WINTER LANS

ORGANIZATIONS

DRAWING IS MORE THAN A HOBBY

Front row: Angie Longden, Teresa Strine, Starr Kilgore, Chris McClintock, Charity Stein, Cory Archer, Isabelle Piroolley, Mrs. Linda Buurma. Second row: Andy Fry, Jim Dubois, Jen Rondy, Christy Wagers, Greg Mongold, Amy Archer, Shona Slone. Third row: John Armstrong, Keith Boyer, Andrea Rettig, Kelly Rath, Kelly Pratt, Wendy Bistline.

The Art Club did a variety of projects during the year. At Christmas they painted the downtown store windows. They also painted slate music boxes and sold them for their selling project. They decorated the large bulletin board in the library for Mrs. Hart and were also busy making posters for various groups all year long.

Katie and Isabelle painted the window at Nancy's Beauty Salon.

Charity and Jamie show their artistic ability painting the window at Seel's Auto Shop.

WE DID IT ALL OURSELVES!!

Only two senior girls, as well as senior rookie Rick Reeder (who was also the only boy), were on the Yearbook staff this year. The rest were all freshmen. However, they all did a great job in putting the Yearbook together and meeting deadlines. Mrs. Buurma, Advisor, appreciates all their hard work and hopes the end result will be worth it.

