

HAWAIIAN 1987

BEGINNINGS

Plymouth High School
184 Sandusky Street
44865

Havamal is a long narative poem about the conduct of life and the duties of a Viking. The codes contain proverbs and advice for people to use in their pursuit of happiness. In 1963, Plymouth High School adopted "Havamal" as it's official name and the tradition has continued ever since.

Beginning life just as spring is the beginning of all green.

Experiencing what is out there in the world. Scary, but exciting.

A new feeling of elation, a beginning of something never felt before.

The beginning of the best years in life lie ahead, awaiting everyone's arrival.

Here I am!
This is truly the Beginning.
I'm so tiny
I have my life ahead of me.

There I go!
What happened?
Now my life is at the end.
But it's only a new Beginning.

-Rachel Hill

WATCH ME

Looking over the years from beginning to end, noting all my mistakes through saddened tears.
With each bad memory
the tears did drop,
each with a story
for all to see.

I tried to be better
without any luck,
then bad turned to good with the arrival of the letter.
Acceptance to college
for only the select,
My hard work finally paid off;
I now have knowledge.

The future is now looking bright on this glorious graduation day,
Diploma in hand
I felt like singing,
"This is my brand new Beginning!"

-Becky Jamerson

N.H.S. - THE SELECT FEW

Throughout the past year members of the National Honor Society did a number of different things.

Ten new members were inducted at the annual ceremony on November 9.

Barb Click served as President, Beth Fenner was Vice-President, and Lana Laser was Secretary and Treasurer. Mrs. McClure served her first year as advisor.

Beginning Busy And Staying Busy

This year the Student Council sponsored The Homecoming Dance which was semi-formal and held October 11, 1986. Also they had the week before homecoming during which each day they had something special planned; Monday- hat day, Tuesday- clash day, Wednesday- Hawaiian day, Thursday- Dress-up day, Friday- Red and White day. They also sponsored the Sadie Hawkins Dance held on January 17, 1987 in which a court was picked. Mock weddings were also held. Tom Dials was the preacher and conducted informal weddings. For 25 cents the couple received the ceremony, a marriage certificate and wedding rings. The day before the Sadie Hawkins Dance was declared Sadie Hawkins day and people came to school and the dance dressed dog-patch style.

BEHIND THE SCENES . . .

Jump back!! Drama Club has had a very successful year with the performance of, "Our Miss Brooks". Advisor, Mrs. Lisa Hutton is proud of the effort that the entire Club put forth in order to make this play one that we can all be proud of.

Officers for next year include President, Kathy Welker, Vice President, Leanne Keenan, Secretary, Laura Sponseller, and Treasurer, Angie Cook. Seniors Brian Hamman and Tom Dials are leaving this year and hopefully the freshmen next year will have some talented replacements.

Next year, Drama Club will be performing a musical, let's hope it's as good as usual.

MEMORY PRESERVERS

In the past four years, I've seen four Yearbooks put together. As Editor of the 1987 Yearbook, my goal is to preserve the times— whether they be bad or good memories. That's what we're here for— so you might look back and remember the best times of your oife.

Each year we pick new "yearbookies." It's hard to decide, since we are so limited to so few. We had only one returning member, Lesa Clark, and 12 new members. They all work very close to get the job done.

I hope you enjoy looking, and reading through the 1987 Yearbook, and have as much fun as we had in putting it together.

Sincerely,
Shelley Ousley, Editor

VOLLEYBALL '86

Even if it wasn't a winning season for the PHS volleyball team, the players still had a lot of fun.

The varsity record was 3-16, and the reserve record was 0-19.

SERVING UP SUCCESS

This year's varsity team consisted of all seniors. Five of them were returning lettermen. This year's most valuable player was Barb Click, and the best defensive player was Lana Laser.

