It Is Time To Go.
No Sadness. No Tears.
Growing Is Not A Sorrowful Thing.
Move On, But Look Back Now And Then
And Smile Gently For Past Things.
Smile Bravely When You Turn
To Look Ahead To Where Things Go On And On.

Always smile,
and laugh sometimes.
Songs there are a plenty
in new places,
but never forget the songs
already sung.
Go on to more life
more living.
Move with the time.

Be Good To Yourself Along
The Way
And Be Kind To Others Who Pass You
On Their Journeys.
Pray God To Keep You
In The Right Direction.
Pray God To Give You
The Right Star To Follow
And So It Is Time To Go,
Good-bye.

"Awareness"
 Awareness is understanding ourselves:
 Our hopes and our fears
 Our dreams and our longings
 It is learning to live with ourselves and experiencing the grandeur of life
 It is taking the time to look,
 and listen and comprehend
 Time, time, time see what's becoming of me
 While I look around, for my possibilities that I'm so hard to please Awareness is stretching the range of our eyes, our ears and our souls
 It is awakening to beauty everywhere
 In a song, In a flower, and In another life.

Homecoming Smiles And Memories

The Homecoming festivities started on Thursday with the Homecoming noise parade led by the Plymouth High School Marching Band. They were followed by the Queen and court who were surrounded by her class. The parade came to an end with the bonfire where the Frosh came out winners of the spirit competition. Friday night the Homecoming game was played against Clear Fork. Although the verdict was in favor of the Colts, our team played its best for the queen and court. The Homecoming dance was held on the Saturday following the game. Ron Allen a local DJ provided music for the dance. Every one had a great time at the dance and ceremonies. All and all, Homecoming was a great success.

A. Retiring Queen Jamie Jacobs crowned Karen Humrichouser the 1978 Homecoming Queen during the pregame ceremony. B. Karen and Jimmy give the fans a big smile during the festivities. C. GRADUATION: AN END AND A BEGINNING

Remember that first day of high school? How uncertain you were and a little bit frightened, too?

Remember how the days of attending classes, studying and taking exams seemed endless?

Yet, graduation day is near and soon your high school days will become fond memories.

Graduation day, with all its commencement festivities, marks the end of a very important stage in your life.

Graduation day also marks the beginning of a new phase—higher education, the military or embarking on a career.

We at Donnelley congratulate you on reaching this milestone.

Enjoy the festivities of the day—you've earned them.

Look forward to the challenges ahead of you. The experience you've gained over the past years will help you meet life's challenges with a zest for success.