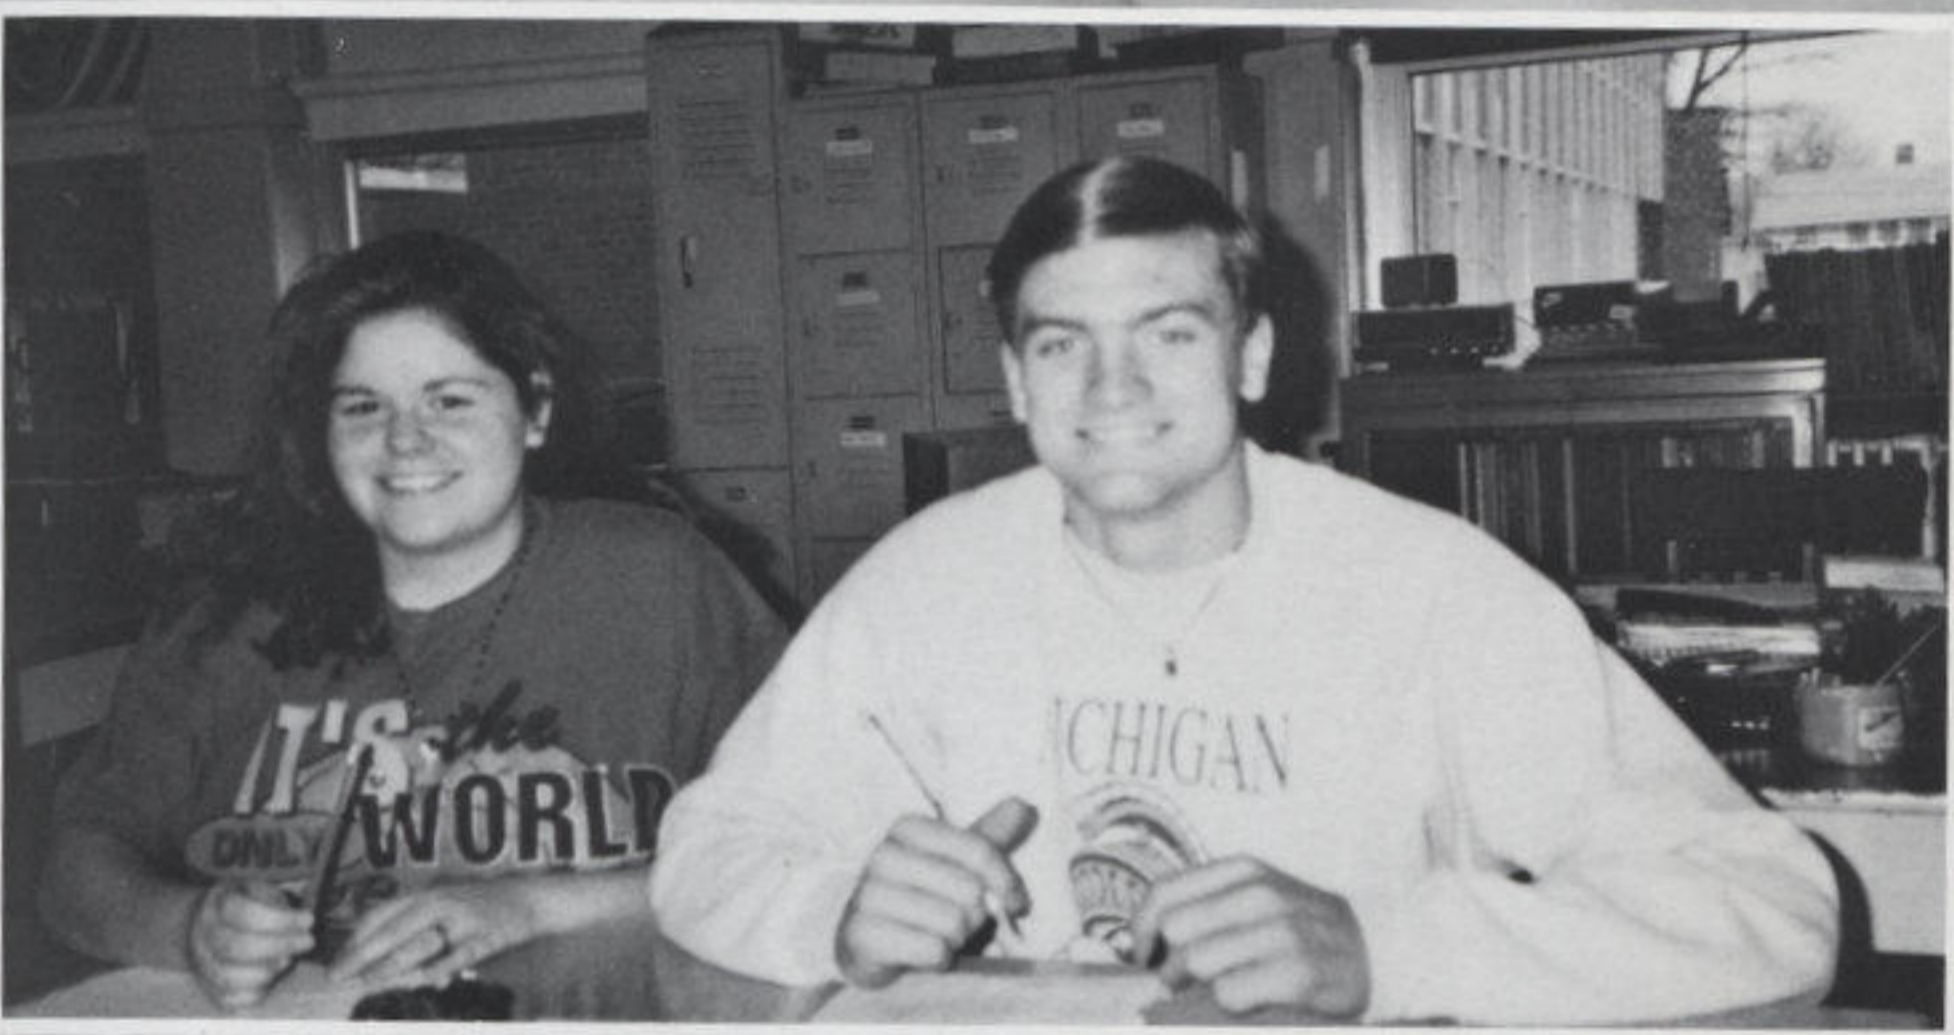

Front: Mandy Roberts, Andrea Rettig, Ricky Reeder, Holly Stephens (non-participant), Charity Stein. Back: Carrie Powers, Amber Dye, Starr Kilgore, Tara Dalton, Briana Gasparac, Jenny Dickson, Amy Archer (non-participant).

