The Seniors Retrace Their Paths

Let's turn back the time to where we entered high school. We felt that this year was the cornerstone of education. As Freshmen we looked forward with enthusiasm to the mysteries which surround this institution of higher learning. We found everything new and different. We met together on September 10, 1951, to set up a small time government. We were to have a sergeant-at-arms to keep us in hand. This job fell to Mr. G. D. Seymour

Upon taking our first roll call, we found we had thirty-two members making up our legislature. They were as follows:

Ruby Adkins	Nyle Laser
Hazel Beck	Peggy Lofland
Glen Brook	Ronald Lofland
Donald Brooks	Russell Lybarger
Goria Brown	Madge Lykins
Mary Ann Butner	Kermit Noble
Sandra Bloom	Bob Pittenger
Shirley Crouse	Alice Porter
Betty Crouse	Fred Rader
Shirley Cuppy	Louise Robbins
Marylyn Dent	Bill Reynolds
Irmogene Dick	Janet Russell
Ervin Fackler	Earl Schulte
Donald Frisby	Patty Sutter
Judy Hawthorne	Sally Swanger
Dorothy Kilgore	Janice Wolford

We elected the following officials to represent us:

President	Fred Rader
Vice-President	Dorothy Kilgore
News Reporter	Madge Lykins
Treasurer	Sandra Bloom
Secretary	Kermit Noble
Student Council	Nyle Laser

We were getting everything underway when the Seniors announced their annual forthcoming event. We knew it meant initiation. We must have proved worthy of being Freshmen for we are still living.

Ruby Adkins was our attendant at the home-coming basketball game on February 1, 1952.

During that year we were sorry to have Earl Schulte, Louise Robbins, and Shirley Crouse retire, but we welcomed Russell Lybarger.

It was September 2, 1952, when we enrolled as Sophomores with a better understanding of what an important part education plays in everyone's life.

There were twenty-nine members who answered the roll call; Mrs. Kinsel was at the desk. We cast our votes and the following people won the election:

President	Janice Wolford
Vice-President	Fred Rader
News Reporter	Janet Russell
Treasurer	Mary Ann Butner
Secretary	Sandra Bloom
Student Council	Marylyn Dent

We were sorry to have Gloria Brown, Donald Brooks, Russell Lybarger, Patty Sutter, and Betty Crouse retire.

This was a year of study. Every student was active in one or more activities.

During that year we bought a popcorn machine. We had a bake sale in order to replenish our treasury.

The students that were active in sports or other outstanding activities were a great help to our class.

Sandra Bloom was the home-coming attendant on February 6, 1953.

Here it was, that time again, September 8, 1953. We finally were very important Juniors.

The roll in the House was called and twenty-five members answered. Mr. W.W. Pittenger was ruler along with the following officials:

President	Janice Wolford
Vice-President	Donald Frisby
News Reporter	Kermit Noble
Treasurer	Shirley Cuppy
Secretary	Mary Ann Butner
Student Council	Bob Pittenger

We chose the yellow rose as our class flower, kelly green and white were our class colors. Our class motto was "Onward and Upward."

November 5, 1953, was the great day when you heard us let out our ah's and oh's in delight. We were admiring our beautiful class rings. How nice they looked on our fingers.

Irmogene Dick was our attendant at the home-coming game on February 29, 1954. Sandra Bloom was elected queen.

During that year the sale of candy was very helpful to our treasury.

On April 9, 1954, we presented "Finders Creepers," by Donald Payton.

May 15, 1954, was the night of the Junior-Senior Banquet. We all spent a beautiful evening in a rose garden with delicious food, divine music, and dancing under the stars. We ended that year by going on a three month's vacation.

On September 7, 1954, we were Seniors, with the assurance that all our preparation in the past was not in vain.

The roll was called and there were twenty-four members who completed their term in the House. They were:

Hazel Beck	Nyle Laser
Glen Brook	Peggy Lofland
Sandra Bloom	Ronald Lofland
Mary Ann Butner	Madge Lykins
Shirley Cuppy	Kermit Noble
Marylyn Dent	Bob Pittenger
Irmogene Dick	Alice Porter
Ervin Fackler	Fred Rader
Donald Frisby	Bill Reynolds
Judy Hawthorne	Janet Russell
Charles Hughes	Sally Swanger
Dorothy Kilgore	Janice Wolford

Mr. J. Mock was our advisor. We elected the following governing officials:

President	Kermit Noble
Vice-President	Glen Brook
News Reporter	Irmogene Dick
Treasurer	Shirley Cuppy
Secretary	Sandra Bloom
Student Council	Marylyn Dent

We were sorry to have Jack Burling retire.