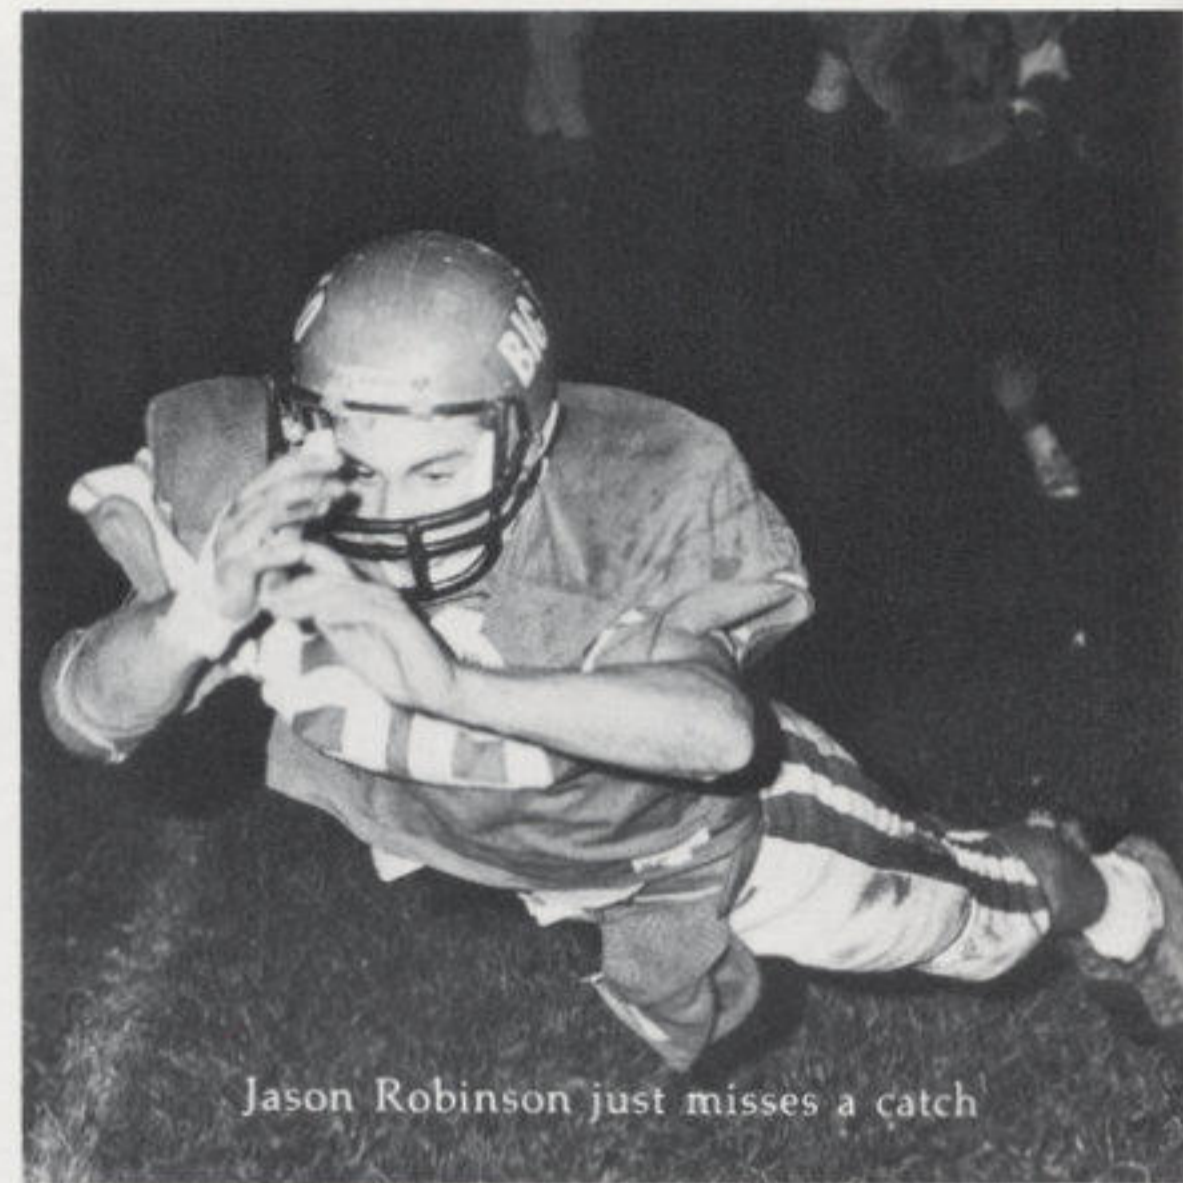

In Coach Lisa Hutton's own words, "These Seniors mean a great deal to me." She wishes to thank Troy Wilson, Robert Rivera, and Eric Breznicki for all their help.

Even though they were a young team, the 1986 Big Red Varsity Football team found themselves two games under a .500 season. The team played under tri-captains Steve Hall, Jason Robinson, and Brian Flaherty, who were all seniors. Jason Robinson received the award for "Ideal Viking" and "Most Improved" went to Chuck Deskins. All League Honorable Mention went to David Powers, Greg Burks, and Steve Hall. The Big Red will lose six seniors through graduation, with 21 returning lettermen coming back next year. Coach Dick Roll feels the team showed great improvement and that next year will be the "Year of the Big Red."

TWIST AND SHOUT

Despite their less than stellar year, the Big Red grapplers sent three on to the Regional meet at Lorain Admiral King.