SUCCESSFUL FIRST YEAR FOR INTRAMURALS

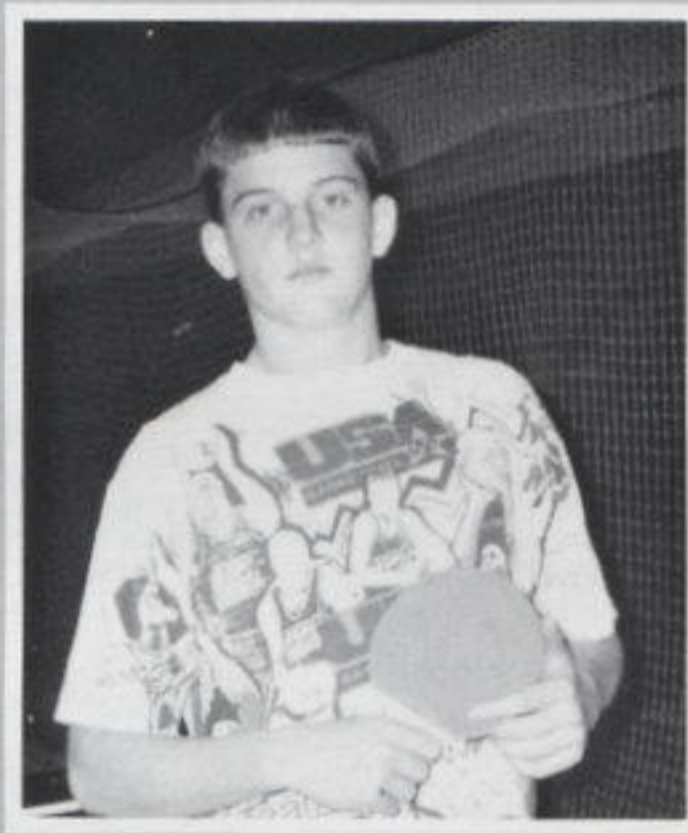

Coach Cullen held an exciting Intramural program during the three lunch periods involving any students who wished to participate. Tournaments were held in volleyball, soccer, ping-pong, whiffleball, and basketball. The winning student basketball team, which was Scott Barnett, Keith Weaver, Keith Boyer, Larry Thomsberry, Chris McClintock, and Joe Robinson, played against the faculty on March 31. The faculty won 39-32. PHS alumni, Ryan Buurma, refereed the exciting competition.

Chris Gullett, ping-pong champ, 1st Lunch.

