Moments

Moments
In life,
Passing us by
Without our ever
Realizing it.
Moments
Watching small children
Play without any
Cares, only concerned
With the present
Moments.
Beginning school,
Making new friends,
Experiencing life
Moments
Finishing school
Leaving friends
Heading for a
New life filled with
Moments.

Lisa L. Robinson

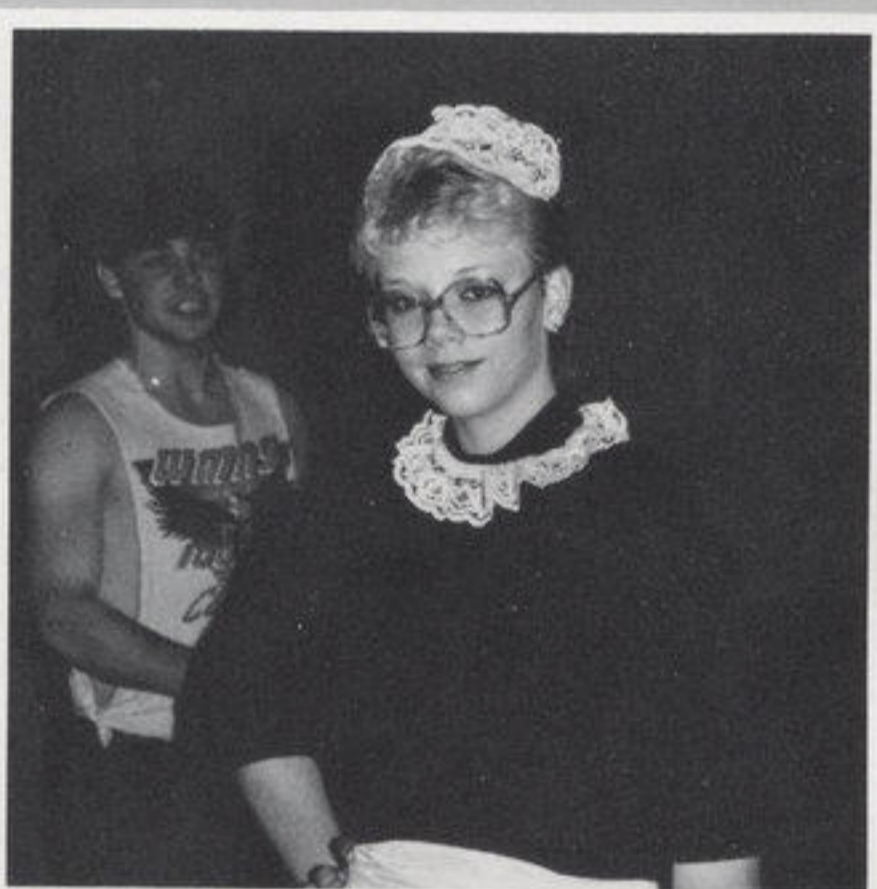

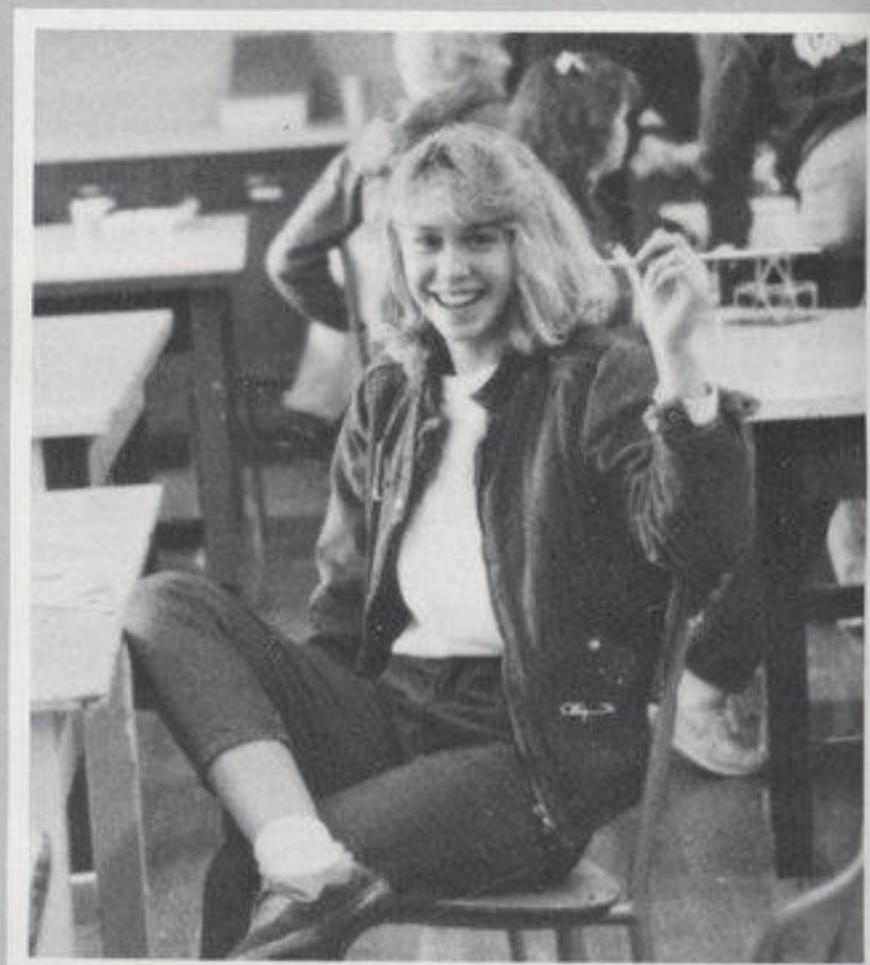

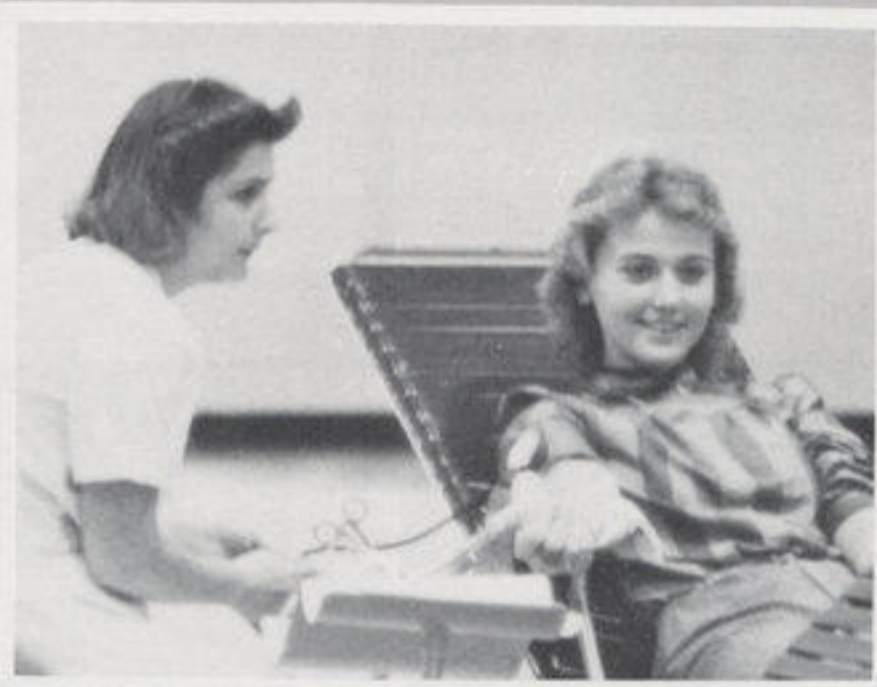

Moments

A picture inside the minds of those who once shared a special time;
A time which is instantly remembered,
is how a moment could be defined.
When thought of by the person,
a moment can magically be brought back to life;
One which can bring to the soul
an inside laughter or cut it like a knife.
It's all those special times which seem to stop and stand alone, like the ones spent between best friends or between you and that special someone you have known.
A moment brings back memories,
some that were happy and others which were sad;
But one thing is for certain,
a moment is something everyone has.

Tami Tackett

Moments

There are moments of '86 to be recalled,
 Through-out our future
 for us all.
 Moments of laughter,
 Moments of tears, Times
 to remember for years
 and years.
 Sharing our thoughts now
 and then,
 Moments to laugh at way back when.
 Making our goals and
 setting them high,
 For the Spirit of '86 will never die.
 Moments of this year will forever be,
 A part of life for you and me.

Missy Martin

Moments

The moments have come
And the moments have gone,
We'll remember some
As the coming of dawn.
The moments of pleasure
That happened in the past,
Are the moments we'll treasure
And the ones that will last.

Karnel Edler

The Plymouth High School musical, "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown," was presented on March 14 and 15. With a cast of 11, the students did a fine job of acting and singing. Accompanied by a combo were soloists: Jennifer Cole, Brian Hamman, Tom Dials, and Jenny Young. The combo consisted of Chris Runkle, Lana Laser, Marla Ousley, and Beth Fenner. Accompanying on the piano and directing the combo was Miss Julie Maher, the high school choir teacher. Mrs. Lisa Hutton directed the musical. SPIRITED MOMENTS

We Are The Mighty Varsity

During the week of August 5-8, the Varsity and J.V. cheerleaders attended a UCA Cheerleading Camp at Kent State University. "We Are the Mighty Varsity" was only one of the many chants and cheers they learned throughout the week. Several red excellent and blue superior ribbons were received by both squads. The J.V. squad was a Technique Development finalist, and the Varsity squad was one of eight squads chosen from approximately forty to perform in the Camp Championship.

Throughout the year the cheerleaders have raised money by putting on carwashes and dances. Part of the money was used to purchase new sweat uniforms for the Varsity. In January the cheerleaders held a clinic in which quite a few girls from the lower grades participated. The cheerleaders taught the girls cheers the week before they were to perform at halftime of a Varsity basketball game. During the month of Feb., the annual King of Hearts dance was also held by the cheerleading squads. The cheerleaders received footballs donated by the First Nat. Bank of Shelby and basketballs donated by the Plymouth Fire Department to throw at the games.

A SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Row one left to right: W. Laser, P. Manuel, R. Beverly, S. Thornsberry, T. Mansfield, T. Keene, J. Brown, E. Rath, J. Porter, S. Lynch. Row two: B. Castle, J. Staggs, C. Hale, D. Powers, R. Reed, R. Smith, B. Flaherty, J.

Coach Rick Hutton, V. York, J. Patton, M. Bailey, T. Snipes, Asst. Coaches Dave Hirschey and Kevin Steinmetz.

The Big Red began its 1985-86 season with a win over Crestline, 34-30. The following game, the team defeated Lucas, 14-12. Big Red outscored Northmor in its third game at, 17-14. Plymouth's fourth win of this years season was over New London, 29-24. They seemed to be on a roll and all hopes were high, but Big Red still lost their next game to Monroeville, 13-31. Unfortunately, the next game was lost to Crestview 14-15. The following week they came back and defeated Edison, 21-0. The Black River game was a terrible loss, 0-62. But in the next game they defeated South Central, 29-26. The Volleyball teams had an interesting season this year. Although our record was 2 - 17, our losses do not describe the matches by narrow margins.