Shirley Cuppy was home-coming attendant on February 4, 1955.

The big activity we engaged in was presenting our class play "Tattletale," by Anne Coulter Martens on November 19, 1954.

We were looking forward to the Junior-Senior Banquet, Baccalaureate, and Commencement. Baccalaureate and Commencement were held May 22 and 25, 1955, respectively.

The night of Commencement signified, when we walked down the aisle together for the last time, that the goal for which we had been working had been reached. Many thoughts entered our minds that evening, but I believe that each of us thought that it was a privilege to go to school in "AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL."

We want to thank the good natured Freshmen for being the victims at the high school Hallowe'en Party.

We want to give our sincere thanks and appreciation to our school teachers, parents, school board, and anyone else who contributed to our education.

After four years of training, we believe we are prepared to go out and seek our fortunes in this vast world of ours. There are twenty-four of us who are ready, willing, and eager to push "ONWARD AND UPWARD."

Class Prophecy

In the year 1960 I read in the newspaper that a new civilization had been started on the planet, Mars.

As I read on, I found that my classmates were responsible for this turn in history. It was then I made my decision to rocket to Mars to congratulate them on their fine work.

As I went aboard the rocket ship, much to my surprise I saw my classmate, JANICE WOLFORD, going to Mars for the same purpose.

During the trip Janice and I talked about the good old times we had while attending Shiloh High. As we were landing at Mars, we saw a big sign, which read, "Nobles' Experiment Farm;" Before we got a good look at the farm, our rocket landed.

As we got off the ship, we decided to get a taxi to motor us to the farm to see if it belonged to one of our classmates KERMIT NOBLE.

On our way out we visited with the taxi driver who said, "The taxi company was owned by RONALD LOFLAND. He said that since Ronnie had taken over, the business had picked up considerably. When we got to the farm, Kermit's servant told us that he was in town on business. Once more we got into the taxi and headed toward town. As we entered town, the driver pulled into a gas station, JUDY HAWTHORNE, dressed in red coveralls, came out to wait on us. Judy said that she and Red owned the Mar Gas Company and that they had stations all over Mars.

As we started to leave, something whizzed by like a streak of lightning. The driver said that it was BOB PITTENGER, President of the Hot Rod Club on Mars.

When we entered the business district we saw a sign reading "Reynolds' Space Auto Sales." We paid our taxi fare and inquired at the desk whether the company belonged to BILL REYNOLDS. Just then Bill walked in wearing a pair of greasy coveralls. Bill was surprised to see us, but since he was so busy he couldn't visit very long. He told us that our classmates were scattered over Mars and that he would have a salesman drive us to see our classmates in a new 1960 Pontiac.

The first place the salesman took us was to the public schools where we saw NYLE LASER with his feet propped up on the superintendent's desk. Nyle told us that he had five of our classmates teaching at the school. MARY ANN BUTNER was teaching the sweet little first graders, MARYLYN DENT, English classes, SANDRA BLOOM, commercial classes, JANET RUSSELL, music, and DONALD FRISBY, science. Since we were pressed for time, we told Nyle to say "hello" to them for us and we continued our journey.

Since it was around noon, we stopped at the Isaly's Store for a bite to eat. There we saw PEGGY LOFLAND, who said, "She owned all the Isaly's Stores on Mars."

After we had eaten, the driver took us to the factory section located on the outskirts of town. When we entered the office building, we saw the familiar names CHARLES J. HUGHES, President and FREDERICK L. RADER, head engineer, printed on office doors side by side. As we visited with Fred and Jobie, they told us that IRMOGENE DICK was editor of the town newspaper. We left a note with Fred and Jobie to give to her and hurried on our way.

As we drove down the street, we passed a big show window, which read, "Shirley's Music Store." The driver said that it belonged to SHIRLEY CUPPY, so we decided to stop a few minutes. Shirley said that she was doing a big business teaching the Martians how to play the trumpet.

