to the school year book.

Maternity leave for a year was assigned to Mrs. Robert Bass, a first grade teacher in Plymouth Elementary school.

Pay for substitute teachers was raised from $35 a day to $40 at the suggestion of Tupt. Douglas Stagg, who said it is more competitive with nearby districts.

Teachers who tutor will receive $8 an hour instead of $7.

The Voice of The Advertiser —

Is child richer?

School begins in less than three weeks.

He who has a child should reflect upon the summer.

What should he ask himself?

He should ask this: "What did I do to enrich my child during the recess since June?"

What does it mean?

It means this: Did the child by his summer experience grow in a normal, gentle fashion? Did the child learn how to deal with people just a little better? Did the child learn how to take care of himself just a little better? Did the child enlarge upon his intellect by encountering and profiting from new learning experiences? Did the child increase his perception of what family is all about, of what duty means, of what are real values? Did the child learn to manage his physical growth with reasonable concern for his safety and the safety of others, while simultaneously enlarging his mental concepts so as to adjust to his physical growth?

If his answer is yes, he may be content, even happy.

Note that we said "may", not "can" or "will".

Why?

Because if his answer to all these questions is yes, then he will probably, if he's the kind of parent who's worth a damn, want to ask himself, "Was it enough?"

Ay, there's the rub.

Terry Mansfield, big line-man, 12th grader, letterman as the Co-Captain Keene, has big shoes to fill in Big Red line, places left by Scott Ryman and Bill McVey. Mansfield saw heavy action last year. He will lead Red line in three scrimmages.

Roy Brown Against Mrs. Jump— dead at 45; Hebble to make run dog dealer for mayor's post

Only a year after he got national publicity that he didn't seek, Roy Brown, 45, Route 98, died Tuesday in Mansfield General hospital of a brief illness.

He was earlier examined at Willard Area hospital after an ambulance call.

Mr. Brown was a self-employed kennel operator. He bought and sold dogs in volume. Most of his customers were research laboratories and vivisectionists, or agents thereof. A considerable storm of publicity surrounded his activity earlier and some restraints upon the nature of his business, which is undertook in good faith and in complete ignorance with the law, were applied.

Born in Ivyton, Ky., he lived in or near here 23 years.

He is survived by his wife, Nell Loreta McLaughlin, six sons, Leroy, Shane and Roy Keith, all at home; Charles, Mansfield, and Kirk and Kevin, Jackson, Mich.; two daughters, Soianne and Mollie, at home; seven brothers, Willis and Ramon, Willard; Sherman, Plymouth; John, Napoleon, Mich.; Burns, Ashland; Kack Fletcher, in Indiana, and allen Farnsworth, in Michigan, and three sisters; Mrs. Jean Joseph, Grasslake, Mich.; Mrs. Boyce Holbrook, Gallon, and Mrs. Frances Shaw, Holt, Mich.

Nevin Border conducted services Friday at 1 p.m. from McQueste Farm, 7505 E. Intermountain, was in Greenlawn cemetery.

'72 alumnus now director of new bank

John Mack has been named a director of Sutton Bancshares, Inc., Attica.

What was the former Sutton State bank is now locally owned. It had been part of Centran Corporation, which merged with Society Corp.

Shares of the bank are now locally owned.

Mack, a 1972 Plymouth High school graduate, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R. Harold Mack, who is the owner of Mack's Super Valu Market in Attica.

One opens, one shuts in Square

Two changes in the downtown business community occurred last week.

Joseph Deskins, proprietor of Bob's Cafe, leased the premises next door at 6 East Main street and opened a game room.

Future plans? "We'll see what's down the road," he says.

The Donald Perdues will close D&N Food store at West Broadway and Plymouth street.

They are disposing of merchandise remaining at reduced prices and will vacate the building, owned by the Robert L. McIntires.

Departure of D&N Foods will leave the village with just one grocery outlet.

Driver, 17, held after collision

A 17-year-old Plymouth driver was summoned on a charge of failing to halt within an assured clear distance Aug. 6, at Route 61 and Skinner road after he struck a pick-up truck.

Lowell Sexton, 173 Beelman street, was southbound in Route 61. He struck the vehicle operated by Jeffrey Echebarger, 17, Baseline road, who had halted to turn east into Skinner road.

