Seniors Journey in the Past

On September 2, 1953, we returned to our academy to prepare ourselves for a journey in our newly completed flying saucer.

Before we left, we were given a test by the Seniors to determine whether or not we would be capable to complete the journey ahead. All were reported in good condition.

We elected Ruth Lofland as our attendant to represent the Freshman Class at the Homecoming basketball game.

After we got the ship loaded, Mr. Daup, who was assigned to be our Captain, called the roll and the following officers were elected:

Pilot	Harold Ballitch
Co-Pilot.	Fred Springston
Keeper of the Log.	Bill Patterson
Purser.	Jack Hall
Radioman.	Tom Laser
Navigator.	Harmon Sloan

The following Cadets were waiting to get off to a spinning start:

Pat Million	Richard Patton
Pat Shaw	Dean Evans
Janice Reber	David Swartz
Plumah Baker	Bill Patterson
Karen Williams	Fred Springston
Eilla Rinehart	Jack Hall
Virginia Ramey	Tom Laser
Nancy Dyer	Danny Baker
Hazel Cole	Tom Kranz
Ruth Lofland	Larry Humbert
Marlene White	Otis Hughes
Ollie Cole	Eugene Hamman
Roger Steele	John Lykins
Ned Lofland

The journey was rough in some places, and our ship was damaged by a loose meteor. We were forced to land on one of the planets in space. We make new friends fast, and enjoyed a three month's visit with them.

It is now September 2, 1954. Mr. Daup who was still our Captain, called us together.

We found three new members who decided to join our crew. They were, Luana Hawk, Phyllis Keith, and Howard Cuppy. However, we were sorry to learn we were losing four members of our party. Pat Million decided to get a transfer to a ship from Mansfield, and Danny Baker thought he would like to get on the rocket from Shelby. Janice Rever and Plumah Baker went for a swim in space and never returned. We could not find them, so we decided to leave them behind.

We held an election and the following officers were chosen to guide our ship for the second part of the trip:

Pilot.	Larry Humbert
Co-Pilot.	Fred Springston
Keeper of the Log.	Tom Kranz
Purser.	Harmon Sloan
Radioman.	Tom Laser
Navigator.	Bill Patterson

The rest of the crew were:

Pat Shaw	Otis Hughes
Nancy Dyer	Ned Lofland
Hazel Cole	Eugene Hamman
Virginia Ramey	Ollie Cole
Eilla Rinehart	Richard Patton
Karen Williams	David Swartz
Luana Hawk	Harold Ballitch
Phyllis Keith	Roger Steele
Ruth Lofland	John Lykins
Marlene White	Howard Cuppy
Jack Hall

We elected Phyllis Keith to represent our Sophomore class at the Home-coming game.

We had a couple of parties on a neighboring planet for entertainment. The cadets got tired of traveling, so we planned to rest for three months.

During the rest, we were sorry to learn that Nancy Dyer, Pat Shaw, and Hazel Cole decided not to finish the trip.

In the fall of 1955, we reported to the main hall where we were informed Mr. Pittenger was to be our Captain for the third part of our journey.

We set up a small stand and sold candy in order to buy fuel for our saucer.

We ordered class rings from the Herff-Jones Company.

Karen Williams was chosen Homecoming Queen. Marlene White was chosen to be her Junior attendant.

The officers consisted of:

Pilot.	Harmon Sloan
Co-Pilot.	Larry Humbert
Keeper of the Log.	Phyllis Keith
Purser.	Eilla Rinehart
Radioman.	Tom Laser
Navigator.	Bill Patterson

We chose Blue and White as our class colors, White Rose Bud as our flower, and our motto is, "The Surest Way To Succeed, Is To Determine Not To Fail".

Our play, "You'll Die Laughing", was a big success and a lot of fun.

Everybody enjoyed helping to get ready for the main event, the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme was Paris and the scene was a sidewalk cafe.

Once again we came to a rest. We mapped out the route for our trip back to earth.

During our short vacation, Luana Hawk was transferred to Lexington, Tom Laser and John Lykins to Shelby, and Eilla Rinehart dropped out.

For the last time we gathered together to elect officers for the last phase of our trip.