Before we left, Shirley told us that DOROTHY KILGORE'S Beauty Shop was next door. We dropped over to see Dorothy, who was in the midst of a permanent. We noticed she was very busy, so we didn't talk very long.

As we were getting into our car, we saw a white truck with "Fackler's Laundry Service" on it. The salesman whom we were with said that MADGE LYKINS and ERVIN FACKLER had gotten married and were running a successful laundry business.

Since it was nearly five o'clock, we were getting hungry, so the driver stopped at the restaurant. We noticed HAZEL BECK and ALICE PORTER were managing it. Hazel told us that the Martians really went for the American food.

After we had eaten, we were walking toward our car when we saw SALLY SWANGER closing the Post Office door. Sally said that she didn't have much business because the Martians didn't know what letters were for.

The time was drawing near when we must board our rocket again, so our driver speeded us back to the Space Port. We bade the driver good-bye, and started on our journey back to earth.

On the way back Janice and I (GLEN BROOK) decided that when we go back to Mars, we will take a profession of our own to teach to the Martians.

Class Poem

Judy Hawthorne

With Judy Hawthorne let us begin,
She's always running around with a grin;
She goes with a guy and his name is Red,
And you can tell that she's well fed.

Bill Reynolds

Bill Reynolds is a sport,
And the girls he likes to court;
He plays the drum in our big band,
And is always willing to lend a hand.

Mary Ann Butner

Mary Ann Butner, full of joy,
Is always looking for a boy;
She plans to teach in elementary school,
She'll have them sitting on a stool.

Donald Frisby

Donald Frisby, the brain of the class,
Is never seen around town with a lass;
His nickname as we all know is Whitey,
He may be little, but he sure is mighty.

Janet Russell

Janet Russell, the musician of the land,
Plays first clarinet in our big band;
She plays piano and goes with Porge,
This could be another Liberace and George.

Janice Wolford

Janice Wolford, the gal who'll win the title,
Of the girl who giggles and is never idle;
She;s lots of fun and sure is a pill,
And she goes with a guy whose name is Bill.

Madge Lykins

Madge Lykins, her hobby is Ervin as we all know,
But she could go for any Joe;
But sweet and simple as she be,
She wouldn't do such a thing to he.

Shirley Cuppy

Shirley Cuppy, quiet and refined,
Can do anything she puts in her mind;
If there is sports, she's sure to be there,
The weather being cool or fair.

Irmogene Dick

Irmogene Dick who's nice and neat,
For looks and manners, she can't be beat;
For books and lessons, she got pep,
For the school paper she's got the get.

Peggy Lofland

Peggy Lofland, gay and sweet,
At any game she won't retreat;
She'll join in with all her heart,
Just to give a game a start.

Dorothy Kilgore

Dorothy Kilgore, a nice girl to know,
There is no doubt she has a beau;
The news she knows from any angle,
She will straighten you out on any tangle.

Marylyn Dent

Marylyn Dent, the lucky girl,
Will keep a guy in many a whirl;
She's smart as a tack and really neat,
And gets the grades that are hard to beat.

Bob Pittenger

Bob Pittenger, that friendly guy,
Never lets the world go by;
He has a Ford that really goes,
Where he goes no one knows.

Alice Porter

Alice Porter, kind and sweet,
Many a guy would like to meet;
She's kind of tall with hair of brown,
As far as fun goes, she really paints the town.

Fred Rader

Fred Rader our baseball star,
Can hit that ball and hit it far;
He plays Varsity on our basketball team,
And we know his gal is the '54 queen.

Hazel Beck

Hazel Beck the quiet one,
Belongs to F.H.A. and has some fun;
She cans and cooks and sews away,
And still has lots of time for play.

Charles Hughes

Charles Hughes, Jobie for short,
When he's mad, how he does snort;
Jobie's sorta handsome and very tall,
And he is friendly to one and all.

Sally Swanger

Sally Swanger, jolly and stout,
Never will you see her pout;
She'll talk and joke with a smile,
But you'll get one back in a little while.

Glen Brook

Glen Brook, the man of charm,
Likes the country and life on a farm;
Likes to loaf; says work will keep,
Can lay down beside it, and go to sleep.

Ervin Fackler

Ervin Fackler, a good fellow down deep at heart,
For every joke, he has his part;
His ambition is uncertain as yet,
He may be a pilot of a boat or a jet.