Neither driver was injured. The truck was driven away and the 1981 Mercury Capri driven by Sexton had to be towed.

Save for the office of mayor, no contest has so far emerged for the general election.

Mayor Keith A. Hebble is circulating a nominating petition to accept to the remainder of the term to which Dean A. Cline was elected in 1983.

He declined to announce his formal candidacy before the annual Firemen's Festival parade "because I didn't want the public to think I would use that event as a campaign gimmick."

His opponent will be Mrs. Terry Jump, incumbent councilman.

She is only the second woman in Plymouth's history to run for mayor. Her predecessor did so twice and was successful each time.

Village council failed to elect a successor to Hebble, who was president pro tempore of the council when Cline was mayor, by Friday, 30 days after Cline's resignation and Hebble's vacating of the council seat, and now the selection of a councilman to occupy that seat is Hebble's duty.

Ed had not so far identified his target candidate.

With Mrs. Jump as an incumbent councilman having two years remaining in her term if she fails of election as mayor, there will be four vacancies on the council.

Only E. Adrian Cole, an appointee, is so far circulating a nominating petition for a four year term.

Terry Hopkins, completing a four year term, says, "I have had enough. I have served my time and I am leaving. Period."

Term of Roy Barber, also an appointee, expires in December.

Whoever succeeds to Hebble's seat must also seek election, for that term expires Dec. 31.

Three seats on the board of education will be open in the general election.

The incumbents, Don M. Echebarger, A.

Legion roast to start here Thursday night

Annual ox roast of Ehret-Parsel Post 447, American Legion, will be staged on its grounds at 112 Trux street Aug. 23 and 24, with serving of 1,500 pounds of beef to begin each day at noon.

Bernard A. Garrett, first vice-commander of the post, and Mrs. Robinson are co-chairmen of the ox roast.

"The meat will be packaged earlier in the week and we will put it into the pits about midnight on Aug. 22," Garrett said Saturday.

Sandwiches will be sold at $1 each.

They named committee chairmen for the event thus: Mrs. Robinson and the auxiliary; food concession, Theodore A. Ross, meat wrapping; Garrett and Robinson, pit preparation and firing; Vance C. Hoffman, Sr., ticket sales; J. Max Fidler, advertising.

Don Mac Echebarger and Carol Ann Echebarger have acquired 79 acres at Baseline and Townline roads, New Haven township, from Don G. Echebarger, to whom the land was conveyed by the estate of Marguerite Echebarger, Huron county recorder reports.

Estate of Harry B. Forquer has conveyed Lot 331, Willow drive, to Ellen Jane Forquer.

George Miller and Donald Barnthouse, are circulating nominating petitions.

Barnthouse is completing the term of the Rev. Arthur Hamman, who resigned because he was assigned out of the school district. Barnthouse was required to seek election to the remainder of that unexpired term. Now the four year term itself is expiring.

A report that an opposition slate of three candidates will file nominating petitions persists but those who have so far been identified as likely candidates merely state, "If it's true, and it might be, it's certainly premature."

Incumbent trustees of Plymouth township, Mark Fry and Chester Jones are circulating nominating petitions.

Incumbent trustees of New Haven township, Frank V. Smith and Willard Baxter, are circulating nominating petitions.

In Shiloh, no candidates for any office have so far come forward.

Mayor Francis Gowitzka was appointed to the office but Ohio law declares that the mayorship shall be decided at the next general election when the term expires.

Whether he will seek reelection hasn't been disclosed.

Four council seats at Shiloh are also to be voted upon.

Francis Snyder, trustee of Cass township, will seek reelection.

In Bloominggrove township, where there has been controversy over who shall be trustees — only a short time back, a number of electors petitioned to oust two trustees — and where there have been contests for the past three elections, there seems to be another contest making up.

Incumbents Charles Bly and Paul Egnor will be opposed by Forest Peters.

Two women killed in car-truck crash at Route 96 crossing

Two elderly women, one of them a longtime resident of Shiloh, were killed Aug. 6 at 1:35 p. m. in the collision of a car and a truck at Route 96 and Plymouth Springmill road.

Mrs. Elsie Barnes, 84, Taylor-town road, Shelby, was pronounced dead at the scene. Miss Elda M. Barnes, 91, her next door neighbor, was dead on arrival at Shelby Memorial hospital.

