

Malabar High Battles Shelby To 8-8 Tie

Both Scores Come In Final Quarter

All of the scoring was wrapped up in a 70-second bundle in the fourth quarter as the high school football teams of Malabar and Shelby fought to a 8-8 standstill last night before 6,000 at Arlin Field.

Shelby put the first six points on the scoreboard with 8:10 left in the fourth quarter when Ritchey Hollenbaugh rambled 67 yards through the surprised Malabar secondary.

Three plays after the kickoff, it was all even as Malabar moved 53 yards with Junior Nick Gerber passing four yards to Senior Gary Haverstock in the end zone for the score.

Both teams scored extra points on runs.

Malabar had the ball for only eight plays in the rest of the game as it fought off two Shelby marches. The first was a nine play, 42-yard drive which came to an abrupt halt when Junior Wilbur Lanier recovered a Shelby fumble on his own 18.

On the next play Hollenbaugh was off and running. Lanier returned the kickoff 32 yards to his 47. Gerber hit Haverstock with a 39-yard pass to the eight and Lanier bucked to the four to set up the Malabar score.

Hollenbaugh gained 125 yards in 11 carries for Shelby and teammate Hugh Pittenger added 81 on 12. Davison's 66 yards in six trips topped Malabar.

Gerber and Sophomore Dave Hahn completed five of 12 passes for 78 Malabar yards. However, four of Gerber's passes were just off the finger tips of receivers.

Bands of both schools shared the halftime program.

COLUMBUS (AP) — Dr. John Passias didn't show up as scheduled to examine the boys who make up the four teams in the Western Optimist Football League.

And he's probably a little bit embarrassed about it, too. The youngsters were there — nearly 100 strong.

"We feigned them in, gave them a vision test, and that's about as far as we could go," said Jim Smith, one of the coaches.

Where was Dr. Passias? Well, he was a patient in Doctors Hospital West with one knee all cased up in a cast.

He banged it up the other day — playing frontyard football with a group of neighborhood kids.