Ronald Lofland

Ronald Lofland, our little saint,
Indeed an angel without restraint;
Sports and girls are the dishes for him,
But he says he just can't win.

Sandra Bloom

Sandra Bloom was our '54 queen,
Has a nice personality and is always on the beam;
She likes fun and sports, so it is said,
But when it comes to beaus, her favorite is Fred.

Kermit Noble

Kermit Noble, call him "Kermy" for short,
Would be good in most any sport;
He drives a '46 Chevie which is a heap,
Even if he is out late, he claims he gets plenty of sleep.

Nyle Laser

Nyle Laser is a nice kind of guy,
If you didn't know him, you'd say he was shy;
He's friendly and smart and really likes to go,
If you don't believe me, ask Luana, she'll know.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1955, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following things to the underclassmen and persons in this our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To the Junior Class we leave the ability to get to class on time.

To the Sophomores we leave the ability to erase all our pencil marks from our books.

To the Freshmen we leave the ability to have a good initiation for the class of 1961.

To the Eighth Grade we leave all our stubby pencils and scrap paper.

To the Seventh Grade we leave five wonderful years of high school. Have fun!!

To Mr. Mock.....We leave!

To Mr. Guthrie we leave all our gum and candy wrappers.

ARTICLE II

Hazel Beck leaves her natural curly hair to Effie.

Sandra Bloom leaves her ability to drive to Kay Elliott.

Glen Brook leaves his bald head to Mr. Beard. Better get a haircut.

Mary Ann Butner leaves her ability to giggle to David Ruckman.

Shirley Cuppy leaves her love for all sports to Phaenon Guthrie.

Good luck, Phaenon.

Marylyn Dent leaves her love for school to John Lykins. Better start coming, John.

Irmogene Dick leaves her love for commercial work to Phyllis Keith. Good luck, Phyllis!

Ervin Fackler leaves his ability to slide around curves to Wayne Stoops. With your Ford, Wayne.

Donald Frisby leaves his scientific knowledge to Ned Lofland. Remember Ned, if it blows up, you did something wrong.

Judy Hawthorne leaves her ability to sing tenor to Robert Seaman.

Charles Hughes leaves his curly hair to George Poffenbaugh.

Dorothy Kilgore leaves her brown eyes to Luella Kirkendall.

Nyle Laser leaves his electric razor to Mr. Beard.

Peggy Lofland leaves her love for school to Larry Humbert.

Ronald Lofland leaves his nights in Willard to anyone who wants to go.

Madge Lykins leaves her ability to get a man to Virginia Wallen.

Kermit Noble leaves his Chevy to Mr. Mock.

Bob Pittenger leaves his ability to control his temper to Larry Humbert.

Alice Porter leaves her ability to stay away from boys to Virginia Ramey.

Fred Rader leaves his spare time to anyone who can find it.

Bill Reynolds leaves his ability to play the drums to Robert Bisel.

Janet Russell leaves her long hair to Grace Ann Wolfersberger.

Sally Swanger leaves her ability to get to school on time to Phyllis Wallace.

Janice Wolford leaves her cheerleading to Grace Ann Wolfersberger.

In witness whereof, we have set our hands and seal this twenty-fifth day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five.

Undergrad Activities

Juniors

Mr. Pittenger is our class adviser this year.

We haven't had any class parties yet, but we expect to have two this spring.

We ordered our class rings from the Herf-Jones Company. Everyone is pleased with them.

The name of our class play is "You'll Die Laughing."

We are selling candy this year to make money for the Junior-Senior Banquet, which we are sponsoring.

The members of the banquet committee are: Luana Hawk, Tom Laser, Bill Patterson, Phyllis Keith, and Harold Ballitch.

Sophomores

Our class adviser is Mr. Daup.

We have three cheerleaders from our class, two varsity and one reserve.

Elaine Ballitch was our home-coming attendant.

We have three boys playing basketball: Larry Barnd, Adrian Cole, Jennings Francis; two of them, Larry Barnd and Jennings Francis are dressing for varsity.

We had a wiener roast at the schoolhouse on October 18.

Freshmen

The Freshman Class of 1954-55 had a class party November 4th at the home of Patty Barnd. We plan to have another before the end of the year.

We have two reserve cheerleaders from our class this year.