Coach Hutton

"I'm very proud of the improvements we saw as a team this year in sportsmanship, teamwork, and level of skills. Our goal for next year will be to hold on to our wins from this year as we strive to add to our win column. The addition of a junior high program should really strengthen the possibilities for P.H.S. volleyball."

This year's Freshman basketball team finished off their season with a final record of 4-11. Even though the team lost three players, they still had fun and learned the fundamentals of basketball. Coach Flaherty taught and prepared the team for next year's Reserve squad.

In the tournament, the freshmen were defeated by a very good South Central team, nevertheless, they played a very impressive game and showed good sportsmanship. Good luck to the freshmen moving up and good luck to the new freshmen coming in!

The Junior Varsity boys' basketball team had a very successful season for 1985-86. Their most important game of the season was against Col. Crawford. They pulled out a win of 35-33 against the old rivals. Along with Coach Dave Hirschey, the team put in many hours of hard work and have shown good potential for next year. They ended their season with a record of 11-9.

A SEASON OF CHAMPIONS!

Points! Steals! Rebounds! Assists! Slams! Champs! That's what this season was filled with. The team piled up the points from the moment the games began to the finale at Lexington ending with two championship titles, the Fireland's conference, and the Sectionals.

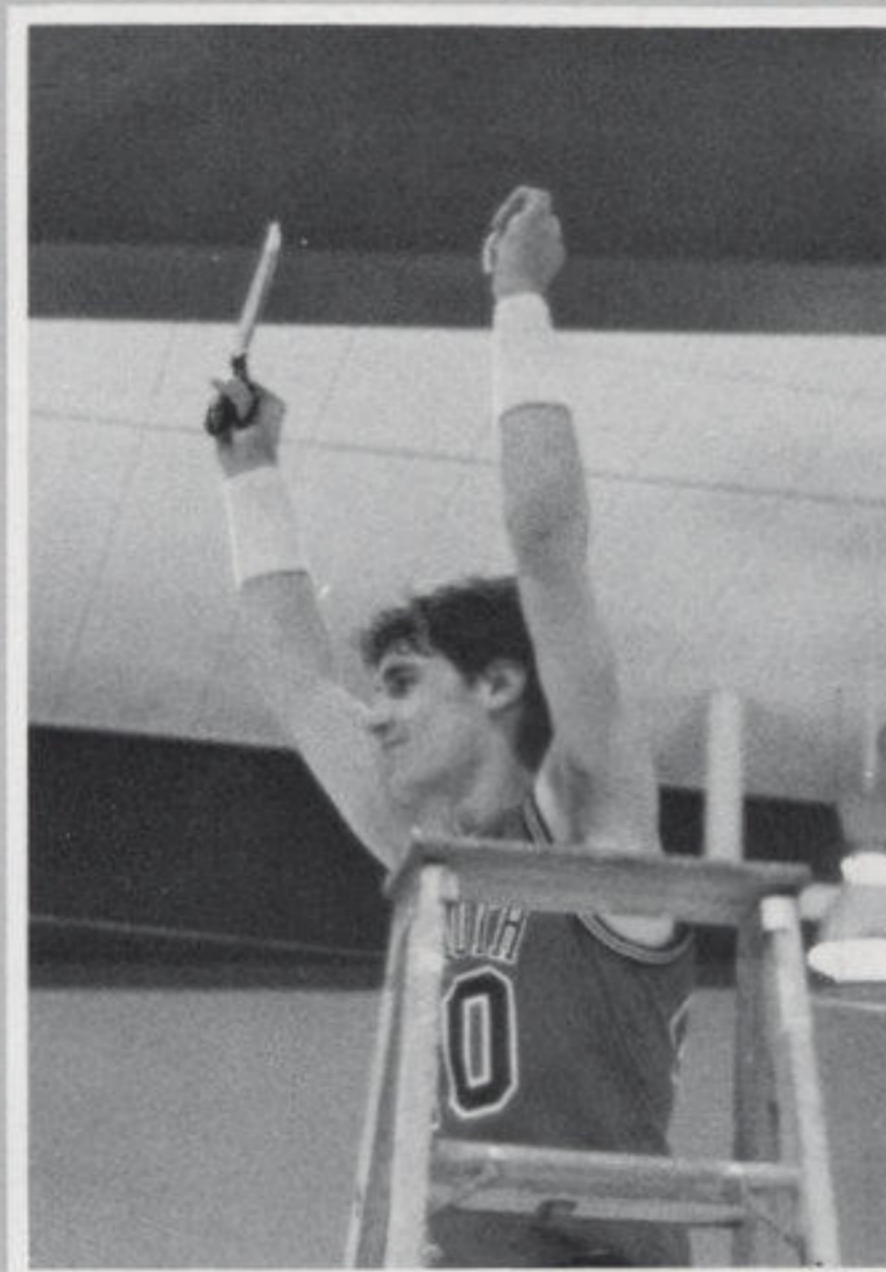

If you missed any game of the season, you missed something exciting. The first game was at home against Norwalk St. Paul. The Big Red team sailed past the Flyers, 70-53. In the next game, Steve Hall, team tri-captain and MVP, scored his season high of 34 points. The following weekend against the Edison Chargers, the Mighty Vikings pulled out a win of 76-72 from double overtime, while team tri-captain, Troy Keene, scored his season high of 26 points. In the following game, center and team tri-captain, Kevin Taylor, sent the fans into an uproar as he made his first slam of the season while the Big Red filed away another win against Mapleton, 86-50. During one of the few losses of the season, the Vikings showed they could hold their own against Margaretta, a AA school. Even though they lost 66-69, they outscored the Polar Bears by ten points in the first quarter.

Over Christmas vacation, the Vikings participated in a Holiday Tournament at Buckeye Central. They had the pleasure of beating Buckeye Central, an old rival, for the first time in years. They downed the Bucks 49-48.

On February 14, the Vikings competed in the deciding game for the Fireland's Conference Championship against Crestview. They won the game and the Championship by defeating the cougars 78-55.

In the first game of the Sectional Tournament at Bucyrus, the Big Red team sailed past Mohawk 66-57 and went on to win the Sectional Championship the following Friday against Carey 57-54. The last game of the season was held at Lexington High School, March 5, against Mansfield St. Peter's. Even though the Big Red lost 64-76, they played a game everyone would be proud of.

