The JV had an awesome season with a record of 17-3. Coach McCormack comments "I am very proud of every member of the '94 JV team. These team members overcame a great deal of doubt and adversity. They proved that they were a very capable group of young athletes." JV captains were Robin Schrader, who received the "100% Coaches Award," and Katie Handshoe.

Triumphs And Tragedies Of Cross Country

The cross country team had a successful season with the boys finishing 2-3 and the girls 4-1 respectively. Captain Chris McClintock received the Most Valuable Runner award, while Kristy Stoodt earned the Most Improved award. A highlight of the season for the girls was placing second in the Lucas Invitational.

The Fight Song makes us sad.

Director Conklin looks on and just wonders.

Band President Tim Howard

The PHS Marching Band did well this year in spite of the loss of Director Conklin for most of the season because of his injury at the New London game. The band performed at all football games. They also performed at Cedar Point, Ashland County Fair, Ashland Holiday Parade, Shiloh Ox Roast Parade, and the Plymouth Fireman's Festival.

The officers for the 94-95 season were: President: Tim Howard, Vice-Pres.: Montelle Smart, Secretary Treasurer: Lee Ann Felver, and Librarian: Amy Wertz.

The yearbook staff celebrates their first deadline with Chuck.

Every member on the Yearbook staff was new except for sophomores Lydia Keinath and Starr Kilgore. However, since they were all seniors, they learned everything quickly and worked hard to make the '95 yearbook special. They celebrated the first deadline with a lasagna dinner and invited Chuck Campbell, the area Jostens representative. Mrs. Buurma was pleased that they made all their deadlines without too much pressure.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society's induction ceremony was at the high school on November 13, 1994. Mr. Paul Gase was the guest speaker.

Each member is expected to take the responsibility of performing ten hours of service to the community. They also parked cars at the home boys' basketball games to raise money for their own organization. They also participated in the Adopt-A-Highway program along State Rt. 98.

The Art Club was busy with a variety of activities. They had a pizza party before Christmas and painted a large mural for the Rainbow Valley Church Christmas program. They painted slate music boxes and sold them to help raise money for the New York trip.

Youth Art Month was celebrated in March with Art and Music Week activities during March 27-30. Amy Archer won the prize for Country Music Day, Aaron Hopkins won for Hat and Tie Day, Carrie Akers won for T-shirt-with-a-picture Day, and Crystal McKenzie won for Clash or Hippy Day.

A talent show was held on March 28. Taking First prize was Chris Bailey accompanied by Chris McClintock. Second prize went to community member Francis Dorian, and New Traditions received Third.

The Challenge Is Here

First year Advisor Mrs Deb Daniel said the Academic Challenge team had a lot of exposure and gained valuable experience this year. They usually placed in the top four teams at their competitions. They participated in the Firelands Conference Tournament, the Richland Academic League Tournament, and the North Central Ohio Tournament.