Our attendant for home-coming was Sherry Smith.

On October 28 we were initiated. During the day we came to school dressed as the Seniors told us. That night there was a Hallowe'en Party for the high school. We furnished them with a lot of laughs.

It all began so very innocently! Patty just had to have a typewriter to type the script of her novel, and Tod agreed to borrow the new one from the school office. They were going to take it right back. But the next thing they knew, a detective was around investigating the theft of the typewriter! Patty tried to sneak it back, but someone accidentally sat on the thing, and it looked as if she'd have to buy a new one. It was then she thought of selling her novel, and it was not her fault that her diary was delivered to the newspaper office instead! The diary shakes up the town like a major explosion. For Patty tells ALL. Her sister is humiliated to the point that she could weep. The diary mentions that she is in love with the newspaper editor and even busy on a quilt for her hope chest. It tells the awful things her dad said about the school buildings, and that Mrs. Nixon spends all her husband's salary on hats! It calls the Faculty Wives' Club the "Pussy Cat Club." Her best friends, Tod and Ida May, know she is the culprit, but they cover up for her, even when they have to start loudly singing to keep Patty from giving herself away. But the shake-up really does the school good, and Patty owns up when she finds out that someone else is bearing the blame for her. It's a play full of pep and lively fun that groups revel in producing.

Boys' and Girls' State

When I arrived at Buckeye Girls' State, I registered and was assigned to Hayes City. There were over five hundred fifty girls attending this year. We spent the week learning the functions of our state, county, and city government. We made many laws and the offenders were caught and given a fair trial. We heard many prominent people speak. Some of them were Ted Brown, Dale Rhodes, and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Weygandt. Some of the other highlights were the formal inauguration of state officers, a bus tour of Columbus, a tour of the Capitol building, tea at the Governor's Mansion, and a picnic. It was an experience that I shall never forget.

When we arrived at Boys' State, we registered and found out in which cabins we were to stay. We quickly made friends with our roommates and unpacked our clothes. Events moved rapidly after we got there. We were divided into two parties and had several lectures on the functions of state, county, and city government. Both parties held conventions. On election day there was a hundred percent vote, although voting was not compulsory. Since there were usually two people running for the same office, after the election there were about half the citizens out of a job. This did not last long as there were hundreds of jobs left open for appointment. Everyone received a salary which he deposited in the bank and wrote checks for his expenses. We had several prominent speakers one of whom was Governor Frank J. Lausche.

We can all truthfully say that we learned more about the basic functions of our type of government than we had learned in our years in high school. We wish to thank the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary for giving us the opportunity to attend the 1954 sessions of Boys' State and Girls' State respectively.

The Lions had some heavy batters as six regulars topped the .300 mark. Fred Rader and Charles Hughes hit .419 and .400 respectively and each had one home run. Tom Laser and Fred Rader did the pitching chores with Tom taking the heavy side. Laser had 98 strike outs in 52 2/3 innings. Harmon Sloan was on the receiving end of the battery. The Lions had a lot of teamwork as the statistics show. Mr. Daup helped in every way possible and kept the team very adequately supplied.

Jokes

Speaking of sad cases, how about Joe Mock who received a theme with no punctuation marks, and nearly died holding his breath until the end.

Jobie: "What is home without a mother?"

Janet: "I am tonight."

Sandra: "I'm so discouraged. Everything I do seems wrong."

Fred: "What are you doing tonight?"

Kermit: "Give an athlete an inch and he'll take a foot."

Ronnie: "Let him have it. Who wants athletes foot anyway?"

Dorothy: "How did you like Venice?"

Judy: "I only stayed a few days. The place was flooded."

Nyle: "Have you read Webster's Dictionary?"

Don: "I'll wait until they make it into a movie."

A Russian and an American (Rudolph) were arguing whether it was raining or snowing. Finally the American's wife said, "Rudolph, the Red knows rain, Dear."

Madge: "What is a soda-jerks profession?"

Ervin: "A fizz-sicion."

A family budget is one thing a family can't live within or can't live without.

FRIENDS: Two women mad at the same person.

Policeman: "How did the accident happen?"

Motorist: "My wife fell asleep in the back seat."

The music in the place was so bad that when a waiter dropped a tray of dishes everyone got up and started dancing.

It's not the minutes you put in at the table that makes you fat, it's the seconds.