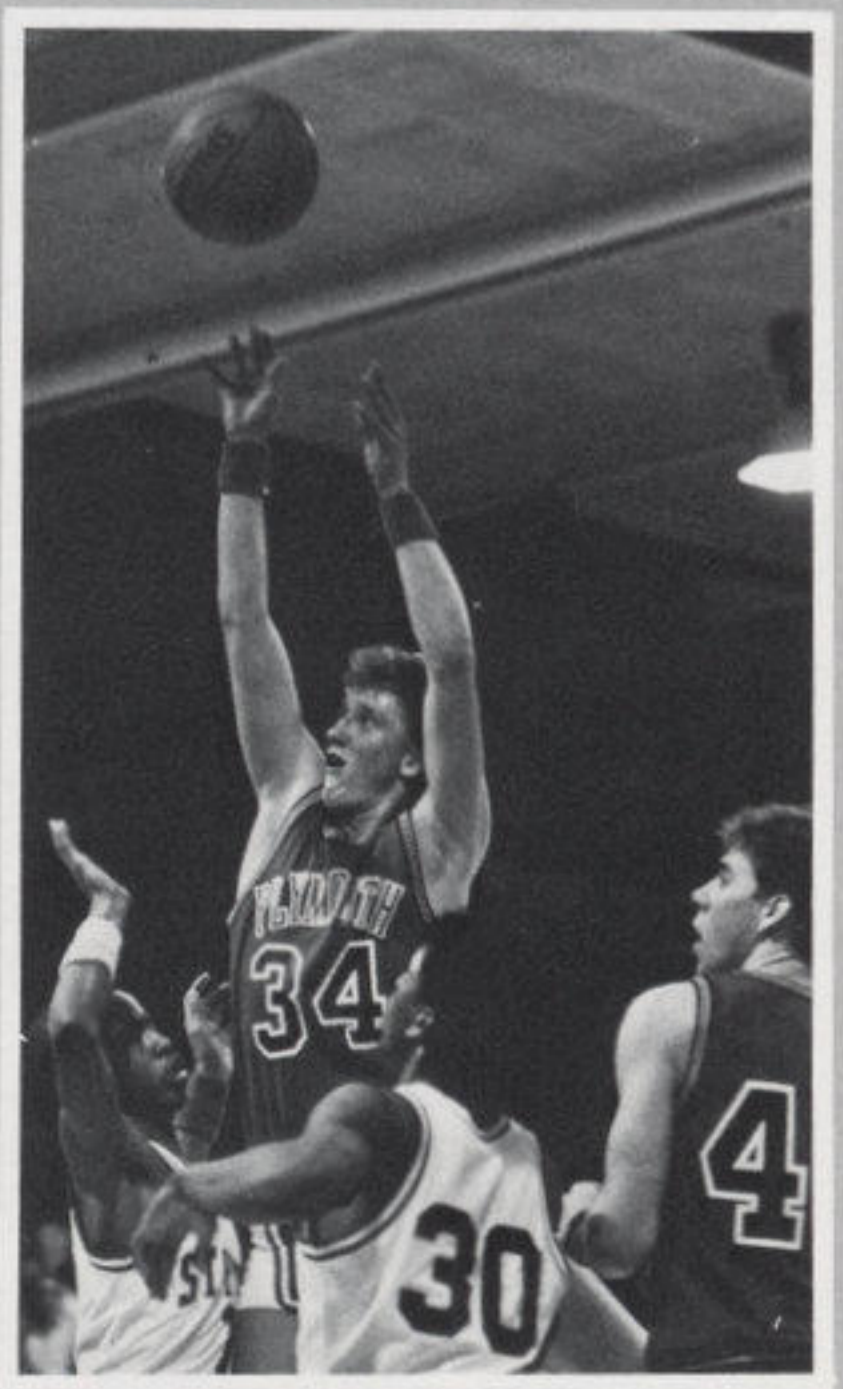

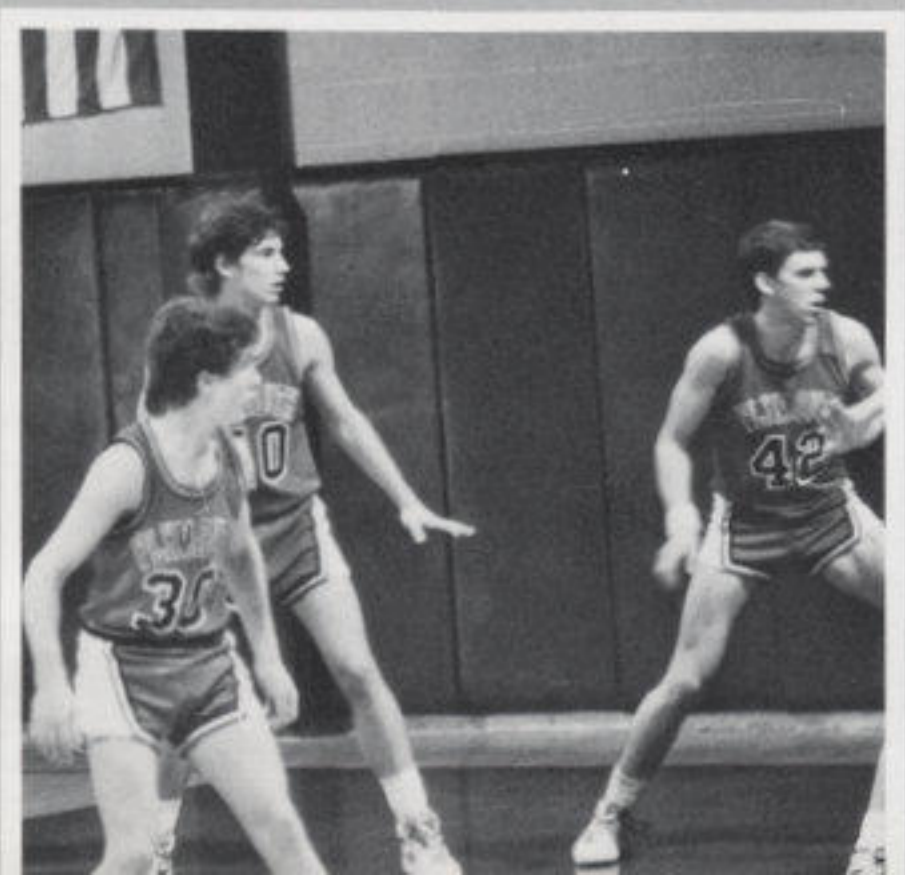

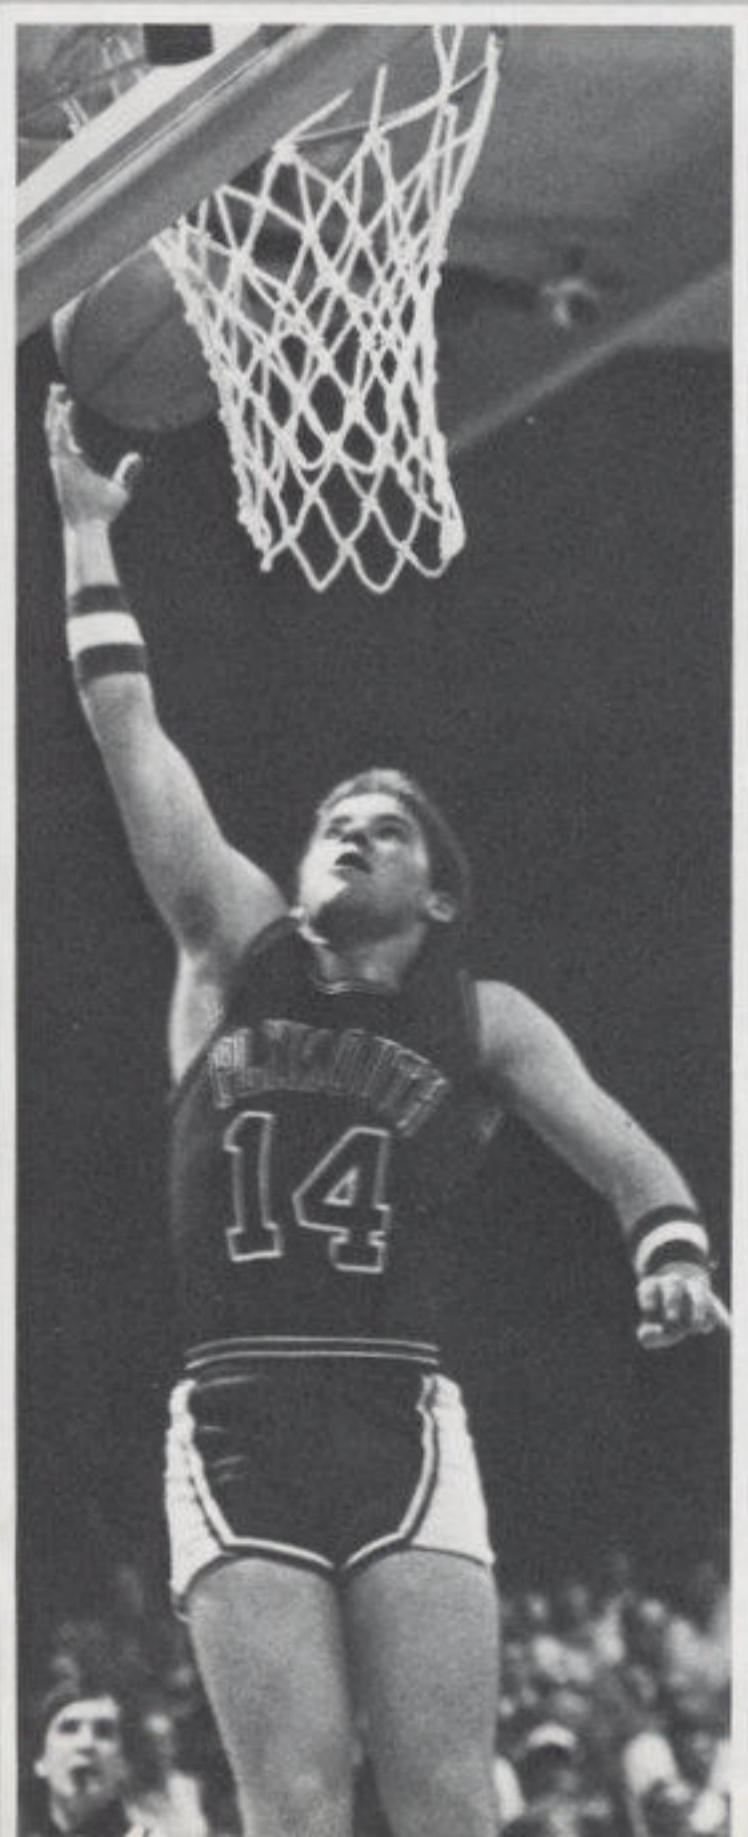

Another moment of pride for the team and the school was when Coach Dave Dunn was named Fireland's Conference Coach of the Year for the 2nd. consecutive season. He has put in many hours of hard work for the team and played a key role in helping them to achieve their record season.

