

Area Schools In Carnival

By D. L. STEWART

Ten area schools will be represented this weekend when the Ohio high school finals bring down the curtain on four spring sports.

Columbus will be the site, as teams for the state crown, the state's best in baseball, track-field, golf and tennis vie for the coveted championship meet.

District baseball representatives Madison and Colonel Crawford were tumbled from the tournament trail, leaving the Mansfield area without a team in the finals at Ohio State University.

RICHLAND FORCE

In the other three sports, the Mansfield hopes, Schnuerer will carry most of the load.

In tennis, the undefeated duo of Ron Hollinger and Terry Brown (23-0) will be gunning for the crown that eluded them come from Circleville's Jim Wood. Both runners ripped off 14.3 times in winning their regional, pair bowed out to Worthington in the low hurdles. Wood and Ernest Smith in the semi-finals.

This year, however, they will be heavily favored to walk off setters. Wood cleared the "all the marbles" when short sticks in 19.6 in the competition begins Friday at 9:00 a.m. at the OSU oval.

Madison's Nick Lidskog, a Swedish exchange student with straightaway in the 180-yard dash, will represent lows but his best on a curve.

Mansfield will have two time remaining before he must return to his native country, is testaments in the state. Adrian Davison has cleared 14'4 in the OSU "Scarlet" course.

"triple" in the Mansfield district meet, ran away from the field at Upper Arlington in the 100-yard dash, last week, to notch a 10.2 time.

Crestview's Dan McFadden was the other first-place winner, as his 51.7 time gave him a two-yard victory in the 440-yard dash.

In the high jump, Fred Berry of Lucas and Mt. Gilead's Tom Griffith and Bill Toplyn give the Mansfield area its heaviest representation in any event.

Finals in all "A" and "AA" running events are slated to begin at 2:00 p.m.

Admission for both the morning and afternoon events is $1.00.