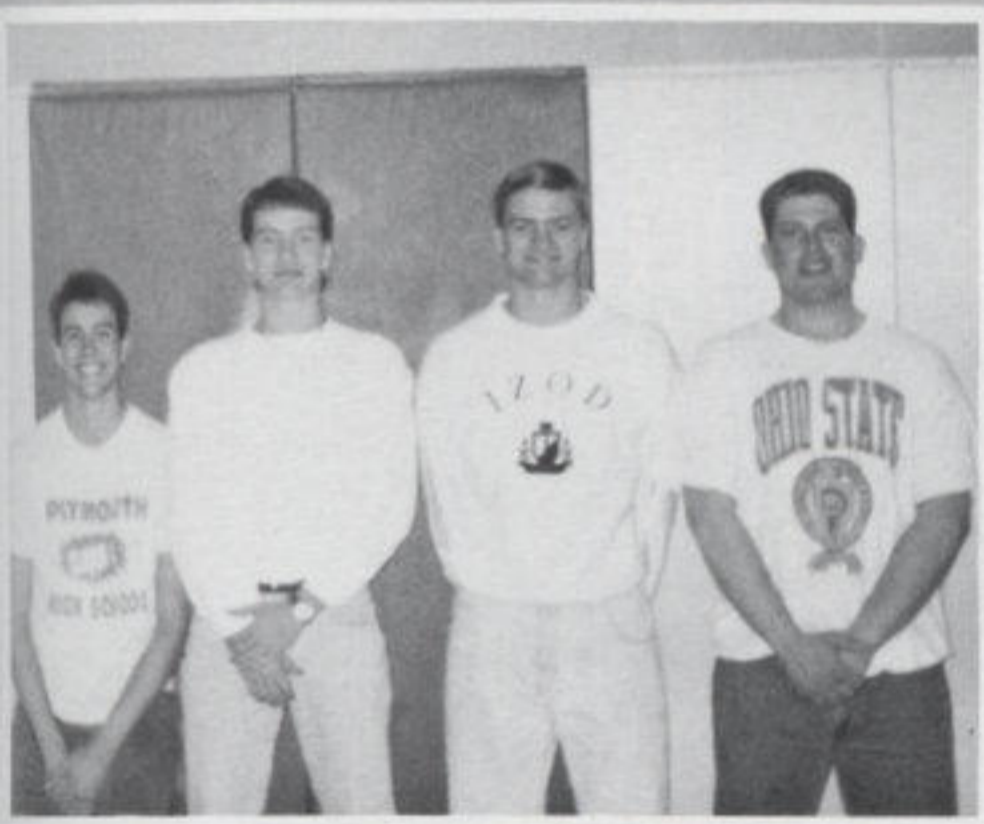

Brian Bailey, ping-pong champ, 2nd Lunch.

Brandon Hall, ping-pong champ, 3rd Lunch.

Soccer winners Nick Roll, Becky Hamilton, Chris Sheely, Bobby Strong, John Hass.

CREAM OF THE CROP!

Fifteen new members were inducted into the PHS Chapter of Nation Honor Society on Nov. 14, 1993. The group's major service project was participating in the "Adopt-A-Highway" program along Route 98. Each member also had their own ten-hour service project. They also made donuts and sold them at wrestling meets.

Mrs. Joan Felver served for the fifth year as the NHS Advisor. Officers were Eric Felver, President; Curt Handshoe, Vice President; Charity Stein, Secretary; and Kelly Rath, Treasurer.

Front: Beth Hones, Charity Stein, Kelly Rath, Bronwyn Puckett, Connie Ross, Eric Felver, Chris Gullett, Glenn Coulter, Adam Taylor. THE BRAINS ARE AT IT AGAIN!

In spite of the fact that all eight members were never able to go to the same match because of conflicts with other activities, Miss Lynn Dawson, first year Advisor, said this was a fun experience and overall a successful season for the Academic Challenge team. They competed in the Ashland County League and the Richland County Tournament and the Firelands Conference Tournament.

TRACK TEAM PUTS FORTH GOOD EFFORT

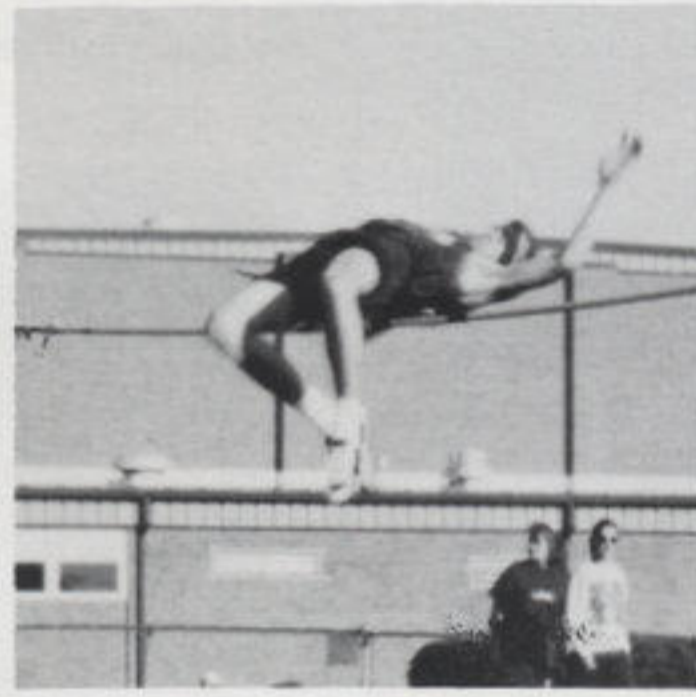

The boys' and girls' track team gave a great effort even though they suffered because of low numbers. Senior Ben Elliott was MVP and won the Conference High Jump for the third year. He also won at districts and placed third at Regionals. At the state competition, he placed 4th with a jump of 6'4". Coaches Mike Follett and Lynn Dawson have hopes for a great season next year.

Ben huffs and puffs and blows his competition away.

One jump away from the championship.

Did they move the bar?

Up and over!

It's gotta be the shoes.

Christy Wagers qualified for finals at districts in 100 m. hurdles.