Mr. Mock was our Captain. The officers were:

Pilot.	Larry Humbert
Co-Pilot.	Tom Kranz
Keeper of the Log.	Phyllis Keith
Purser.	Karen Williams
Radioman.	Ruth Lofland
Navigator.	Jack Hall

The cadets were:

Virginia Ramey	Ned Lofland
Marlene White	Harmon Sloan

Richard Patton
David Swartz
Roger Steele
Harold Ballitch
Howard Cuppy

Bill Patterson
Otis Hughes
Eugene Hamman
Fred Springston

Virginia Ramey was chosen to be the Senior attendant for the Queen.

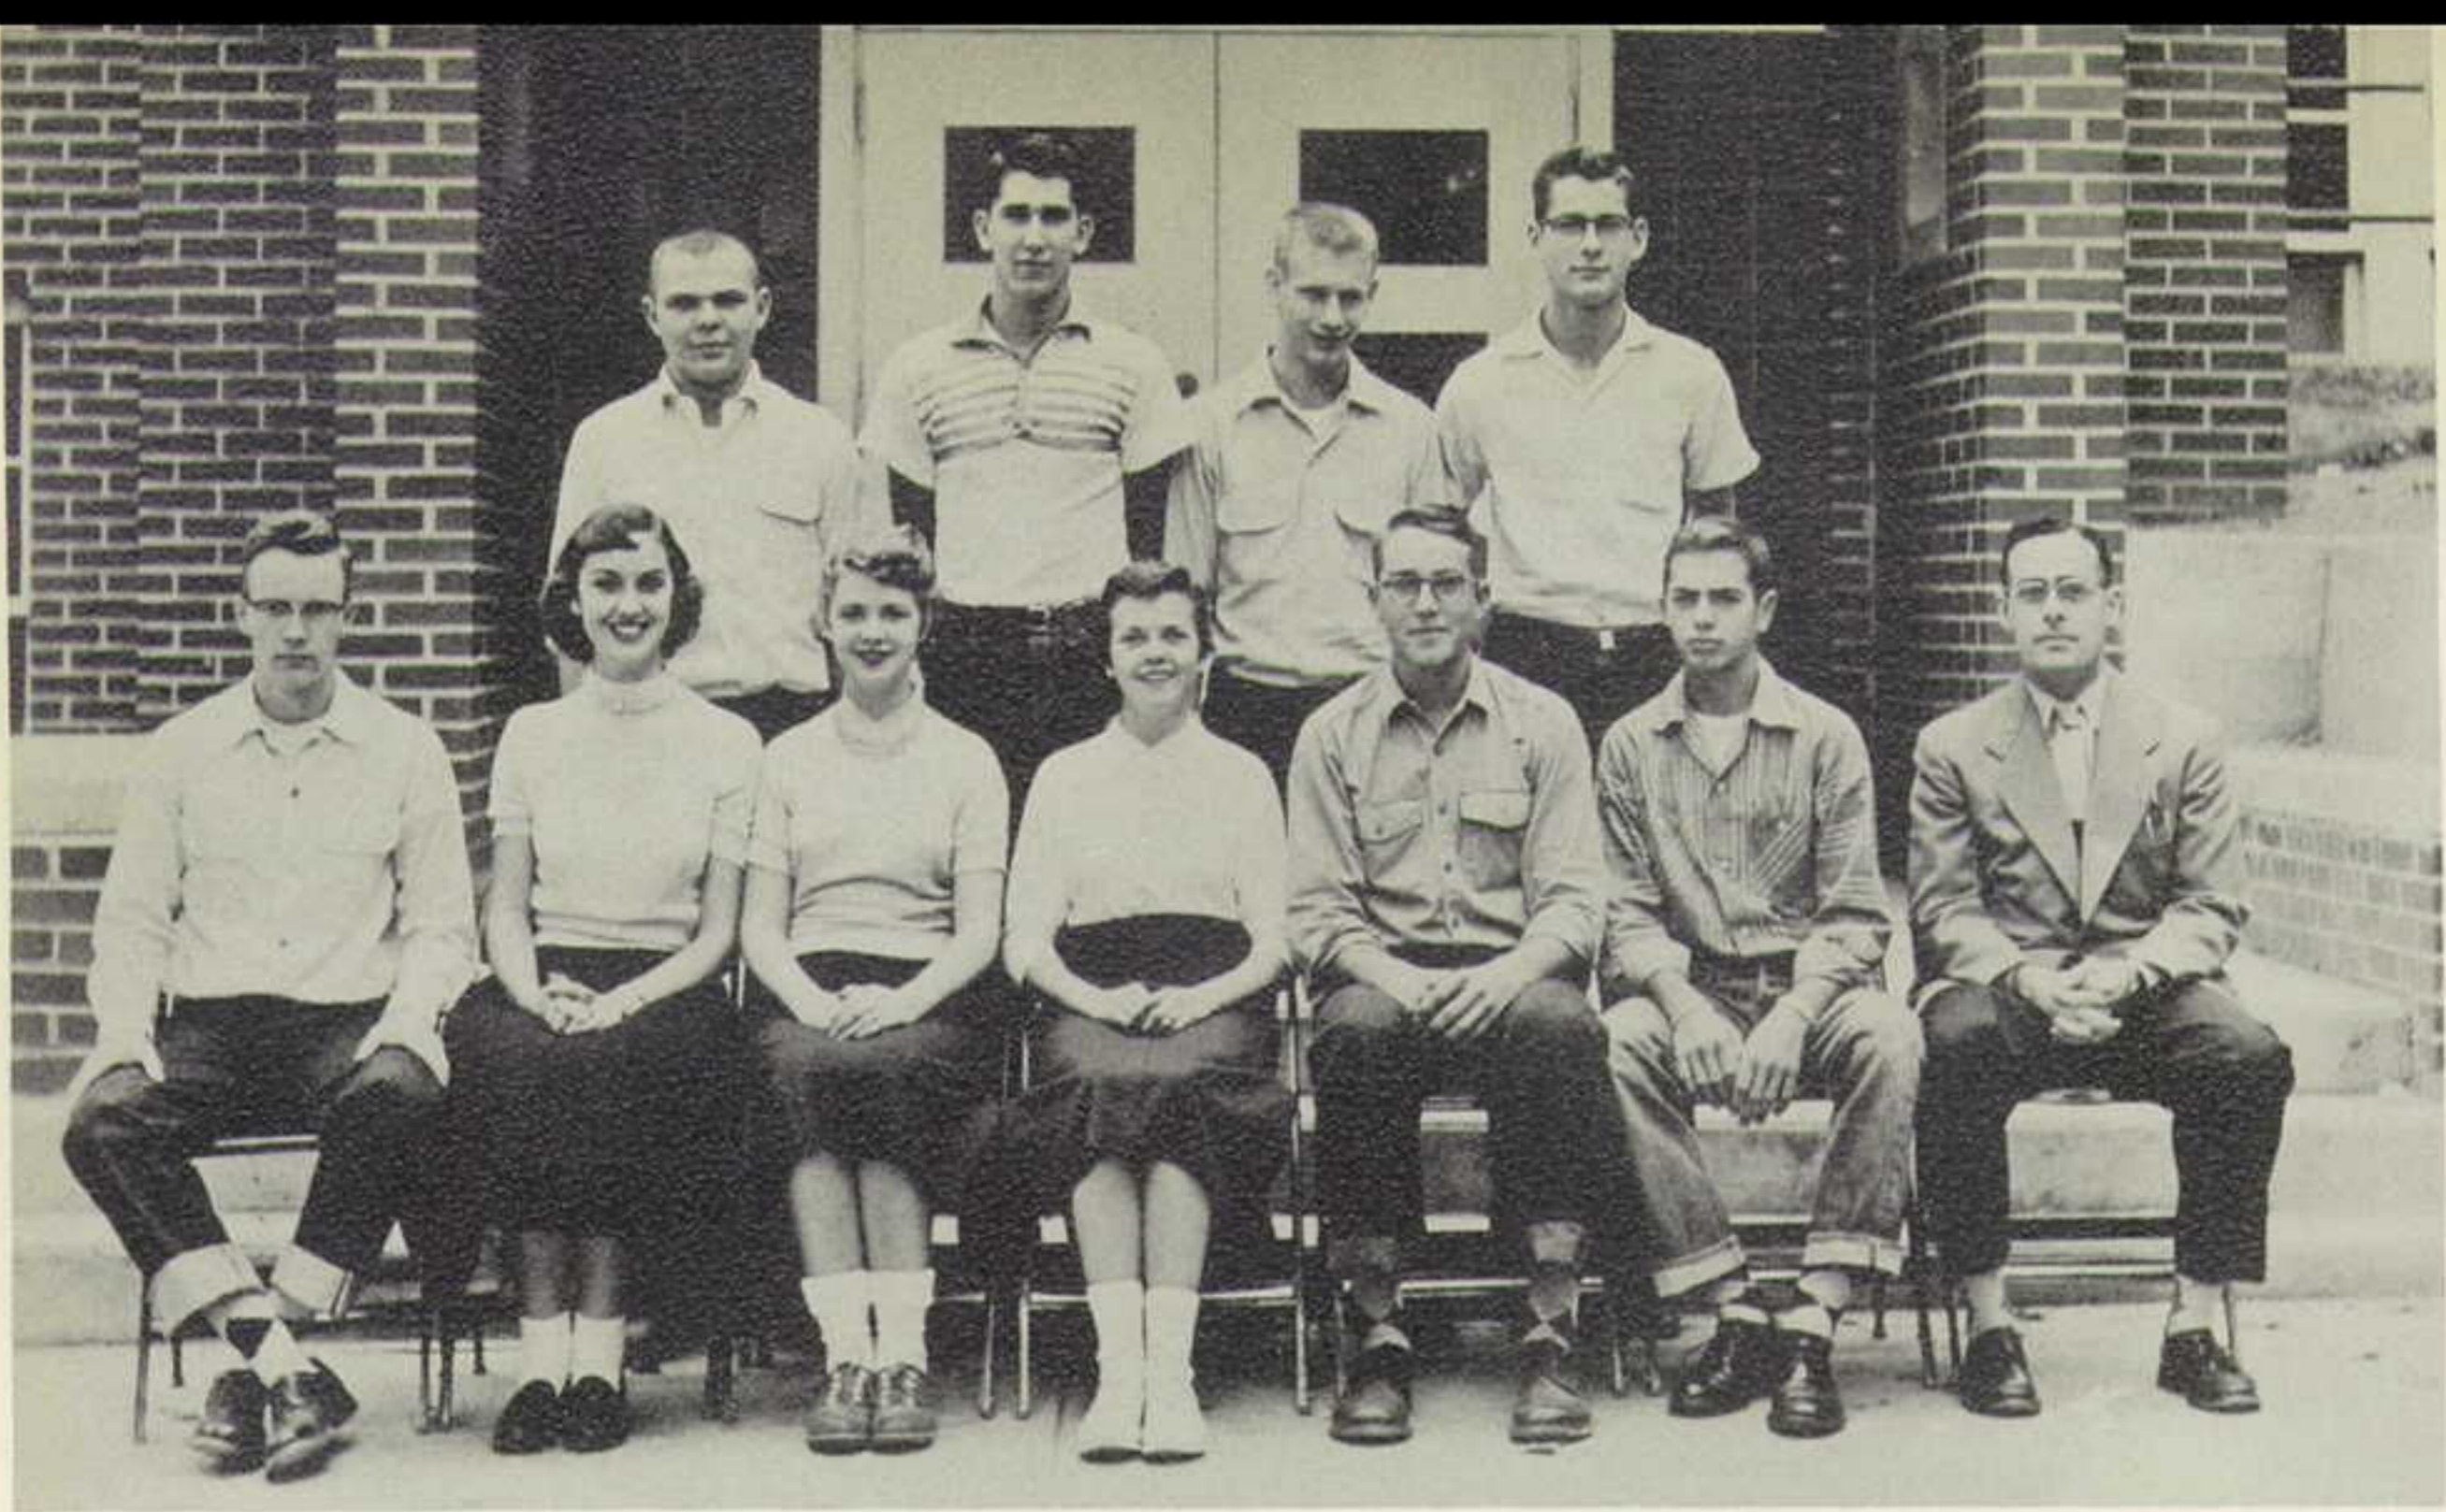

Ollie Cole left the ship to join the Marines.

Our play, "Date Bait," was presented April 20, 1956.

Baccalaureate and Commencement were held May 20 and 23 respectively.

We want to thank the Freshmen for being good-natured.

We wish to thank our school teachers, school board, parents, and friends who helped us to complete our education.

Class Prophecy

As I started out one bright, sunny day in 1960, I decided to go to the planet, Pluto, since all my old classmates were planning to make a new civilization there.

As I started to board this rocket I met pilot Otis Hughes with his co-pilot Jack Hall making round trips from Earth to Pluto.