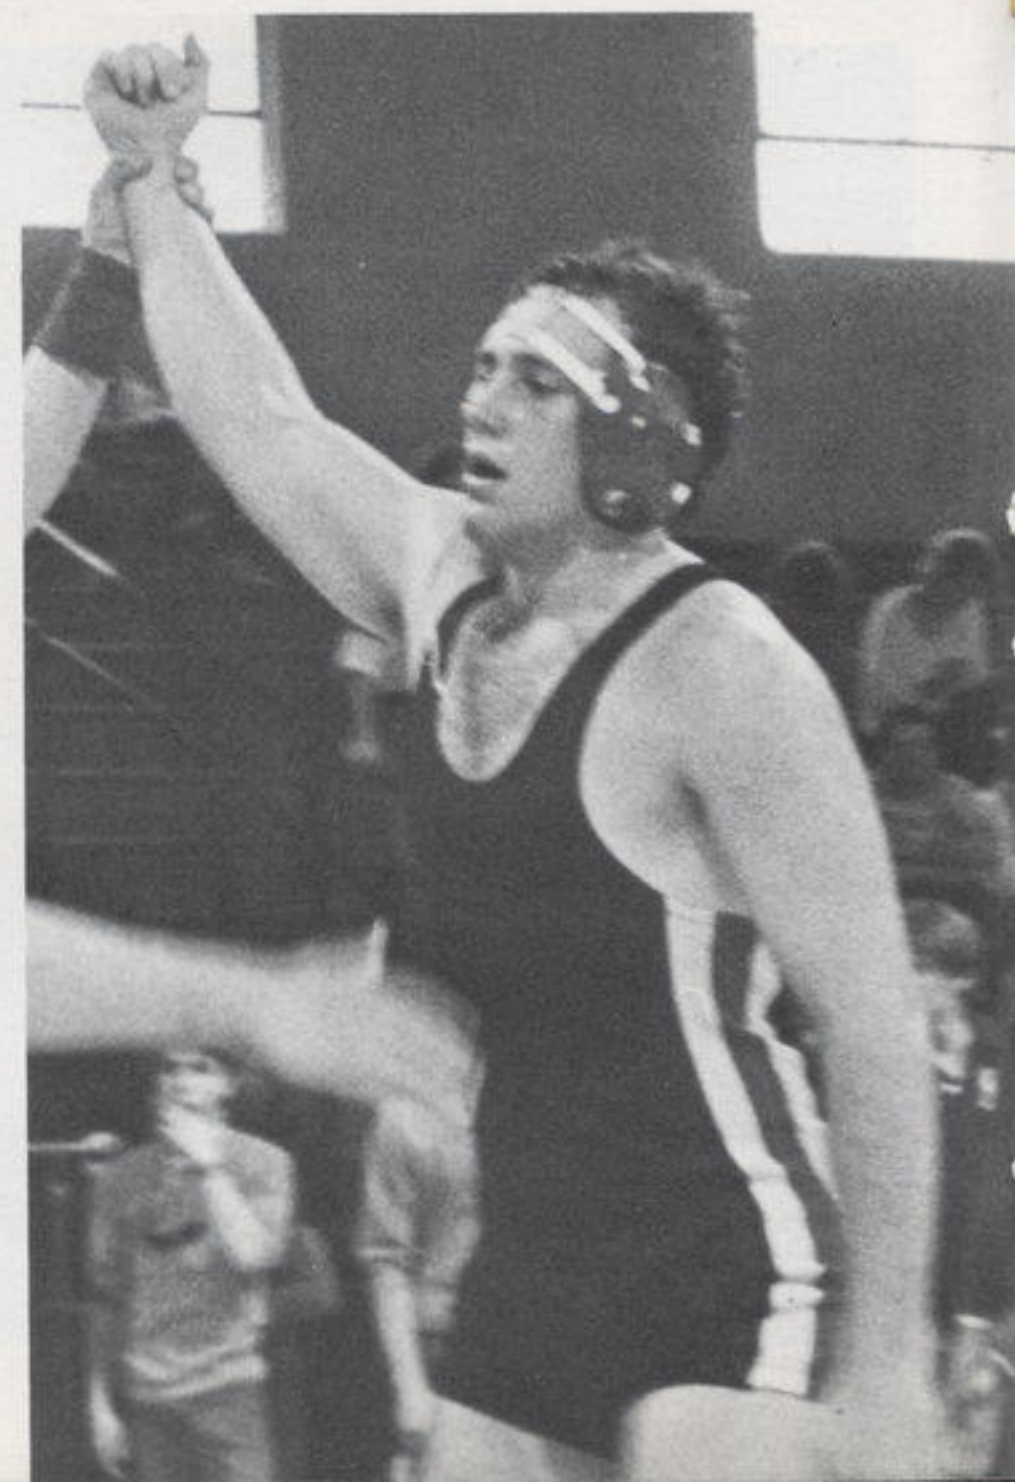

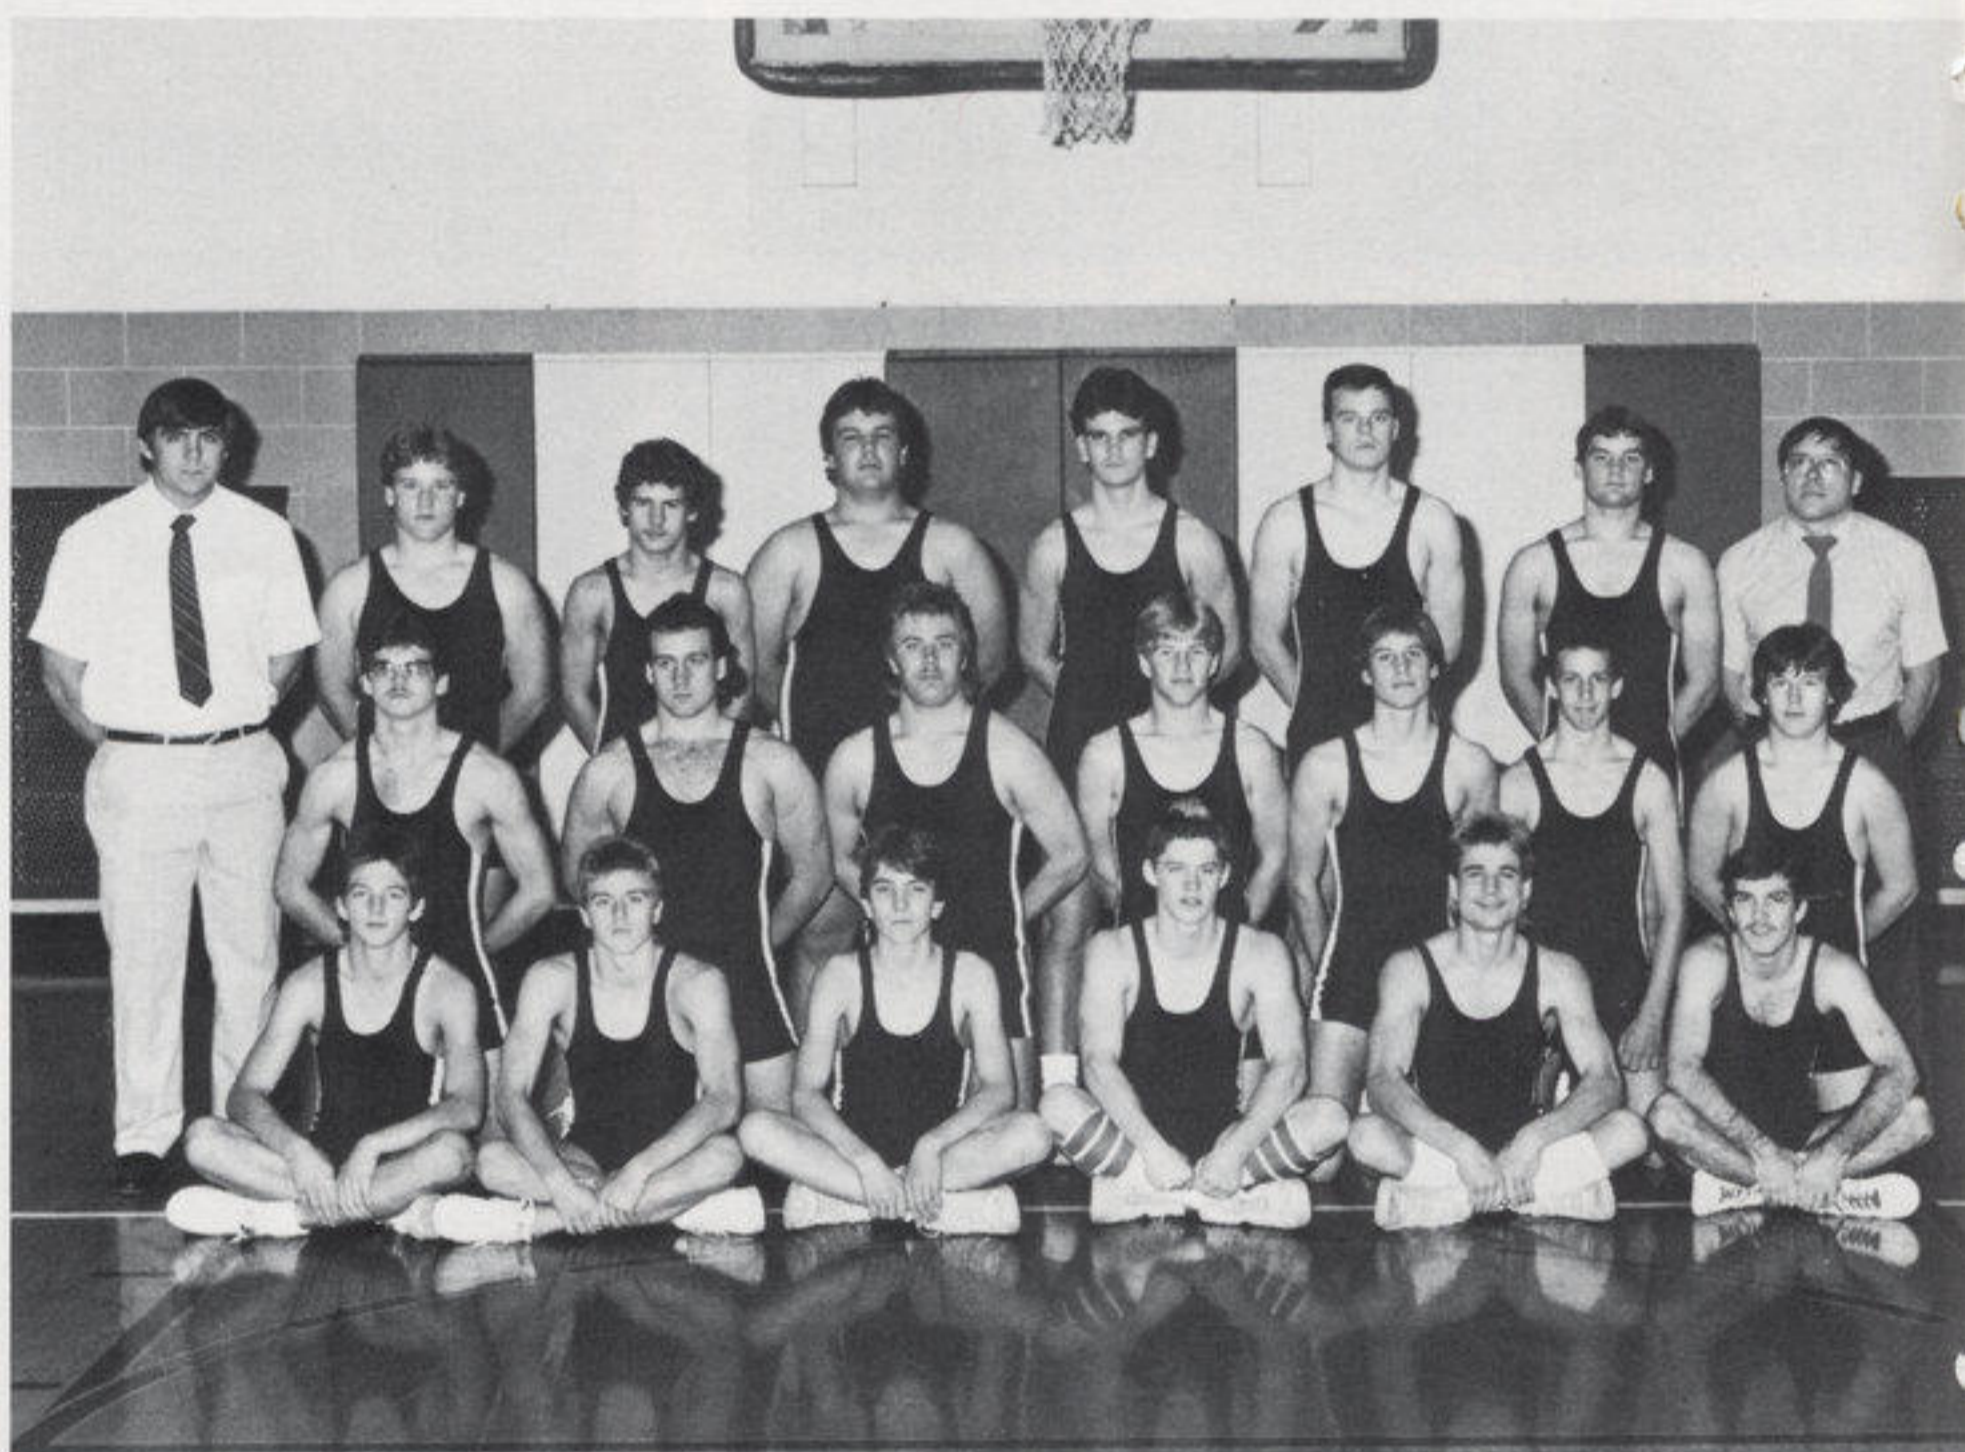

Jeff Staggs, in the 126 pound weight class, finished fourth at the district meet by beating New London and Western Reserve.

155 pounder, Len Barnett, also finished fourth at districts by overpowering Crestview and Tiffin Calvert.