State troopers said the car driven by Mrs. Elsie Barnes, southbound in Plymouth-Springmill road, halted at the stop sign at Route 96, then drove into the intersection and into the path of a westbound truck operated by Russell Blank, 48, Winchester, Ky.

Blank was not injured.

The women were sisters-in-law.

Mrs. Barnes, widow of Donald, was born in Ulmcut, Kent, England. She lived most of her life in Plymouth and Cass townships. She was a member of Shiloh United Methodist church of the Get-to-Gether club and a charter member of Shiloh Community Grange, which was founded in 1935.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Rosemary Bricker, Shelby, and three grandchildren.

Miss Barnes was born in Shiloh. She was a member of Maple Grove United Methodist church at Columbus, where she lived many years, having worked 25 years as a dietitian in the Ohio School for the Blind and 15 years in Worthington United Methodist Children's home. She belonged to the Ohio State university Alumni association and she was a charter member of Gamma chapter, Phi Upsilon Omicron.

The Rev. Thomas Hoover conducted services for both women from McQueste-Sacco Funeral home Saturday at 2 p.m. Interment was in Mt. Hope cemetery, Cass township.

Memorial contributions to the Shiloh church or to the Cancer Society are suggested.

JayCees prepare game with Plymouth tinge

A Plymouth trivia game will be sold by Plymouth JayCees during Village Days Oct. 5-6 at $12.95.
Two hundred questions of Plymouth trivia are among the battery of questions selected for the game. Each of the Plymouth questions and answers has been verified by previous research. Neil A. McKown, chairman, says.
He flew the material to Romulus, Mich., Sunday. It will be printed as a group trip to see a Cleveland Browns game Oct. 20 is planned. Cost is $35, which includes bus travel, ticket, lunch and refreshments. Dr. Jeffrey Stoller at 687-4345 and Randy Adams at 687-1811 have details.
Jeffrey Jacobs is chairman of the group that will assist the American Legion in preparing its annual ox roast. The JayCees, directed by Douglas Marquart, sponsored the dunking machine during the Firemen's Festival, to general acclaim.

USPO renovation: 151 more lock boxes!
Renovation of Plymouth's post office is completed. An additional 151 lock boxes have been installed.
This more than doubles the number, from 108 to 259.
The original 108 have been in use longer than anyone can remember. They were used when the post office was in a former location at 14 East Main street.
When the new building was raised in 1960, they were installed in it.
Perhaps postal authorities know more than anyone else. They apparently are anticipating a growth in the use of lock boxes, which can come from two sources: an increase in population or enlargement of the postal service area by closure of some smaller offices. Which ones? New Haven has been suggested by the Grace report. Shiloh by the postmaster's association.

And two local girls finished second and third in the competition for Queen.
These are Terry Adams, who finished first among four contestants in 1984, a member of Shiloh Wranglers 4-H club.
And the girls are Maria Ousley, 17, Reachout 4-H club, Plymouth, and Julie Von Stein, 15, Shiloh Pals 4-H club, first and second

USPO renovation: 151 more lock boxes!
Renovation of Plymouth's post office is completed. An additional 151 lock boxes have been installed.
This more than doubles the number, from 108 to 259.
The original 108 have been in use longer than anyone can remember. They were used when the post office was in a former location at 14 East Main street.
When the new building was raised in 1960, they were installed in it.
Perhaps postal authorities know more than anyone else. They apparently are anticipating a growth in the use of lock boxes, which can come from two sources: an increase in population or enlargement of the postal service area by closure of some smaller offices. Which ones? New Haven has been suggested by the Grace report. Shiloh by the postmaster's association.

JayCees prepare game with Plymouth tinge

A Plymouth trivia game will be sold by Plymouth JayCees during Village Days Oct. 5-6 at $12.95.
Two hundred questions of Plymouth trivia are among the battery of questions selected for the game. Each of the Plymouth questions and answers has been verified by previous research. Neil A. McKown, chairman, says.
He flew the material to Romulus, Mich., Sunday. It will be printed as a group trip to see a Cleveland Browns game Oct. 20 is planned. Cost is $35, which includes bus travel, ticket, lunch and refreshments. Dr. Jeffrey Stoller at 687-4345 and Randy Adams at 687-1811 have details.
Jeffrey Jacobs is chairman of the group that will assist the American Legion in preparing its annual ox roast. The JayCees, directed by Douglas Marquart, sponsored the dunking machine during the Firemen's Festival, to general acclaim.

