Class History

In September, 1950, our crew had finished our submarine and we were ready for our journey which would take us four years to complete. It seemed hard to wait until we could graduate, but as that long-awaited occasion drew near, we felt rather sad to be leaving good old Shiloh High.

As we submerged to the great depths of the Shiloh Sea, roll was called and the following were found on board with Mrs. Edith Huston as Navigator and the following at the head:

Captain	Jean Hamman
Co-Captain.....	Rosemary Barnes
Yeoman.....	Kathleen Miller
First Mate	Carol Schulte
Gunner	Larry Rader
Radioman.....	Mary Kaylor

Other members of the crew were:

Bonnie Aller	George Miller
Patricia Blackford	Ronald Moore
Francis Bloom	Eugene Patton
Charles Clagg	Dorothy Porter
Joann Clutter	Jim Rakestraw
Bob Cole	Lester Shepherd
Ed Cole	Richard Stoops
Jill Elliott	Raymond Tilton
Mary Keesy	Bonnie Weaver
Nadine Laser	Lionel Wells

During the year we lost Ed Cole and Joann Clutter who were swallowed by a whale. We were very happy to welcome Gayola Blankenship and Bill Miller.

We had two class parties and, of course, we were put on trial by the Seniors to see if we were worthy of being Freshmen.

Rosemary Barnes was our attendant at the homecoming basketball game.

We held a bake sale, sponsored a show at the Plymouth theater, and won first prize for a float in the Shiloh Halloween Parade.

When May came, we thought we'd better come up for air, so we took a three months' vacation.

In September we submerged again and found Miss June Campbell as Navigator, and we chose the following to direct us:

Captain.....	George Miller
Co-Captain	Lionel Wells
Yeoman.....	Jean Hamman
First Mate	Kathleen Miller
Gunner	Lester Shepherd
Radioman.....	Jill Elliott

Other members of the crew were:

Bonnie Aller	Bill Miller
Rosemary Barnes	Ronald Moore
Patricia Blackford	Eugene Patton
Gayola Blankenship	Dorothy Porter
Francis Bloom	Jim Rakestraw
Charles Clagg	Larry Rader
Bob Cole	Carol Schulte
Mary Kaylor	Richard Stoops
Mary Keesy	Raymond Tilton
Bill Koker	Bonnie Weaver

Nadine Laser

During the year Bill Miller, Carol Schulte, Bonnie Aller, Francis Bloom, Ronald Moore, Eugene Patton, Jim Rakestraw, and Bonnie Weaver bailed out and we welcomed Ann Jackson.

Kathleen Miller was elected homecoming attendant from our class.

After nine months of hard work we needed some rest and fresh air, so we came up for a three months' shore leave.

In September we came back from a nice vacation to submerge to the deep blue Shiloh Sea. Mrs. Boor was chosen Navigator and others elected were:

Captain	George Miller
Co-Captain.....	Lionel Wells
Yeoman	Mary Kaylor
First Mate	Larry Rader
Gunner	Lester Shepherd
Radioman.....	Mary Keesy

Other members of the crew were:

Rosemary Barnes	Bill Koker
Patricia Blackford	Nadine Laser
Gayola Blankenship	Kathleen Miller
Charles Clagg	Dorothy Porter
Bob Cole	Richard Stoops
Jill Elliott	Raymond Tilton

Jean Hamman

During the year we lost Bob Cole, Bill Koker, Ann Jackson, and Raymond Tilton and welcomed Dallas Crose, who later left us. In the middle of the year Mrs. Boor withdrew from the crew, and Mrs. Meffley became our Navigator in her place.

We operated the candy stand at noons and at home games to add to our class funds.

Kathleen Miller was elected homecoming queen by the student body. Mary Keesy was elected attendant by our class.

We sponsored the Junior Play and the Junior-Senior Banquet which both proved to be a success. Our play, "STRICTLY FORMAL", was given March 27, 1953, with all members of the class participating. We chose to decorate the auditorium with a Dutch scene for the banquet. Everyone agreed that our banquet was extra nice and we enjoyed planning it.

So after another nine months of hard work we came up for air and our last shore leave.

In three months we submerged for the last time. We chose Mr. Joe Mock as Navigator. Others elected were:

Captain.....	George Miller
Co-Captain.....	Lionel Wells
Yeoman.....	Mary Keesy
First Mate.....	Larry Rader
Gunner.....	Lester Shepherd
Radioman.....	Mary Kaylor

Other members of the crew were:

Rosemary Barnes	Jean Hamman
Patricia Blackford	Nadine Laser
Gayola Blankenship	Kathleen Miller
Charles Clagg	Dorothy Porter
Jill Elliott	Richard Stoops

We welcomed Adrian Kennard from Galion. During the year we gave an assembly program and Senior Day. We initiated the Freshmen before the high school Halloween party.

