STAR DESIGNERS

Completing another successful, but sometimes hectic year, the '89 Yearbook staff managed to meet all their deadlines. Susan Helms led the staff as Chief Editor, assisted by Jenny Chase, Advertising Editor, and David Oney, Photographic Editor. Other members included April Clark, John Beverly, Justin Slauson, Kathy Farner, Shane Garrett, Amy McClure, Holly Barnthouse, Lorie Cole, Chris Ross, and occasionally, Clayton Loehn.

Mrs. Linda Buurma, Advisor, felt that this was a group of dedicated people who really worked well in designing and putting the Yearbook together.

Justin Slauson, Holly Barnthouse, Susan Helms, Jenny Chase, and John Beverly.

"Kathy, the deadline is tomorrow!"

"I'm not going through all these papers!"

"Why am I doing this?"

"None of this makes sense!"

The 1988-89 Student Council brought out much spirit this year. Putting many hours of hard work into the Homecoming Dance making it the best yet. The Sadie Hawkins Dance was also a big hit this year. They completed all their goals with only two money makers. They sold candy and football/basketball programs to help finance their activities.

Special thanks to officers Christopher Hixon and Amy Laser for their organization and effort in making the year run smoothly and successfully.

The '88-'89 school year was full of many "shining" sports stars. To get into the swing of things, Aaron Fenner was the first student to go to state in golf. He finished sixteenth in the Class A and AA tournament. The first cross country team from Plymouth to ever go to state placed ninth overall with Susan Helms placing 30th., Jenny Adkins 32nd., and Jenni Chase 34th. Wendell Burton was the only boy to go to state finishing 21st. out of 176. Kim Gibson was the first girl in Plymouth history to score 1,000 points in her basketball career.

Swinging the 1988 golf team into another season were co-captains Todd Gundrum, and Aaron Fenner. With a young team to mold, they showed great potential.

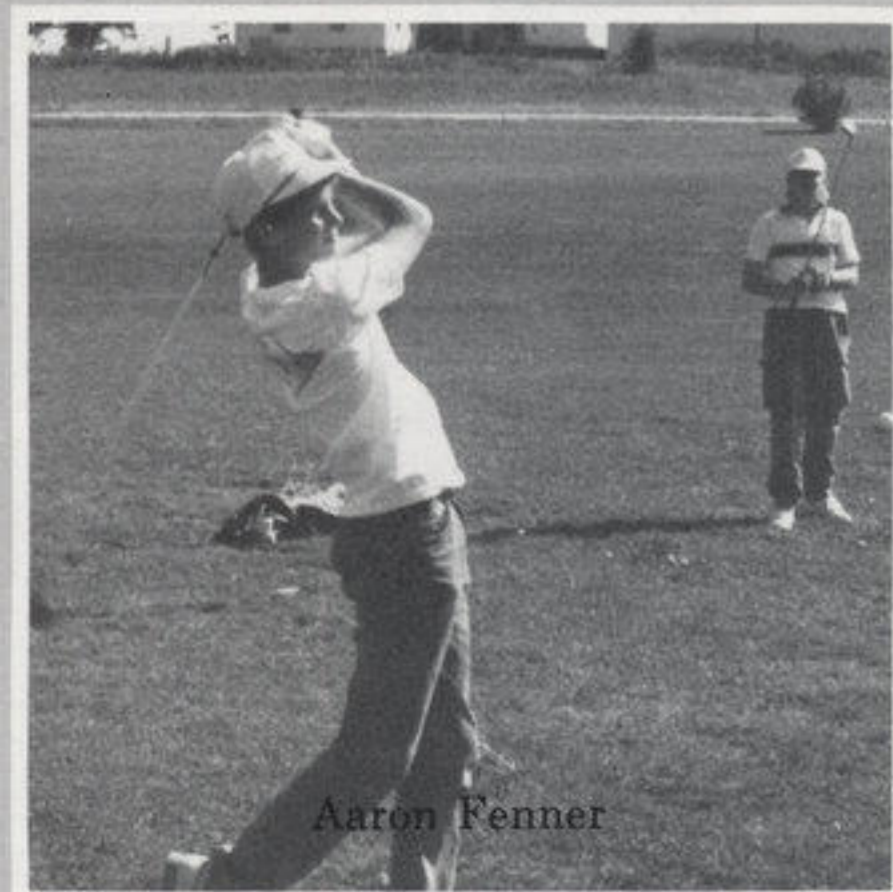

They ended the season by being 2nd. at the Black River Invitational, and having Aaron Fenner going on to State. He finished 26th. over-all in the State tournament and was awarded the MVP trophy, while Todd Gundrum received one for Best Sportsmanship.

Taking It On The Run

Left to right: A. Edler, H. Barnthouse, L. Cole, S. Helms, J. Chase, J. Adkins, M. McQuate, S. Hass, M. Reiderman. Top row: Coach Paul Gase, J. Beverly, L. Cole, W. Burton, T. Hass, C. Loehn, J. Winans, S. Garrett, D. Adams, S. Kennard, S. Howard, C. Gowitzka, J. Sluson. Not pictured: G. Luckie, T. Smart.

The 1988 season had many highpoints for the boys cross country team led by Captain, Wendell Burton. Some of the great accomplishments were taking 1st at the Ontario Invite, and 2nd at the Galion Invite. The boys varsity team fell short, by 1 pt. of advancing onto Regionals. Wendell Burton and Troy Hass advanced to Regionals, and with only Wendell making it to State, placing 21 in Columbus.

For the 1988 girls cross country, the season was a continuous victory. Jenny Adkins set the new course record with a time of 21:02. By packing their runners at the front, they took 1st place at the Western Reserve and Galion invites, while still defending their Conference title. The biggest accomplishment was that of them being the first girls team ever to qualify for STATE. The team was one of the youngest teams at STATE, qualifying with 3 Seniors and 4 Freshmen.

Led by the only Senior returning letterman, Trena Snipes, the Volleyball Team had a losing season mainly because they were a very young team that lacked experience. Coach Vicki Echelberry stressed that their record of 0-19 was deceiving. The team consisted of only 2 Seniors, 1 Junior and the rest were Sophomores and Freshmen. This was like a reserve team playing against varsity teams at all the schools in the Conference. Co-captains were Trena Snipes and Robin Burks. Missy Hamilton received the Most Valuable Player award and Most Improved was Amy Beverly. Coach Echelberry saw much improvement over the season and looks for next years' teams to see a winning record.

Tackling another successful season, the 1988-89 football team was led by captains John Ganzhorn, Jeff Tackett, and Chuck Kosse. The offense was led by Chuck Deskins, and our dominating defense was led by James Fletcher.

No surprise came from their record of 7-3, with Fletcher, Ganzhorn, and Deskins making All-League first team Firelands Conference. And Deskins, Fletcher, Ganzhorn, Tackett, and John Myers on the NCOAC first team. John Ganzhorn was awarded the Ideal Viking award, and most improved was awarded to John Myers.

