Pre-Game Prediction Holds Up

Spartans Upset Bucks

By GEORGE STRODE

COLUMBUS (AP) - Duffy Daugherty's pregame prediction held up and his aroused Michigan State lootball team handed ninth - ranked Ohio State a 17-10 upset Saturday knocking the Buckeyes from a share of the Big Ten lead.

The Spartan coach told a priest and a few friends before the game that his team was going to blow the Buckeyes "right out of Ohio Sta-

They didn't quite accomplish that, but the Spartans did hand Ohio State its first home conference loss in four seasons, bringing a big smile to Daugherty's Irish face.

"It was the best victory in a long time. I don't know when I've seen our players so high." Daugherty said. "Nobody wants to win more than Woody Hayes, but he was a very gracious loser. Then again he has not been in my position. very much lately.

Despite an eff day and miserable weather conditions. Eric "The Flea" Allen notched touchdowns of five and one yards to stop Ohio State to a 5-1 record in the conference behind Michigan's

Allen's scores give him school records of 13 touchdowns and 80 points for one season

Brad Van Pelt's fourth interception of the year of a Don Lamka pass set up Allen's first touchdown. That gave the Sportans a 10-7 lead in the second quarter.

Michigan State defensive end Doug Halliday recovered a fumble by Ohio State halfback Motris Bradshaw at Buckeyes' H - yard line late in the third period.

That paved the way for five - yord scoring scamper by Allen, who set an NCAA rushing rec ord of 350 yards a week ago

The slippery senior from Georgetown SC

carried the last three times for the final seven yards and a 17-10 Sparton lead with more than 14 minutes to play

It was the first conference loss in 17 home games for the Buckeyes, who last lost in Ohio Stadrum to Illinois in 1967

A crowd of 86 616 which watched in 38 - degree ramy then snowy weather, sat stunned as the Spartans defense blunted the Buckeye attack in the closing minutes. Ohio State's touchdown was an 11 - yard run by Bradshaw, capping a 75 yard drive in the second quarter that gave the Buckeyes a short - lived 7-3 lead

Fred Schram kicked a 30 - yard field goal for Ohio State and Borys Shlapak a 47 yarder for Michigan State Both kickers also missed one field goal attempt

The victory was the fourth in six Big Ten games for the Spartans who are 5-4 overall. Ohio State is 6-2 for all games.

Ashlanders 'Powder' Waynesburg, 45 to 7

By FRANK H. VALK ASHLAND — A heavy snow powdered Community Stadium here yesterday while the Ashland College

Eagles powdered Waynesburg (Pa.) College with six touchdowns for a 45-7 football victory. The Ashlanders, paced by a pair of touchdowns by Larry Johnson, methodically pounded the Waynesburg defense while the Eagles' defenders held the Yellow Jackets to 37 yards on the ground. Johnson carried for 125 yards to give him his third straight 100-yards-plus performance.

MANY TALLIES He scored on runs of five and 40 yards. Ron Slater. Mark Niederhauser. Jon Viar and Bob Rosati accounted for the remaining Ashland tallies on the slippery turf.

A slight drizzle in the first quarter turned to snow in the second. But the combination of wind, cold and wet was unable to hold down the opportunistic Ashland offense. The Waynesburg defense was equally ineffective against the charge.

Waynesburg, sporting a squad of only 30 players. scored its only touchdown in the fourth quarter on a twoyard keeper by Henry Dolmayer. The score came three plays after Ashland's Ron Slater fumbled on the Ashland 20-yard line.