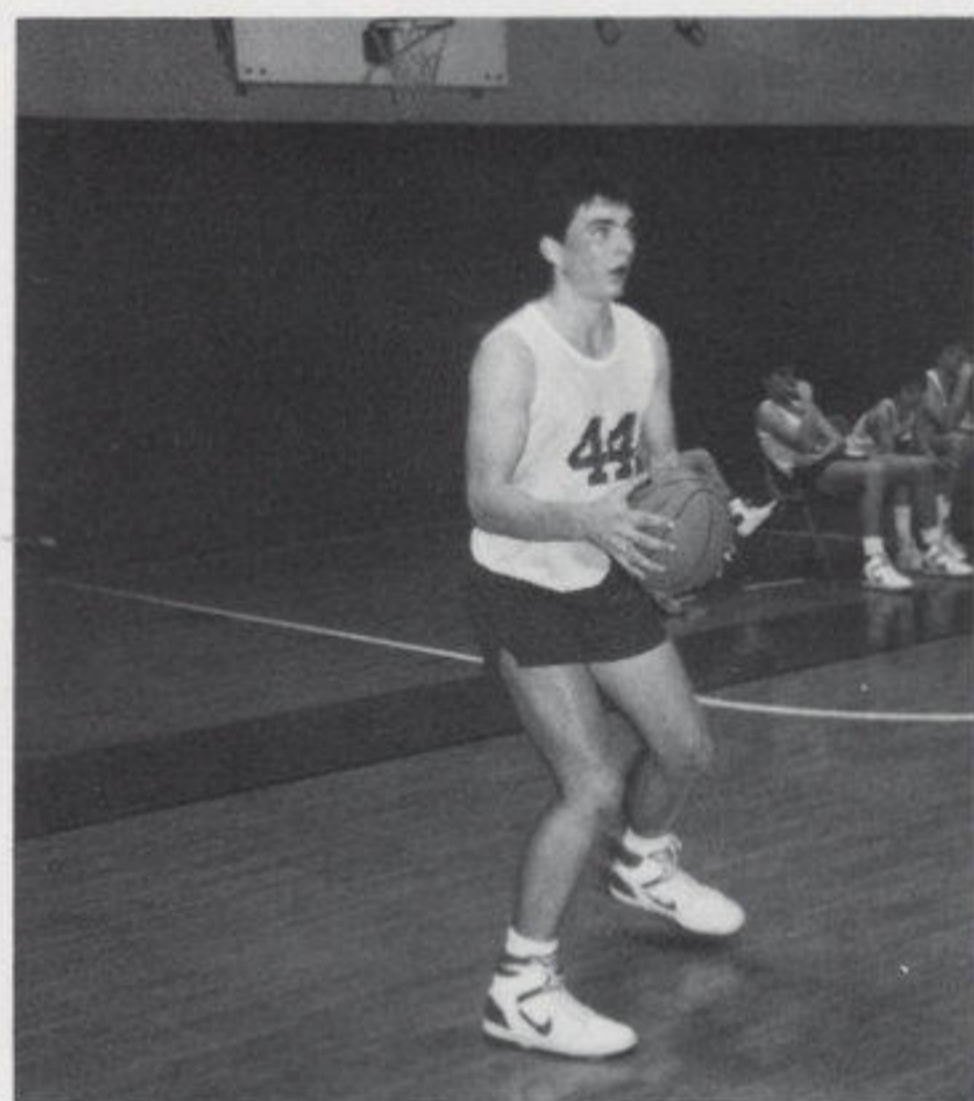

Greg Burks at the heavyweight spot, placed second by pinning St. Pete and Carey and outscoring St. Paul six to five.

At the Regional meet, Burks narrowly lost when his Colombian opponent took him down in the last seventeen seconds. Neither Staggs nor Barnett advanced either.

The Freshman Basketball team under Head Coach Mr. Bill Flaherty ended their season with a record of 3-12. Not considering the unimpressive record, the team showed great promise for the future.

The Freshman team lost to the Flyers to Norwalk St. Paul during the first round of the Freshmen tournament held at Black River.

We wish the Freshmen best of luck in their next three seasons; and give our deepest appreciation to Janelle Miller, who kept statistics for the Freshman team.

BLAZIN' BIG RED

Blazin' Big Red really made tracks this year that are really going to be hard for any other team to cover. Winning the Firelands Conference is just one of this team's many accomplishments. They had the most wins in a single season of eighteen, which also led to the winning streak of fifteen games in a row. Scoring also took a hand in the season. The most points ever scored in a single season of 1,133 and the most points ever scored in a single game of 77. These are now set school records.

The players' awards were well earned. Kay Niedermeier was named MVP for the second year in a row. She was named to the first team Firelands Conference and second team District. She led the team in scoring and rebounds. Laura Paulo was named most improved player. Kim Gibson was named to the second team Firelands Conference and led the team in assists. Donell Branham and Michelle Collins both had honorable mention to the Firelands Conference team. Coach Badertscher was named Firelands Conference coach of the year.

One of the best games played this year was against South Central. The Big Red went into double overtime to beat them—proving that this team was the best team in the Firelands Conference and avenging an earlier loss.

JV ON THE WAY UP

Again this year, the JV team was very small, with only six full-time players, plus three that played JV and Varsity. Only two of these played for the Big Red last year; Trena Snipes and Peggy Osborne, who were also team Captains. Considering the size of the team and previous experience, Coach Echelberry feels the JV team had a winning season to be proud of. With a conference record of 8-6 and overall record of 10-8.

The girls had a major thrill of the year when they came back and beat New London 32-15 after they had lost previously to them 27-16.

Front (kneeling): Coach Vickie Echelberry. Standing (L. to R.): A. Thompson, A. McClure, A. Tackett, T. Kamann, T. Dials, M. Burrer, K. Farner.

BURNING THE NETS

In coach Dave Dunn's final season at the helm of the Big Red, the team treated him to a year of thrills. The team bombed, pressed and ran their way to an 18-6 record, a sectional championship, and a district runner-up.

Led by the senior tri-captains, Mike Lasch, Jason Robinson, and Steve Hall, the Big Red came within one game of the Firelands title.