SORS CORNER

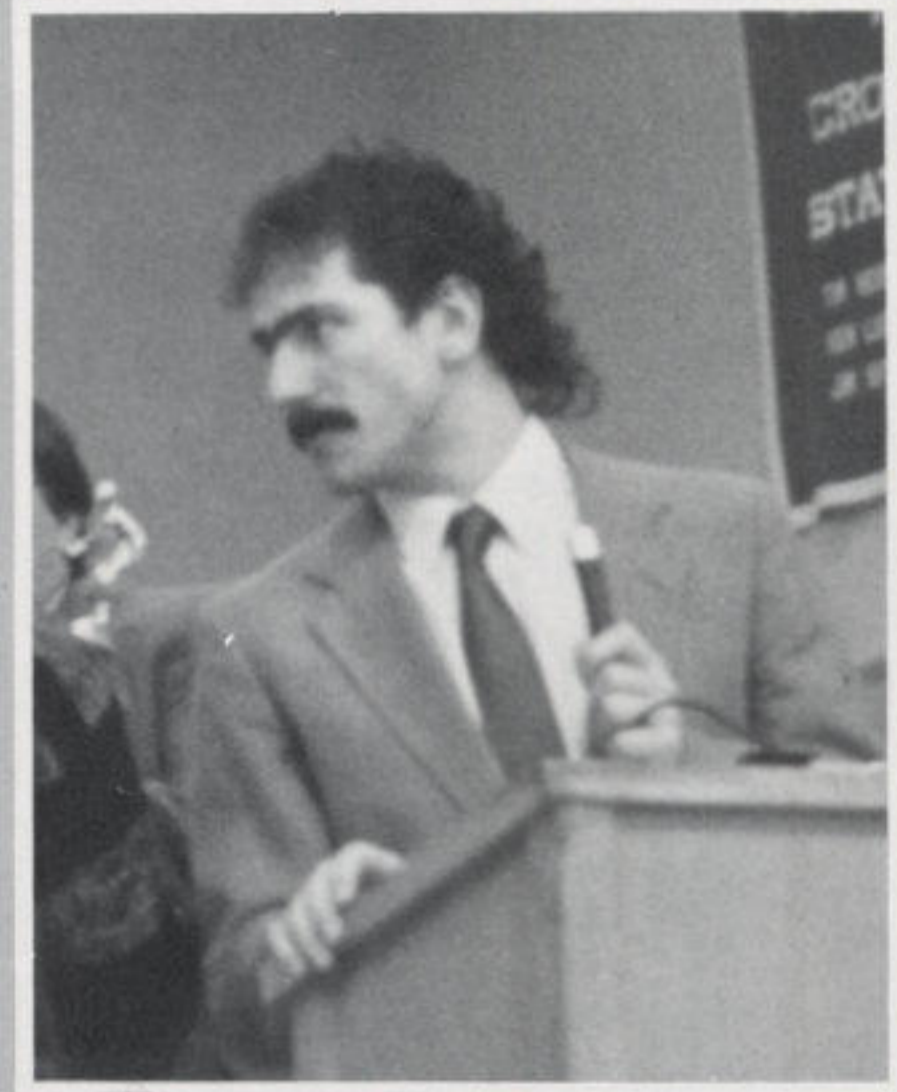

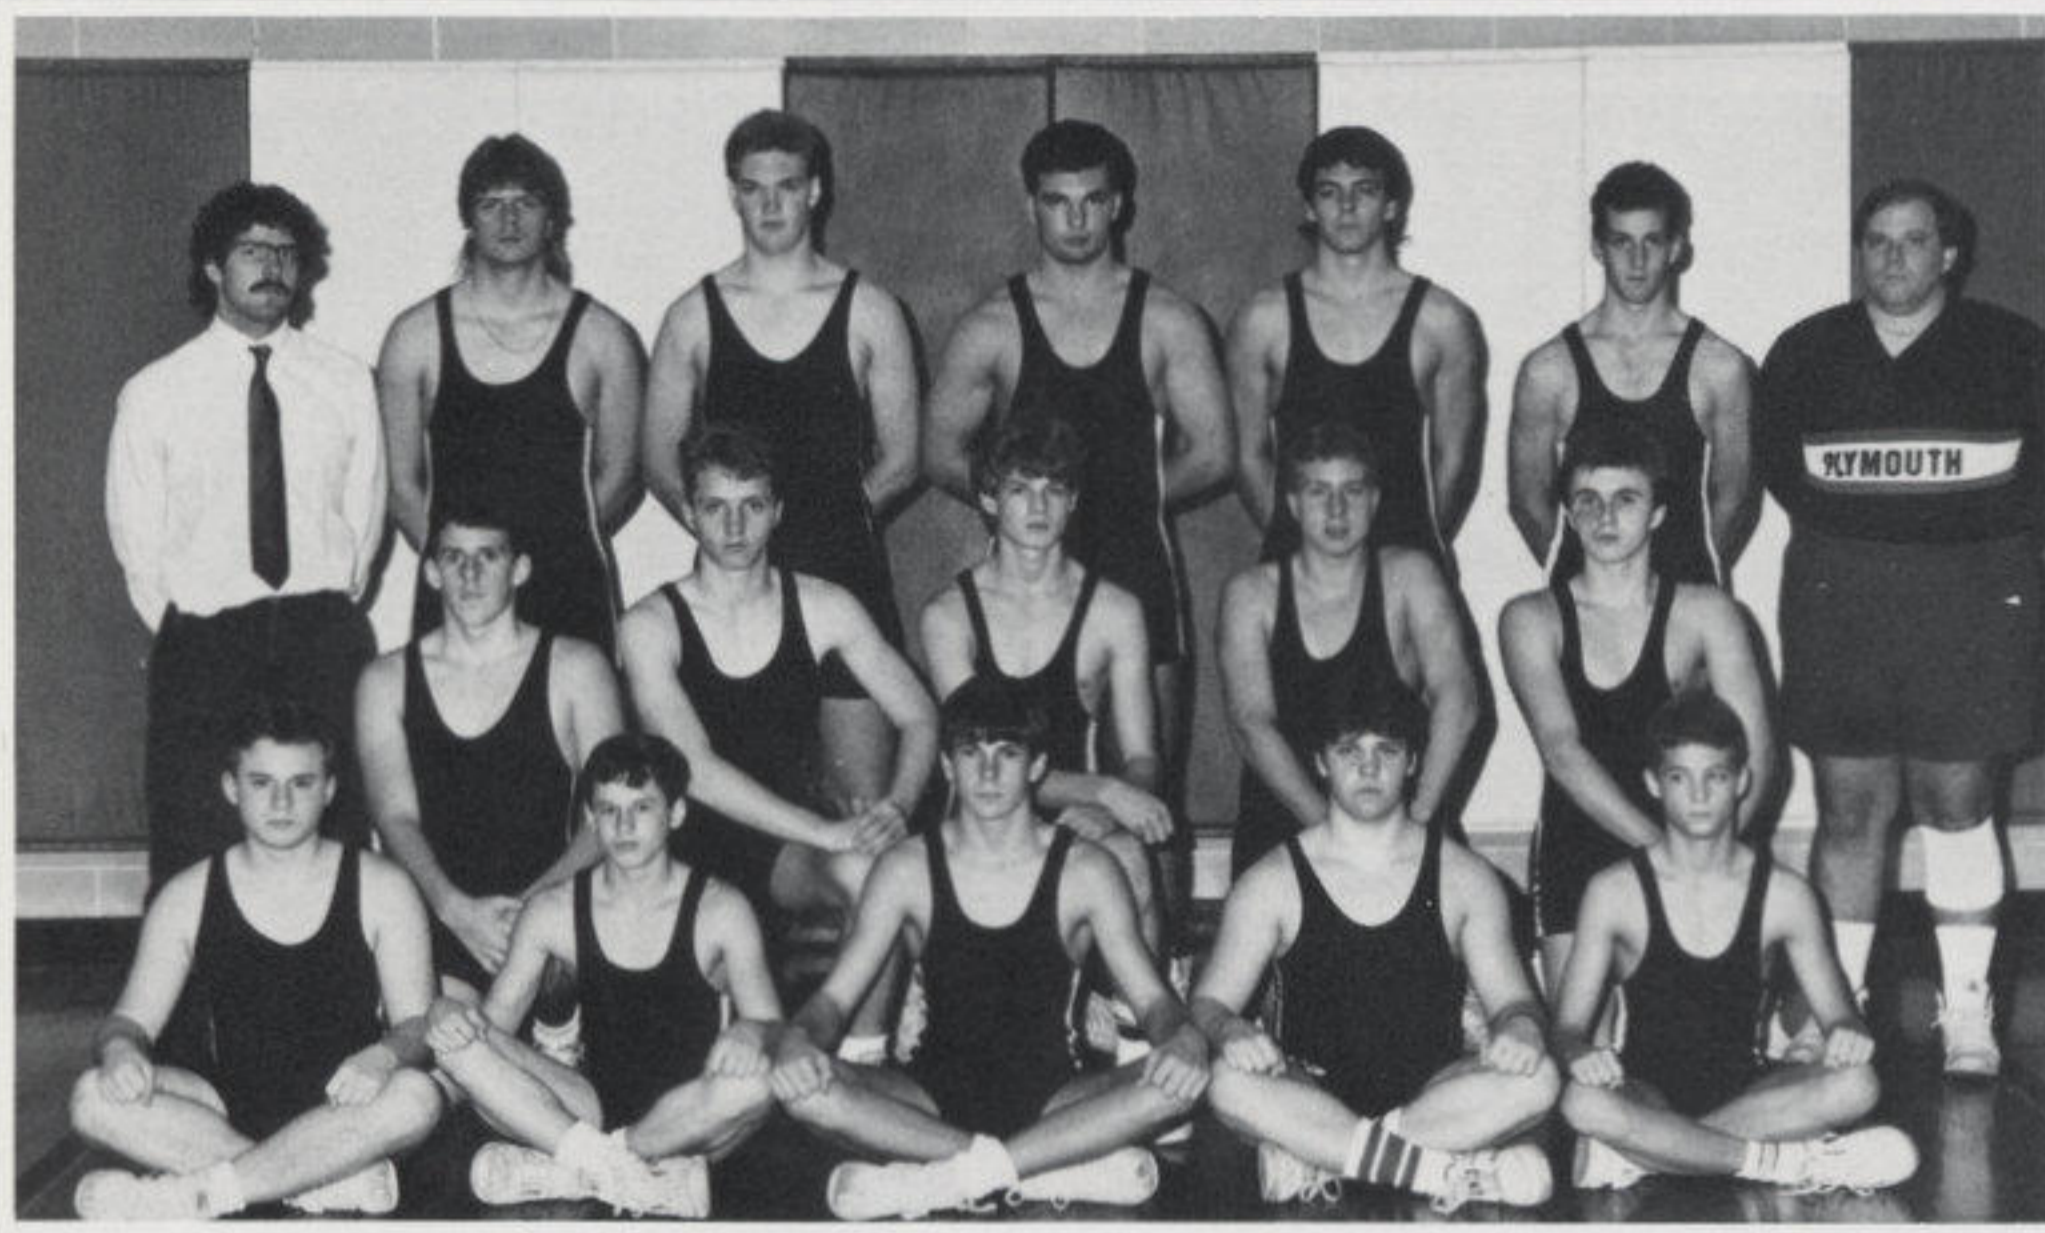

Freshman Student Advisor: Amy McClure

Spirit, Let's hear it! was the cry of Plymouth Cheerleaders this year as they cheered their teams on to victory. This year the varsity and reserve teams attended the NCA Cheerleading Camp and the varsity came home placing in the top five of all varsity squads attending along with all superior ribbons. The Reserve squad also brought home all excellent ribbons. A rock-a-thon was added to the schedule this year for a little excitement and as always the annual King Of Hearts dance. All in all the three squads had very busy seasons and had their hands full.

Team honors went to Steve Powers and Andy Bowman for Most Improved, and Brian Bowman for Most Valuable.

Laser was most improved over the year. Kathy Farner led the team in assists and was second in the conference. First year Coach Larry Kamann led the team to a 6-14 record. In the tournaments, they defeated Monroeville in their first game but lost to St. Paul in their second.

Krista Chaffins led the team in points scored with a total of 171. Jannie Madsen banged the boards for a team high of 95 rebounds. Leading Free-throw percentage went to Chris Ross.

Quoted Coach Maureen Hall, "The team's element for success was their drive and dedication to improve during the season. They all strived for a team concept whether they won or lost."

No special awards were given by coach Flarety but he left them with these words: "Your future in basketball depends on how much effort you put into practicing and what you want to accomplish, you all have the potential, so use it."

Tip top Tom Tackett!

With his first year as a Plymouth Coach, Brad Turson looked at the boys and said, "we can," and that is exactly what we did. With the J.V. team finishing (14-6) overall and (12-4) league record, they tied for first place in the Firlands Conference with Western Reserve.

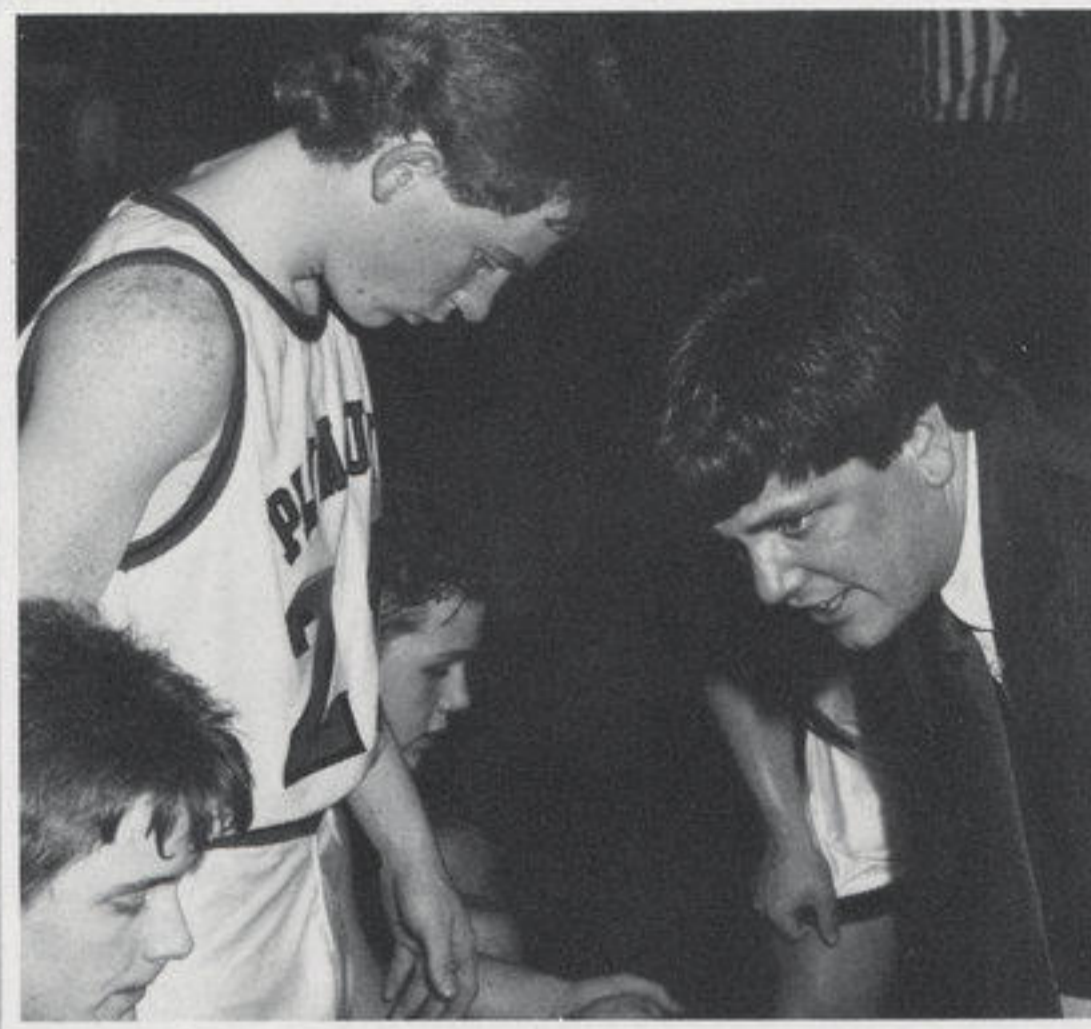

Such outstanding plays and players helped Plymouth to defeat Mansfield St. Peters, 43-41, for the first time ever.

Coach Turson feels that his team will form a winning varsity team and will help Plymouth show it's pride.

SHOOTING

Coach Dave Hirschy, Terry Branham, Tony Haymond, Brent Wagers

Flying high again!

An easy two.

