Long Season For Tygers

UNLESS SOMETHING HAPPENS in a hurry football opponents of the Mansfield Tygers are going to reap two-fold benefits. . . . They're going to pad their records as well as getting some of their boys off to an early start for the 1940 track season. . . . For the first two games have proven that fast men can have a field day on wide plays against the Tyger defense. . . . East and Benedictine of Cleveland have pointed up the vulnerability of Mansfield ends, linebackers and corner backs. . . . Speedboys have done so much damage running wide the ground-gaining chart shows 600 yards in 69 carries—an average of 8.7 per trip. . . . Senior High has controlled the ball somewhat in the opening two losses but its offense shows only 303 ground yards on 81 plays. . . . That averages out to 3.7 and quickly spells why Cleveland schools "own" Mansfield for 1939. . . . Of course, some of the trouble was forecast before 1939 football bowed. . . . The Tygers were, and are, greener than the grass at Arlin Field. . . . And experience comes hard when the opposition boasts much more veteran talent. . . . Next stop for the Tygers is Cincinnati Purcell Friday and the Queen City eleven figures to be the toughest test yet. . . . Senior High has shown some flashes of being able to move the football but the over-all attack is much too spotty. . . . Actually this could be one of the "longest" seasons in Mansfield's storied gridiron history. . . . For only the 1912 and 1917 clubs ever lost their first two games. . . . The streak extended to four in '12 and five in '17. . . . With added coaches, more game competition and more youngsters on Tyger squads, school officials believe things will get better. . . . John Rinehart, school superintendent, says, "The future of Mansfield athletes should be bright, indeed. In the later sense though, the foremost goal is an excellent educational program. Athletics and other extra curricular activities must fit into the framework."

Defense Biggest Problem

ANY COACH WORTHY OF HIS SALT cannot be satisfied with a defeat and some are not even happy when they win. . . . However, Coach Tom Pierson of the Tygers feels a bit better than he did a week ago. . . . He wasn't exactly pleased with the offense of the Mansfield kids Friday night but said, "Except for the fumbling we didn't do too badly when we had the ball. We're going to continue using Bill Buckley and Bob Lutz (converted linemen) in the backfield next week." . . . He felt they helped in the pass protection but did not do so much in the attack. . . . One thing sure, Henry Weaver, will begin to see some additional action as a spot back. . . . The sophomore halfback, one of the fastest leather luggers in Ohio at 195 pounds, has scored nine touchdowns in three junior varsity tilts—five from 30 yards or further out. . . . Weaver's big trouble is in play assignments and he has a habit of trying to run over the opposition. . . . This works against the younger reserve players but isn't the best idea to try against major high school opposition. . . . Two or three of the other Tyger backs can move pretty fast so speed isn't the big problem. . . . That, of course, is defense and frankly the Tyger coaches appear at a loss on what to do to jack up that phase. . . . They just don't seem to have the hard-nosed "horses" so necessary to a defensive unit. . . . Pierson felt sure the Tygers had found themselves when they shook their early case of fumblyitis and came back to edge ahead of 1937 state champion Benedictine, 13-12, Friday. . . . "However, it seems we became a bit overconfident when we went ahead," Pierson said. "We let down a little and Benedictine took advantage of the lapse. As for the fourth Cleveland touchdown I'll have to see the pictures to be sure in my mind we didn't stop it inches short of the goal line."

Hurlers Not Human Beings

ALONG THE SPORTS BEAT you hear about this guy or that being "a good handler of pitchers." . . . But Danny Murtaugh, the resident genius of the Pittsburgh Pirates, casts cold water on this idea. . . . Says Danny, "Pitchers aren't human beings. They're freaks. One day they look great. Then they change for no apparent reason. I don't think anybody knows how to handle pitchers. I just pray." . . . Talking of the artists of the hillock, Manager Fred Hutchinson of the Cincinnati Redlegs thinks he'll have better pitching next season. . . . But it all depends on the development of the younger talent. . . . "Our pitching hopes in 1940 are tagged to three youngsters—Jim O'Toole, Jay Hook and Claude Osteen," Hutch says. "O'Toole and Hook have come along handsomely. They should have the experience to be sound pitchers next season. Big Newt (Don Newcombe), Bob Purkey and Joe Nuxhall and those three kids will be our nucleus. . . . Michigan has added fall baseball to its curriculum. . . . Forty diamond hopefuls are now in the midst of a four-week training program. . . . First of its kind at the Wolverine school. . . . Johnny Blanchard must rate as one of the saddest men in sports. . . . He sweated out seven years in the New York Yankee farm system when he might have been catching regularly with some other major league club. . . . Of course, the vision of those World Series cuts made a nifty goal. . . . So what happens but he finally gets promoted to the big club this season and the Yanks wind up in third place. . . . Bellville's Luke Izer is now working on his seventh sports letter at Baldwin-Wallace. . . . The 260-pound six-footer has won three monograms each in football and baseball. . . . Luke plays tackle in football and is a catcher in baseball. . . . Coach Lee Tressel says the big fellow is "a real good football player: one of our best linemen."

