

Collins paces PHS tracksters

WEST SALEM — Ariel Collins had a hand in four first-place finishes in helping the Plymouth girls track and field team to a strong showing during a Thursday four-way meet at Northwestern.

Collins swept the 1,600-meter (6:27.5) and 800-meter (2:57.4) runs. She was also part of the winning 4 x 800-meter relay (11:50.4) that featured Emily Perry, Libby Fackler and Nicole Riedlinger as well as the triumphant 4 x 400-meter relay (4:44.4) with Perry, Collins and Fackler.

Loudonville won the meet with 96 points, followed by Plymouth (64), Northwestern (46) and Danville (41).

Ashlee Weekley helped the Lady Vikings with a first in the 400-meter dash (1:08.7) and was part of the winning 4 x 200-meter relay (2:04.2) with Maranda Drajić, Fackler and Perry.

Riedlinger added to the first-place total for PHS with a victory in the 3,200-meter run (14:21.2).

On the boys side, Northwestern totaled 85 points to outdistance Loudonville (67), Plymouth (51) and Danville (48).

Tony Browning, David McDonald, Eric Weaver and Mike McKenzie won a pair of relays, taking the 4 x 200 (1:40.1) and the 4 x 100 (46.1).

Weaver also won the long jump with a leap of 19-2 and McKenzie ruled the 300-meter intermediate hurdles in 43.0.