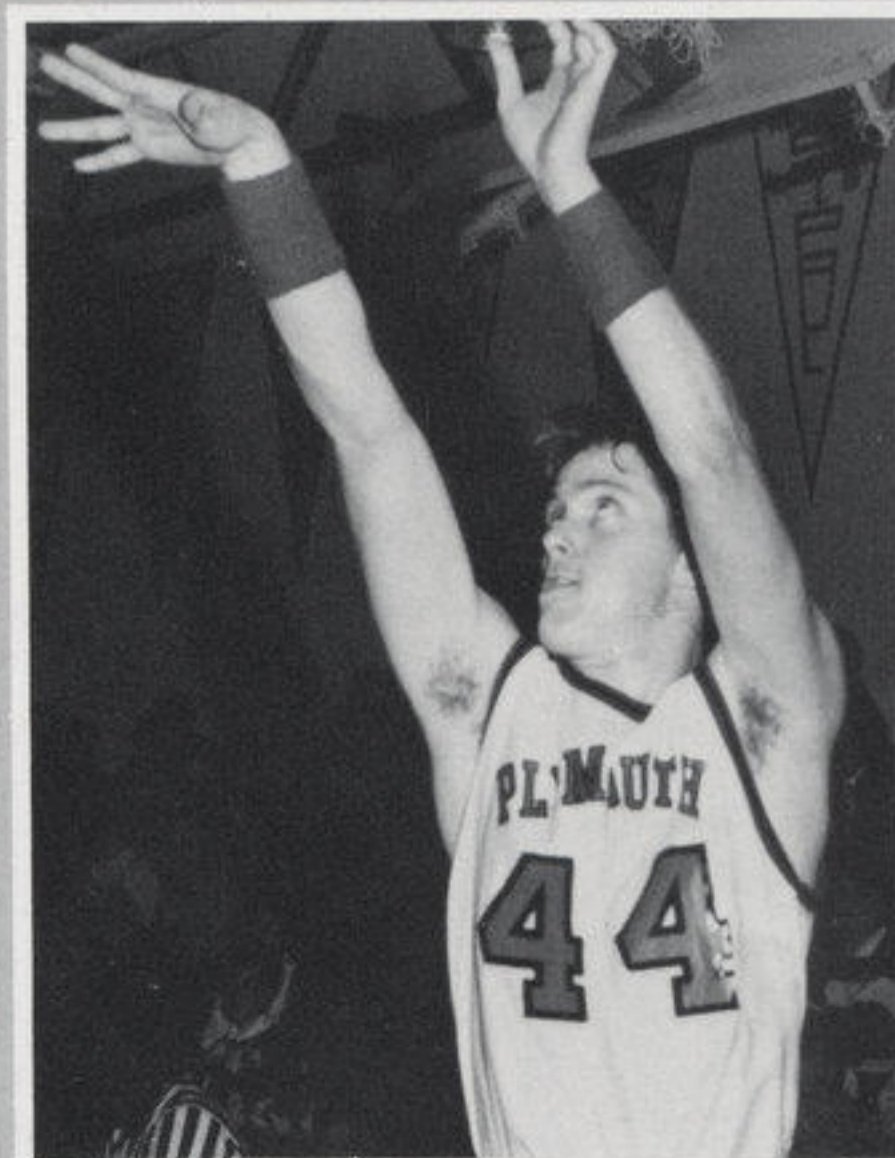

The buzzer rang and the audience cheered. The scoreboard showed Plymouth victorious 14 out of 22 games. With Coach Hirschy at the helm for only two years, he has led this team to another Firelands Conference top Three finish. The boys basketball team was in the title race from game one and didn't drop to third until their last game.

With the powerful three point range held by Jeff Bloomfield and Tony Haymond, this year's team overcame traditional powers such as St. Pete's and Colonel Crawford. Remember Bloomfield's last second shot from three-quarters of the floor against St. Pete? The team took the second place finish in the Holiday Tournament at Colonel Crawford.

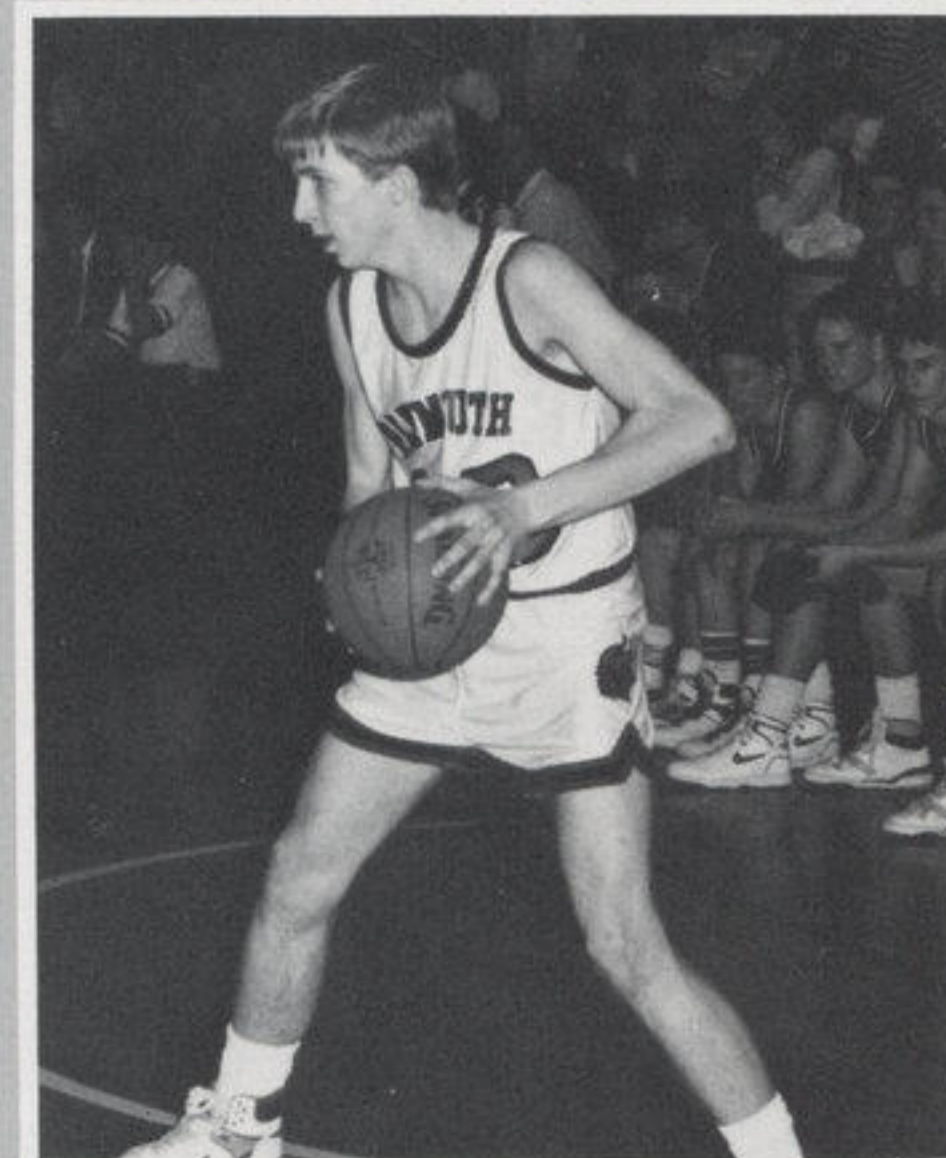

"The kids proved through hard work and determination that anything is possible," said Coach Hirschy. They proved to him that the word CAN'T should be excluded from the dictionary.

With such a motivated team, many awards were handed out. One was the MVP, which was given to Jeff Bloomfield and Tony Haymond. Most improved was given to Brent Wagers, who was also picked to play in the Firelands All-Star Game along with Jeff Bloomfield and Stacey Hall.

Two outstanding players earned four or more honors. Jeff Bloomfield was nominated to the News Journal North-South All-Star Game, Second Team District 6, and Honorable Mention Northwest District. The other was a junior, Tony Haymond, who was named Third Team Northwest District, First Team District 6, and First Team News Journal Area.

Even though the girl's softball team ended up with a record of 12-8, they showed much more over-all talent than they appeared. Many of their losses were by a slim margin and came at the seventh inning.

Amy Laser received the MVP award and Rachel Hill won the Sportsmanship award. Coach Roll says the team shows promise for next year and hopes they can have a winning season.

Under the direction of Mrs. Susie Roberts, the P.H.S. Choir has become a talented and active group. Officers for the Choir are President: Rhonda Neeley, Vice-President: Duane Adams, Publicity Committee: April Clark, Elizabeth Vittel, and Tracy Clagg.

Several performances were given during the year. The fall concert, held on Oct. 27, was called "Harmony." At Christmas time, they presented the musical "Home For The Holidays," and sang at the Ohio State Capital Building. On April fifth, they performed a combined benefit concert with the Madison High School Choir to raise money for the Richland County Child Abuse Center. They also sang for the 1989 Graduation ceremonies and the annual Music Awards Banquet.

This was the first year for the new show choir called "The New Tradition." Members were chosen from the full choir by audition.

Some memorable highlights of the year include participating in the OMEA District Ten Choir Competition at Malabar High School and receiving a (II) Excellent rating. Fifteen students participated in the OMEA Solo and Ensemble contest at Mansfield Sr. High School. Superior ratings were received by Amy McClure, Andy Steinmetz, Jack Winans, Tracy Clagg, and Elizabeth Vittel. Eleven members participated in the Richland County All-County Honors Choir, and three members were chosen to sing in the All-Ohio State Fair Choir for the summer of '89. They are Amy McClure, Andy Steinmetz, and John Beverly.

Several students received special recognition for their achievements. Amy McClure received the National School Choral Award, and Andy Steinmetz received the Top Choir Award. Four Year Choir Awards went to Jenny Young, Mia Oksala, and Rhonda Neeley.

Mrs. Roberts comments that the choir has worked extremely hard and as a result has accomplished great things. She stated, "This is an organization everyone should take a great deal of pride in. They represent their school and themselves to the highest degree of excellence."

The Director, Mrs. Lisa Hutton, who was very pleased with the performances said "Most of the cast had never been in a play and they said what fun they had!" She hopes that in the future the community will support the theater activities and attend performances. A special thanks goes out to the stage managers Carrie Hicks and Leanne Keenan, assistant director Mrs. Kerrie Barclay, and of course Mr. Jerry Bishop for supplying the fireworks.

Eighty-three Seniors graduated on Friday, June 2, 1989, during the Commencement exercise.

The High School Band played the Processional "Pomp and Circumstance" and the Recessional "Fanfare and Recessional." The Choir sang "One Moment in Time", and Jenny Young sang the Alma Mater.