Mary Keesy was elected homecoming attendant.

We sponsored the Senior Play, "THE BOARDINGHOUSE REACH", November 13, 1953, with all members of the class participating.

Then we had the Junior-Senior Banquet, Baccalaureate, and Commencement to look forward to. Baccalaureate and Commencement were held May 23 and 26. This ended our good old school days and put us out on our own to shape our destiny.

Class Prophecy

While I was on duty at Pasadena General Hospital the night of May 26, I got to thinking that it had been just fifteen years ago since I had graduated from high school in Shiloh, and I decided it was time I went back to see my friends and classmates once more.

As I boarded the plane from my present home town of Pasadena, California, the air line hostess appeared to be none other than KATHLEEN MILLER. Tex told me she had been with Trans World Air Lines for a short while after graduating from high school. We visited until the plane landed in Chicago and that was the end of her run. After a short layover in Chicago the plane continued on its way to the Mansfield Municipal Airport.

I had become very hungry on our journey so after the plane landed at the airport I stopped at a restaurant to get something to eat, and they had the World Series Game on television. The Cleveland Indians were playing the Milwaukee Braves and the Indians had none other than GEORGE MILLER catching for their team since Jim Hegan had retired a few years ago. It was only the fifth inning and already George had hit two home runs. When I had finished eating I called a cab and started back for good old Shiloh.

After I arrived in Shiloh I went to the high school and found none other than MARY KEESY teaching the Commercial Courses. Mary told me she still wasn't married and she had gone to college immediately following high school. I asked her about JEAN HAMMAN and she told me Jean had finally landed Larry and she was a lawyer for a big firm in Philadelphia. I bade Mary farewell and started on downtown.

As I passed the place that was once the Shiloh Garage, I noticed that a new plant had been erected and ADRIAN KENNARD was the owner. I stopped in to have a chat with Adrian and found to my surprise that he had none other than ROSEMARY BARNES (Bricker) as his private secretary. While talking to them, Rosemary told me that Jim was in the Navy and she had taken the job merely as a pastime. Adrian said that he had a rich uncle that died and left him a huge sum of money and he had started the "Acme Paper Company" because he didn't know what else to do with the money he had inherited. I chatted with them a little while longer and then continued on my way down Main Street when much to my surprise I saw there had been a new hotel erected under the name of the "Shiloh Leland Hotel", under the management of PAT BLACKFORD and MARY KAYLOR. I thought that would be the ideal place to stay for the night so I went in the lobby to make my reservations. I found Pat in her private suite and asked her all about herself and Mary when she told me Mary was in Florida on vacation. Pat said she took vacation for eleven of the twelve months of the year. Pat and I talked over old times for a while and I went back down to the lobby where I found none other than LARRY RADER. Larry told me he had gone to Yale University and come back to Shiloh where he was now Postmaster of the local post office. Larry said he was in a hurry to get back to the post office, so I wished him well and continued on my way down Main Street when I heard a truck coming up the street, with a bunch of pails and milk cans in the back of it, when I recognized the driver to be LIONEL WELLS. He pulled the truck over to the curb and got out and came over to chat for a while. He said his father had retired just last fall and now he was operating their three farms by himself. He said he was still single although he had plenty of chances to be married.

We talked for a little while and he said he would have to rush home because he was going to plow corn ground that afternoon. I wished him success in his farming and continued down Main Street.

I came to a music store that had a big sign in the window that read, "Lake's Music Store, Where the People in the Best Circles Get Three Squares." I went into the shop for some sheet music when I saw another of my classmates, JILL ELLIOTT. I was quite surprised to see Jill but she told me she and Cloyce were finally married and she ran the business and he ran around all night and slept all day. Jill and I talked awhile and she invited me to go to the stock car races with her that night because another of our classmates, RICHARD STOOPS, was the feature attraction with the "Daredevil Aces." That boy always did have racing in his blood. Since it was late afternoon then, I told her I didn't believe I would go because I was quite tired. I bade her farewell and returned to the hotel for the night.

After a good night's sleep I decided to do some more exploring to see if I could see all of my classmates before I left for Pasadena late this afternoon.

