FORWARD

The students and faculty that are featured in this 1973 yearbook have all had a share in the life of P. H. S. This means that they have shared not only classrooms, study halls, and lunch periods, but also the excitement of Homecoming, the pride of class rivalry, and the fun of the first annual Spring Party Fun-Nite.

This year Plymouth High was awarded the Johnny Appleseed Conference Sportsmanship Award in recognition of the fine qualities of sportsmanship displayed by its athletes and fans. This year was also the first time in three years that Plymouth has presented a musical. Many members of the community, in addition to faculty and students, contributed in making our production of "Bye, Bye, Birdie" a great success.

The 1973 Havamal staff is proud to present this short summary of our lives at P. H. S.

SENIOR LIFE

The life of a P.H.S. senior is one of excitement, hard work, tears, laughter, defeats, and victories. But through it all we have learned to cooperate, to share, and to care about one another. The memories we have of our years together will last a lifetime.

ANNUAL STAFF. (FOREGROUND, GOING CLOCKWISE) Cindy Daup, Jane Hawk, Gale Turson, Gwen Pry, Gayle Kok, Pam Briner, Janet Lynch, Sheila Binion, Anita Riedlinger, Barb Rettig, Dianne Miller, Holly Cornell, Rob Karnes, Rich Russell, Karen Fenner, Amy Seitz, Nancy Moore, Carol Ernst. STANDING: Mrs. Osler, Mrs. Geller.

The members of the 1972-73 Havamal Staff would like to express their sincere thanks to Mr. Earl Parks, our American Yearbook Representative, to the Photo-rama Company personnel, our photographers, and especially to Mrs. Osler and Mrs. Geller, our hard-working advisors. Without these people's help and patience the production of our yearbook would not have been possible.