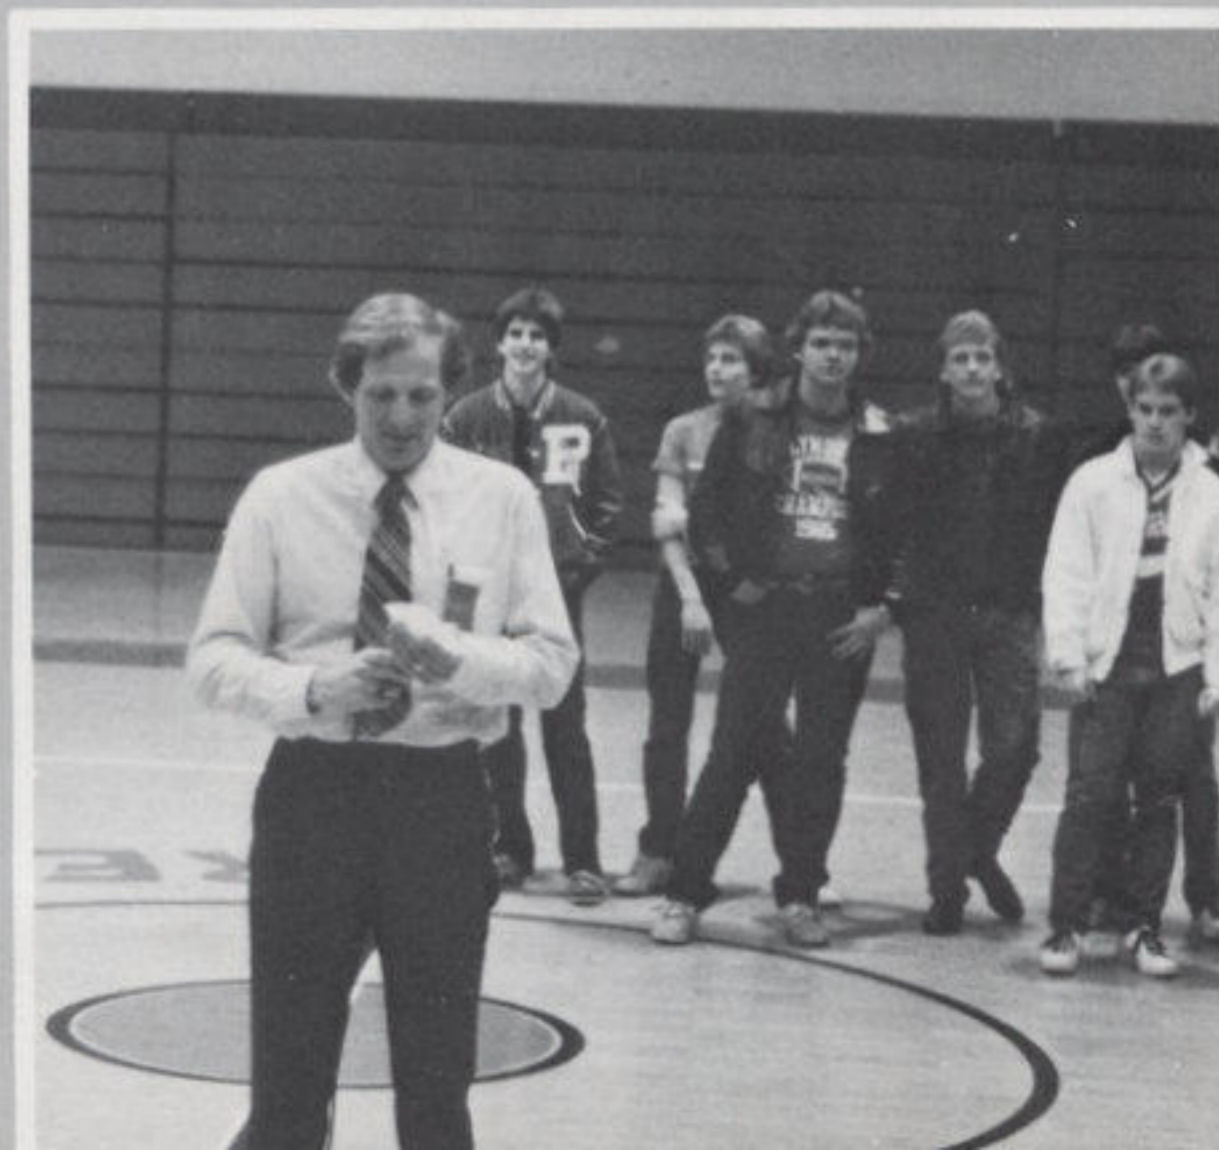

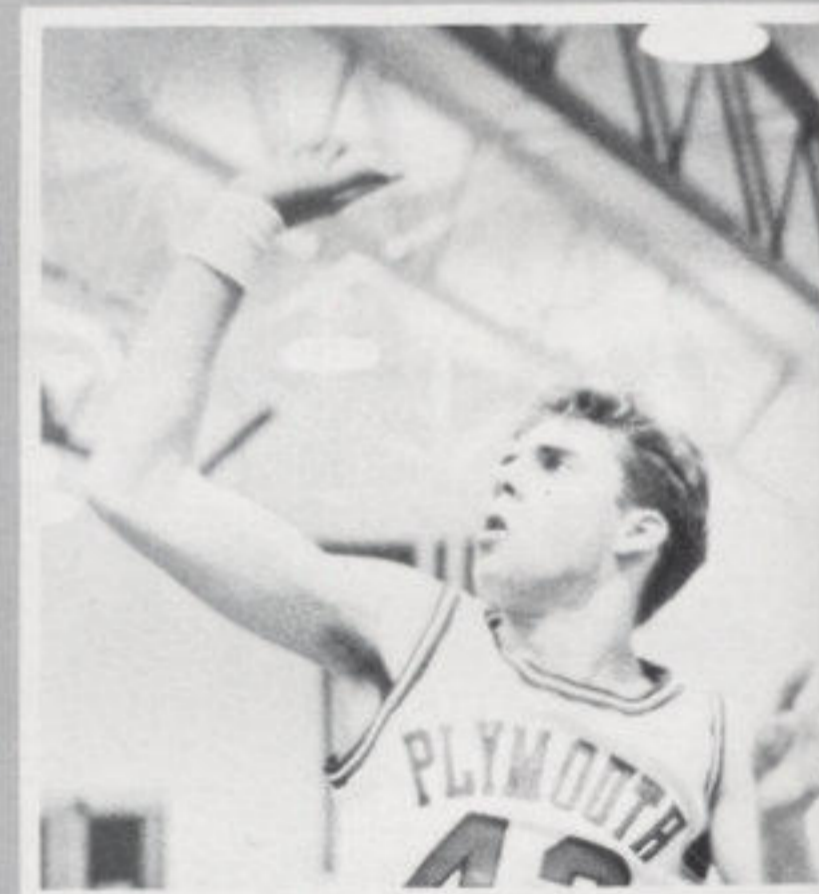

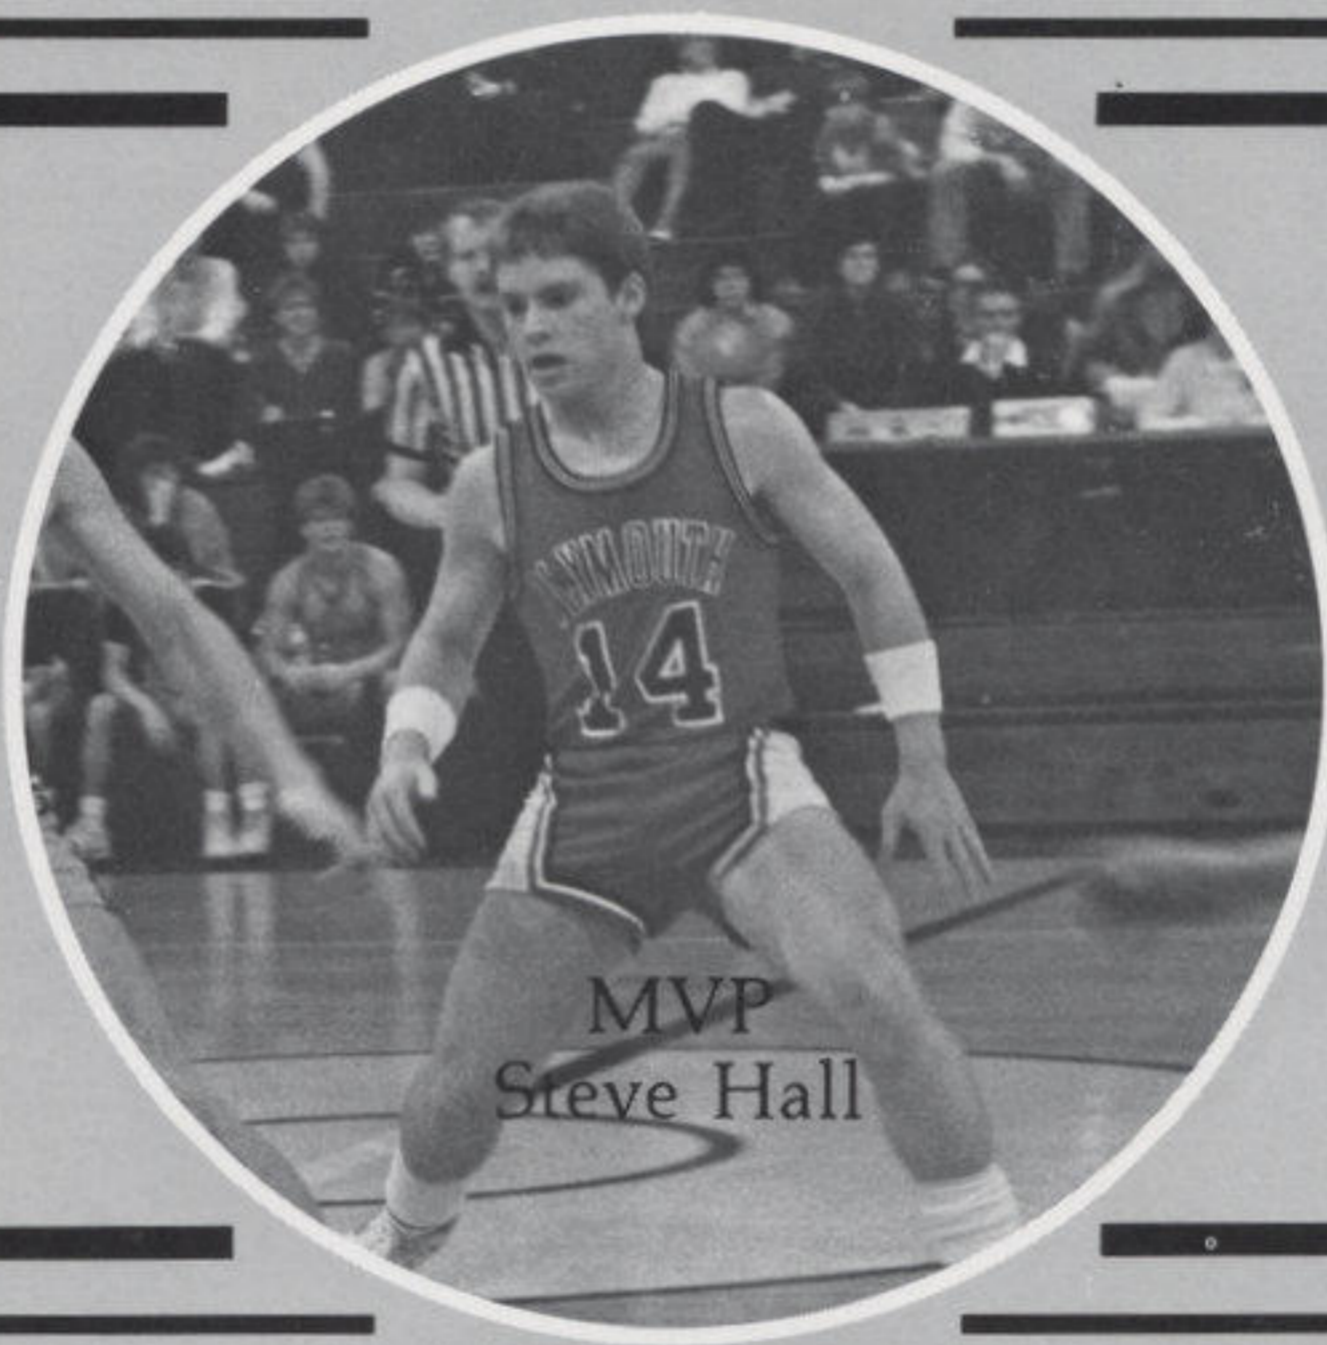

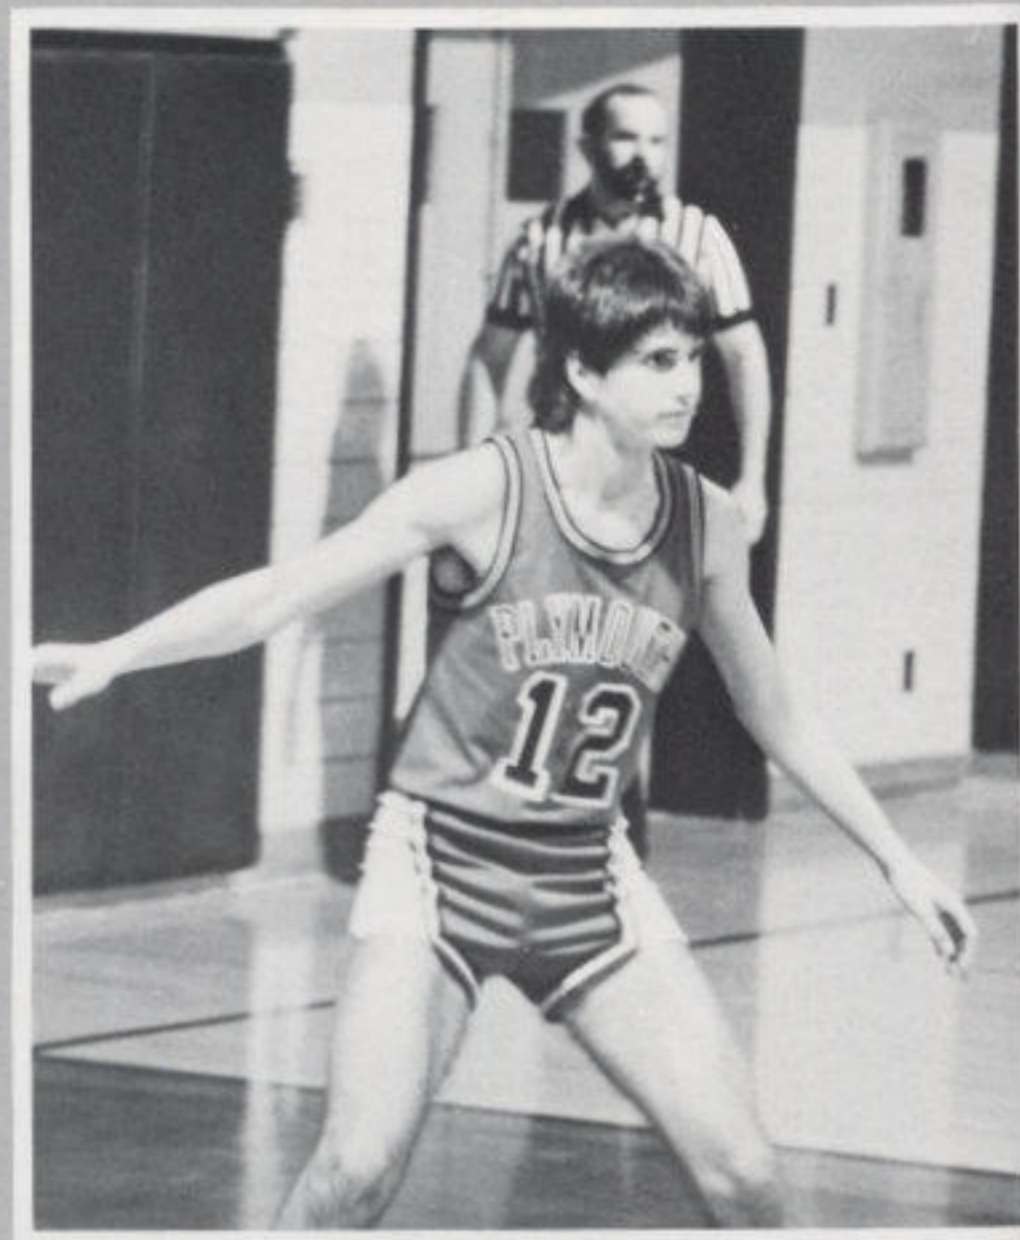

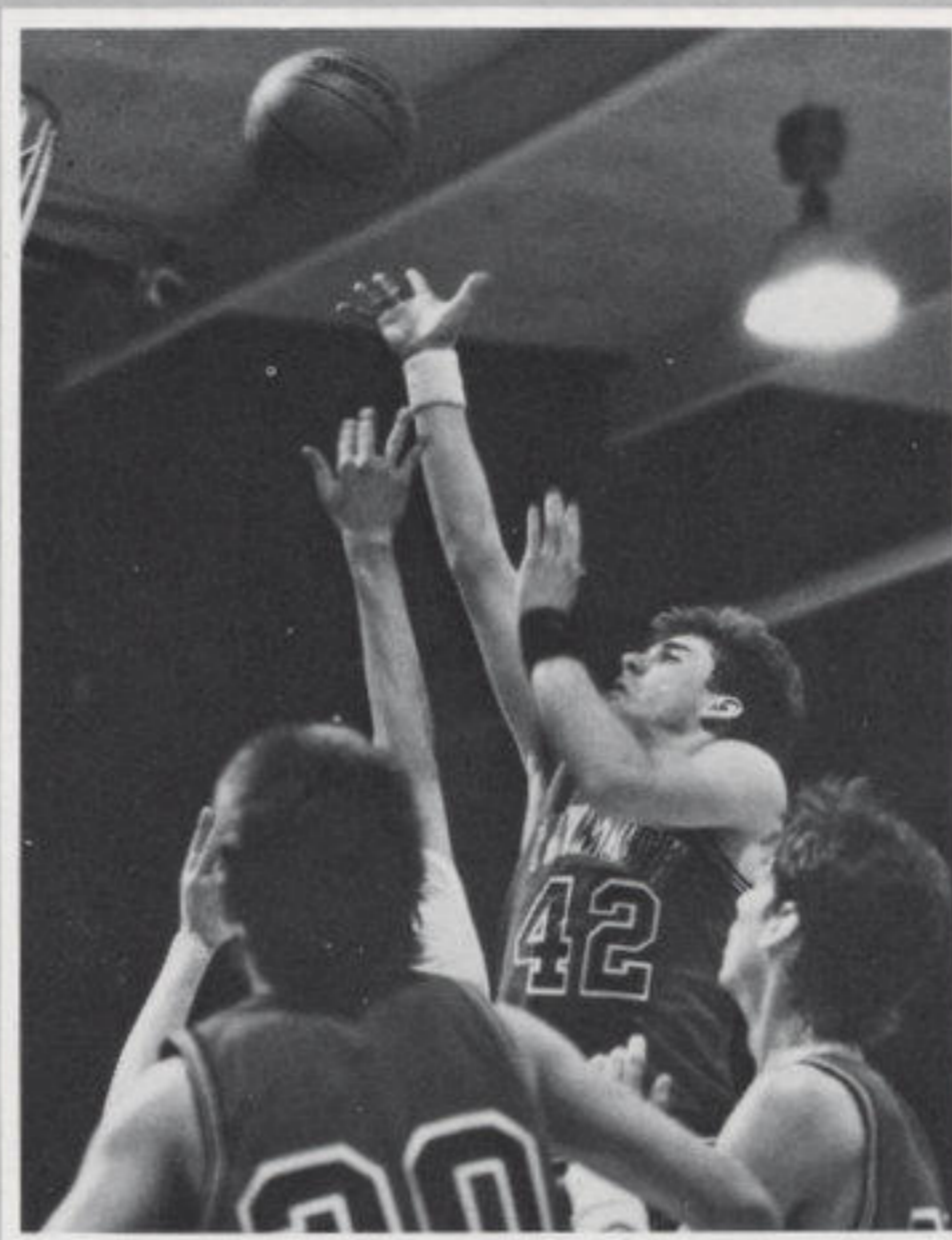

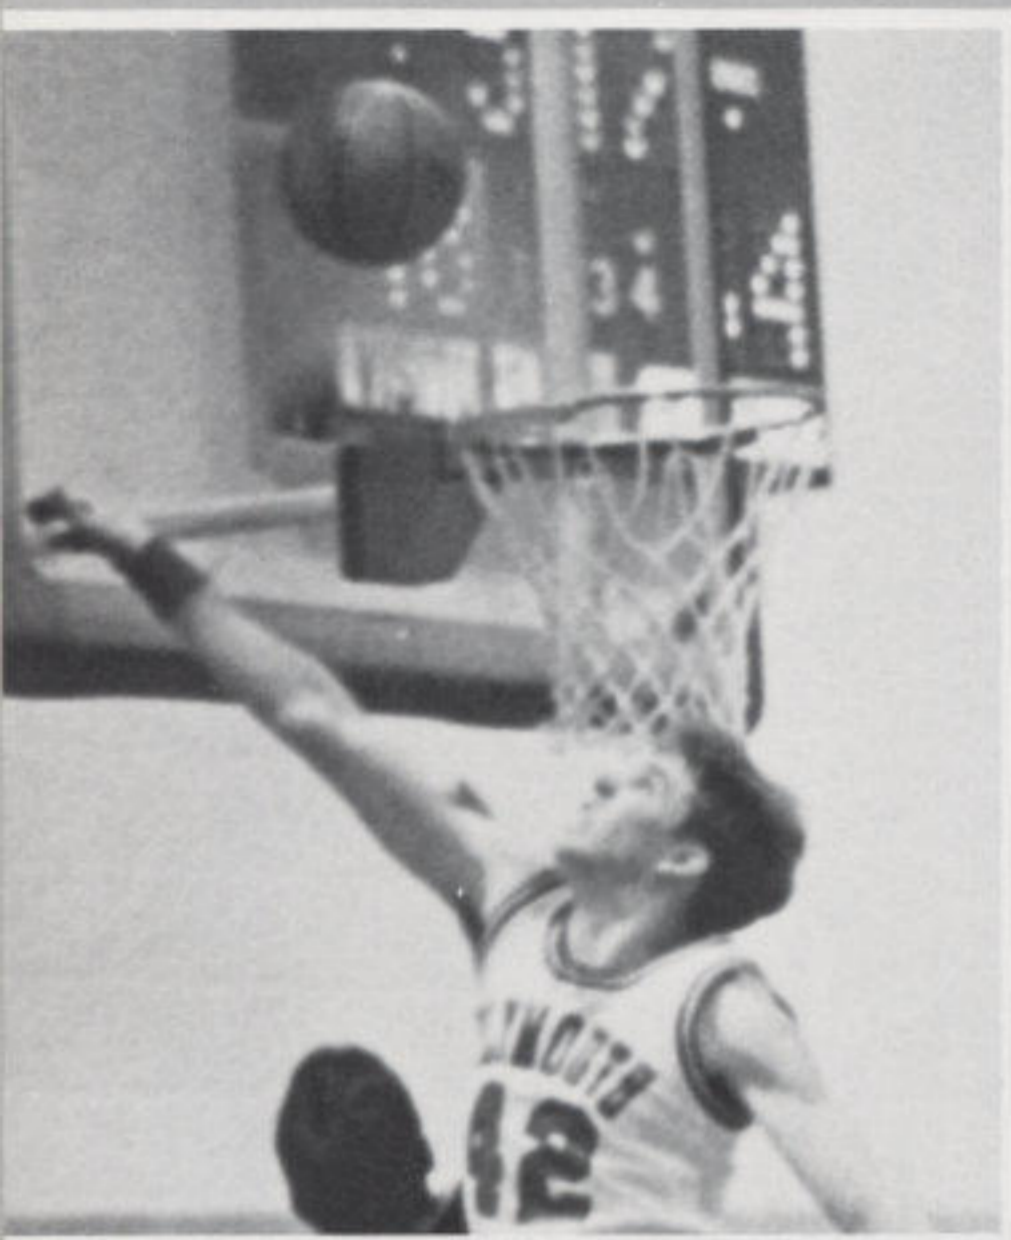

Although everyone on the team had an outstanding year, Steve Hall and Kevin Taylor showed exceptional skill and leadership. Hall was named MVP of the year at the Winter Sports Banquet. He was high scorer with 449 total points. Hall also led the team in assists with 154 and steals with 75. Taylor was the team leader in rebounds with 199, and with 73 blocked shots.

The 1985-86 Varsity basketball season will long be remembered.

At this year's sports banquet, Kay Niedermeier was chosen M.V.P. and Tami Tackett was named Most Improved player.

During the season, a new record was set for the reserve squad by beating Black River, 44-4 at Sullivan.

