

Area Squads Advance in All Classes

By DICK KINNEY

Ontario and Plymouth High School cross country teams scored victories in their respective Sectional meets yesterday to head a contingent of seven Mansfield and area teams into District competition Saturday.

The Warriors' runners, led by Class AA two-mile champion Mike Mitchell, earned its place easily with 29 points, followed by Bucyrus (53) and Wynford (116). Mitchell covered the two-mile Syracuse Springs Golf Course layout in 9:39, the fastest time reported in all classes.

In Class AAA at Lincoln Hills Golf Course in Upper Sandusky, Galion and Mansfield Madison took the Nos. two and three spots behind Tiffin Columbian. Crestview took the third qualifying position in its Class AA test at Club's Green Hills Country Club and Plymouth took the Class A run at Tiffin.

Galion's Jeff Harding also produced a sub-10-minute clocking as he took individual honors at Upper Sandusky. And a pair of Mansfield Malabar runners, Andy Johnson and Rodger Loesch, qualified individually for the District run.

In all, 11 runners from the Mansfield area qualified in unattached roles. Five area runners joined the Ontario-Bucyrus-Wynford sweep into District. Lexington's Steve Hammer and Ron West will go along with Brad Bauer and Dan Eichorn of Colonel Crawford and Clear Fork's Tim Sparks.

Brothers Mike and Dick Kemp of Buckeye Central will compete with Plymouth at Ottawa-Killdare Country Club this Saturday. Euvaldo Luna and Randall Moore will represent Willard in the double-A set at Sycamore Springs.

Crestview's "White act" of brothers Larry and Wayne White and cousin Ken, helped the Cougars into their berth, all placing in the top 25 along with teammate Rex Ramsay.

Ontario produced the lowest team score for the day with Chuck McGee finishing fourth, Greg Kovacs fifth, Jim McGeath ninth and Dave Cranebaugh tenth.

Bjorklund, carrying the ball on more than half of Princeton's rushing plays picked up 129 yards in 25 carries to increase his career rushing record to 2,035 yards, surpassing the previous record of 1,950 yards set in 1951 by Dick Kazman.

Bjorklund, who rarely passes, threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Kerry Brown in the second period.

It was Princeton's 49th victory in the 63 times the teams have met in a football series which began 95 years ago. Penn won 13 times and there was one tie.

STONE AWARD - College football's 1971 season will be honored with the second annual Vince Lombardi award Jan. 14 in Houston, Texas. The stone on top of the base is made of granite, symbolizing self discipline, the trademark of the Lombardi style of football. His first game was as a member of the Fordham line that sports writers dubbed the "seven blocks of granite."

Stanford In Upset, 24 to 22
STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) - Don Sweet, who missed a 42-yard field goal attempt in the first period, arched a 27 yarder on the final play of the game Saturday to boost underdog Washington State to a stunning 24-23 win over Stanford.

Sweet's winning boot capped an 85-yard drive engineered by Quarterback Tony Paine. He ran for 10 yards, hit Speedy Bernard Jackson on a 20-yard pass and End Jim Forrest on a 13 yarder before connecting with End Ike Nelson to put the ball on the 10.

Washington State, which was a 24-point underdog, handed the Indians their first loss in the Pacific-8 Conference after three straight wins while evening the Cougars' record at 1-1. Overall, Washington State is 3-4 and Stanford 5-2.

Rod Garcia booted three field goals for a school record and John Winesberry scored on an 88-yard kickoff return to spark Stanford to a 23-21 lead with nine minutes remaining.

George Johnson, whose best finish this year was a tie for third in the New Orleans Open, made a strong move with a five-under 67 in the third round for a 104 score, 12 under par, while Bobby Mitchell turned in the day's best score—a six under 66—to tie with Mike Hill, who had a 68, for fourth place with 205 scores.

Aaron had a chance for a share of the lead after three rounds but took a bogey six on the 18th.

"Maybe," said Aaron. "I got a little greedy. If I had gone for routine pars, I would have been better off." Casper had four birds and one bogey on his card and said he was lucky to do as well as he did because of driving problems.

"I didn't drive well at all," said Casper, "but I putted extremely well and that made up for it." He took 29 putts.

What are the team games a pro football player ever lost in a row? ... Record was set by the Cardinals who lost 29 straight between 1942 and 1945!

Did you know that quarterback John Brodie of the San Francisco 49ers, who led the league in passing last season, was once such a good golfer that he qualified for the U.S. Open in 1959, and took part for a brief time on the pro golf tour.

A. J. Foyt Captures Final 'Trail' Race - PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) - A. J. Foyt of Houston, Texas, captured the Bobby Ball 150, the final event of the 1971 Marlboro championship trail, Saturday at the Phoenix International Raceway.

Foyt averaged 110.333 miles per hour in his first victory since 1969. Roger McCuskey, Tucson, Ariz., finished second.

WEST POINT, N.Y. (UPI) - Sophomore quarterback Kingsley Fink came off the bench to spark Army to a come-from-behind 14-9 victory over spunky Virginia Saturday as the Cadets' third victory.

Fink guided the Cadets on a 56-yard touchdown drive the first time Army got its hands on the ball in the second half to erase a Virginia 3-0 first-half lead.

Bob Hines took it over from the one to climax a 14-play drive.

Fink, a sophomore signal caller from Eau Gallie, Fla., then fired a 14-yard

Here's a football oddity ... Although Jim Brown holds the all-time pro football record for gaining the most yards by rushing in a career, he was not able to set any such records in college, and in fact, does not even hold his own college's individual rushing record!

Brown played his college ball at Syracuse and he stands no better than fourth on the Syracuse all-time rushing list ... Brown gained 2,091 yards by rushing in his college career which is topped at Syracuse by Eric Davis who gained 2,386; Floyd Little who gained 2,704; and Larry Conka who gained 2,934.