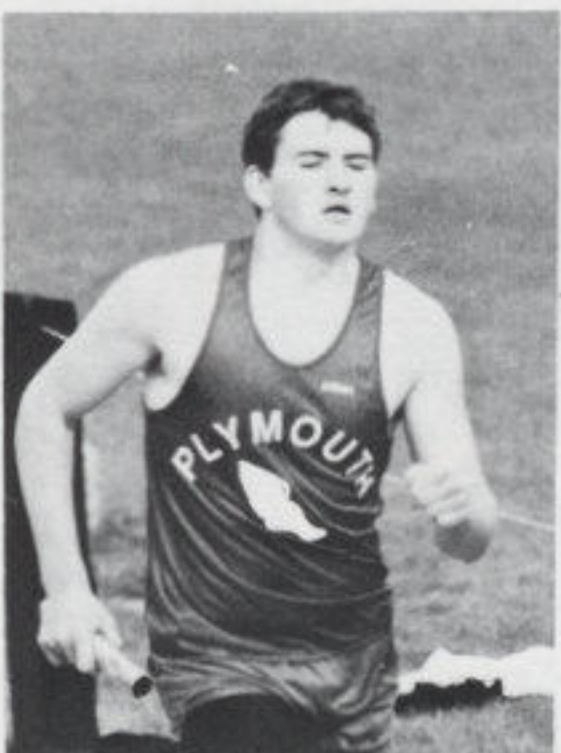

1-2-3 jump!

Kung Fu Christy!

Eric handing off to Tim during the 3200 meter relay.

Running to the end!

I think I can.

Larry's off and running.

MVP April Finnegan placed 6th. at districts in two mile run.

John Helms qualified for finals at districts and he also won the Ruckman Award.

Todd, Robin, Larry, Laura, April, Wendy, Carrie, and Darrell clown around.

Up, up, and away!

LeeAnn's about ready to throw the shot.

Montelle concentrates on her throw.

NEW COACH SPARKS ENTHUSIASM

Bottom: Stacy Oney, Jill Rook, Kara Fenner, Tiffany Albright, Wendy Rook, Lisa Kennard. Top: Beth Tuttle, Jessie Reeder, Jessica Stover, Audrey Archer, Liz Dyer, Coach Hazel Rook.

Kara gives it all her might.