As we got on the way, Otis told me that Phyllis Keith was running a beauty school and had Ruth Lofland as the manager.

Karen Williams was teaching at the Pluto College, while Ned Lofland, Roger Steele, Ollie Cole, and Richard Patton were studying to become engineers.

Harmon Sloan, Bill Patterson, and Eugene Hamman were still racing in all the "Hot Rod Events."

Larry Humbert was running a coat factory so all our people would keep warm.

Marlene White and Howard Cuppy were married and were managing a diner called "What Marlene Can't Fix Howdy Can."

Harold Ballitch owned the largest farm on the whole planet of Pluto.

Since David Swartz wanted to own a potato farm, he had made his dream come true.

I thought that our bright student, Tom Kranz, would become a professor, but he became a space patrolman on the planet.

By the time we had seen all of the old gang and were on our way home, we were almost out of fuel so we stopped for gasoline and there was Fred Springston with the cutest filling station for Rockets. We talked to Fred a while and continued our trip homeward.

THE CAST

Lester Gray.	Otis Hughes
Anna Gibson.	Marlene White
Mrs. Walker.	Karen Williams
Mr. Walker.	Larry Humbert
Mr. Allen.	David Swartz
Pat Walker.	Ruth Lofland
Mary Walker.	Virginia Ramey

The Walkers represent a typical American family with three growing daughters. Their household is a busy one--in fact, Dad Walker says the girls have turned his home from a castle into a turnstile in the Pennsylvania Station. Pat and Mary, the two older girls, have been dating local boys for better than a year, but little Emily, just going on fifteen, stays at home and sighs with envy at the glorious times her sisters have. Emily has bands on her teeth and glasses on her eyes and, of course, neither is date bait. When her pal, Anna Gibbons, parades one letterman's sweater after another before her envious eyes, Emily decides her own fate is to spend her life in a spinster's home. Dad Walker and Jim Allen, a next door neighbor, are attempting to restore good politics to town by exposing Assemblyman Gray and his machine. Mr. Allen calls to work with Mr. Walker on a speech and brings son Harley to practice on his clarinet. Emily thinks Harley is an uninteresting specimen of modern youth but being worried about that future in a spinster's home proposes to him. Harley is so flattered to think any girl would like him that he accepts. But at fifteen an engagement proves too confining to suit Emily any concern but when Dad Walker learns his identity there's plenty of fun let loose. Comes the evening of Emily's first real date and she's a transformed youngster. Lester has just completed a new car for himself made with a Mercury body, Cadillac motor and Buick wheels. It's complete except for a license plate. Harley wants Emily to be happy so he borrows the plate from his dad's car. Off they go but the motor doesn't behave as it should and they run into a bit of difficulty with the law. Mr. Walker's daughter being caught with Assemblyman Gray's son in a car bearing Mr. Allen's license plate, doesn't make for a pretty picture politically speaking, but it does give a grand plot for one of the best comedies we've read in years.

Class Poems

Fred Springston

With Fred Springston let's begin,
He's a tall guy and is sort of thin;
Courting girls is his dish,
And a certain tall gal is his wish.

Ollie Cole

Ollie Cole is a guy,
Who could never tell a lie;
He works both morning and night,
And pitches in with all his might.

Ned Lofland

Ned Lofland is a friend to all,
Not too short and not too tall;
He's quite an artist as you can see,
And he's always as busy as a bee.

Tom Kranz

Tom Kranz, a nice guy to meet,
He gets the grades that are hard to beat;
He goes with a girl whose name is Carole Ann,
And plays the tuba in our school band.

Eugene Hamman

Eugene Hamman, "Red" for short,
His hot rod car is his best sport;
He likes to hunt and fish and farm,
To all the girls he is a charm.

Otis Hughes

Otis Hughes, our basketball star,
Likes to rod around in his car;
With blonde hair and big brown eyes,
He's usually seen with a bunch of guys.

Bill Patterson

Bill Patterson, always gay and never blue,
Has blonde hair and good looks too;
In his way with girls he is rather wary,
But some day he will probably marry.

Jack Hall

Next on our list is Jack Hall,
And with him you'll have a ball;
He makes our class stand apart,
For he supplies us with a spark.

Richard Patton

Richard Patton, our hot rod kid,
He has a car and does it skid;
He seldom does worry, he moves in a hurry,
He's got a good mind, never gets in a fury.

