COLLINS — New London's boys and Western Reserve's girls took home top honors Saturday morning at the 1991 John Speer Rider Cross Country Invitational.

The race this year was named in honor of former Western Reserve athletic director John Speer, who died earlier this year after battling a long illness.

New London, led by individual champion Chris Rowland (16:37), took the boys' title with 47 points, followed by Seneca East with 94. Rounding out the field were Firelands (104), Mapleton (119), Elyria Catholic (175), Fremont St. Joe (186), Elyria Open Door Christian (195), Western Reserve (202), Edison (209), Keystone (217), Wellington (244), Plymouth (274), Old Fort (280) and St. Paul (414).

Western Reserve swept top honors in the girls' race as Michelle Petrey was individual champion in 20:14.

The Riders ended with 39 points, followed by Seneca East (53), Keystone (78), Firelands (78), New London (118), Plymouth (155) and Fremont St. Joe (175).

St. Paul did not field a complete girls' team. Running for the Flyers were Holly Meyer (38th, 22:49), Andrea Murphy (72nd, 27:45) and Margaret Seiche (79th, 31:35).

Running for the Edison girls, which also did not field a complete team, were Denise Griffith (14th, 21:39), Shelly Kossman (15th, 21:40), Vera Bierman (51st, 24:19) and Sarah Greenleaf (64th, 25:30).
