K of C League

Champions were crowned Wednesday night with playoffs in all three divisions.

In fact, there are co-champions in the morning division. Roger Dixon won the first half and Mel Engelman the second half title and they tied after a 9-hole playoff.

In the mid-afternoon group, Terry Fraley won the first half and Tom Anglin the second half, by one-half point over Fraley. In the playoff, Fraley prevailed.

In the late afternoon division, Tony Stearns ruled the first half and Mike Samstag the second half and Stearns won the playoff for the overall crown.

The game of the day was the two best balls (with handicap) in each foursome and there was a tie at 12-under-par 58. The team of Mike McGuire, Joe Barone, Gene Harkelroad and John Camella shared honors with the team of Anglin, Fraley, Bob Smith and Bill Myers.

In the previous week, Paul Mesenburg had the top net score of 27 with a 41 on a 14 handicap, and Hans Olsen was medalist with 34. Fran McKenna submitted a superb round with a 36 on a 7 handicap for net 29.

Castalia Lions

It was a clean sweep for Don Coburn in Castalia Lions League play at Woussickett.

Coburn tied with Bob Ransom for low gross with 41 and took low net with 29 while playing with a 12 handicap. Also, he was closest to the pin on No. 12.

Roger Gourlie was third in the battle for low gross with 43 while Bob Felske (45 gross, 13 handicap) and Gourlie (11 handicap) tied for low net runnerup with 32.

Also, Hank Kinchy was closest to the pin with his third shot on No. 16.

Thunderbird Hills

Clevite

HURON — Jay Thornhill and John Reddaway teamed up to win the Clevite League Championship.

In the final 18-hole round, the winning duo had 49 points to nip Mike McLaughlin and Dale Schnittker, who finished with 47.

Thornhill, playing with a 3 handicap, had 42 on the front 9 and came back with 38 on the back side for 80 while Reddaway, with a 5 handicap, had rounds of 42-42-84. Reddaway scored 8 points on the front and 18 on the back for 26 total while Thornhill had 5 points on the front and 18 on the back for 23.

In semifinal play, McLaughlin and Schnittker defeated Mike Cannon and Don Sebolt, 33-15 while Reddaway and Thornhill handed John Wagner and Norma Johlin a 34-14 defeat.

Thornhill fired a scorching 35, helped by 3 birdies.

During first round play, Cannon and Sebolt defeated Ron Ebinger and Gene Gundlach, 31-17, while McLaughlin and Schnittker defeated Lou Kovacs and Ron Boos, 33-15, Thornhill and Reddaway defeated Mike Jenkins and Bob Welch, 30-18, and Wagner and Johlin defeated Don Cleland and Ken Schatz, 27-21.

Thornhill had the low gross for the day with 37 while McLaughlin had a 40. Also, Thornhill had the longest drive on No. 13 and Reddaway had the longest drive on No. 17.

In International Play for those teams not in the playoffs, the duo of Ron Skarupa and Chris Munroe took first with 40 points while Don Kemery and John Griggs finished second with 38, Larry Coe and Paul Pelham took third with 36 and Dick and Mike Ritz claimed fourth with 30.

Skarupa had low gross of 35 while Dick Ritz and Coe each had 39.