The Reserve team was small, consisting of only two sophomores and four freshmen. Also, two juniors, B. Roethlisberger and K. Thornsberry who also dressed Varsity.

Coach Echelberry quoted, "We were few in numbers, but big in spirit!"

ON YOUR MARK,

COVERING ALL OF

This year's Varsity Baseball team got off to a slow start, but the team's winning spirit carried them through. Ending the season with a conference record of 7-6, an overall record of 11-14, and winning the sectional championship was certainly nothing for the team or Coach Dunn to be disappointed about. Team captains Jamie Brown and Troy Keene helped carry the team through, along with most valuable player, Steve Hall, who also won the scholastic award, and most improved, Jason Robinson. Troy Keene also won the sportsmanship award and had the highest batting average.

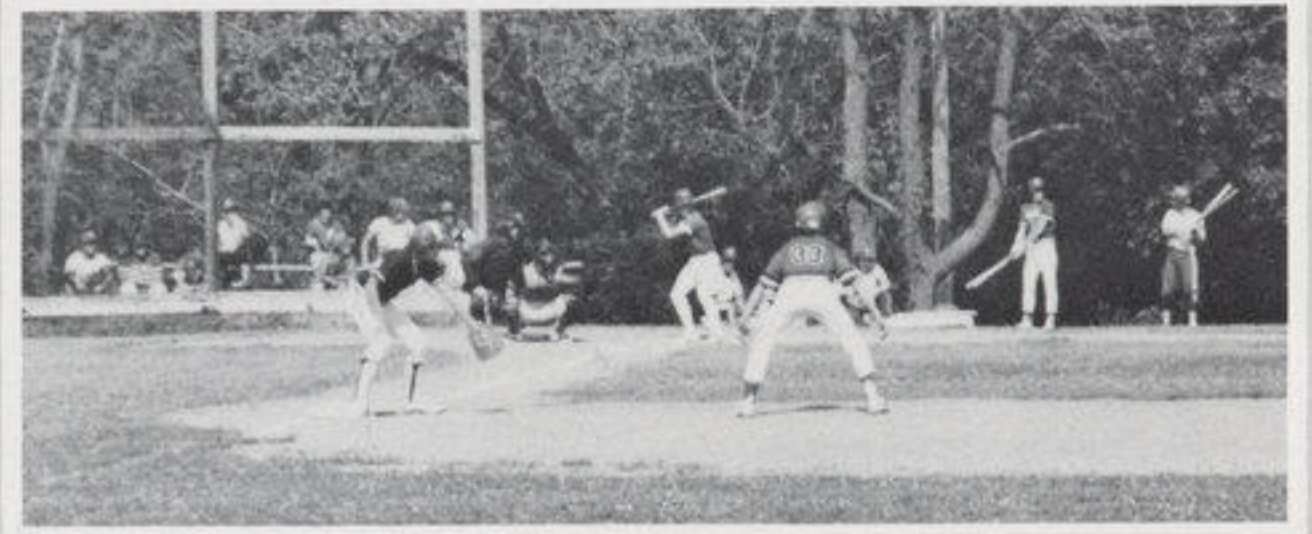

Top row (left to right): Coach Dunn, C. Kosse, J. Robinson, L. Combs, E. Echelberry, T. Keene, R. Reed. Bottom row: S. Hall, C. Beverly, J. Staggs, J. Brown, T. Hall, T. Wilson.

