2 Ex-Champs On Pro Card Here Saturday

Two former junior heavyweight wrestling champions will be on the professional mat show at the Ashland Rd. armory Saturday night.

Johnny Demchuk and Bob Cummings are the ex-champs but they'll be cast in different matches. Demchuk, making his first appearance here in more than a year, goes against smooth-working Chris Belkas in the headline encounter.

Cummings has drawn Buck Weaver, a veteran grunt and grocer, as his opponent. Both of the top attractions will be two-of-three falls affairs with a one-hour limit.

The half-hour opener will pit Francois Miquet against Jim "Goon" Henry to complete an all-star card. Miquet lost to Ruffy Silverstein on the top bout here last week.

Tickets are on sale at the City News.
