New London girls sectional champs

BUCYRUS — A pair of record-setting efforts helped the New London girls capture the Class A sectional track title at Wynford High School Saturday.

Both Sue Howsman and Liz Schick set meet records in leading the 'Cats to the crown.

Howsman, just a sophomore, won the discus with a throw of 110-6 which bettered the previous mark of 107-2½ set by Andrea Wightman of Wynford set last year.

Schick, a senior, broke her own record in the mile with a 5:26.8 and that bettered her 5:31.9 in last year's sectional.

New London won the title with 91 points, edging the host school which finished second with 86½.

The top two teams were far ahead of the field as third place Plymouth was well back at 31, followed by Carey (30), Monroeville (29), Vanlue (28), Norwalk St. Paul (25½), Crestview (25), South Central and Western Reserve (20), Buckeye Central (15), Riverdale (11), Lucas (10), Mohawk and Seneca East (8).

New London had five firsts in the meet.

In addition to the two records, Howsman doubled up by winning the shot put with a 37-1 while other winners included Janine Wolfe in the high jump with a leap of 4-8 and the two mile relay team of Liz Schick, Vicki Jackson, Barb Schick and Julie Bennett in 10:10.9.

The lone second place garnered by the 'Cats came in the discus with Joni Stoll throwing the platter 106-1.

New London was third in both the 880 and mile relays. In the 880, the team of Julie Bennett, Maureen O'Hara, Qua McCohn and Donna Murr ran a 1:53.7 while the mile team of Liz Schick, Jackson, Barb Schick and Bennett finished in 4:25.4.

Fourth place finishers for New London included Lisa Hall (shot put, 33-8), Donna Murr (long jump, 16-2 and 100, 14.1) and Barb Schick (880, 2:31.8). Also, the 'Cats Lori Brown was fifth in the long jump with a leap of 15-7½ and Jackson was also fifth in the 880 with a time of 2:32.9.

The top five in each event Saturday qualified for the district which will be held Thursday and Saturday at Bowling Green High School.

Plymouth had no firsts, but Anna Noble participated in three seconds for the Big Red.

She was runnerup in both the hurdles (16.9) and mile (5:44.0) and also anchored the mile relay, which finished in 4:24.5. Other members of that team included Joan Wallace, Shirley Reeder and Julie Donnerwirth.

The Big Red two mile relay team was fourth as the quartet of Noble, Annette Takos, Montelle Levering and Donnerwirth finished in 10:38.4 and Barb Wallace gave Plymouth a fifth in the 440 with a 67.6 clocking.

Monroeville's lone first came in the 440 relay as the team of Annette Moore, Laura Heppner, Chris Farmer and Phyllis Anderson won in 52.7.

The Eagles were also second in the 880 relay as the team of Moore, Becky Missig, Heppner and Anderson ran a 1:53.3.

Anderson claimed fourth in the 220 with a 28.3 and was fifth in the 100 with a 14.2 while teammate Roni Jo Gilbert was also fifth in the 440 with a 65.6.

St. Paul's effort was highlighted by a trio of thirds, including two by Jill Spettle in the 100 (14.0) and 440 (64.8).

The Flyers were also third in the 440 relay with the team of Patty Jaworski, Sally Reed, Jane Schmuhl and Spettle combining for a 53.6.

St. Paul's 880 relay team of Jaworski, Martha Wiedemann, Mary Fisher and Schmuhl was fourth with a 1:54.0 and Jaworski was also fifth in the 220 with a 28.7.

Western's highest finish came in the 880 as Bobbi Horner ran a 2:30.1 and the two mile relay team of Vicki Molesky, Delores Butler, Tammy Graves and Horner was third in 10:38.1.

Other qualifiers for the Roughriders were Molesky with a fifth in the mile at 5:54.8 and the mile relay team of Molesky, Jackie McGuckin, Graves and Horner were fourth in 4:28.0.