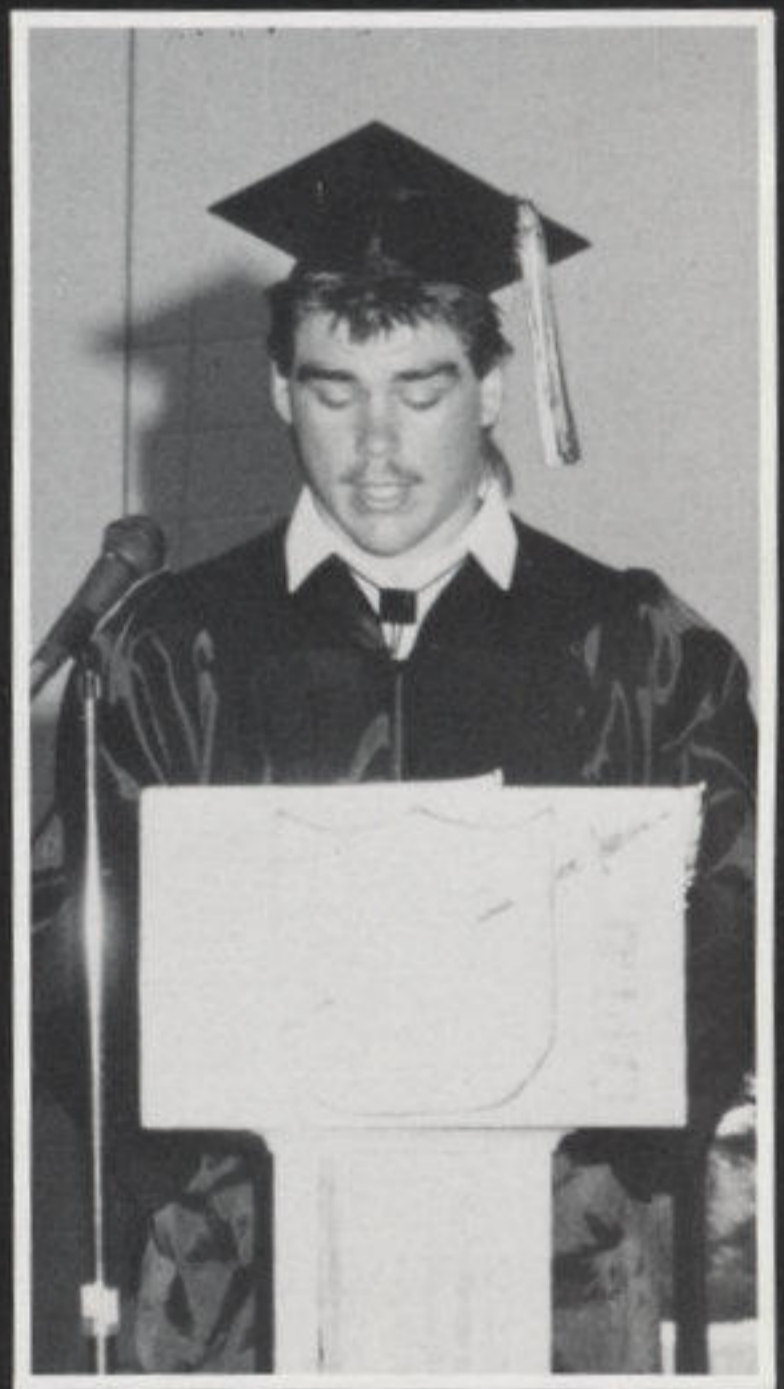

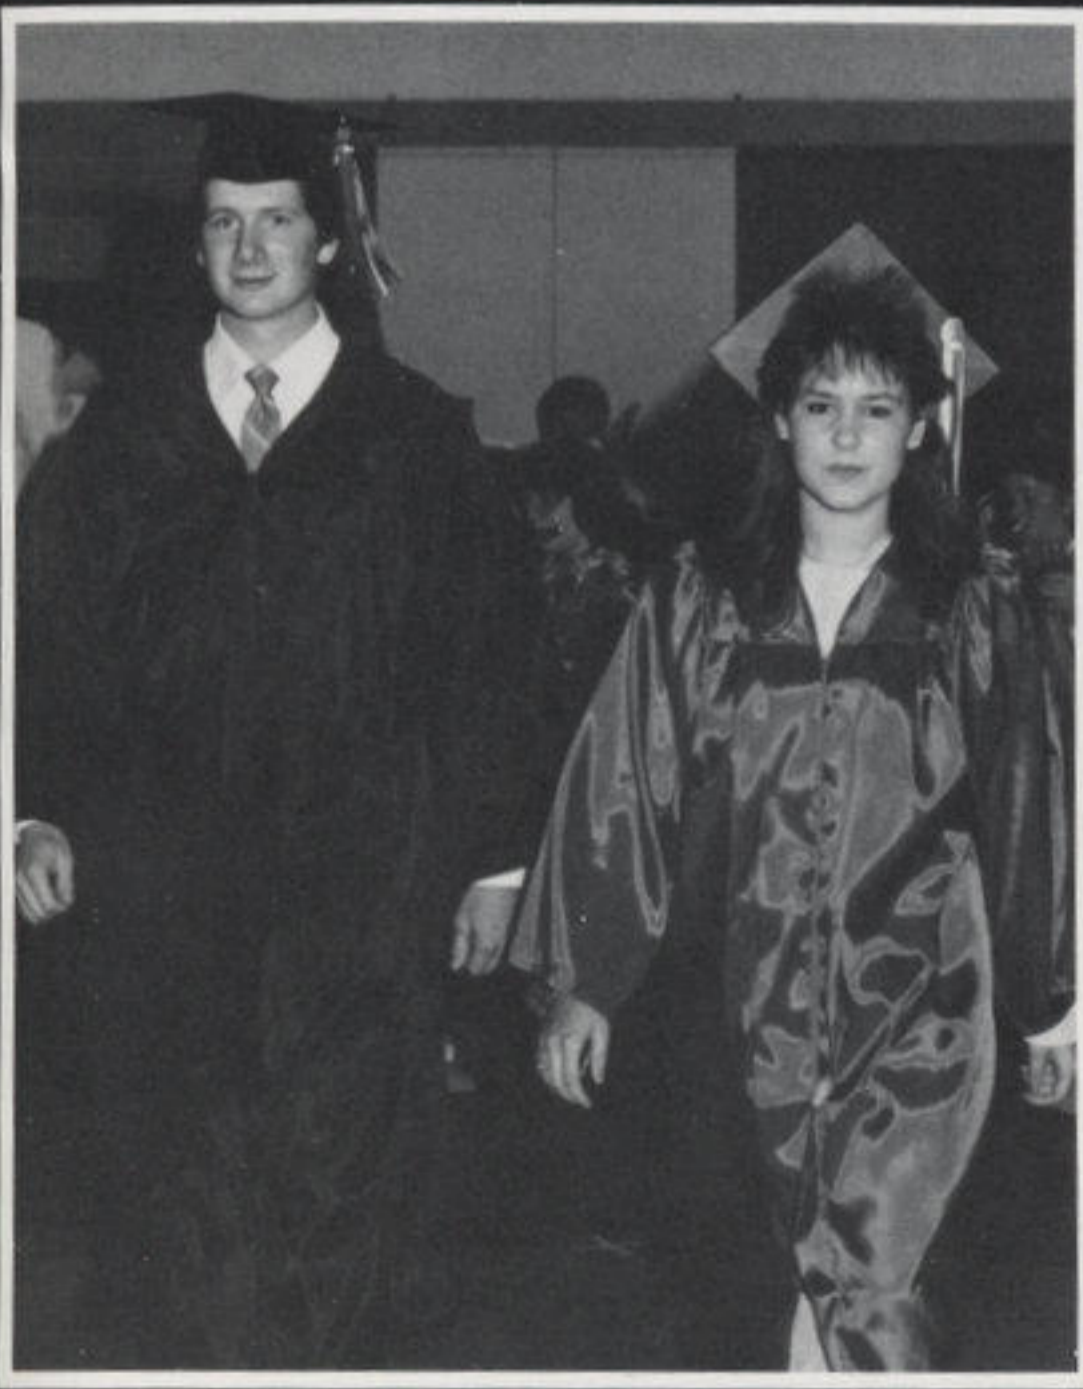

Rev. Rodger Moyer gave the Baccalaureate Address and the Benediction. Mr. Edward Kinsel, previous Shiloh Principal gave the Commencement Address.

