Brett Hull each with a goal toward the end of each period to tie the game.
McCarty's go-ahead goal was scored just above Roy's glove on a wrist shot from between the circles.
In keeping with playoff tradition in Detroit, octopi were thrown onto the ice.

Rall's wins came in the long jump (16-2), 100 hurdles (14.6), 100 (12.2) and 300 hurdles (45.4).
Her three wins on the oval were all NCC records.
"I was just really focused and I love running in the cold for some reason," Rall said. "I was just really relaxed," Rall said.

bers were Sipe, Hoeft and Tessa Lutz.
Jill Britton, Pfirsch, Julie Lauthers and Linda Adams easily won the 4 X 800 relay (10:34)
for Colonel Crawford. The Eagles' freshmen pole vaulters,
Annie Dawson and Brittany
Glenn, went one-two in the first

Kevin McFerren, went one-two in the shot put and the discus. Baker won the shot with a heave of 51-9 and McFerren picked up the first-place medal in the discus by sailing the plate 147-1.
Brandon Bryant was a surprise winner for Ontario in the long jump (18-8.75) and Brian Lucas

Lexington sends ent to district

SANDUSKY — Unlike the team of last year, Lexington failed to qualify all of their players for this year's District Tournament at Perrysburg.

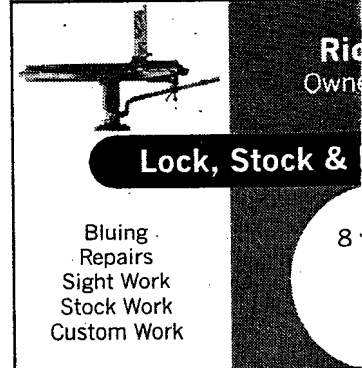

The Minutemen did manage to take the top spots in both singles and doubles at the Division I sectional held at Sandusky on Friday and Saturday.

After entering the tournament unseeded, Steve Webster defeated Madison's Eric Peffley in two sets to emerge as the sectional's singles champion 6-2, 6-3.

Dan Piper of Lexington defeated Aaron Oeaken of Ashland to claim third-place honors in singles.

Mike Staker and Ty Schaub paired up for doubles and easily took the first-place honors. They met teammates Drew Bolesky and Josh Adam in the final, and won, 6-2, 6-0.

Neil Mohatra and Noah Slabodnik of Ashland were unable to defeat Fremont
