

Keaton, Branstool pace PHS

CARDINGTON — Kristin Keaton won both hurdle races, finished second in the 200-meter dash and anchored a runner-up 4 x 400-meter relay to lead the Plymouth girls track team to a fourth-place finish at the Cardington Invite Saturday.

Keaton churned out a time of 16.8 in the 100-meter lows and later swept the 300-meter low hurdles in 50.6. She clocked in at 28.6 in the 200-meter dash and teamed up with Megan Hedeem, Ariel Collins and Kristy Collins to place second in the 4 x 400-meter relay with 4:46.8.

The PHS girls collected 79 points in the eight-team field and finished behind Highland (151), Northmor (139.5) and Centerburg (108).

The Big Red boys were fifth in the team standings with 65 points and trailed Highland (138.5), Mount Gilead (120.5), Northmor (94.5) and Crestline (82).

Skylar Branstool notched the lone first for the PHS boys, winning the 800-meter run with an effort of 2:08.8.

The Plymouth track teams travel to Norwalk St. Paul Tuesday.