The Reserve Baseball team, coached by Mr. Tracey, had a good season. They finished with a Conference record of 5-7 and an overall record of 5-11. Their team captain was Brian Spencer. The biggest thrill of the season was in the Buckeye Central game. They were down 13-6 with two outs in the bottom of the 7th inning, and they came back to tie the game 13-13 and had a runner on 3rd when the inning ended.

ACCOMPLISHING THE IMPOSSIBLE

This year was a trying one. We started off with nine new yearbookie rookies, one of those being a new advisor, Mrs. Linda Buurma. With the support of our Jostens' consultant, Chuck Campbell, we have created a book we can be proud of. We hope that you enjoy looking at it as much as we have putting it together.

Marla Ousley
Co-Editor

A lot of time and hard work is put into designing the yearbook and that is exactly what the yearbook staff put into it this past year. Many special moments were made throughout the year and the '86 staff worked very hard to collect as many of those special moments as they could. We, as the staff, have shared many of those moments creating the annual and we hope that you will be able to enjoy looking back on all of those good times as you make your way through our '85-'86 annual, "Moments to Remember".

KING OF HEARTS . . .

During the evening of February 15, many students came to watch the crowning of the 1986 King of Hearts, Junior Porter. Junior, a member of the football and basketball teams, was escorted by Tami Tackett. Eric Rath, the senior attendant, was escorted by Michelle Schriener, while Kay Neidermeier escorted Mike Lasch, the junior attendant. The sophomore attendant, Greg Burks, was escorted by Missy Martin, and James Fletcher, the freshmen attendant, was escorted by Stacey Branham.