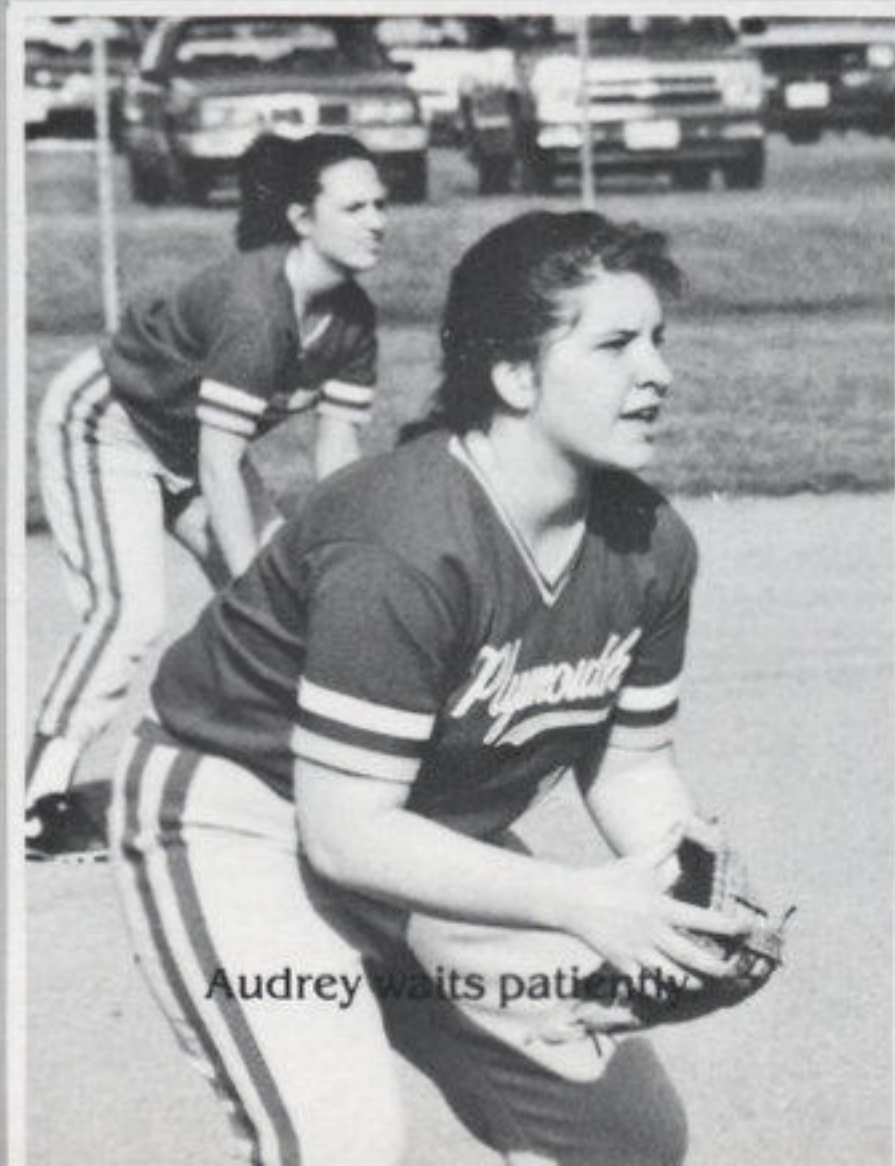

The team waits excitedly!

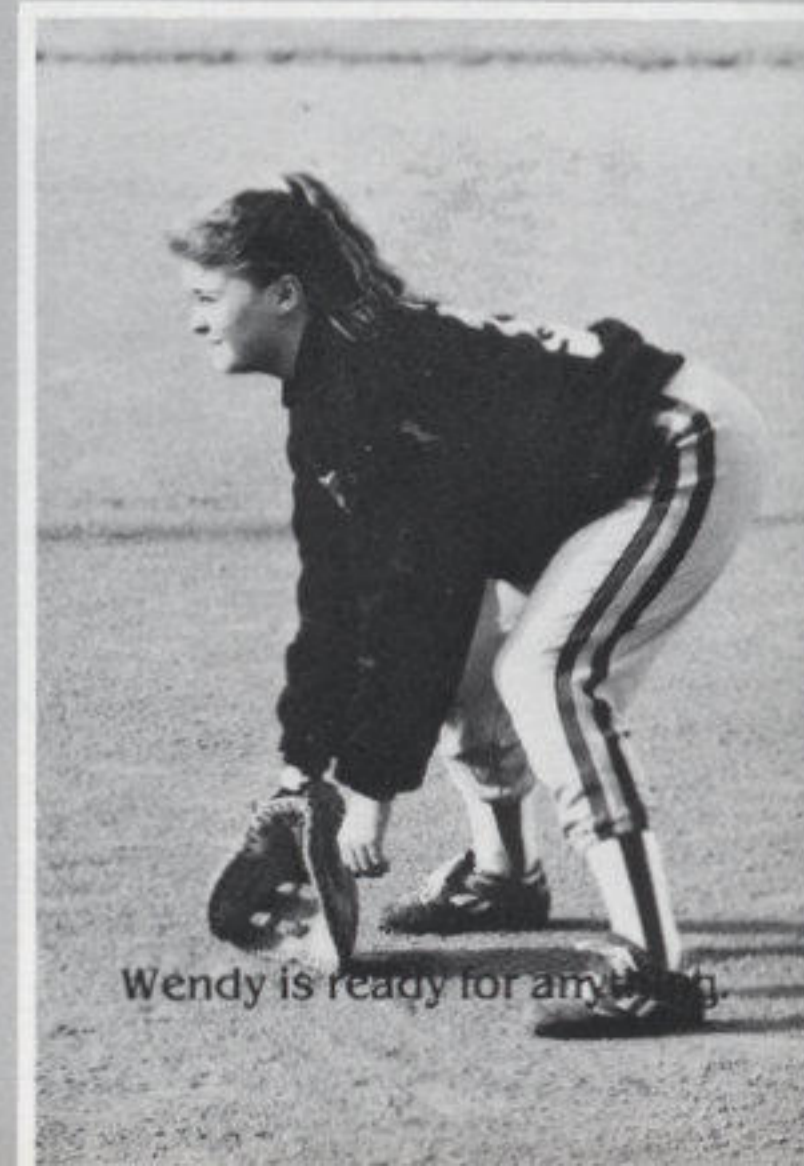

Someone get the ball!

