■ Wildcats take first

DOVER — New London returned home from the Dover

Jeremy Amburgy, 22nd, 19:59 and Jordan Campbell, 25th, 20:14.

"Sugar creek Garaway is the defending regional champions from Lancaster with five of their top seven runners back," New London coach Dan Olien said. "The boys had a 39-second gap between one and five, which I thought was excellent."

New London's White team finished ninth.

Placings and times were as followed: David Dvorak, 37th, 21:23; Leon Bursley, 39th, 21:30; Jeff Brown, 49th, 22:05; Adam Essenmacher, 53rd, 22:12; Jon Hamilton, 56th, 22:16; Nick Missler, 63rd, 23:38 and Cory Landis, 69th, 25:08. Jared Cumberledge competed in the open race, finishing 92nd in 24:16.

"This is the toughest high school course in Ohio from what I have seen," Olien said. "It was a very hilly, rugged course."

Meanwhile, the Ladycat Red team scored 104 for their spot. Loudonville finished first with 51 points.

Courtney Wuensch topped New London, placing ninth overall in 23:58.

Also for the Ladycats, Megan Shepherd was 12th in 24:18; 24. Holly Romelfanger, 24th, 25:24; Jen Bottomlee, 25th, 25:25 and Holly Perkins, 34th, 26:45.

For the White team, Tiffany Trimble was 27th in 25:35; Jen Suvar, 32nd, 26:20; Katy Davis, 52nd, 29:02; Lauren Myers, 55th, 29:14 and Gwen Morgan, 57th, 30:56.

"The girls keep on getting better," Olien said.

New London is at the Galion Invitational Saturday.