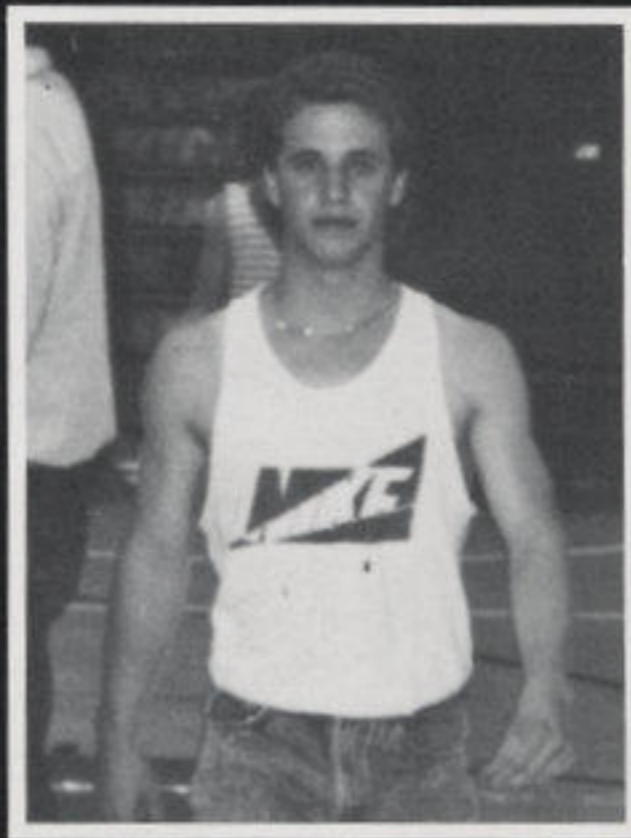

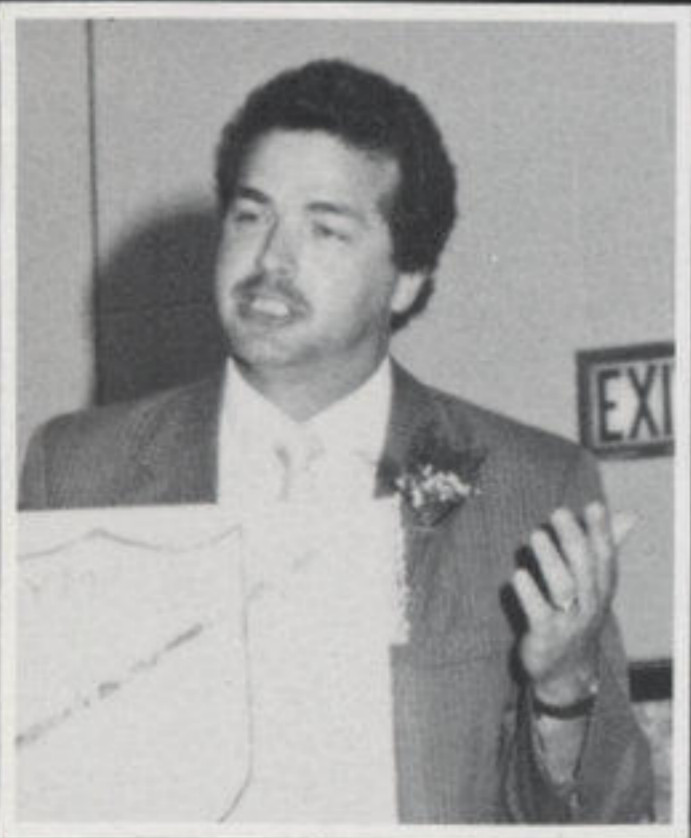

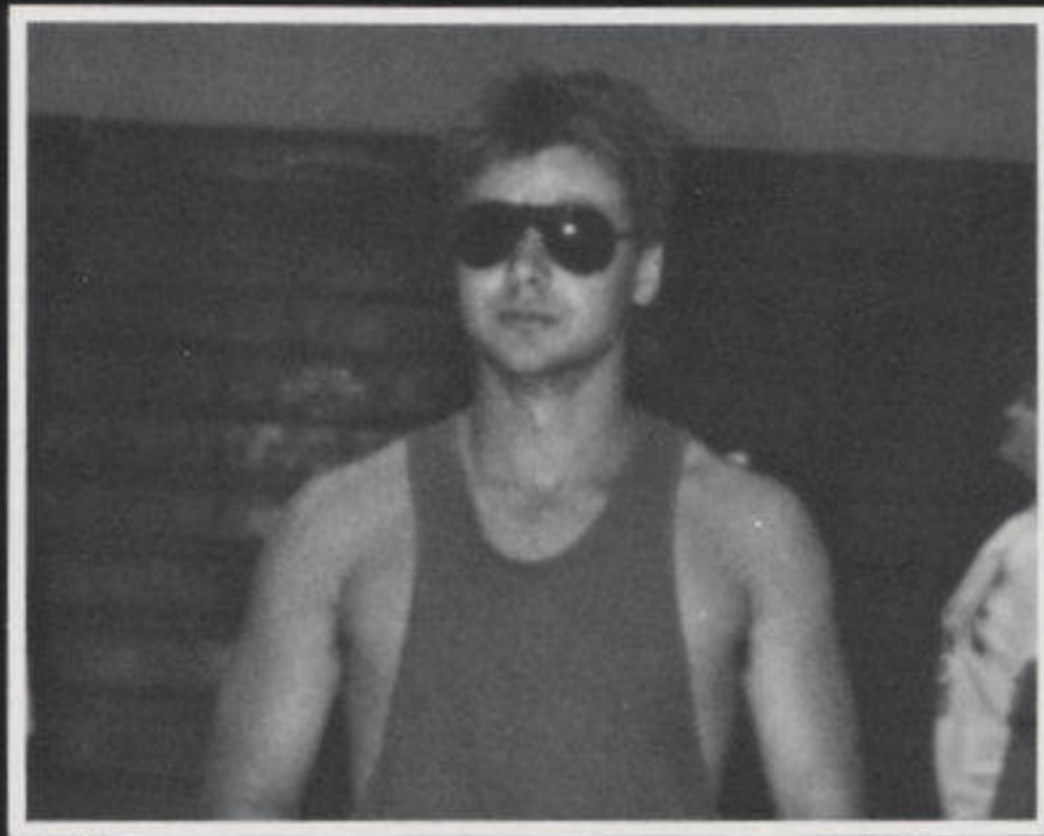

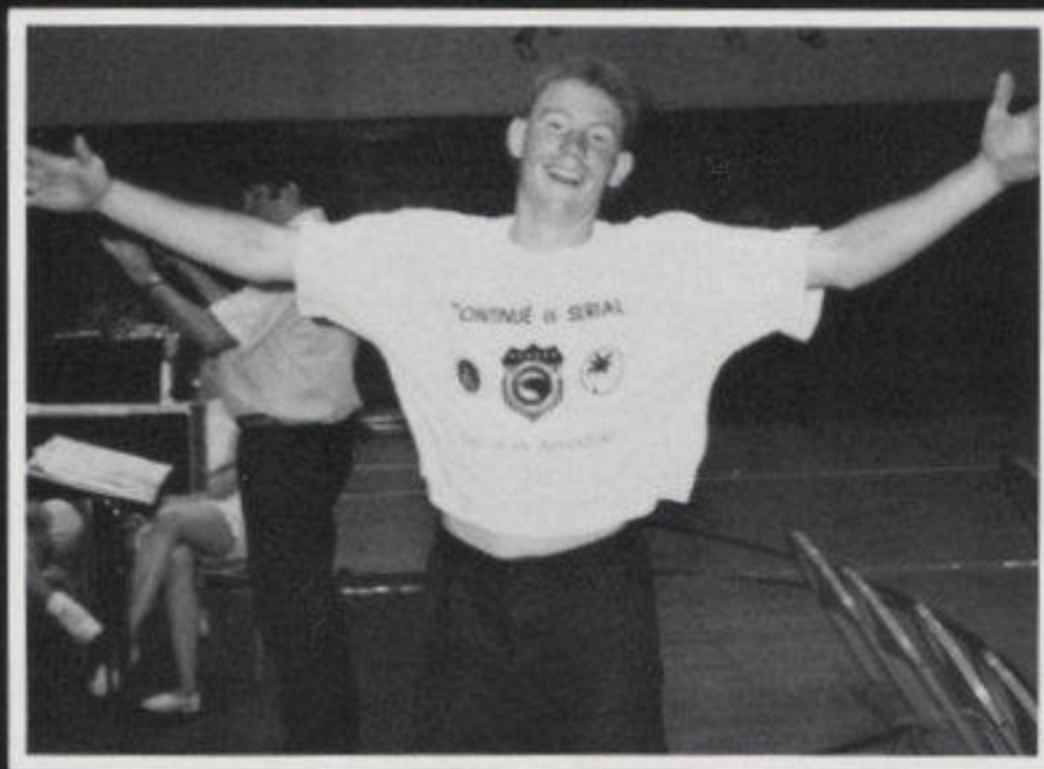

As a token of appreciation, the Senior Class presented Mrs. Edna Albright with a plaque.