Schools engage four to teach prevention* program

Under the VIB program for handicapped pupils, the school will receive $23,837. The money will be divided into grants for special tutors, books and supplies, transportation costs for pupils outside the district and for the employment of a secretary to keep detailed records.

Mrs. Kenneth Snidfr was hired. She will work 11 hours a week for a total of 400 hours and receive $2,040.

Bread for the cafeteria will come from Nichols Bakery, Mansfield. Four requests were sent to area bakeries and it was the only one returned with any figures. Staggs said the figure for this school year are the same as were quoted for the 1984-85 year, but another company was lower.

Four quotations for milk were received. Top Dairy, Sandusky, was accepted. This is the company's first year bid and it is lower than what the schools paid last year from another company.

Fleet insurance for all school vehicles again was awarded to Tom Thompson, Willard Nationalwide Insurance agency. On other bid from Cooper-Harris, Mansfield, which carries the policies on the buildings, was higher.

Two new computer-related policies were adopted by the board. One will strengthen the program for all the grades in use. The second spells out the copy regulations and laws.

Staggs told the board he believes that the board is getting so that no future misunderstandings can result.

Board members reviewed the handbooks for the elementary and high school.

John H. Hart prepared the former and Slauson the latter.

Parents are urged to read them so that they are aware of the building policies.

On question of pot: should it be legal? Basil is better!

By AUNT LIZ

How honest should one be? Most of us try.

Still there are great temptations. Once we looked at another paper that sounded much better than what we had. It was in a town, a fairly good sized one, along the Ohio river. So off we start at the crack of dawn to look.

I could hardly wait to see the lovely old homes with white pillars just like Gone With the Wind.

We got there, and it looked sad, so I said, "Keep going, we have got to be on the edge." It got even worse. That little community of about 10,000 souls had not seen a can of paint in 25 years.

By then it was noon and I was starving, so we found a bar-like place that seemed to be the only place to eat. It was not too bad and its cheeseburgers were really good. The catch was after we settled in a booth and had ordered and I found that I needed to visit another room. When I came back, you know who who absolutely jubilant.

He proudly announced that he had been propositioned, which was very flattering to him.

We just calmly talked that paper over. It could have been great. It was very obvious from what we could see that the owner indulged in illegal printing. Actually there was a major race track within a few miles.

The big thing was that perhaps we could have gone into a very nice business with nice ladies. It was obvious that was the mainstay of the area.

He was having a fairly good housewife, I could have run it, but what was I going to do with two little kids who would ask, "Hey, Mom, who is that lady who is being propositioned?"

Honest! School lunches remain the same

Prices for school lunches in Plymouth and Shiloh will remain the same as last year.

Kindergarten through the eighth grade will pay 65 cents, high schoolers 95 cents, adults $1.35.

Extra milk will be 20 cents.

so nice?"

Those kids were the only thing that stopped me.

This leads me up to our farmer friends.

Apparently they are missing the boat by planting edibles.

According to USA Today, growing in pot is up in the millions.

I have no idea how accurate its figures are, but Ohio is kind of low with about a yearly volume of $250 million dollars. The neighbors tall up too. Michigan is also at $250 million. Pennsylvania is only $200, but then comes Kentucky at $800 million and West Virginia at $350 million.

Poor Indiana is only $100 million.

This is unbelievable, but it can be partly true.

"USA Today" in its Friday edition ran an interview with a gal from Oregon who apparently is a farm worker. Her answer was "legalize the stuff, it is the biggest crop Oregon has."

So here I am raising with great pride a pot of basil. I have no idea what it would be worth if it was good, wholesome pot, but frankly, I would not trade it. I like basil, which is the thing you need to make pesto, which is an Italian sauce for pasta, which is delicious.

It is easy, harvest your crop of basil and chop it up with the hope you will have about two cups; if not, cheat a little and throw in some fresh parsley. Mix it with crushed garlic, about two cloves, and some olive oil.

You really do not have to measure any of it, just guess. What you want is something kind of liquidy with a lot of garlic mixed added, but it must be able to mix well with the pasta.