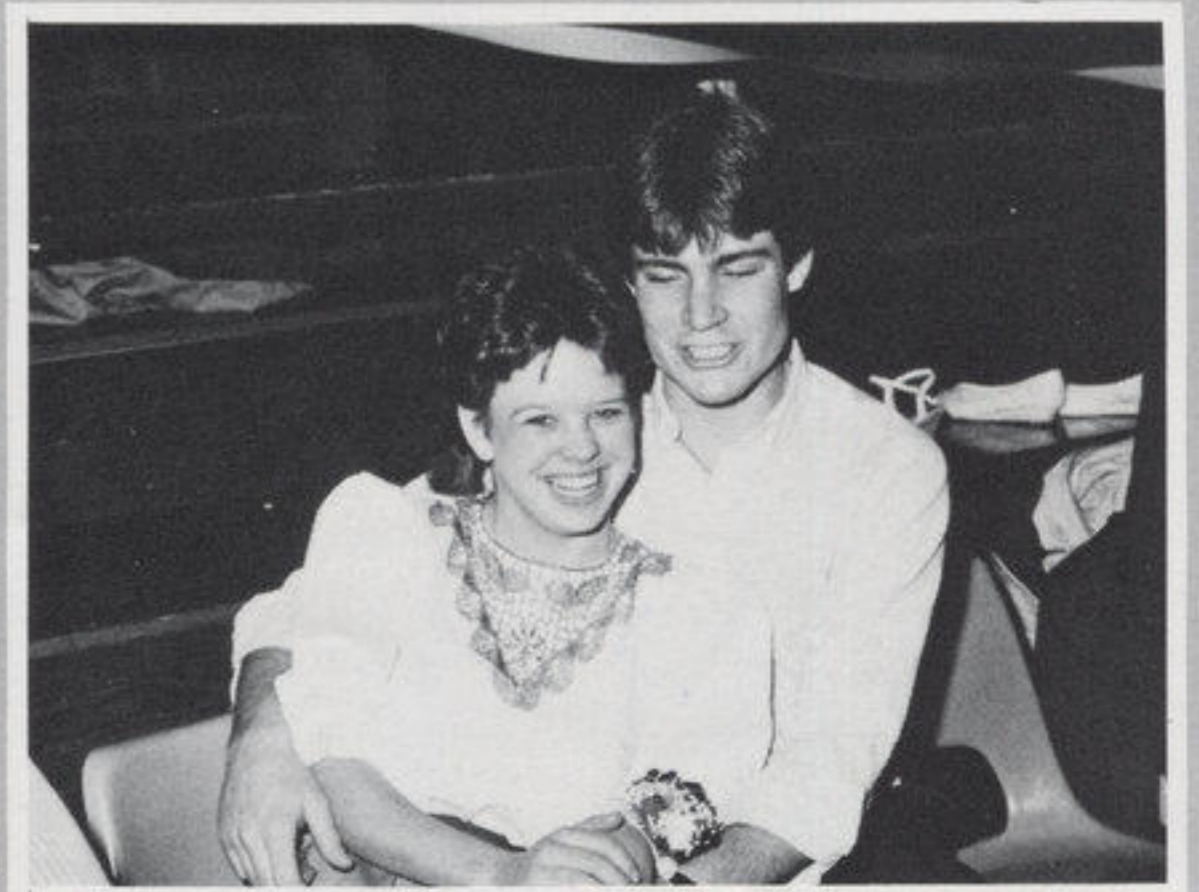

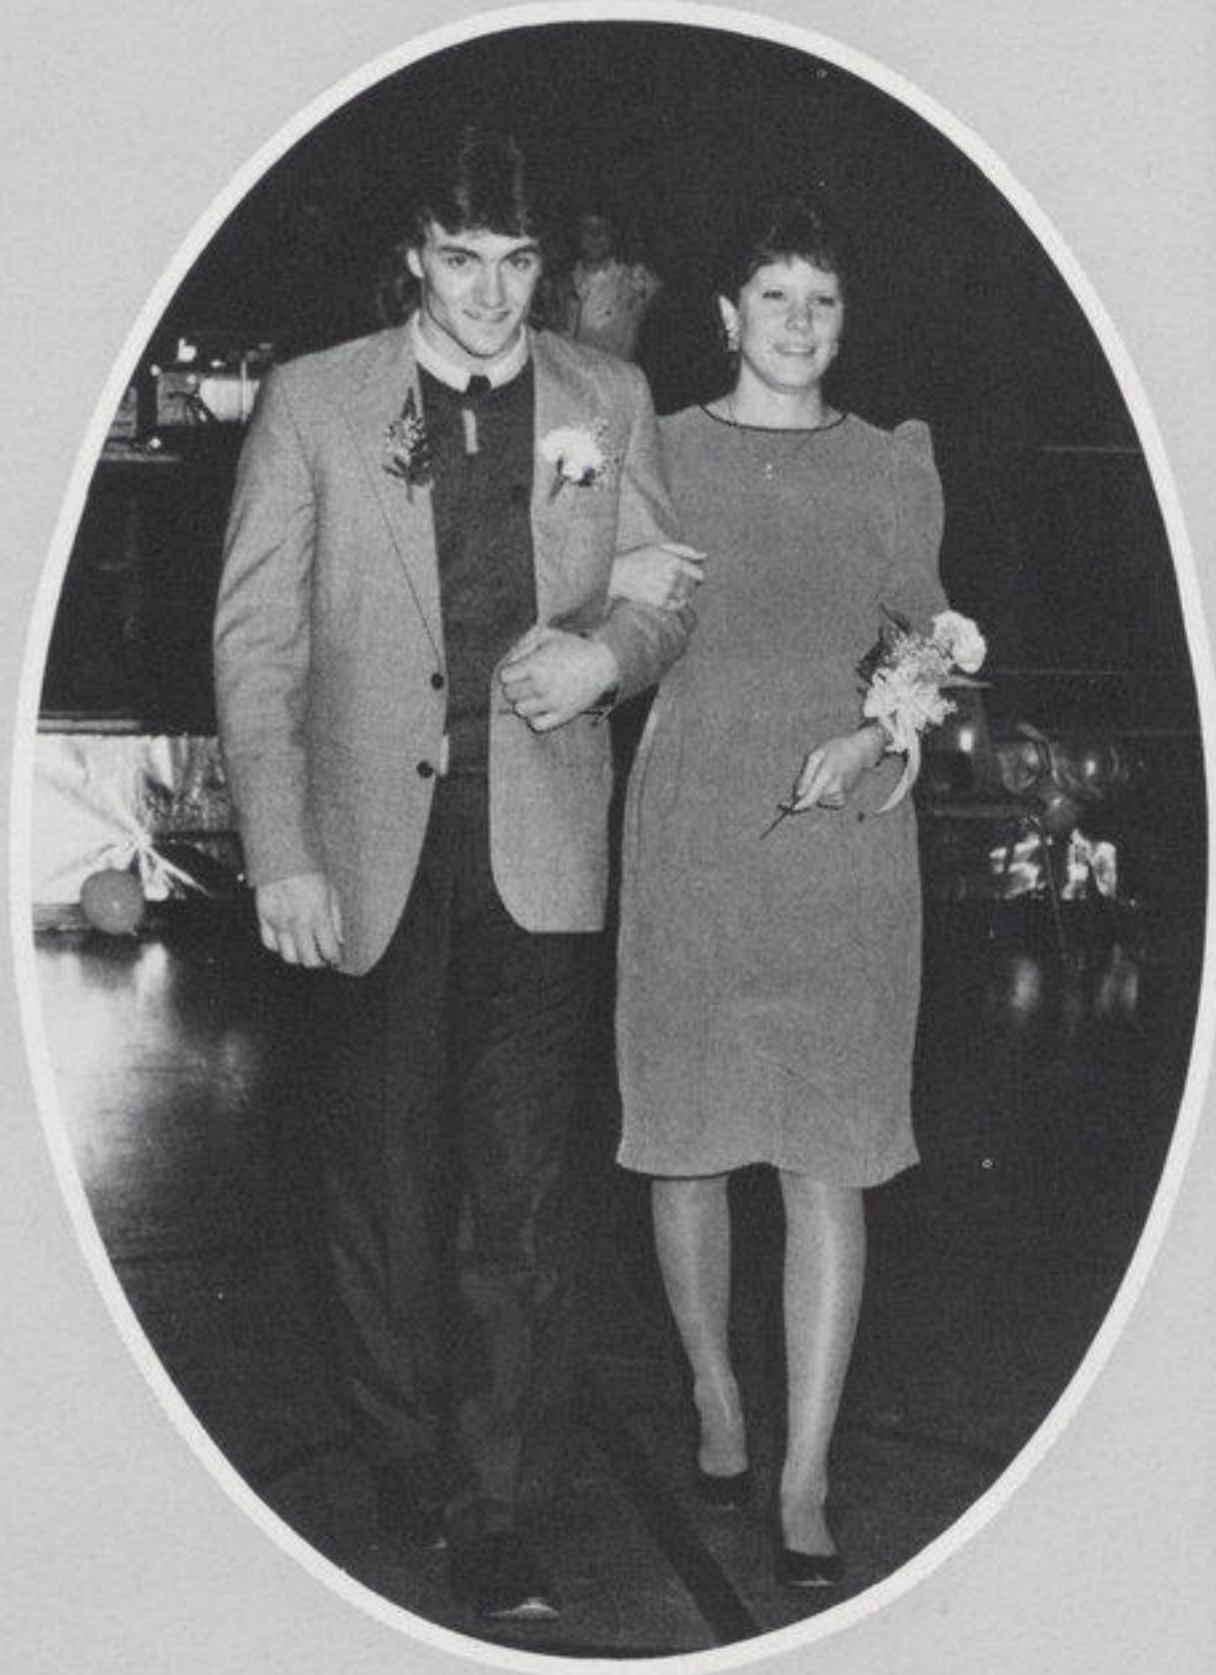

Moments Of Royalty

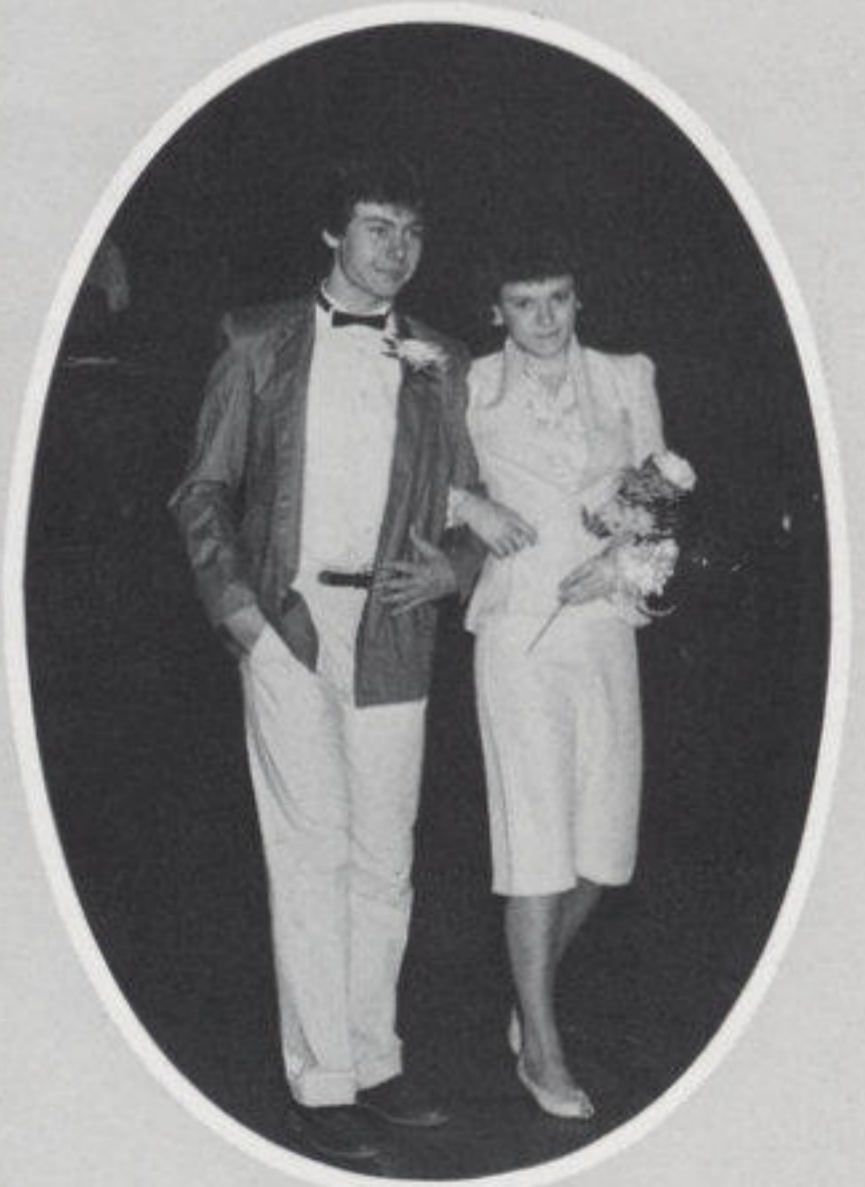

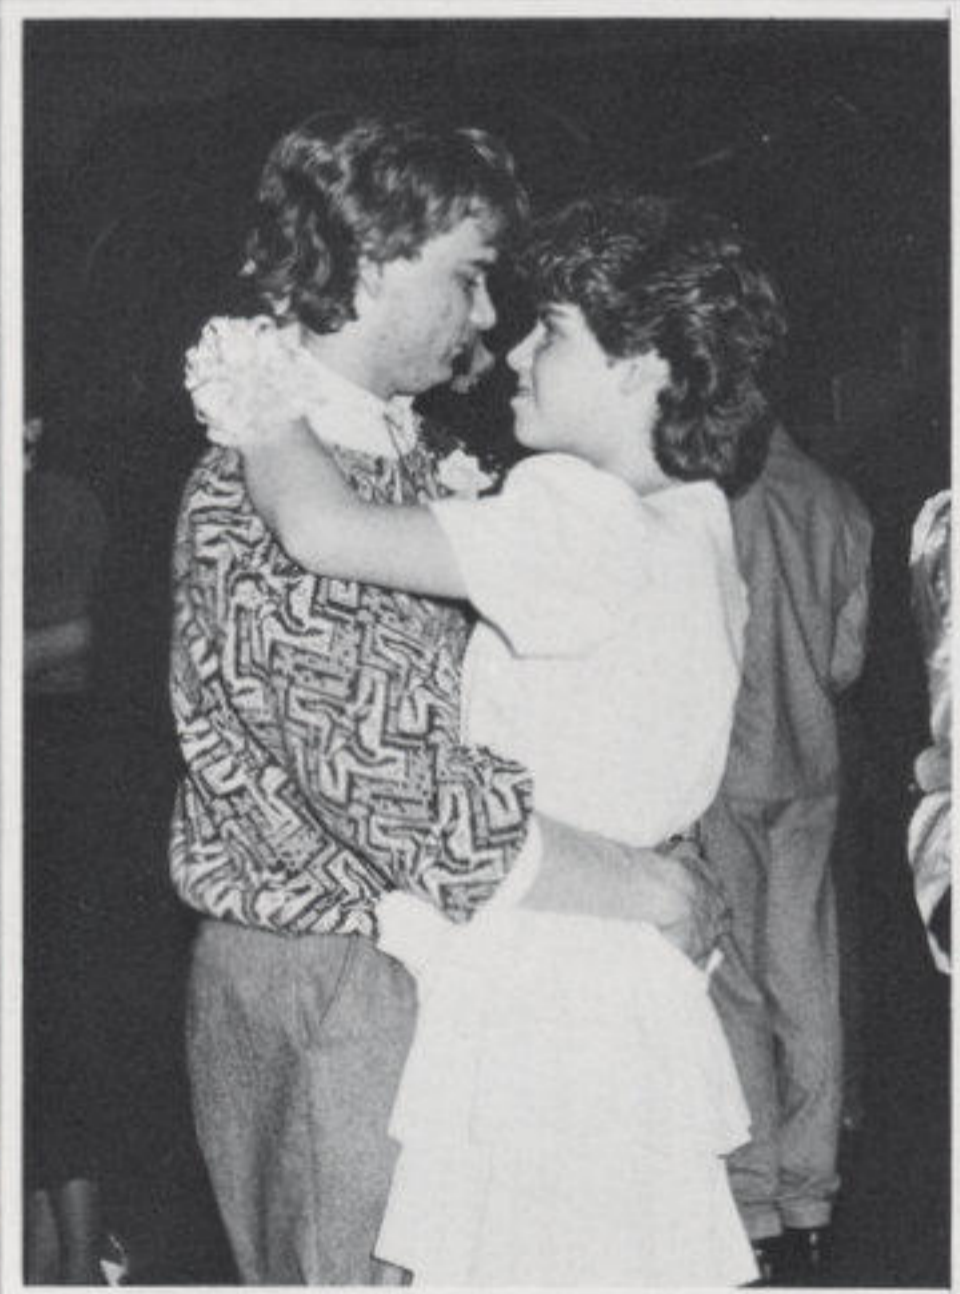

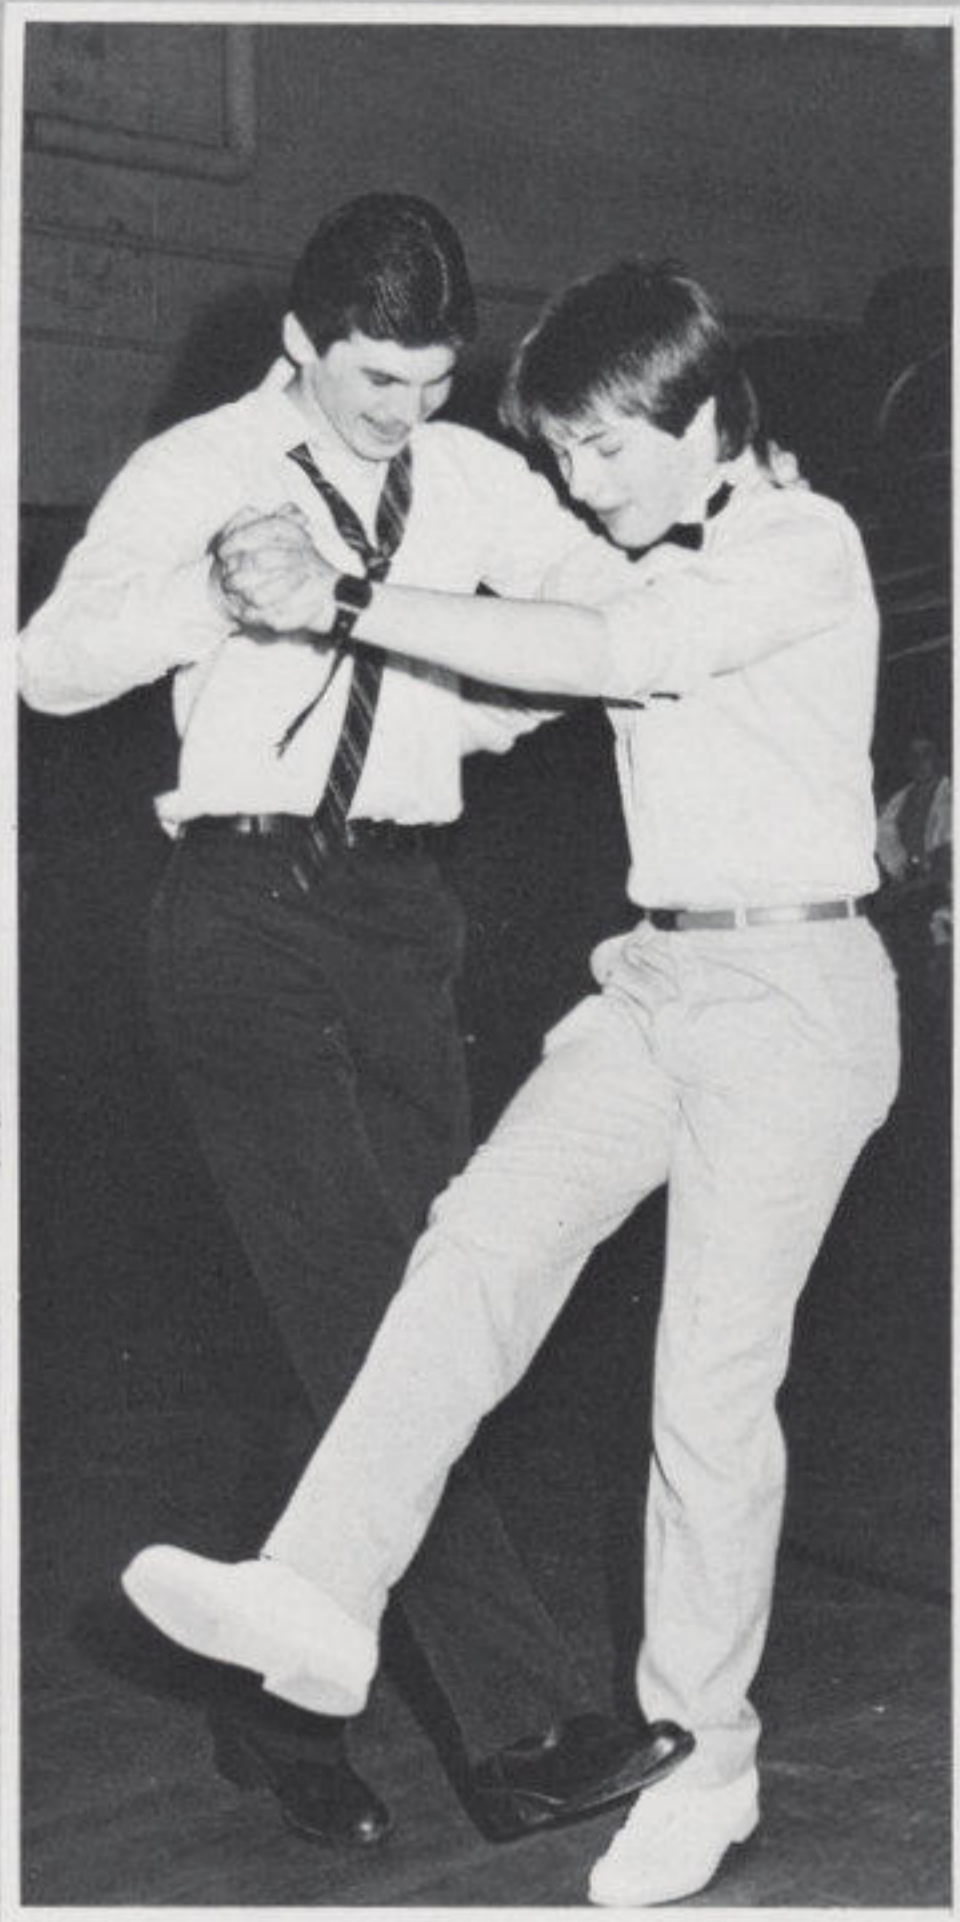

The evening began with the ceremony of the royal dance for the King and his court during which balloons were dropped from the ceiling. The theme song was "Endless Love" by Lionel Richie and Diana Ross. The music was supplied by DJ, Jim Moore. The court wore boutinieres of red roses, while the escorts carried white silk roses, bought from Walter's Flower Shop. The King of Hearts Dance was sponsored by the cheerleaders under the supervision of Ms. Julie Maher.

STATE CHAMPS

The Olympics of the Mind had an outstanding year, winning at all levels of competition.

At the state finals in Akron, the team's balsa wood model held 263 lbs. before crushing. They ended up winning first place at state and from there moved on to Flagstaff, Arizona where they competed for the national title.

At the World Finals, the team did very well, winning 17th place. 47 teams competed in their division.

Janelle Miller won the Rinatra Fusca Award (state competition) for her ability to handle an awkward situation that arose during the team skit.

Robert Rivera won a 3rd place award (national competition) for a demonstration of which he took place.

The Olympics of the Mind team was headed by Mr. Jerry Julian.

Standing: Randy Smith, Robert Smith, Scott Edler, Robert Rivera. Kneeling: Janelle Miller, Lavonne Branham.

Congratulations to the Class of 1986

We are all familiar with the Carringtons of Denver. Well, when Blake Carrington died he left a small part of his estate to a distant relative. It was a dude ranch, and he left it to Leroy Carrington, a graduate of PHS, but Leroy had little time to enjoy it because he died soon after. He did not, though, die without leaving a legacy. In his will he left his dude ranch to the PHS class of '86 for making him class president their freshman year.

Soon after the invitations were sent out, the members of the class of '86 began to arrive. A huge party was planned in order to celebrate the inheritance and to honor Leroy's last wishes. Camey Sexton and Shirlin Gayheart were obviously hired to cater the party since they had become world renowned chefs. Don Miller, president of Miller beer, supplied the beer. All the milk for the Carrington ranch was being supplied by Smith's Dairy, now headed by Tami Tackett, Sandi Polachek supplied the pizza from Polachek's Pizza. She said you've never tasted a good pizza until you've tasted a Polish pizza!!!

First to arrive at the party were the celebrities, of course, and quite a list it was. Kris Barnthouse headed the group. He recently took over Erik Estrada's role in the remake of C.H.I.P.S. Not far behind him was the author of "How to Play Better Basketball while Dabbling in the Stock Market", Kevin Taylor. Speaking of authors, Terry Mansfield and Ryan Wilson co-authored a book, "How to Tan Instead of Peel".

Then came Marilyn Tackett and Susie Beebe, or should I say "Wide Load" Marilyn and "Boom Boom" Beebe, the new women's wrestling champions. Scott Lynch, Randy Postema, and Dan Robertson followed along as their bodyguards, otherwise known as the "Lynch Mob".

Next, Craig Runkle pulled up in a shiny black limousine. He received stocks when he worked for Marathon and now he owns several oil wells and is a prominent millionaire.

Another limo pulled up and out stepped Krist Staggs who was running for president. Right behind her were her very important campaign managers, Tammy Tash and Becky Lewis. You may remember that they came up with the campaign slogan "No more gags with Staggs".

After that came yet another limo. This time Sharon Stephens and Brian Adkins stepped out. They were leading a protest against Krist. They carried signs reading "Voting for Krist is a miss!" Ronnie Arnett came in right after them. After many years of hard study, he became a psychiatrist at Marion General Hospital.

Later our royalty, Jamie Brown and Angie Martin arrived. It seems that after prom they got carried away with their titles and started their own kingdom.

When Mike Studer stepped in everyone ran for autographs. He took over Don Johnson's role in "Miami Vice" which is now known as "Plymouth Vice". Some other celebrities from the class of '86 were Steve Helms and Jay York. Steve became an actor. He had to miss the party because he is on location starring in the remake of the old favorite series, "The Thin Man", Jay is also on location starring in what is predicted to be a smash - - - "The Incredible Hulk".