Virginia Ramey

Virginia Ramey, attention attracts,
As all boys will state as a fact;
An F.H.A. officer she has been,
She's usually seen with a guy named Ken.

Phyllis Keith

Phyllis Keith, girl of charm,
She can really set off the alarm;
In bookkeeping and typing she is a whiz,
She's always on top in every quiz.

Harmon Sloan

Harmon Sloan, short and stout,
Is never in, but always out;
Phaenon is the name of his favorite girl,
She usually keeps him in a whirl.

Roger Steele

Roger Steele, we know him as Smoky,
Tall and sometimes pokey;
Always a joke will make him explode,
For the tales he hears, go seldom untold.

Karen Williams

Karen Williams, our '55 queen,
Very smart and real keen;
Though slightly tall and sometimes shy,
The boys whistle when she goes by.

Marlene White

Marlene White could win the title,
Of a girl who is never idle;
She has blue eyes and pretty blonde hair,
Some lucky guy someday she'll snare.

Ruth Lofland

Ruth Lofland is a girl with a smile,
She's five foot five and always in style;
She has a certain favorite beau,
His name is Bob, as we all know.

Larry Humbert

Larry Humbert, the leader of our clan,
Is bright with books and is a baseball fan;
Quiet, and a gentleman is he,
But always as busy as a bee.

Howard Cuppy

Howard Cuppy, alias "Howdy",
Has been known to be a roudy;
Sometimes early, sometimes late,
But he always keeps a date.

Harold Ballitch

Harold Ballitch, who appears to be shy,
Is really a very, very nice guy;
He studies and works with all his might,
Learning and farming are his delight.

David Swartz

David Swartz likes accounting,
When he isn't out a scouting;
He says his Packard's very fast,
As you will find when you try to pass.

Undergrad Activities

Juniors

The Junior Class elected officers as follows: Kay Elliott, president; Elaine Ballitch, vice-president; Janet Banks, secretary; Phaenon Guthrie, treasurer; Grace Ann Wolfersberger, news reporter; and Larry Barnd, student council.

We presented our class play, "A Feudin' Over Yonder," November 4, 1955, which proved to be a success.

We changed the location of the candy stand from the lower hallway to the balcony door, which has proven to be a benefit to the class as well as the cafeteria. A new counter has been purchased and is in the process of being remodeled and painted by the boys of our class. This we know will help future classes.

We were very proud to have Elaine Ballitch elected basketball queen for 1955-'56. Kay Elliott was elected Junior attendant.

We are looking forward to the Junior-Senior Prom, which we will sponsor in May.

Sophomores

The Sophomore Class officers are as follows: president, Terry Russell; vice-president, John Heyde; secretary, Ann Reynolds; treasurer, Danny Moore; news reporter, Judy Hamman; student council, Larry Hamman.

To earn money we held a bake sale at the Township Room at Shiloh.

Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Kaylor, our room Mothers, served us a chili supper at our first party held on Wednesday, February 29, 1956.

This year we elected Sue Kaylor our Homecoming Attendant. George Poffenbaugh, Sam Leapley, Lawrence Wagers, Larry Hamman, and Arthur Monastere are the Sophomores on the basketball team. Virginia Dent, Judy Patterson, and Patty Barnd were elected cheerleaders from our class.

Mr. Daup served as our advisor this year.

Our class advisor this year is Mr. Kinsel.

The Freshman Class of 1955-'56 elected officers as follows: Clayton Wallace, president; Jerry Gramer, vice-president; Fred Hughes, treasurer; Bill Banks, secretary; David Ruckman, news reporter; and Earl Lynch, student council.

On October 27, we were initiated by the Seniors. That night a Halloween Party was given for the high school students.

Jerry Gramer was chosen as one of the reserve cheerleaders this year.

We chose June Cuppy as our attendant for the Homecoming.

In December we had a potluck dinner at school. We are planning to have another party soon.

We also had a Bake Sale in November.

The Lions had a good season last fall by winning 7 out of 9 games. George Poffenbaugh was our pitcher, backed by Danny Moore with Harmon Sloan and Earl Lynch on the receiving end. Larry Barnd kept the team sparked with a batting average of .522. The Lions had a lot of teamwork as the statistics show. Mr. Daup helped in every way possible and kept the team very adequately supplied.

Joe Mock: That's probably because they change them more often.
