THE FIGHT SONG

Cheer, cheer, for dear Plymouth High
We'll be the victors, our flag will fly
Though our team can't always win,
Our boys can take it on the chin
RAH! RAH! RAH!
We'll stand beside our crimson and white,
Our boys will always stand up and fight
We will show our loyalty,
So onward to victory!

ALMA MATER

Oh here's to thee ole P.H.S.
the school we love most dear.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR PARENTS OF ATHLETIC CHILDREN

1. Make sure your child knows that - win or lose, scared or heroic - you love them, appreciate their efforts, and are not disappointed in them. This will allow them to do their best without fear of failure. Be the person in their life they can look to for constant positive reinforcement.
2. Try your best to be completely honest about your child's athletic ability, their competitive attitude, their sportsmanship, and their actual skill level.
3. Be helpful but don't coach them. It's tough not to, but it is a lot tougher for the child to be flooded with advice, and critical instruction.
4. Teach them to enjoy the thrill of competition, to be "out there trying," to be working to improve their skills and attitudes. Help them develop the feeling for competing, for trying hard, for having fun.
5. Try not to relive your athletic life through your child in a way that creates pressure: you lost as well as won. You were frightened, you backed off at times, you were not always heroic. Don't pressure your child because of your pride. Athletic children need their parents so you must not withdraw. Just remember their thinking, feeling, sensitive free spirit out there in that uniform who needs a lot of understanding, especially when their world turns bad. If they are comfortable with you - win or lose - they're on their way to maximum achievement and enjoyment.
6. Don't compete with the coach. If the coach becomes an authority figure, it will run from enchantment to disenchantment, with your athlete.
7. Don't compare the skill, courage, or attitude of your child with other members of the team, at least within their hearing.
8. Get to know the coach(s), then you can be assured that his philosophy, attitudes, ethics and knowledge are such that you are happy to have your child under his leadership.
9. Always remember that children tend to exaggerate, both when praised and when criticized. Temper your reaction and investigate before over reacting.
10. Make a point of understanding courage, and the fact that it is relative. Some of us can climb mountains, and are afraid to fly. Some of us will fly, but turn to jelly if a bee approaches. Everyone is frightened in certain areas. Explain that courage is not the absence of fear, but a means of doing something in spite of fear and discomfort.
