New London girls race to crown in own relays

Tuesday's New London Relays were highlighted by the Ladycats' third consecutive team championship. The New London girls finished with 78 points to earn the title.

Other finishers included the following: South Central (56), Seneca East (49), Monroeville (42), Mapleton (40), Black River (30), Plymouth (28), Buckeye Central (14) and Western Reserve (4).

"South Central, according to the papers, was undefeated in all meets," noted New London coach Bob Knoll. "I was very happy that our girls competed that well with them."

"Our girls didn't seem to be bothered by the weather that much." Conditions for the track meet were indeed far from ideal.

"It was extremely wet," Knoll said. "Some of the field performances may have been hurt, but the conditions didn't hurt the overall performances that much."

The New London girls won five events on their way to their third successive title.

The long jump trio of Laura Mench, Missy Harris and Melanie Gubeno earned top honors (46 feet, 6½ inches), as did the high jump entry of Chrissy Baer, Dawn Burton and Sarah Babcock (12-9).

Other Ladycat winners were the shuttle hurdles team of Burton, Ruth Hite, Gubeno and Baer (1:15.3); the distance medley team of Babcock, Becky Harris, Missy Harris and Anne Roeder (14:10.6); and the 1600 meter relay team of Missy Harris, Kristy Chapman, Burton and Mench (4:25.6).

The Lady Trojans earned two first-place honors en route to their second-place finish.

South Central's shot put entry of Julie Waldron, Jill Wiles and Chris Knapp came out on top (86-11½), as did the team's 800 relay squad of Kris Woodworth, Karen Powell, Wendy Baker and Julie Walcher (1:55.9).

For the boys, Seneca East won the meet with 108 points, closely followed by Mapleton with 92 points.

"Seneca East and Mapleton battled it out," Knoll said. "It was a pretty good race between the two of them."

Other boys teams included the following: New London (56), Buckeye Central (43), Western Reserve (36), Black River (26), South Central (16), Monroeville (9), Plymouth (7).

Area winners included the Mapleton trio of Bill Rutherford, Ken Rohr and Shawn Grundy in the long jump (53-7½). Mapleton's entry of Terry Shank, Gary Shank, Ken Rohr and Gary Gribben also won the 4 x 1600 relay (20:08.3).

The New London boys set two meet records en route to their third-place finish.

The 4 x 100 relay team of Mike Abfall, Mike Boyd, Jason Blystone and Cory Dendinger set a meet mark with a time of 45.3, while the 4 x 200 relay team of Blystone, Dendinger, Boyd and Abfall also established a new standard with a time of 1:35.2.