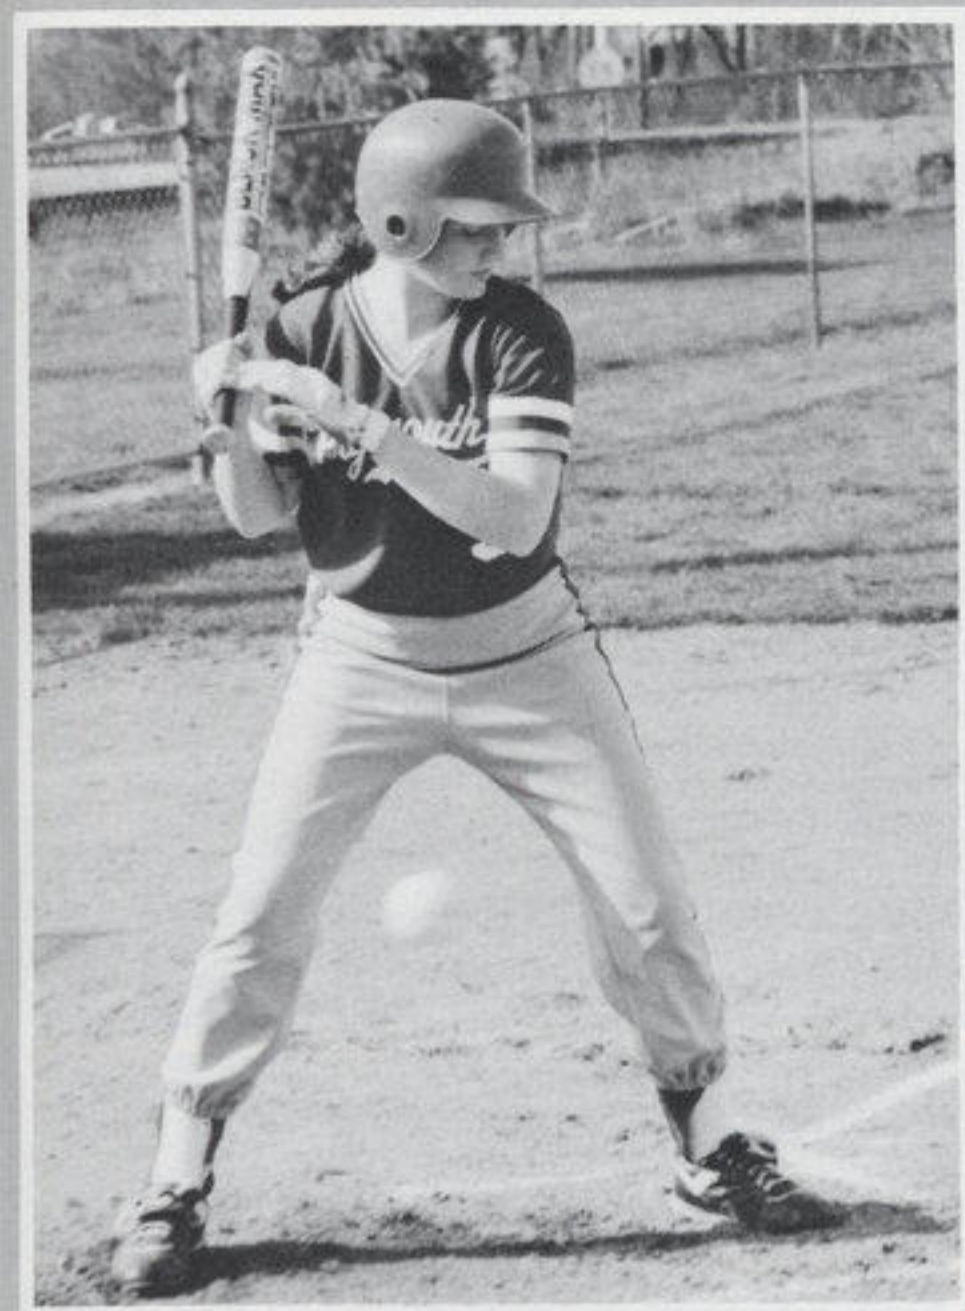

Jessica pitches another fast one.

