

Plymouth boys cross country wins tri-meet against Crestline, Clear Fork

Plymouth's boys cross country team won a tri-meet against Crestline and Clear Fork last week.

The Big Red, who improve to 2-3, won the meet with 34 points and Clear Fork was next with 41, followed by Crestline with 47.

Tim Collins of Plymouth won the race with a time of 18:31. Following him were Chris McClintock in fifth (19:40); John Helms, sixth (19:59); Scott Howard, ninth (20:39); Brandon Keirns, 13th (21:20); Chad Stumbo, 14th (21:24); Tim Howard, 19th (24:44) and John Armstrong, 20th (25:22).