by the Warriors, diving in from one yard out. His third score came on a 10-yard pass from Quarterback Art Bryant and the senior halfback collected his final TD, capping a 57-yard drive with a one-yard run. Exchange student Claudio Kipler kicked four-of-five extra points.

Crestline scored through the air. Quarterback Brad Bauer connected with End Jim Cheney for the Bulldogs two touchdowns. Cheney hauled in a four-yard aerial with 5:40 left in the second period to cut the Ontario lead to 20-6. Cheney snared a second scoring pass of 20 yards.

Warrior Randy Boyce finalized the scoring with 3:09 left in the game, climaxing a 26-yard TD drive in four plays.

Crestline gained little on the ground (81 yards) but 29 times, connecting on 13 of the passes for 154 yards. Ontario countered with 347 yards on the ground in 71 carries.

PLYMOUTH — Defense proved to be an important factor for Plymouth which held Crestview to 79 yards and a one-yard touchdown by Ron Stallard in the third quarter.

The Big Red led off with two touchdowns in the opening stanza. The first came after a 60-yard march and was counted by Halfback Terry Buzard on a four-yard run. Buzard added another on a 41-yard sprint.

End Dick Beverly, Craig Forquer and John Conley crossed into the end zone for the other three Plymouth

The Big Red, undefeated in four season outings and 2-0 in conference activity, bounced winless Crestview (0-4 and 0-2) to a 38-8 count and the Warriors (2-1-1 and 2-0) finally emerged above .500-ball with a 34-12 shellacking of hosting Crestline.

Fredericktown evened both slates (2-2 overall and 1-1 in JAC) in a somewhat closer 26-16 test against Loudonville (0-4 and 0-2).

The first-place lead was set to be finalized after the Clear Fork at Lexington game this afternoon. The two went into the test with identical loop marks of 1-0. Lexington was undefeated in three season games and the Colts showed a 2-1 slate.

WARRIOR ON WARPATH — Making a vain attempt for the end zone, Ontario Fullback Mike Roberts goes through a form of a war dance to try to shake loose from Crestline defender Tim Beck. The run was cut to only short yardage, but the Warriors put on an overall war against the Bulldogs and came out on top of a 34-12 scalping. In this play, Beck held on long enough for an unidentified teammate (behind Roberts) to come in and help with the stop.

Warpathing Atlanta Braves Scalp San Diego, 10 to 4

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer
"A wonderful feeling," said Orlando Cepeda.

"Not as pleasing as it should be," said Phil Niekro. That's what brotherly love will do for you.

Cepeda, you see, unloaded on Niekro's brother, Joe, with a grand slam homer that triggered the Atlanta Braves to a 10-4 victory over San Diego Friday night and lowered their magic number in the National League West to four.

HITTER, TOO
Of course, Phil wasn't entirely innocent. He hurled eight innings for his 22nd triumph and started the Braves' big six-run third with a single one of his three hits.

Elsewhere, San Francisco, 1 1/2 games behind Atlanta, kept pace with a 2-1 triumph over Los Angeles, Cincinnati took two from Houston 3-0 on Jim Maloney's one-hitter and 4-3, the East Division champion New York Mets blanked Philadelphia 5-0, Pittsburgh tripped the Chicago Cubs 2-0 and St. Louis shelled Montreal 12-1.

The Padres, who have been playing their role as spoilers to perfection, jumped to a 3-0 lead against the Braves on Ivan Murrell's two-run single in the first inning and Tom Dean's homer in the second.

But singles by Phil Niekro, Febv Millan and Tony Gonzalez loaded the bases for the Braves in the third and a one-out walk to Rice Carty forced in the first run. Cepeda then smacked his big blow, the fifth grand slam of his career and 22nd homer of the season, finishing Joe Niekro Clete Boyer homered off Frank Roberger for the final run of the inning.

"It feels great to see those boys going around in front of you," Cepeda said. "It's a wonderful feeling."

But Niekro felt for his brother. "It was the hardest game he ever had to pitch," Phil said. "He wants us to win the pennant as bad as we do. He was in one hell of a bad spot."
Phil said he doesn't like to pitch against Joe, although this was the fourth time the brothers have faced each other.

"That's fair enough," said Phil. "I've won two games and he's won two. That's enough."

Hank Aaron drilled his 44th homer in the fourth-one short of his career high-and the Braves added two in the fifth and one in the seventh. Phil Niekro gave way to Hoyt Wilhelm after eight innngs.

CUBS' JINX
Bobby Bonds singled home two runs in the first inning and Gaylor Perry made them stand up as the Giants edged the Dodgers 7-1, 8-14 yielded an unearned run in the seventh.

Jerry Kosman fired a four-hitter for his 17th victory and Donn Clendenon counted a two-run homer as the torrid Mets bounced Philadelphia for their 35th victory in the last 45 games.
Pittsburgh beat the Cubs for the 10th straight time at Forbes Field as Dock Ellis hurled a five-hitter and Fred Patek hit a two-run homer

A Most Interesting Interim Boston's Sox Tie Tigers for Second

By HAL BOCK
AP Sports Writer

If things keep going the way they have been, Eddie Popowski could become the first manager in the history of baseball to leave his job without ever having lost a game.

Popowski was named to lead the Boston Red Sox over the final week of the season after Dick Williams was fired last Tuesday. He was, the Red Sox said, strictly an interim manager with a new permanent man to be named after the season.

It has been a most interesting interim for Popowski. The Red Sox have won four straight games since the change, the most recent a 6-5 decision over Detroit Friday night which moved Boston into a second-place deadlock with the Tigers in the American League's East Division.

Elsewhere Friday night, Washington dropped Cleveland 4-1, New York trimmed Baltimore 4-2, Kansas City defeated Chicago 5-3 Oakland topped California 3-1 and Seattle took Minnesota 4-1 in 14 innings.

Rice Petrocelli, one of Popowski's star pupils when the Red Sox' interim boss was a fulltime minor league manager, did most of the damage against the Tigers.

He tagged a pair of doubles driving in three runs including the tie-breaker. That gave the heavy hitting shortstop 95 runs batted in for the season. Mike Andrews opened the game with a home run for the Sox.

Mike Kekich pitched his first complete game of the season, hurling the Yankees past Baltimore on a five-hitter. The victory ended a six-game Yankee losing streak.

Mike Fiore tagged a two-run homer in the ninth inning, carrying Kansas City past Chicago. Jerry Adair had tied the game an inning earlier with a three run blast for the Royals. Bill Melton connected for Chicago.

Catcher Dave Duncan celebrated his 24th birthday with a two-run homer that helped Oakland beat California 11-5 was the A's 85th victory—their highest total since 1948 when they were playing in Philadelphia.

Wayne Comer's two out homer in the 14th inning carried the Pilots past Minnesota. Greg Goossen had connected earlier for Seattle and the Twins' Harmon Killebrew took over the major league homer lead with his 48th of the season.