Audrey waits patiently.

Wendy is ready for anything.

Jessie waits for the right pitch.

Tiffany keeps her eyes on the ball.

Lisa swings for a home run.

Run Stacy, run!

Throw the ball to home, Jill!

Look out girls. Beth throws wild!

Hazel Rock cheers her team on.

Jessie and Jessica get some advice.

First year softball coach, Hazel Rook is very optimistic about the future of Big Red softball. With only one senior, one junior, five sophomores, and four freshmen, they had a very respectable season record of 10-10.

Special awards went to Kara Fenner for Coaches Award and Tiffany Albright for Top Hitter Award. Jill Rook was named to the First Team Firelands Conference, Tiffany Albright to Second Team, and Kara Fenner and Wendy Rook received Honorable Mention.

VARSITY PLACES THIRD IN CONFERENCE

Besides placing third in the Conference, the varsity baseball team beat Lucas 6-5 for an 8-inning sectional victory and was the District runner-up.

Chris Gullett received the Top Hitter award and was named Firelands Conference Player of the Year. Rick Reeder received the Top Fielder award.

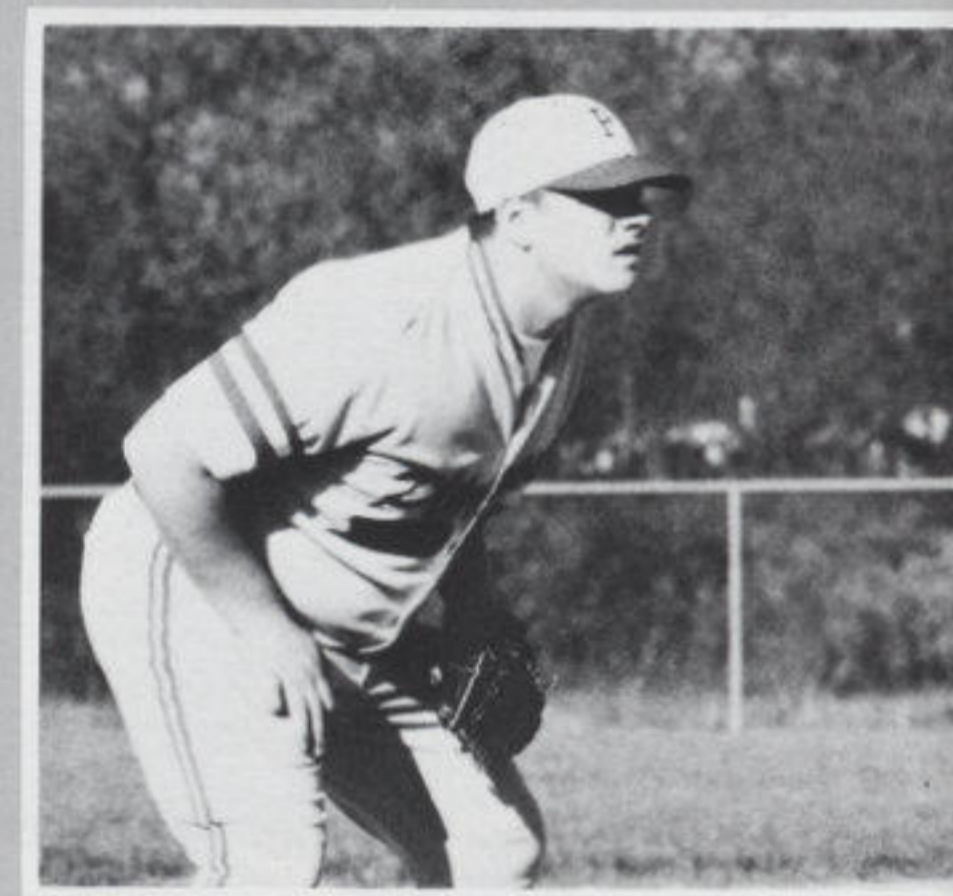

Front: Chris McClintock, Brett King, Jim Meador, Nick Roll, John Hass. Back: Eric Felver, Chris Gullett, Ricky Reeder, Brian Loehn, Mark McClure, Ronnie Tash, Coach Aaron Wellin.