Two couples terminate marriages

Marriage of Eric Charles Haden, Plymouth route 1, and Judy Ilene Heden, Plymouth route 1, has been dissolved, a journal entry in Richland county common pleas court states.

Glaine D. Hursch, 16 Cleveland street, Shiloh, has obtained in Richland county common pleas court a decree of divorce from her husband, William H. Hursch, Jr., Shiloh.

Last call to sign up issued by schools

New pupils entering the kindergarten classes are to report to the Plymouth Elementary school Wednesday and Thursday for screening.

Principal Mark Sheely is planning an open house for parents at the Plymouth building Sept. 3 at 7:30 p.m.

Open house at the Shiloh building will be Sept. 5, also at 7:30 p.m.

Orientation for new ninth graders in Plymouth Wednesday and Thursday for screening.

Class schedules are to be collected by 12th graders at the high school during the morning hours Wednesday, by 11th graders during the afternoon.

Schedules for 10th graders will be available Aug. 23 in the morning.

DON'T LET WINTER TAKE YOUR HEATING BILLS FOR A RIDE.

When temperatures take the plunge this winter, your heating bills needn't climb. Not if you're on Columbia's Budget Payment Plan. The plan averages your bills into 12 equal payments, so there are no peaks and valleys because of the weather. Instead, the monthly amount stays the same...higher than you now pay in the summer, but a lot lower in the winter.
 Rather than ups and downs, your gas bills stay on a smooth, even track all year 'round.
 It's easy to be a Budget Payment customer, too. All you do is pay the "Budget Amount" on your August bill, and you'll be billed that amount every month. Your meter will continue to be read as usual, and each month's bill will continue to show the amount of gas you used. A review in March determines if your budget amount needs to be adjusted because of weather.

 Another good idea: sign on for Checkfree™, too. It automatically makes your gas payment from your checking account each month, so you save time, postage and check charges.
 Join the Columbia Budget Payment Plan. You'll take the ups and downs out of your heating bills...and leave the high cost of winter behind.

Big Red's 37th season needs success to match those of '98, '56, '83

Plymouth's 37th season of 11-man football, modern era, begins in Mary Fate park against Crestline on Aug. 31. The Big Red will be striving for a successful season.

Targets? Two teams of the modern era and one of the earlier era were the best that Plymouth ever produced.

Considering the resources, and the opposition, the Pilgrims of 1986 have to be rated the absolute best.

They were coached by Prof. Harry D. Clark of Ashland college. In those days, the coach played with the squad.

Consider the schedule: Plymouth 57, SHELBY 0; Plymouth 60, Greenwich 0; Plymouth 11, SHELBY A. C. 6;

Plymouth 10, Crestline 0; Plymouth 25, Greenwich 5 (sic); Plymouth 6, SHELBY A. C. 0;

Plymouth 6, Galion 0; Plymouth 11, Greenwich A. C. 0; Plymouth 6, Norwalk 0; Plymouth 6, Norwalk 0;

And the players? Forrest B. (Bud) Stewart was the star running back. He teamed up with Bob Kirtland, Karl Webber, Fred Fowler, Ira Page, Bob Fenner, Court Miller, Frank Cuykendall, Fred Nimmons, Marcell Spear, Fred Hopkins, Jim Devoe, Frank Webber, Sam Fenner and Charles McDonough.

Mack's to compete for U.S. 'D' title

Mack's Market slo-pitch softball will compete in the U.S. Slo-Pitch Softball tournament Class D Ohio championship tourney at Cincinnati Maximum complex this weekend.

Winner and runner-up will compete in the eastern division, Class D championships, in Pittsburgh, Md., over the Labor day weekend.

The local outfit will place in the state tourney by qualifying in play at Mansfield earlier.

Dave Howard manages the team, which has also qualified to vie in the Burger King world series at Cuyclops circe, Mansfield, Aug. 22-23. Mack's Market is one of 24 leading aggregations in North Central Ohio, a survivor among 400 entries.

Roster of the team, in addition to Howard, includes his brothers, Norm (Zak) and Erv, Dick Cummings, John Willoughby, Sammy Morris, Rex Adams, Chip Ebert, See Lillo, Mike Pugh, Ricky Adams, Sam Cook, Jeff Chandler, Ralph Haler, Bob Tyson, Stan Hoffman, Steve Baser and Ray Smith.