I started down Main Street once more and I had walked a short distance when I met LESTER SHEPHERD, another of my classmates. Les told me he was the owner of the "Shiloh Tool and Die Company" now and he was making so much money that he had finally decided to get married. I asked him about GAYOLA BLANKENSHIP and he told me that Gay had gotten married and moved back to Kentucky. Lester and I chatted for a short time and I continued on my way down Main Street when I met another of my classmates, DOROTHY PORTER. She said she was working in the gas pipe factory and was finally a straw boss. I asked her about the only one of my classmates that I hadn't seen or heard of and she said CHARLES CLAGG was going to college to become a missionary. We had a lovely talk until she had to go to work.

I was very much satisfied with my visit back to my home town and being very happy, I went back to the hotel to pack my suitcases and start back to Pasadena.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1954, being of unsound mind and infirm body, do write and publish the last stanza of this great book to the following under-classes and persons.

ARTICLE I

To the Junior Class we leave the ability of getting out of school for the Senior Play next year.

To the Sophomores we leave all the profits of the Junior Candy Stand.

To the Freshmen we leave the ability of initiating and having fun with the Freshmen.

To the Eighth Grade we leave the privilege to come up one grade and becoming Freshmen.

To the Seventh Grade we leave the ability to raise money.

To Mr. Mock we leave the ability of hitting the baskets as we did when we threw away our candy wrappers and apple cores.

To Mr. Guthrie we leave all of our books and test papers to clean up when we are gone.

ARTICLE II

Rosemary Barnes leaves her long hair to Grace Ann Wolfesberger. Don't get tangled in it, Grace.

Pat Blackford just leaves. Everything is peaceful once more.

Gayola Blankenship leaves her diet to Ruth Ellen Heifner.

Jill Elliot leaves her ability to be on time to Dean Evans. Better get there on time, Dean!

Jean Hamman leaves all her romances to Sally Swanger.

Mary Kaylor leaves her ability to keep awake and take dictation in shorthand to Judy Hawthorne. You'd better practice over summer vacation, Judy.

Mary Keesy leaves her height to Judy Hamman. Better start growing, Judy.

Nadine Laser leaves her laughs to Larry Humbert. Better tone it down, Larry.

Kathleen Miller leaves her hard studying to Irmogene Dick.

Dorothy Porter leaves her wind to blow her trumpet to Karen Williams; better start blowing, Karen.

Charles Clagg leaves his typing paper ink blotter to Charles Hughes to use in Bookkeeping when he drops ink on his paper.

Adrian Kennard leaves his faithful old Chevy to Mr. Mock.

George Miller leaves his curly hair to Harmond Sloan.

Larry Rader wills his short pencils to anyone who wants to cramp their fingers to use them.

Lester Shepherd leaves his loafing ability to George Poffenbaugh. Better start practicing, George.

Richard Stoops leaves his Ford to Ervin Fackler. Start stocking up on oil, Ervin, you're gonna need it.

Lionel Wells leaves his list of typewriter ailments to Bob Pittenger for excuses when his timed writings don't go too well.

In witness whereof, we have set our hands and seal this twenty-sixth day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four.

Charles Clagg

Class Poem

Lester Shepherd

With Lester Shepherd let's begin,
He's a tall guy but not too thin.
Likes to loaf and says his work at the Tool and Die will keep,
And drives a '47 "Chevy" which is a heap.

Jean Hamman

Jean Hamman with a guy in every port,
Likes staying out late and all that sort.
She's bold and sometimes more of a hinder than a helping hand,
She's pert and sassy and, yes, belongs to the Hamman Clan.

Larry Rader

Larry Rader, now there's THE guy,
He's tall and handsome and also shy.
With the girls he says he'll wait and catch them at a later date,
With books and that sort we all know he's grand,
But when it comes to sports he is our man.

Rosemary Barnes

Rosemary Barnes, quiet and refined,
Always has Jim on her mind.
Prim and proper and full of charm,
Likes the wild life of a farm.

Lionel Wells

Lionel Wells always flashing a dimple,
To him school work is exceedingly simple.
He's full of fun but hard to please,
And sometimes is an awful tease.

Mary Keesy

Mary Keesy, tall and slim,
She'll end up with the best of them.
She's teased a lot about her beau,
But she insists that it isn't so.

Nadine Laser

Nadine Laser next in line,
Never any trouble making up her mind.
When it comes to books she's on the ball,
And when she marries, she wants a man that's tall.

Patricia Blackford

Patricia Blackford, she says Pat will do,
Her favorite saying is "I'll clue you."
Lots of fun, now she's the one always ready for a laugh,
As to running around she's all over town, time later for her better half.

Mary Kaylor

Mary Kaylor likes "Toots" for a name,
She is always on hand and always the same.
She's in and she's out from morning 'til night,
You Seniors keep your distance, she might even bite.

Dorothy Porter

Dorothy Porter, she plays a cornet,
If it were broken someday she'd mourn it.
She's always running in and out,
Never will you see her pout.