We all remember Marvin Blankenship. Instead of being "Messy Marvin", he is now known to the class of '86 as "Dressy Marvin".

Carol Tuttle became the owner of the cosmetic company, "Creative Cover by Carol" and the eyes seen in the t.v. commercial were Carol's. Stacy McDaniel was the star of a new soap opera called "Rome". It rated higher than "Willard", "Plymouth", or "Shiloh".

Mark Fletcher became mayor of Bucyrus. He turned the Bratwurst Capital of the World into the Bratwurst Eating Capital of the World.

The next group to enter was the teachers who had taken over at P.H.S. Jeff Echelbarger took over for Mr. Dickson as government teacher. Because of his unique driving talents, Eric Rath became the drivers' ed. instructor. Rhonda Sexton and Jimmy Garber share the duties of truant officer, Lisa Robinson became a spelling "bee". She went around to elementary and junior high schools and gave a "honey" of a show that gave tips on good spelling. Walter Laser, Rodney Beverly, and Paul Manuel have replaced Coach Roll, Coach Steinmetz, and Coach Hirschy.

For entertainment during the stay at the Carrington Dude Ranch, many things were planned. First, there was a bridal show organized by Marla Ousley, the editor of Brides' Magazine. Next, Lauri Oney and Scott Oney sang their new smash hit, "Oney the Lonely". Also performing was the band, Quiet Riot. Mike Neeley was the lead singer, and his band consisted of Jeannie Shepherd, Brenda Barnett, Tabitha Gayheart, Tammy Hale, Diana Huston, and Rose Montgomery. The unique trademark of this band is that they did lip sync. Their best performance was when they did "Sound of Silence".

A few sporting events were also planned. Among them was a wrestling match between Tim "Hulk" Parrigan and Terry "Junkyard" Parrigan. Also, there was a basketball playoff between Chris Runkle and Bryan Christoff. They were vying for the title of Most Valuable Player in the NBA.

A parade was planned by Mickey Schriener. She brought a Shriner's convention to the dude ranch without ever having to go outside her own family. They had a parade honoring J.F.K. which Dianna Hudson led. John Kissinger was a little embarrassed because he thought the parade was in his honor. Right in the middle of the parade we heard "Angerine! Angerine!", and we all knew Sherri Bisel was headed our way, peppier than ever. We found out she was strung out on M & M's.

Many former members of the class of '86 became owners of their own businesses. Troy Keene was president and owner of his own carwah chain. He lost everything and is now all "washed up".

Karnel Edler made a later entrance because the chicken noodle soup vats were overflowing at the Campbell's Soup Company where she was president.

Jeff Beaver and Tom Trout arrived with a program on taxidermy while Stephanie Guthrie and Lynn Remmy passed out a catalog for their undergarment store called "Gifted Women".

Leonard Myers was the owner of several thoroughbred horses. He let his horses be used in a T.V. Commercial for Fultz 45 Malt Liquor. The owner of Fultz 45 Mal Liquor is none other than Ron Fultz.

Bill Hoffman became president of his own cough drop company which he called Hoffman's Coughin' medicine.

Syde Rothschild unfortunately couldn't come because his candy business wasn't doing very well. As he said in his response to the invitation, "Not now, I'm right in the middle of a Rothschild."

Scott Thornsberry and Larry Whittington, manufacturers of camouflage clothing, didn't arrive at the party because they got lost in the woods and Horace Cook missed the whole fling. Why? Because he slept through it all!!!

Rick Gibson, or shall I say "The Cruising Daddy", was arrested for doing donuts in the parking lot in his purple car.

There was a fascinating incident that took place at the party. Junior Porter arrived at the door with his wife, Jody Arnold, well, at least he thought it was Jody. It turned out that instead of Jody he had brought Kathy Fenner without knowing the difference!

When the party was nearing an end, a special guest was announced on stage. Suddenly, from the audience came a chorus of ooh's and ah's. To their amazement the man on stage was none other than Leroy himself. He said he never really died, just pretended to, so that everyone from the class of 1986 would get back together again under one roof.