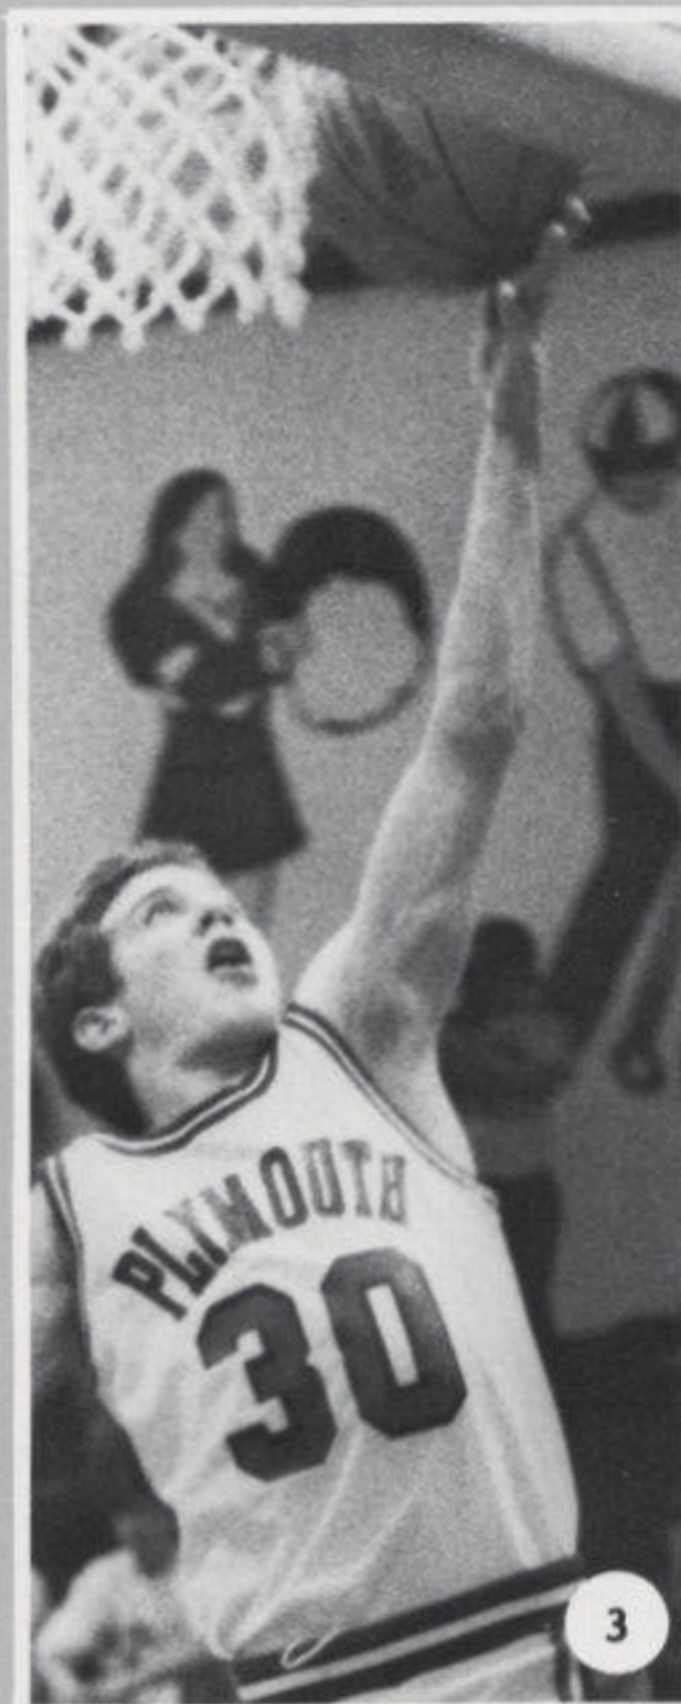

On January 16th, Steve Hall became the first boys varsity player to pass 1000 points in his career. He was awarded the MVP award for the second year in a row in the conference, a third for the team. Hall played in the Mansfield News Journal all-star game at the end of the season. Lasch and Robinson, along with Hall played in the Conference all-star game with Dave Dunn as the coach.

Returning Lettermen for next year include: Ron Stephens, Lance Combs, Todd Wilson, Terry Hall and Terry Wilson. Senior Larry Trout also received a varsity letter.

Music

THERE'S MUSIC IN THE AIR

Harmonizing together to perform a near-perfect performance of "It's the Lord's Thing," the 1987 choir impressed everyone. Two seasonal concerts and a solo and ensemble contest showed off the talent of Plymouth High School Choir. Under the direction of Miss Julie Maher, the group took nine first place and five second place awards at the contests. Some of their other activities include Lenten Services at the Presbyterian Church and Girls' Ensemble performances for local community banquets.

Choir members include: (Bottom, L. to R.) R. Neeley, K. Castle, N. Beverly, D. Pritchard, J. Young, D. McDonald, C. Loehn, T. Dawson, A. Steinmetz, T. Isaac, A. Howell, C. Gayhart. (Middle Row): A. # SECOND ANNUAL AWARDS PROGRAM

Recognition was given to high achievers at this year's second annual Academic Boosters' Awards Program held on May 19.

Last year's tradition of the Academic Letter continued on with a large number of students claiming the rewards of hard work and dedication toward academic excellence.

Among the Freshman Class, the eleven given letters included Brian Carter, Shane Garrett, Todd Gundrum, William Hass, Clayton Loehn, Michelle McQuate, Diana Nickels, David Oney, Robert Roberts, Allison Tackett, and Larry Vanderpool.

Sophomores included Rachael deLombarde, Kim Gibson, Randy Hayes, Aaron Keinath, Derek Kren, Max Mullins, Peggy Osborne, Charles Pennell, Trena Snipes, and Jeff Tackett.

Aaron Barker, Lavonne Branham, Lance Combs, Terry Hall, Peggy Helms, Ron Stephens, Laura Stroup, and Sheri Wagers were the Juniors honored.