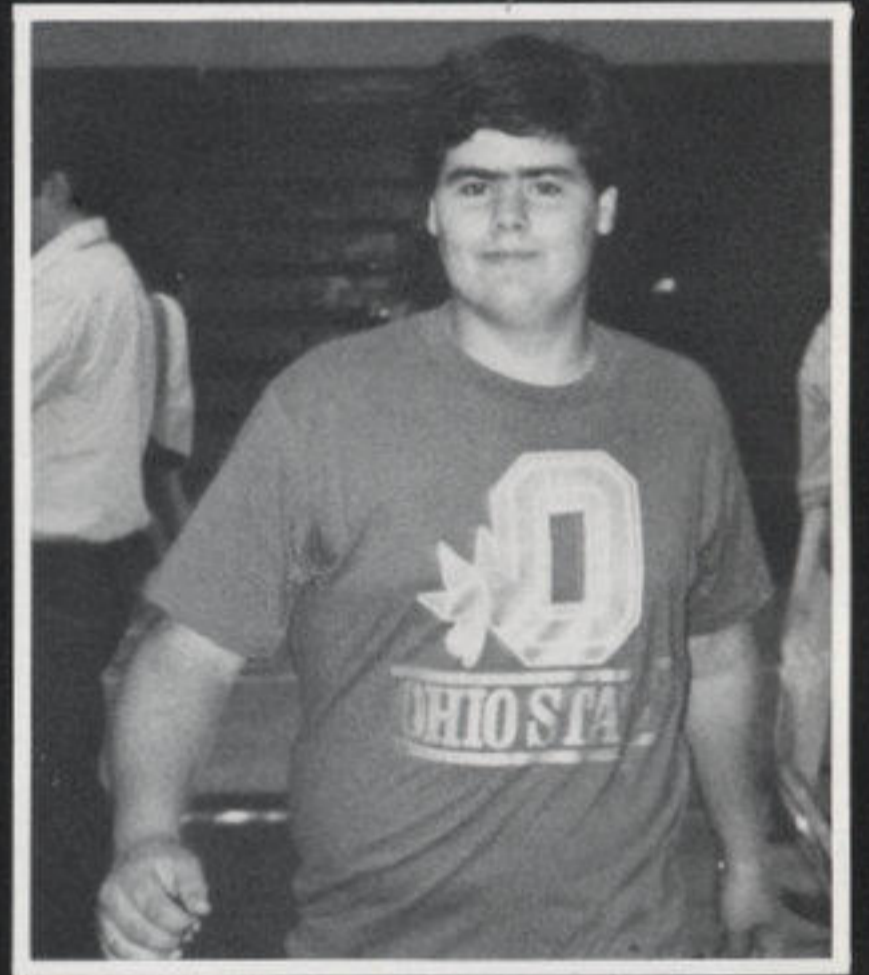

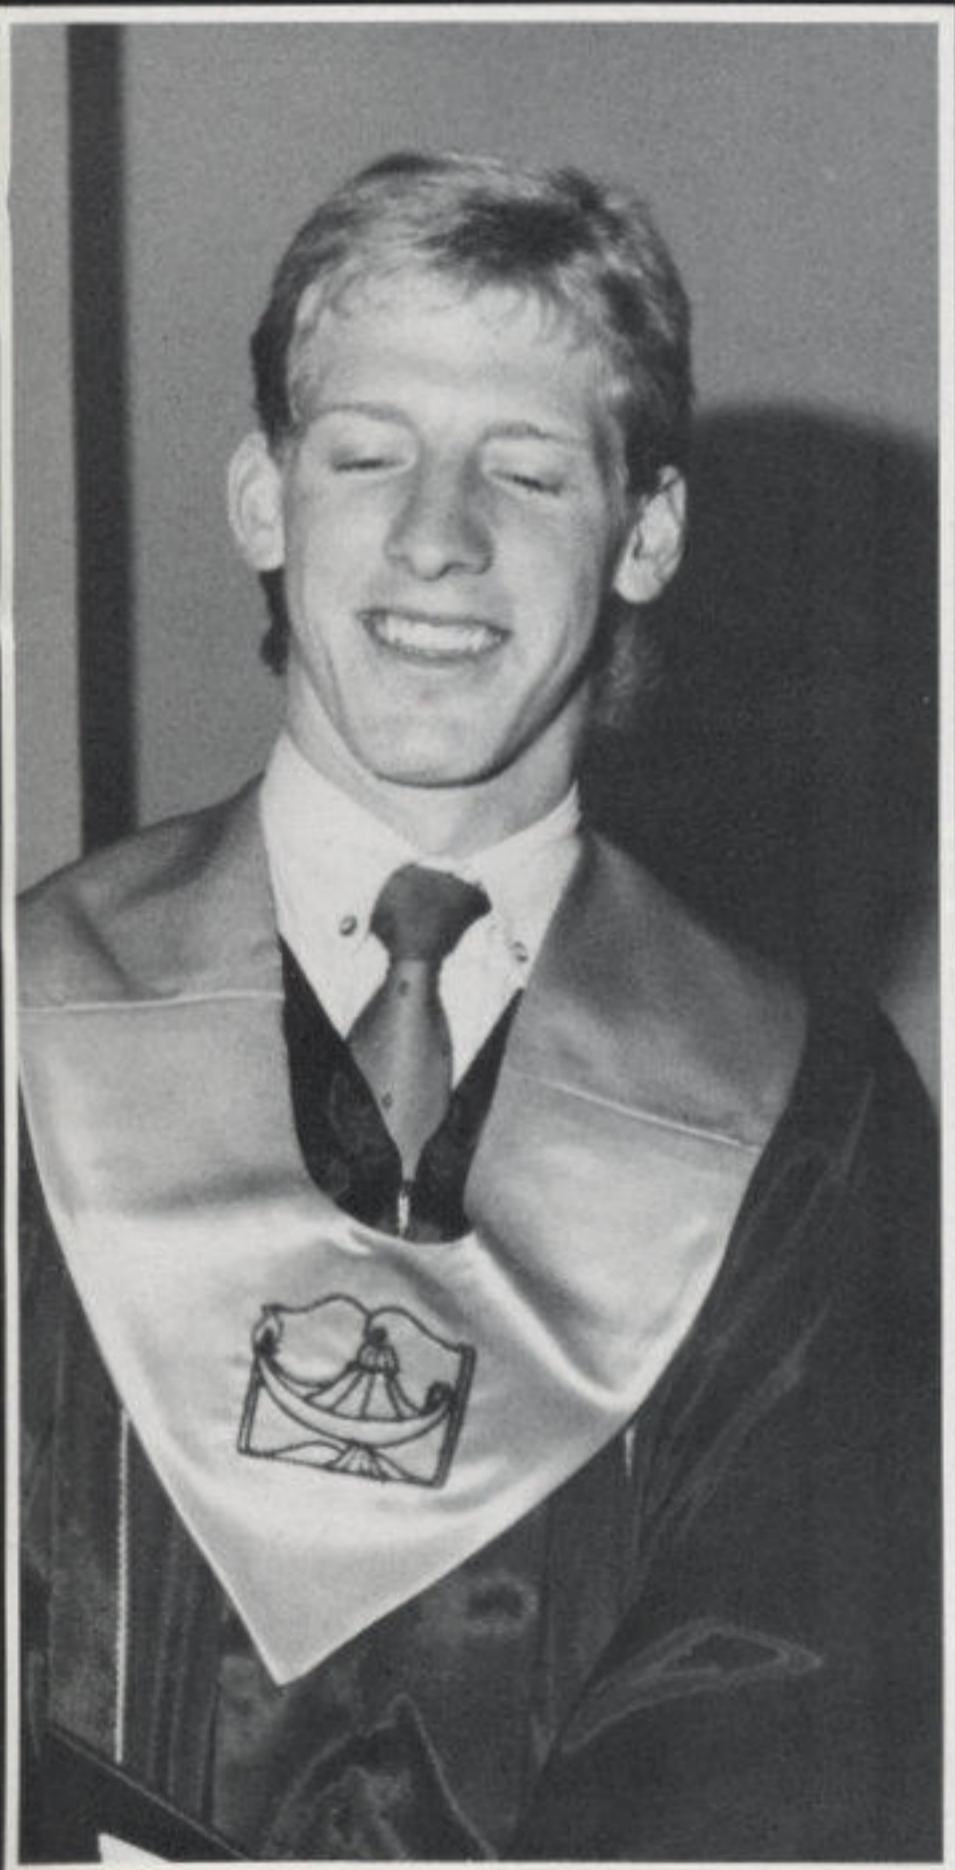

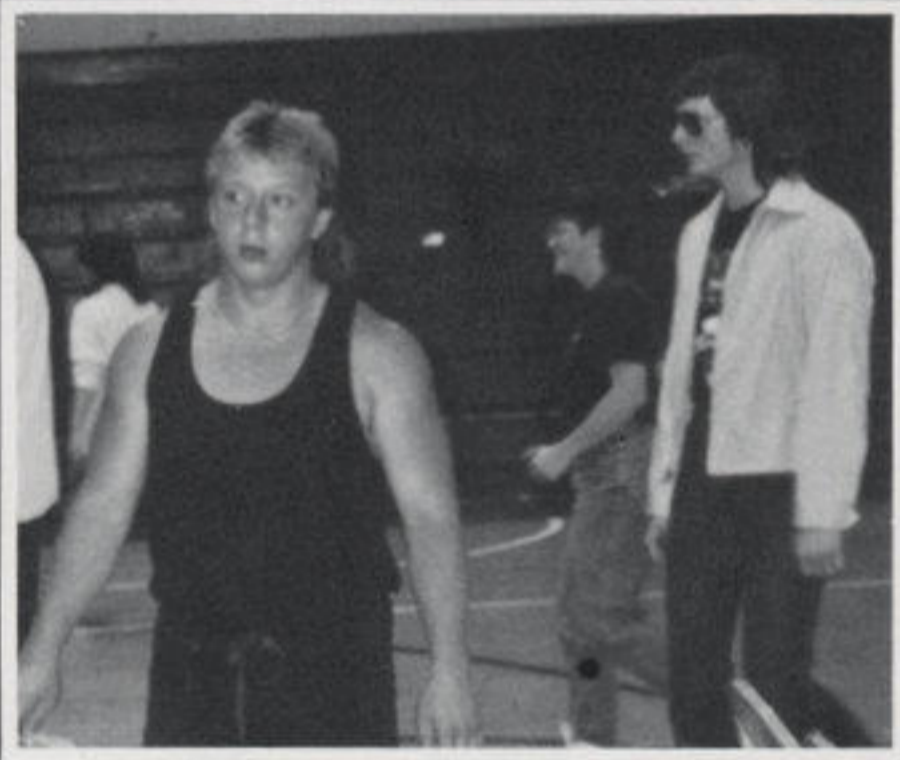

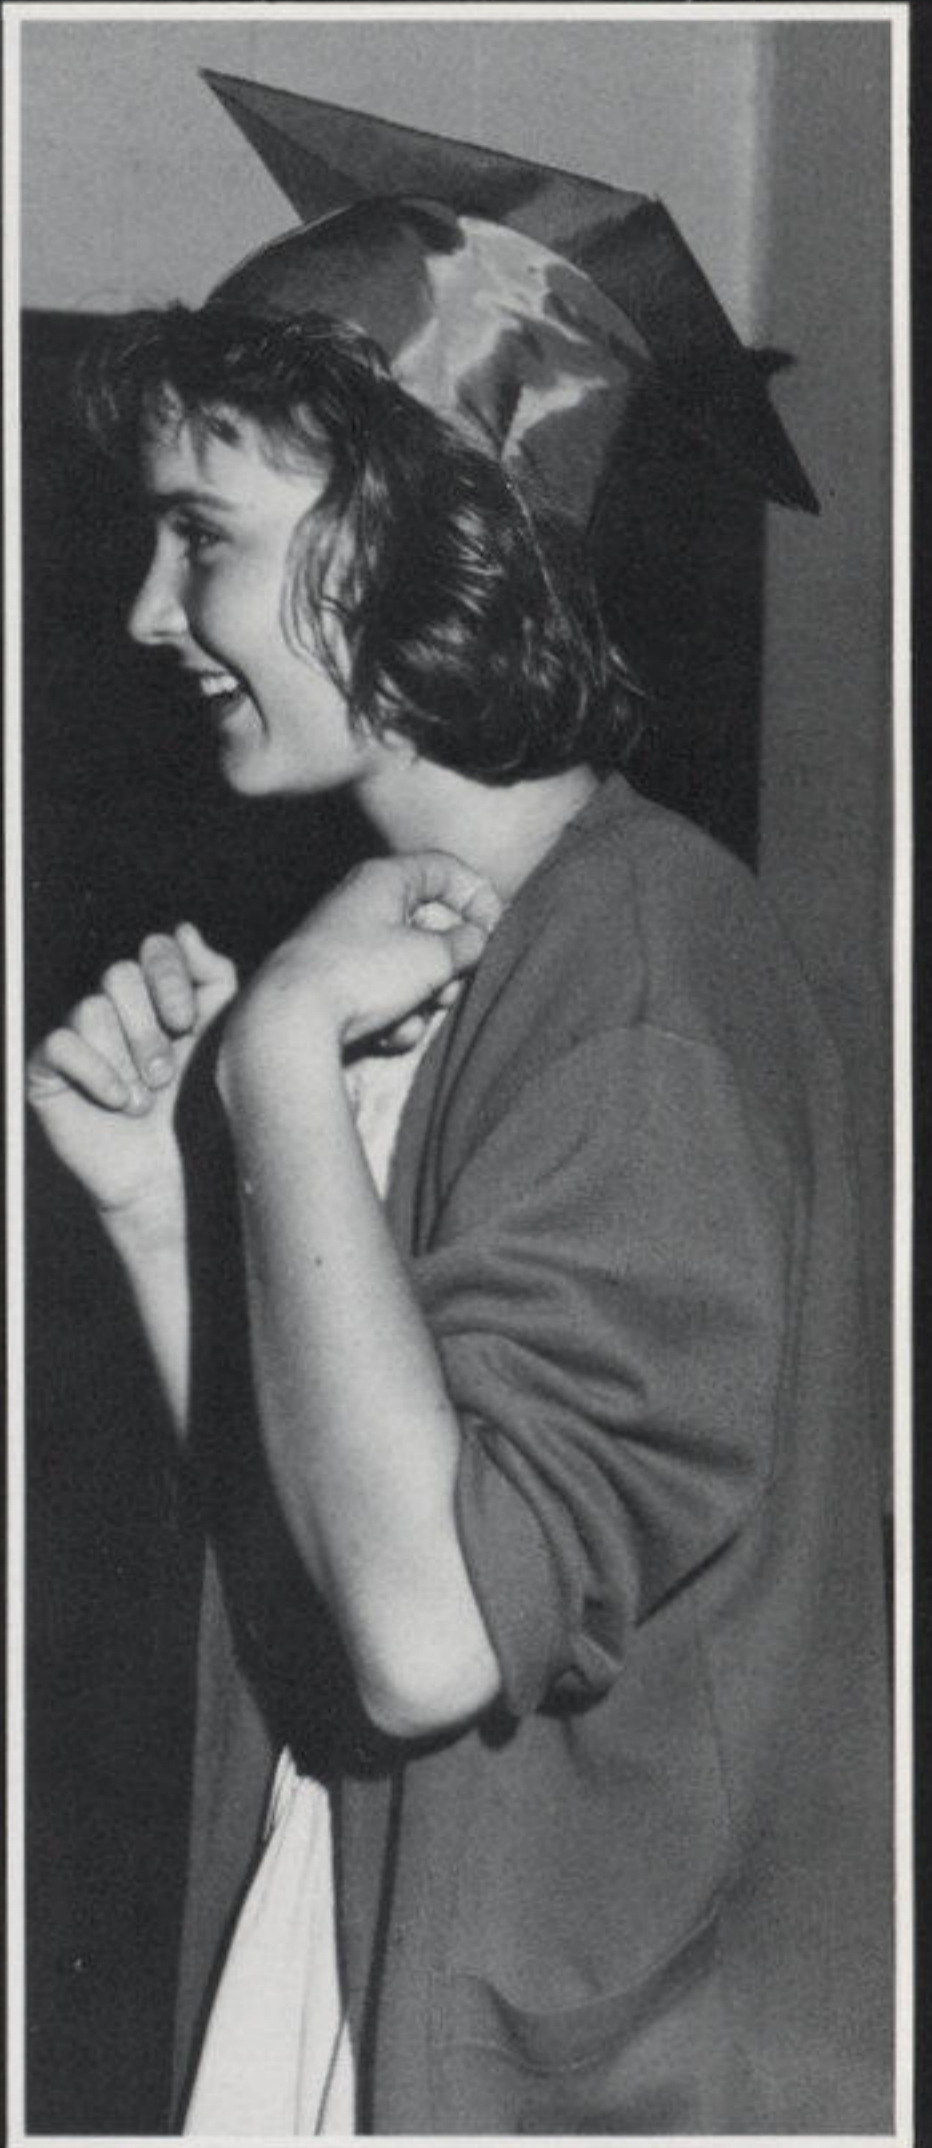