The White Sox Story—IV Long Search Into Facts

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP) — The truth of the fixing of the 1919 World Series between Chicago and Cincinnati did not come out until the last days of September, 1920, after almost a year of investigation. . . . Oddly enough, it was an inconsequential game between the Cubs and Phillies of the rival National League that broke the case. . . .
BIG REWARD
White Sox Owner Charles Comiskey, after witnessing the defeat of his club in the first "fix" and hinted they first game of the 1919 Series, could give names and dates of suspected that something was others, if necessary. . . . The next day, Bill Veck, evidence to support his suspicion of the Cubs, and faction. After Chicago had gone down to defeat in eight games of the White Sox, and Illinois Comiskey offered a reward of State Atty. MacLay Hoyne, $10,000 for evidence that his went into conference. As a re-White Sox had "thrown" a suit, the Cook County grand game, an offer which he re-jury was ordered to investigate that winter. He also gave by Chief Justice Charles held up the player's share of A. MacDonald, the series for six months. . . . After working in secret for

Iowa Grinds Up California Again

Hand Bears 42-12 Loss On Coast

By ALAN CLINE

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—A mighty Iowa, striking by land and by air, smothered California 42-12 Saturday in a Rose Bowl replay that turned into another nightmare for the Bears before 45,000.

Cal scored after two plays, a 58-yard pass from Larry Parque to Bob Willis and a 10-yard run by Grover Garvin.

ALL OVER
Olen Treadway and Wilburn Hollis did the Iowa throwing. Ray Jauch, Bob Jeter, Don Horn, Gene Mosley and John Brown did the running and catching. Ends Curt Merz, Don Norton and Jeff Langston also snagged passes from one end of the gridiron to the other.

Horn scored first on a five-yard dive, winding up a 10-play, 71-yard drive. The plunging fullback scored again in the third quarter on a three-yard run.

Hollis, Brown and Mosley carried the load for the second score, Hollis running in from the one.

Jeter and Jauch, both troublesome to Cal in the 1939 Rose Bowl debacle, made hash of the Bear line Saturday. Jeter made the third Iowa touchdown on a four-yard dash in the second quarter.

TD AERIALS

On the next drive, Mosley ran for 20, Hollis hit him for 31 and again for 5-yard touchdown here.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Big Ten's 440-yard run champion, sprinted 60 yards to pay dirt without a hand laid on him.

The Bears picked up a second touchdown in the third quarter when Quarterback Wayne Crow romped 36 yards.

AWOL Back Returns In Nick Of Time

ATHENS, Ga. (UPI)—Fred Brown, a sophomore halfback from Atlanta who went AWOL from the squad for several days last week, scored one touchdown and set up another Saturday to lead Georgia to a 21-6 victory over Vanderbilt.

A crowd of 31,000 watched the Georgia Bulldogs rack up their second consecutive Southeastern Conference decision and their first victory over Wandy in four years.

The Commodores' only offensive spurt came when Tackle Larry Wagner recovered Tommy Lewis' fumble on the Georgia 28 in the final period followed up by Tom Moore's 11-yard touchdown run on a pass from McKee.

Brown, had left Georgia for personal reasons a week before the Alabama game and was declared AWOL by Coach Wally Butts.

FINALLY DID IT By Alan Mayer

AL LOPEZ, HAVING LED THE CHICAGO WHITE SOX TO THEIR FIRST FLAG IN 40 YEARS.

Wynn Nabs 22nd For Chisox, 10-5

DETROIT (UPI) — John Callison drove in five runs with a grand slam homer and a double Saturday to lead the Chicago White Sox to a 10-5 rout of the Detroit Tigers.

Early Wynn worked the first five innings for Chicago and picked up his 22nd victory against 10 defeats.

Chicago jumped on rookie, Jim Proctor for four runs in the first inning on three singles, a pair of walks and a double by Callison.

In the eighth, two walks and a single set the stage for Callison's bases loaded homer, his third round tripper of the year.

Earl Battey also had a homer for Chicago, his second of the season, with the bases empty in the sixth.

Four of Detroit's runs came on homers. Ted Lepcio hit his seventh with a teammate aboard off Wynn in the third and Frank Bolling connected for his 13th also with one aboard in the ninth.