Lastly, receiving awards for excelling their last year, were the Seniors: Tami Boock, James Beck, Becky Carey, Tammy Elliott, Beth Fenner, Steve Hall, David McDonald, Jari McKinney, Beth Roethlisberger, Larry Trout, and Steve Wilson. Jill Fultz, Lana Laser, Janelle Miller, Christian Thompson, and Christine Wilson were recognized for their outstanding achievements, one of which was holding a 3.5 grade point average or higher throughout all four years of high school.

In advanced Math, Janelle Miller and Christine Wilson received honorary recognition for their efforts.

Randy Smith received the DEKALB Award from the FFA Department for his unsurpassed dedication to the club.

Sciences recognized and praised many for their hard work and dedication with Troy Hass claiming it for Earth Science, Ron Stephens for Chemistry, and Janelle Miller for Physics. Todd Gundrum and Clayton Loehn accepted the Biology department awards for the Most Inquisitive Minds in their respective classes.

Jari McKinney and Larry Trout ran away with the Accounting awards while Peggy Helms single-handedly stole the shorthand Award. Even so, Jari McKinney and Beth Roethlisberger graciously accepted the Office Practice Awards.

World History Award of Distinction went to Tina Row and Christian Thompson, while Beth Fenner and Christine Wilson took the Current Events Awards. Trena Snipes and David Mc Donald apprehended the Sociology Awards, and Tammi Oney and Steve Hall did the same in Problems of Society.

Freshman David Oney and Danell Smart, Sophomores James Fletcher and Susan Connelly, Juniors Andy Knaus and Lavonne Branham, Seniors Jason Robinson and Tina Row were all recognized as top scorers in the Americanism Test sponsored by the American Legion.

Junior Andy Knaus and Senior Tina Row were honored for their excellent scores on the Ohio University American History Test.

Providing entertainment at the night of recognition were the Olympics of the Mind teams. Mr. Julian, advisor of the structure team including Lavonne Branham, Rachael deLombarde, Scott Edler, Janelle Miller, Robert Rivera, Beth Roethlisberger, and Randy Smith, led his group to State Competition.

Drama Club Presents . . .

OUR MISS BROOKS

Shut it off! Drama Club put on a magnificent performance of the play, "Our Miss Brooks." The directors, Mrs. Lisa Hutton, chose a very talented cast this year to act out the crazy antics and problems of a high school English teacher trying to put on a school play.

Hidden band instruments and stolen basketballs set the scene for a unique romance between the English teacher and a basketball coach named Hugo. Jane Drew, a shy girl who wants to be an English teacher, and Rhonda Allen, the only daughter of the School Board's President, compete for the affection of Ted Wilder, the star of the Basketball team.

Sprinkle this play with a push-over principal, a loony librarian, a boisterous band director, and an arrogant school board president and you get one of the best plays in Plymouth history.

IN THE BEGINNING . . .

Mr. Dials' Neighborhood

Good evening folks. This is correspondent, Dan Rather, reporting on the community of Rockerville. This community is made up solely of graduates of the class of 1987 of Plymouth High School. Our guide is Tom Dials. Tom always wanted to be a man of great letters, and now he is the mailman! "Hello, Tom, how are you?" "Just great!" "Tom, show us around the neighborhood." "O.K., welcome to Mr. Dials' neighborhood."

The rich and famous people live on Gamble Street. The first mansion is Steve Hall's. He opened his own cookie factory and made millions on the patent of his noiseless cookie package. Lesa Clark was in business with Steve for a while, until after a tremendous weight gain, Steve found that Lesa had been eating all the chocolate chips and fired her. Beth Fenner, Charlotte Justice, Larry Trout, and Michelle Hess all live here too. Beth is Jon Von Jovi's personal groupie. Charlotte is the new host of Dance Fever and Larry, winner of the Masters, has his own golf course in his 75 acre backyard. Michelle became rich after she designed a razor especially for women with snow-white, razor-sensitive legs.

All the shops and businesses are located on Main Street. Shelley Cole and Karen Thornsberry own a store called "Gifts for the Well-Endowed." Their competition across the street, "Gifts for the Not-So-Gifted", is owned by Barb Click and Tina Row. These shops are evidence that there is a place for both "big" and "small" business in a community. Shannan Estes' office is right next to Barb and Tina. She heads W.A.M.M., Women Against Macho Men. A new hair salon in town is called "Spike and Dye, 95¢ a Color." The owners, Winifred Johnson, Tony Schriener, Len Barnett, and Mickey Jones say business would be great if those green monkeys would stop coming in. Lee Garber used to own the neighborhood pet store until he went broke after eating all the cat food in the store. The business most frequently visited in our neighborhood is Bahama Mama's Travel Service. Bahama Mama is none other than our beloved Bethany Roethlisberger. Tammi Oney is her expert assistant for those people who want only to go on a swimming vacation.

All the athletes live on Jock Avenue. Kay Niedermeier let the hair on her legs grow so she could be a member of the NBA. We're so proud of her. She took it so well when they dismissed her. Kip Tucker is the Celtics water boy which isn't bad because he gets $400,000 a year and all the warm-ups he wants. Jamie Beck and Beth Baldrige own a running shoe store after Jamie won the 1992 Olympics. Our richest athlete, Randy Myers, gained world-wide fame after defeating Hulk Hogan. His famous hold, "The Twinkee," defeated Hulk in two hours.

The neighborhood newspaper is called "The Unknown Advertiser". Tami Boock replaced Rona Barrett and writes a column called "Tami Talk". Fashion editor Sandy Elliott tells you how to buy your weekly wardrobe without fighting those ugly crowds. Jari McKinney is also a columnist at our paper. She gives perfect advice to those women with a 10 inch waist. All the pictures for the paper are taken by Shelley Ousley who left National Geographic because she got tired to taking pictures of pygmies.