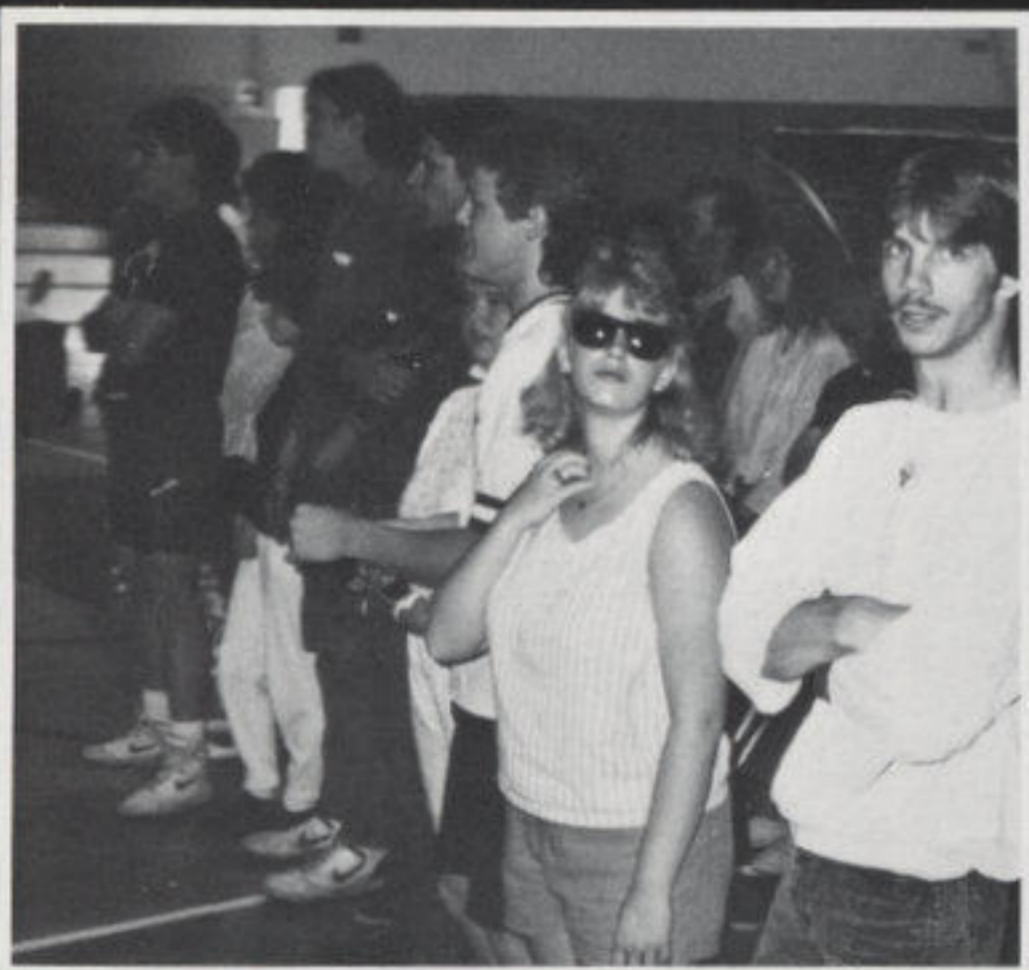

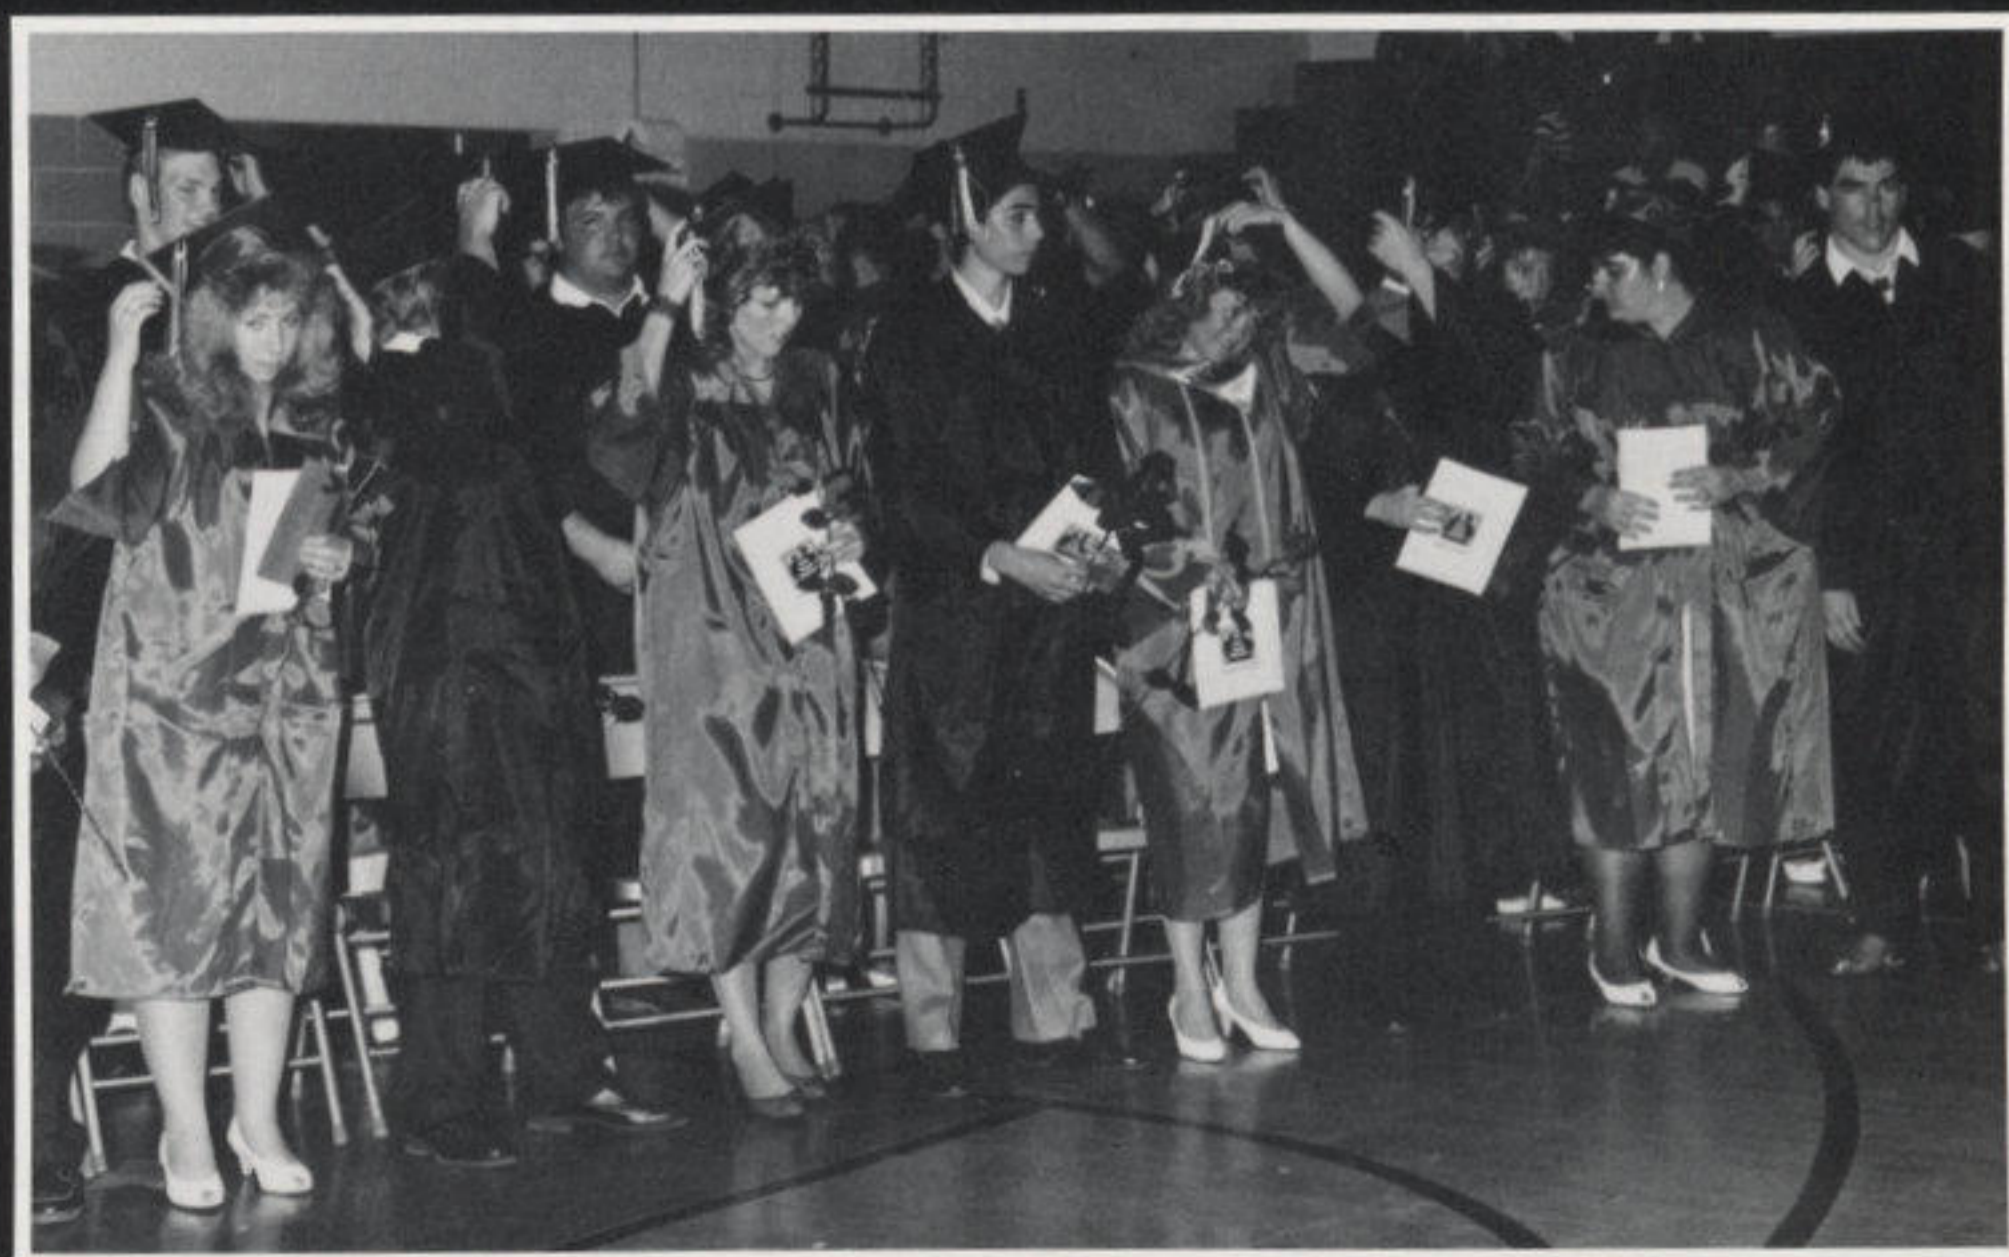

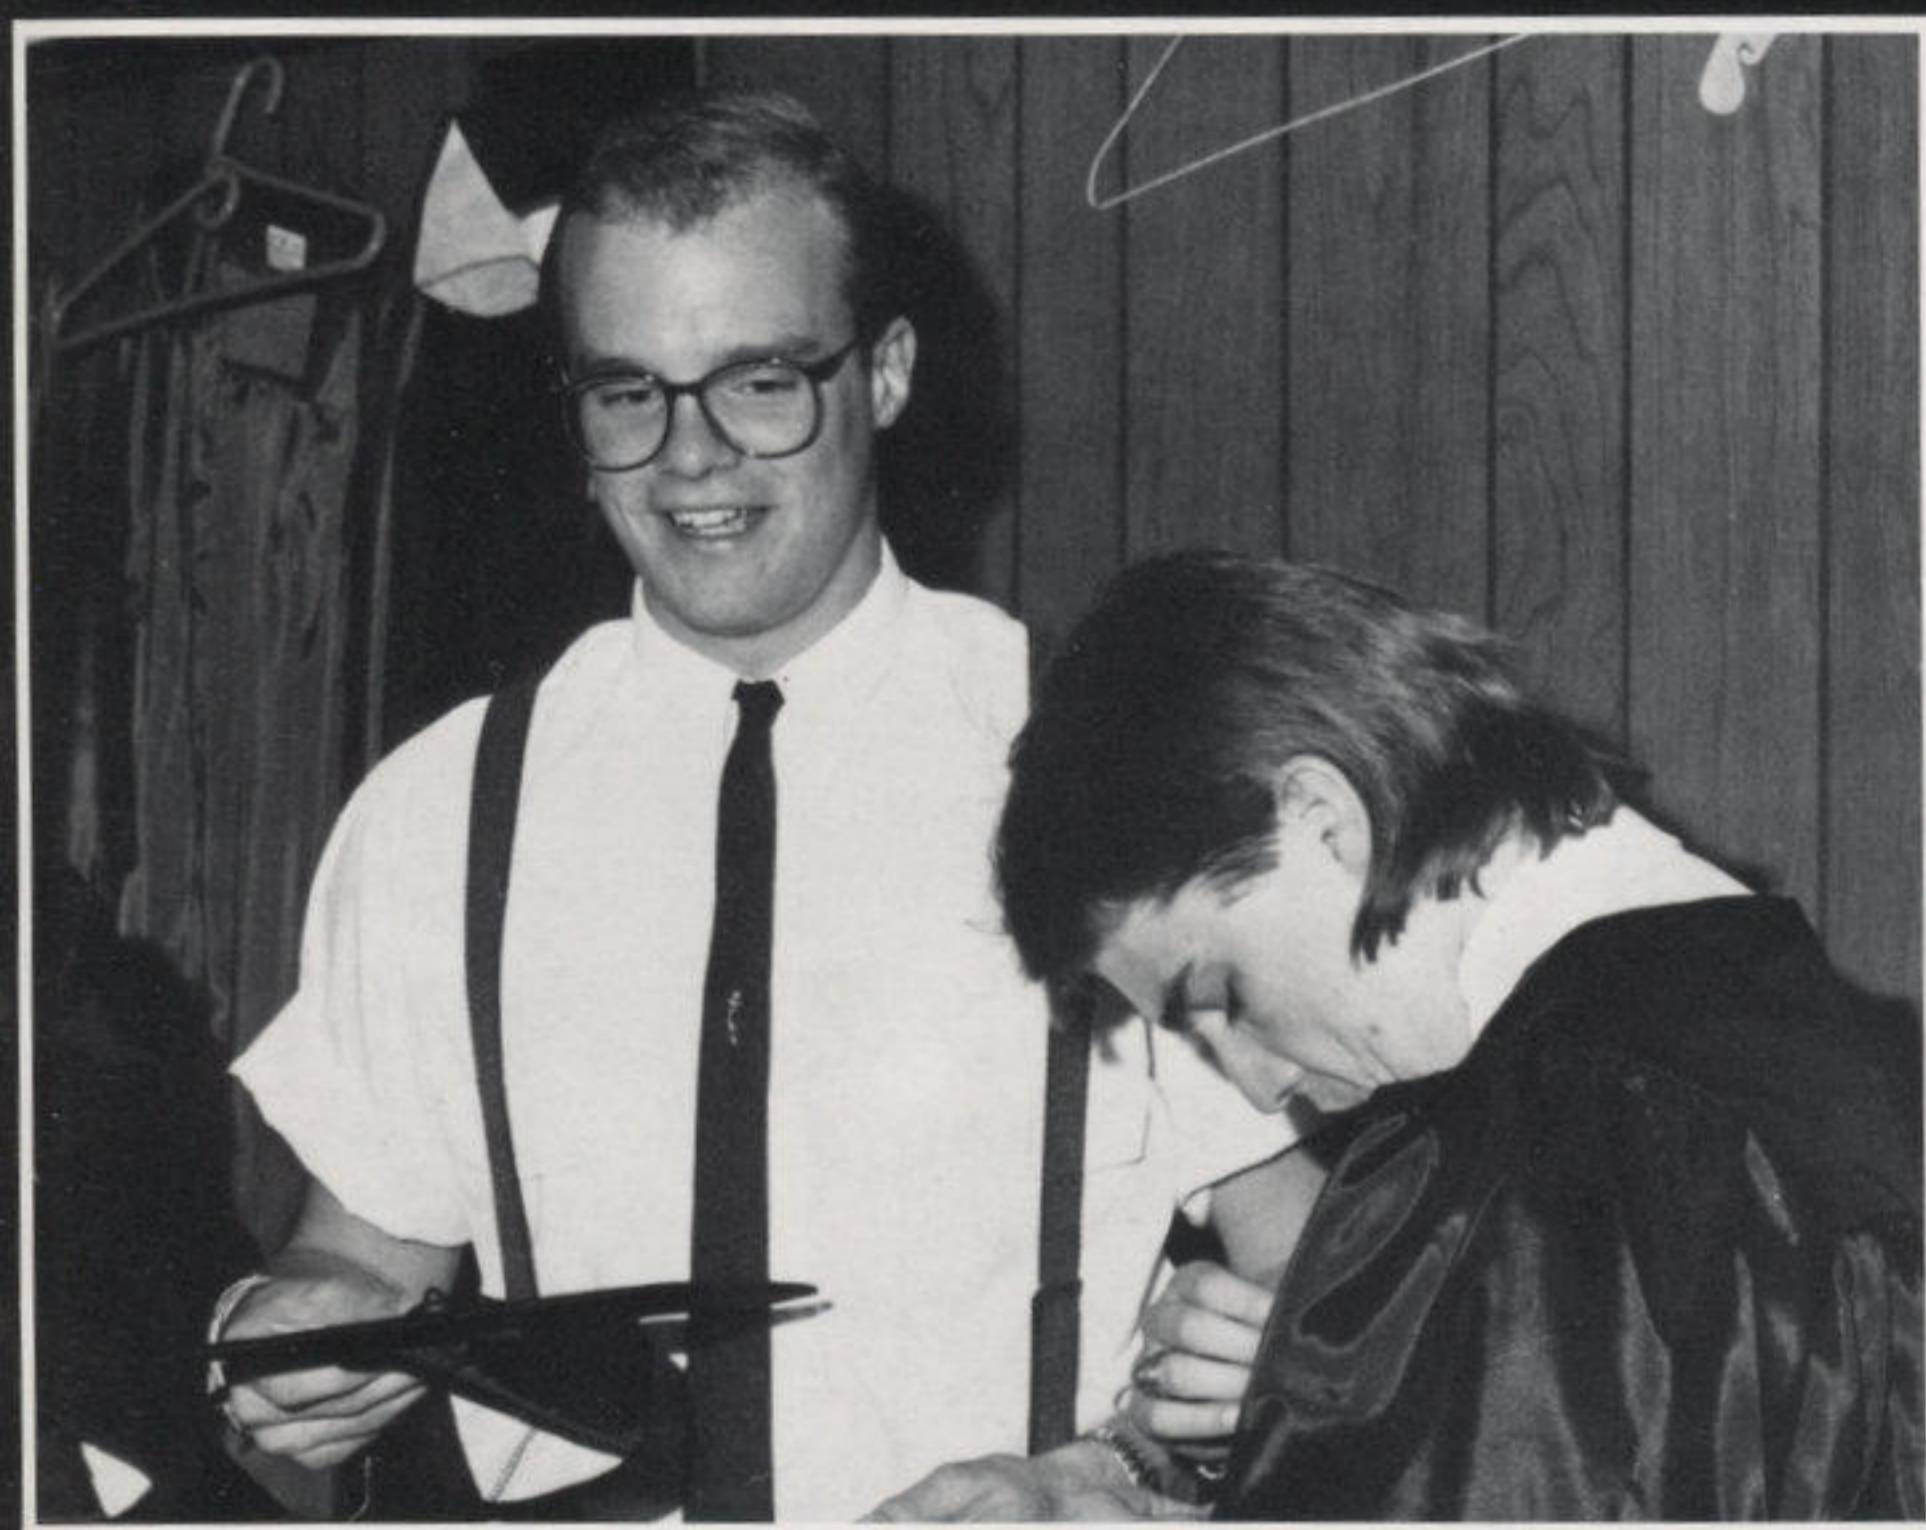

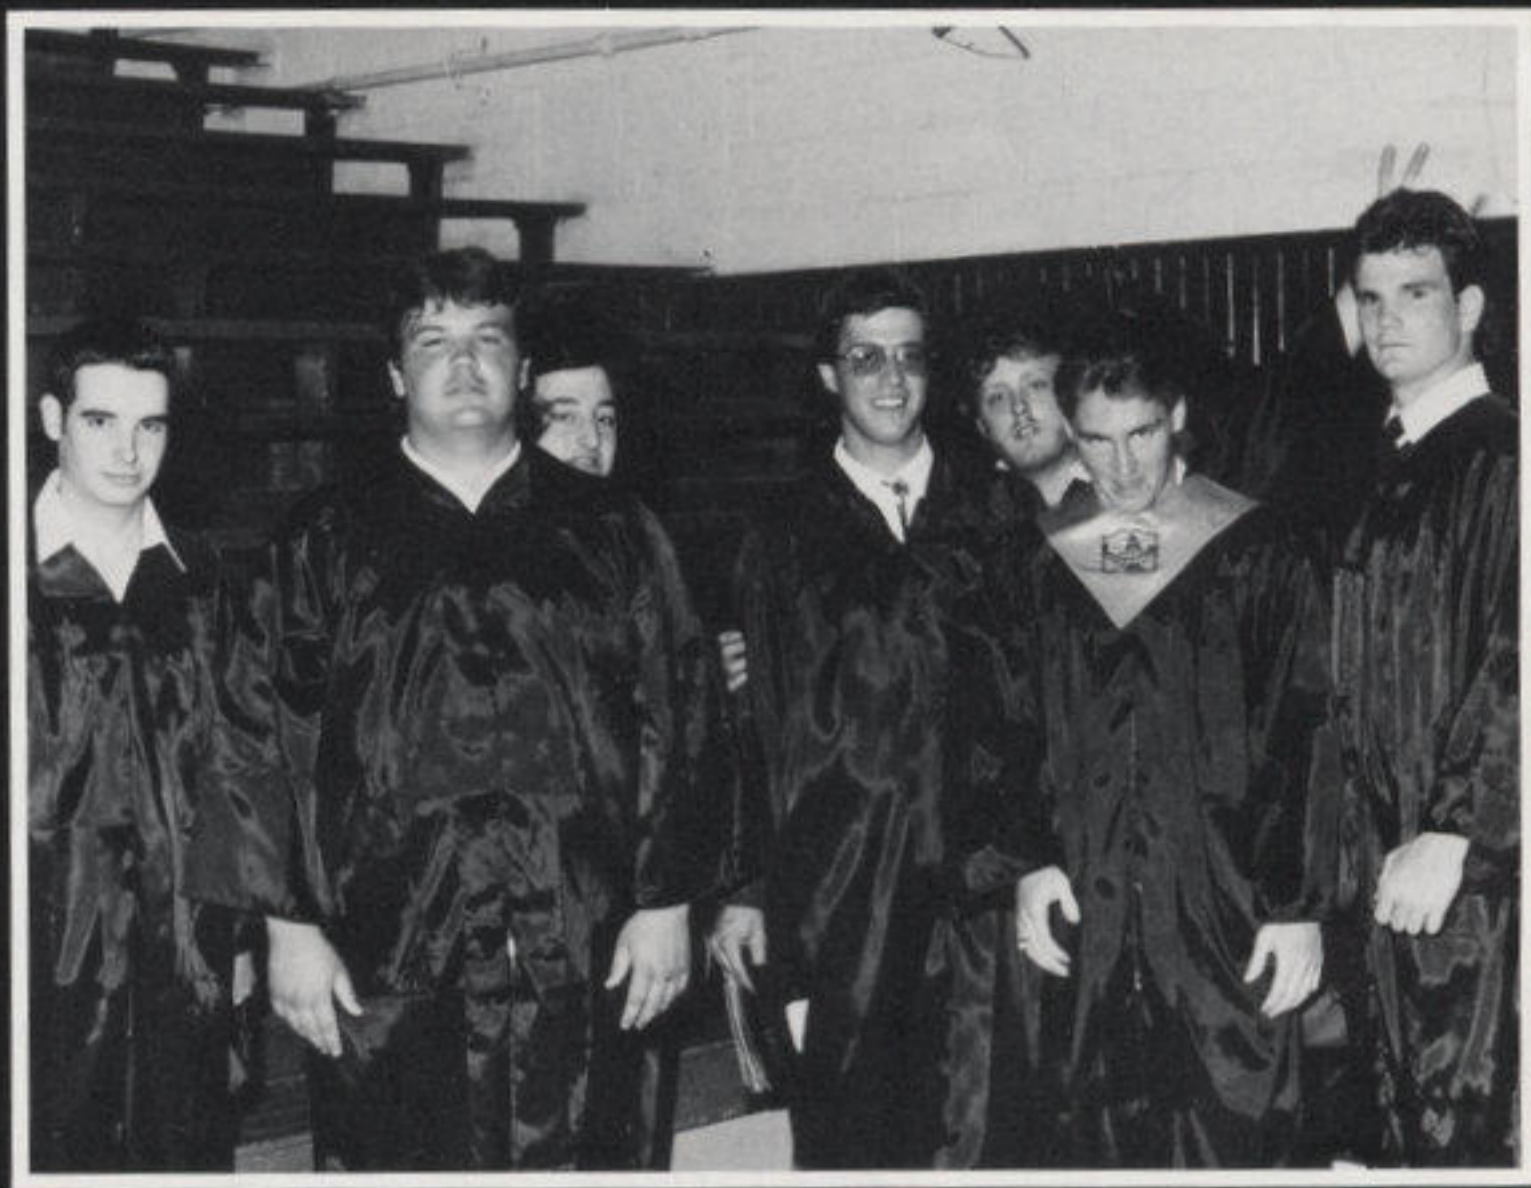

The Class of 1989 remembers our fellow classmates Lori Caudill (1970-1981) and Peggy Osborne (1971-1987) who would have graduated this year. Their memory will always shine in our hearts.