Richard Stoops

Richard Stoops, our hot-rod kid,
He drives a Ford and does it skid.
An artist and quite talented too,
In every class he has some catching up to do.

Gayola Blankenship

Gayola Blankenship chews her gum like house afire,
To marry a soldier is her desire.
Taking dictation is her pet peeve,
Loss of school she will not grieve.

Adrian Kennard

Adrian Kennard, comedian of the class,
His main hobby is women, Alas!
He's active in sports and all the rest,
And as a friend he is the best.

George Miller

George Miller is Senior president,
Of the farm he is a resident.
He is head of F. F. A. and band,
Of student council he is grand.

Jill Elliott

Jill Elliott never arrives on time,
Her attitude is so sublime.
She talks and talks and talks some more,
But what she says is sometimes a bore.

Charles Clagg

Charles Clagg, now that's the question,
We'll gladly take any suggestion.
Not much to say and very quiet,
But at every party he is a riot.

Kathleen Miller

Kathleen Miller, our "53" queen,
At all the games she could be seen.
She works downtown each day at noon,
Stays out all night to see the moon.

Undergrad Activities

JUNIORS

Mr. Pittenger is our class advisor this year.

The Juniors started the year with a big bang by having a big class party at the schoolhouse.

We ordered our class rings from the Herff-Jones Company. We all think they are very pretty.

The name of our class play is "Finders Creepers" by Donald Payton.

We are selling candy and popcorn this year to raise money for the Junior-Senior Banquet, which we are all looking forward to sponsoring.

SOPHOMORES

Our class advisor is Mr. Daup.

This year we had a roller skating party at the Mansfield Skating Rink.

Phyllis Keith was the Sophomore homecoming attendant.

We have eight boys playing basketball; six of them are dressing for varsity.

Our class is planning to have another party in the spring.

FRESHMEN

On October 29, twenty-six ninth graders came to school as the 1953-1954 initiated Freshmen. On the same evening a Halloween party was held at the school auditorium.

We had an assembly which contained such acts as "Red Buttons", "What's my Line", and "Misto-the Magician".

Our 1954 homecoming attendant was Carol Ann Black.

We have three cheerleaders from our class--one varsity and two reserves.

Our class was successful in selling emblems to make class money.

We are looking forward to having a roller skating party at Mansfield on February 26, 1954.

For many years now, thirteen year old Wilbur Maxwell has wanted a bicycle. He's dreamed of peddling through town, getting fond gazes from the girls, and boastfully shouting, "Look, no hands!" But he still can't persuade Mama and Papa to jar down--to get him one. So, when Pop is called away for a week-long business trip, Mom is persuaded to go with him for sort of a second honeymoon, and the house is left in charge of sister Connie and sister Betty Lou. Wilbur gets his idea; he'll make his own money and buy his own bicycle. He'll open up a boardinghouse right here. Wilbur knows there's a frightful housing shortage, he knows people need places to sleep, and he knows for a whole week he can really clean up and just be rolling in bicycles.

So into the paper goes the ad, and that night the whole Maxwell house is crawling with people. First comes Lucy Burns, a sort of walking encyclopedia; then Mrs. Mott, who never says a word all through the play, just comes in, sits down, gets up, and walks out. Then comes Ninety-Volt Jones, a beat-up pug, and his wrestling wife, Ruby; they're followed by Mr. Potter, an insurance salesman; and next comes Limpy McGuire and his wife, Nora. Now, every room in the house is full, Wilbur's doing a bang-up business, and then it happens. Mama and Papa Maxwell, at two o'clock of the next morning, come dragging home--Papa forgot his brief case.

From there on out it's one mess after another. Papa has an important business conference the next morning, but he has to sleep on the floor, he can't get in to shave, and he can't even read his own paper. Things are going 'round and 'round. Finally, it's discovered somebody in the house is a bank robber, and poor Papa is mistakenly carted off to the clink. What a mess now! And before it's all finally straightened out and Wilbur has his bicycle, you'll be dead from laughing over the antics of the Maxwells and the carload of characters that invade their sanctuary.

Boys' and Girls' State

Buckeye Girls' State was held at Capital University in Columbus from June 20-28. The week was spent learning the functions of city, county, and state government. The high lights of the week were the inauguration of the state officers, tea at the governor's mansion, and visiting the governor in his office. I was assigned to Storer City, and held the office of chaplain of the House of Representatives. The girls were divided into two political parties--the Nationalists and the Federalists. The two parties were organized to elect the elective officers. In the future I hope the girls who have the privilege to attend Buckeye Girls' State enjoy and find it as educational as I did.