The University for Advanced Learning is situated between Weber and Fid Lanes. Sean Ousley is the English professor and is known to give long lectures on old 80's lit. Melissa Bentley won the Nobel Prize for chemistry and is now tutoring Mr. Bishop who will be teaching for his 100th year. Glenn Welker teaches physics. It's too bad he doesn't have any hair left after that bad accident with the static generator. Michelle Collins decided to follow in Mr. Coulter's footsteps and take up biology. Her specialty is dissecting fetal pigs. Tammy Elliott is the University's expert on all Southern dialects.

Many social workers work at the Bureau of the Needy. Brian Flaherty was so impressed by "Hands Across America" that he started his own organization called "Hands Around America". Lloyd Hoffman, Jon Smith, and James Burton are members of the smokers' reform group that urges people to read their pamphlet "Smoke Alarms Wake Up Your Neighbor's Dog". We're pretty proud of our neighborhood priest, Jim Rockford. He just released his new gospel video, "Rock of Ages". Doug Houser and Chris Wilson run an orphanage for classic cars, like Corvairs and others that have been abused and then resold by their owners. The Thompson twins, Christian and Jack, set up a self-help clinic for those we-morning hour workers at fast food restaurants who have problems getting out of the bed in the mornings.

Our neighborhood has a band shell where many groups perform on the weekends. The "Shepherds" who are Curt, Tim, and Lacy have a number one hit called "Baaad Baaad Boys". Kathy Montgomery, Khamsay Champasouk, and Vicky Stephens have an all girls group called the "Shy Ones", whose hit single is "Shout". The newest duet to hit our stage is by Cheryl Alsept and Sabrina Tackett Parrigan. They brought back the old hit, "Going to the Chapel". We had a tragedy here not too long ago. Jill Fultz, one of our most famous entertainers, strained her lips during her lip push-ups before a concert. She is now retired happily on Bourbon Street.

The protection of Rockerville is left up to our two man vice squad. Shawn Branham, the liquor control expert, and Mike "the Lascher" Lasch, with his expert karate techniques, protect our neighborhood. Just recently Shawn arrested Roger Collins for stealing 23 cans of beer. But when brought before the court, the judge released him because he couldn't make a case out of only 23 beers.

This is Wanderers Avenue. A few of the residents aren't here right now. Jason Robinson lives there, but he is currently in South Carolina with the Marines. He joined the Marines right after graduation so that his hair would always be in style. Lana Laser lives there in the house with all the Ohio State memorabilia, but she isn't here either. She's off in Costa Rica at her Lana Banana Banana Plantation. We're very sad to say that Steve Wilson's mansion is still vacant. He's still serving his 10-year sentence in Leavenworth for breaking into the President's Star Wars computer game. That is Jeff Burton's house. Everyone is amazed at how seriously Jeff takes his running now. Now Jeff really runs (a)cross country. At last report, he was some place in Gase, Montana.

In our neighborhood we have many celebrities. Tammy Dawson, Shelley Neeley, and Barb York star in "The Return of Charlie's Angels". There was a series spun-off from the movie Fletch starring Eddie Fletcher about a detective who seduced all the girls at Hardees. Our celebrities' hairstylists are Shari Tanner, Carla Handshoe, Lolanda Mullins, and Lisa Collins. The call their shop, "Plaid is IN". David McDonald, Loretta Sexton, and Marian Rutherford starred in the remake of "Three's Company" and liked the idea so well that they decided to get a house of their own.

Here's the city hall. Randy Smith is mayor now after he overthrew former mayor Jim "Artshow" Simmering. Half of our city funds come from Colonel Kadaffy, as a gift to Randy. Jeri Loehn is our finance manager. She takes care of all the city loans. Brian Hamman heads the city morgue and then moonlights as a D.J. for the wakes. Her experience as class treasurer have Christy Rothschild the needed qualification to be the city's treasurer. Brian "Sponge" Spencer is our city water department head. He's always ready to "sponge" up those water main breaks. Sherry Deskins and Jeanilla LeMaster, the head doctors at St. Somewhere, are Rockerville's health directors.

This is Bizarre Boulevard, where all of our unusual houses are located. That interesting shaped house there, belongs to Janelle Miller, and yes, it is made out of paper mache. I'm also told that Mike Kasic lives on this street. But even after 10 years I still can't find it. He sure had a pile of unpaid bills for camouflage paint!

This is Gasoline Alley. Our richest citizen and his accountant live here. Charles Beverly made literally millions after buying out all of the gas stations in Ohio and renaming them "Bevs". After five years at Duke, Becky Carey became his personal accountant and vice-president of the board.

All five of our famous authors live on Donnelly Road. Angie James and Jan James co-authored a book called 99 Famous Train Robbers to Name Your Child After. Kevin Masters wrote a book called Masters of Mr. Dials' Neighborhood, about his failed overthrow attempt on Domino's Pizza. Dwayne Sexton wrote An FFA'er in Uncle Sam's Army about how to become a successful farmer on government property. Fallen Neeley is the newcomer in our neighborhood. His book "Reachin' Success without Fallin'" has been a real success.

Heather Howard owns the local limo service. She's a bit disappointed though because she doesn't get much business. This is due to the simple fact that everyone in town owns his own big Redden. Yes, Jeff Redden made it big after designing his own prototype of the perfect car. This car has spacious trunk room, it will hold up to 55 bags of groceries, plush seats for those long concert trips, and a special hidden compartment for those surprise liquor control officer inspections.

Well, Mr. Rather, it's been a beautiful day in our neighborhood. We're so happy to have a friend like you. Won't you please be our neighbor?

IT'S ONLY A BEGINNING

CLASS OF 1987

It's only the beginning—so much lies ahead for the graduating senior class. 87 seniors had the honor of graduating on June 5, 1987. The senior class made this graduation the best ever. It started with the Baccalaureate Address by Rex Kilgore, member of the Rainbow Valley Chapel. He and Miss Lynn Snider sang to the graduates. There were many honors given to members of the graduating class. Scholarships totaling 207,700 dollars were given. Janelle Miller received the highest scholarship, which was her appointment to West Point.