It cost money, even then, to outfit a team and make the road trips. Who footed the bill? Christy Weber, as he did throughout his entire life here — it was he who funded Weber field where PML plays, the local dentist, Dr. John T. Gaskill, and Fred Cuykendall. Clarence Kirkpatrick was manager.

In 1966, the Pilgrims, coached by Lewis J. Pettit with Robert Martin (not J. Robert Martin, who assisted with the 1949 eleven) as assistant, competed in the North Central conference.

The Pilgrims weren't favored to win that season, but with Eddie Taylor running wild at left halfback, the Pilgrims won seven and tied one. That one was a bitter 7 to 7 tie with Berlin Hts., coached then by Carroll B. (Snag) Sanders, an Ashland college graduate out of North Fairfield, who's thinking of packing it in as an educator after a career entirely in the Berlin Hts. and successor systems. He's principal at Edison now. The Tigers' star was Dewey Acord. Plymouth was the winner of three straight, not allowing a point, until Berlin Hts. came here.

A fight broke out and the Pilgrim quarterback, certainly the best at that position ever to play for Plymouth, Ray Einsel, was ejected. So was Acord. Plymouth went on to win the conference with a 7-0 slate.

Its details:

Plymouth 21, Mapleton 0; Plymouth 13, Edison 6.

Players on that team led by Rodney Hampton, all-conference and Firelands conference MVP, were Rich Cunningham, Tom Baker, Mike McKenzie, Brian Hess, Ron Baldrige, Junior Adams, Todd Reed, Steve Jamerson, Brian Vredenburgh, Hampton, Darrin Branham, Chad McGinnis, Jim Deo of the 1956 player.

Also, Jamie Brown, Mike Hawkins, Rodney Beverly, Scott Ryman, Ron Nease, Terry Mansfield, Eric Rath, Bill McVey, Dave Burks, Jeff Redden, Stricklin, Matt Archer, Bill Collins, Randy Myers, Brown Spencer, Paul Manuel and Troy Keene.

Brown, Mansfield, Rath, Redden, Myers, Manuel and Keene are completing their scholastic eligibility as members of this year's squad.

So Plymouth undertakes its 37th modern day 11-man season with 113 victories so far.

Will it reach 114? Only time will tell. Its coach, Richard Roll, starts his fourth season at the helm of the Big Red. His record is 15-and-16.

They were voted the "most spirited group".

Plymouth 45, Green Springs 0;

Plymouth 49, Ashland Reserves 0; Plymouth 45, Seville 0; Plymouth 7, Berlin Hts. 7; Plymouth 42, Lodi 0;

Plymouth 44, Westfield 0; Plymouth 24, Townsend-Wakeman 24; Plymouth 24, Townsend-Wakeman 6;

Plymouth 62, Jackson-Burgoon 0; Players on that squad:

The Firelands conference entry in 1983 won the championship in a playoff with Jim in the end and at Norwalk after the Chargers had whipped the Big Red at Milan, 39 to 6.

The Plymouth record in that season:

Plymouth 14, Seneca East 7; Plymouth 26, Lucas 0; Plymouth 35, Northmor 0; Plymouth 17, Monroeville 14;

Edison 39, Plymouth 6; Plymouth 35, Crestview 8; Plymouth 39, St. Paul's 0; Plymouth 40, Black River 12;

Plymouth 21, South Central 0; Plymouth 21, Mapleton 0; Plymouth 13, Edison 6.

Players on that team led by Rodney Hampton, all-conference and Firelands conference MVP, were Rich Cunningham, Tom Baker, Mike McKenzie, Brian Hess, Ron Baldrige, Junior Adams, Todd Reed, Steve Jamerson, Brian Vredenburgh, Hampton, Darrin Branham, Chad McGinnis, Jim Deo of the 1956 player.

How to keep your child
away from drugs.

Arming them in a suit of steel might help. But once they leave your home, they're really on their own.
What can you do?
Learn to recognize the symptoms of drug abuse. Look for failing grades in school. And irrational behavior. But most importantly, keep your lines of communication open with your children.
Encourage them to tell you if they get offers of drugs.
Show them you understand about peer pressure and how tough it is to walk away.
Teach your children to resist offers of drugs with a simple no.