Buckeye Boys' State was held June 12-21, 1953 at Camp Perry on Lake Erie. Upon arriving at Boys' State each boy was assigned to his city. Over nine hundred boys attended. After two days of campaigning, city, county, and state officers were elected. After the election the state functioned as an actual government--passing laws, levying taxes, enforcing laws, having trials, etc. The climax of Buckeye Boys' State was the variety show during the last evening.

Due to illness Lionel Wells was unable to attend Buckeye Boys' State.

We wish to express our appreciation to the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary for sponsoring us.

The Student Council is the organization that co-ordinates the activities of the school, keeps them on schedule and functioning properly.

The Student Council is composed of the class presidents of the six upper grades, a representative elected by each class at the organization meetings in September, and the superintendent who is the advisor for the group. The regularly planned social events are: the Hallowe'en party for the four upper grades which follows the Freshman Initiation by the Seniors; the election of the cheerleaders; the Christmas program; and the arrangements for the homecoming game, including the election of the queen.

Our pitcher this year was Tom Laser and was helped out by Fred Rader. All in all we had a pretty successful season. But with a little practice in the spring and by winning the spring championship, we can advance to the tournament at Upper Sandusky.

Our scores were as follows:

HUMOR

Jokes

Nyle Laser: "I'd like to place a call to Schenectady."
Operator: "How do you spell that, please?"
Nyle: "Don't be silly. If I could spell it, I'd write."

Mr. Mock (to the Junior English class): "This exam will be taken on the honor system. Please take seats three spaces apart in alternate rows."

Fred Rader: "Believe me, I know how terrible hunger is."
Bill Reynolds: "Why? Have you ever been starving?"
Fred Rader: "No, but I've taken girls out to eat."

A broken down nag was offered for sale to the highest bidder. A dapper young man finally bought him. When the sale was completed, the farmer turned to the dude and asked: "What on earth are you planning to do with the old nag?"
"I'm going to race him," he said.
"Well," said the farmer, "you'll win."

I wish I was a moment
In my teacher's class
For no matter how idle moments are
They always seem to pass.

Modern man will stand for almost anything but a woman on a crowded bus.

Akin to the sailor who takes a boatride on his shore leave, and the postman who takes a walk on his day off, is the school student who takes a vacation and spends it all loafing.

Mrs. Kinsel: "I've got my husband eating out of my hand."
Mrs. Bardon: "Saves a lot of dish washing, doesn't it?"

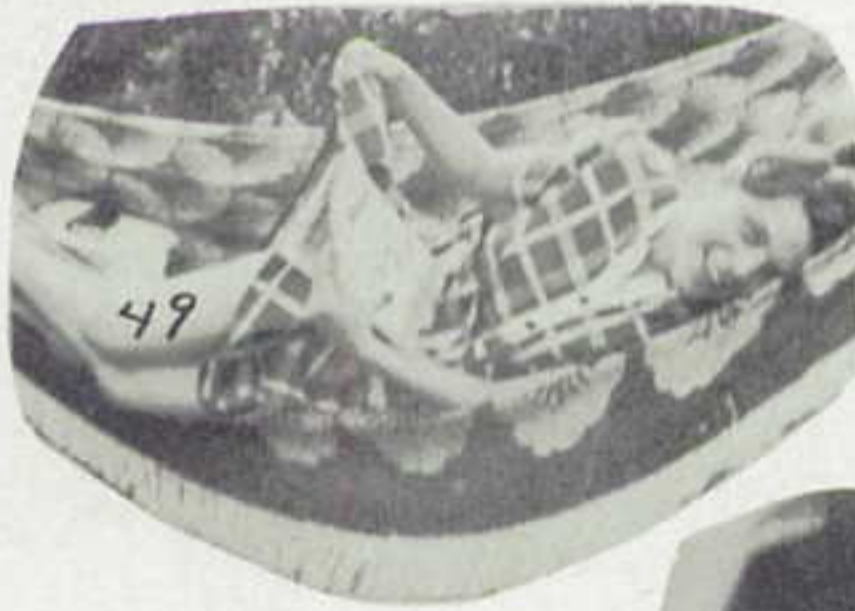

In the parlor there were three
She, the table lamp, and he,
Three's a crowd, there is no doubt,
So the little lamp went out.

Mary Ann Butner: "Say, will you lend me a dime to call a friend?"
Marylyn Dent: "Here's twenty cents, call all your friends."

"We want a girl to sell kisses at the bazaar. Have you had any experience?"
Phaenon Guthrie: "I went to Shiloh High School."
Chairman: "You're hired."