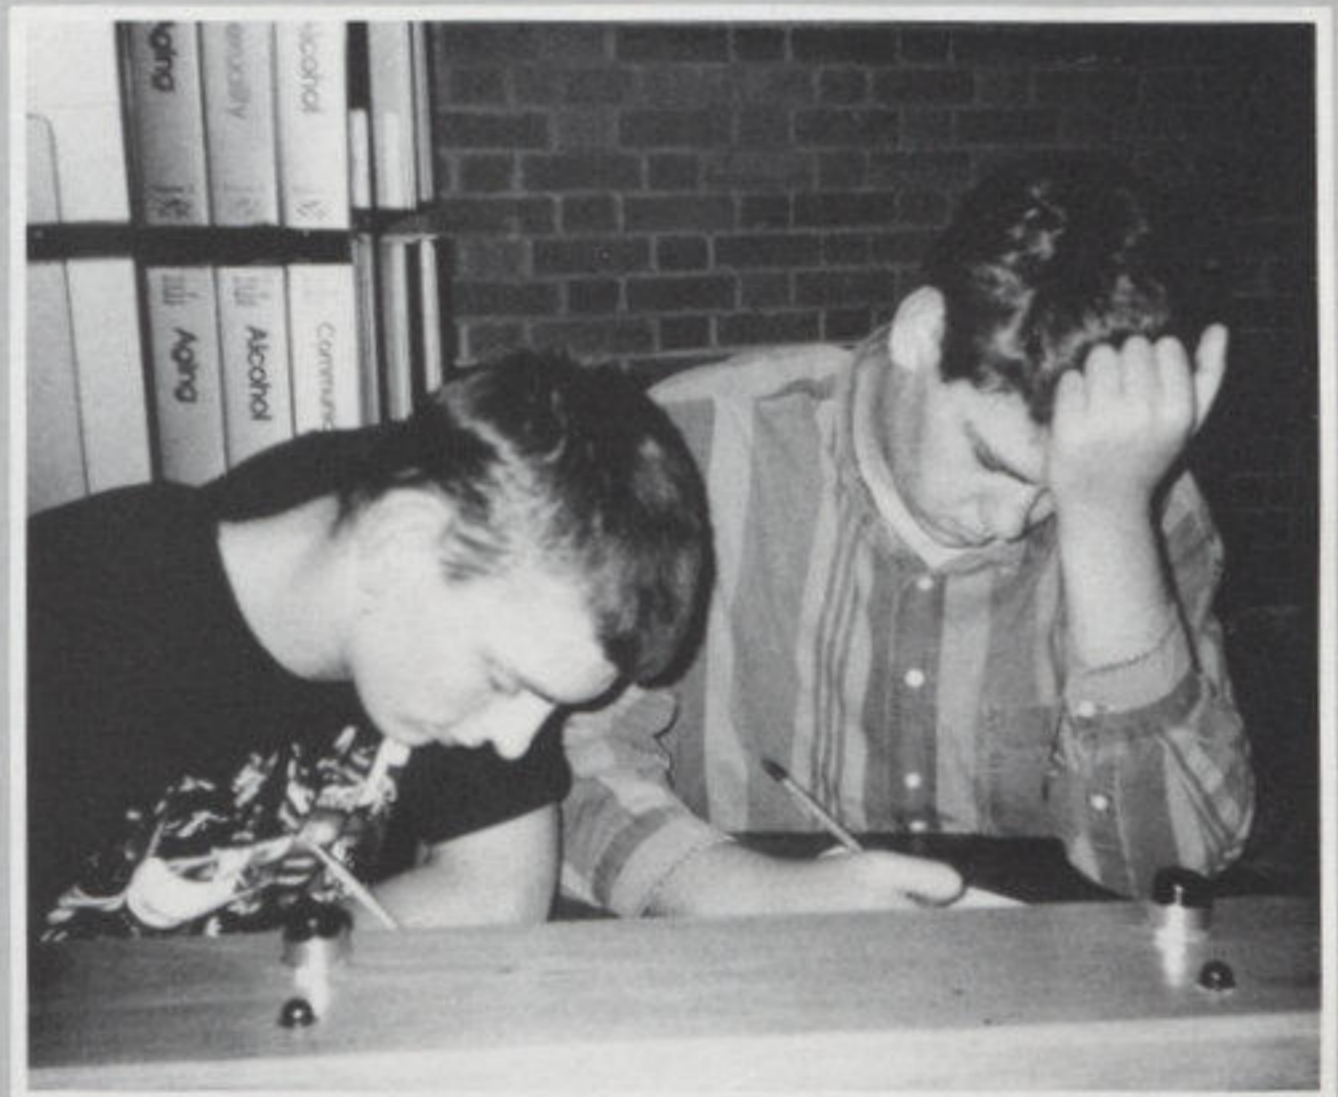

Mrs. Daniel presented Matt Caughenbaugh with the Leadership Award and Josh Swartz received the Courage Award. She hopes Plymouth will be a league-leader next year.

We Came As Strangers . . .

Commencement Speaker: Rev. Robert Nagy.

Superintendent: Mr. Jeffrey Slauson shares memories of the class of '95.

Class President Jason Resendez

Kara gives the closing.

Stephanie Smith, Valedictorian

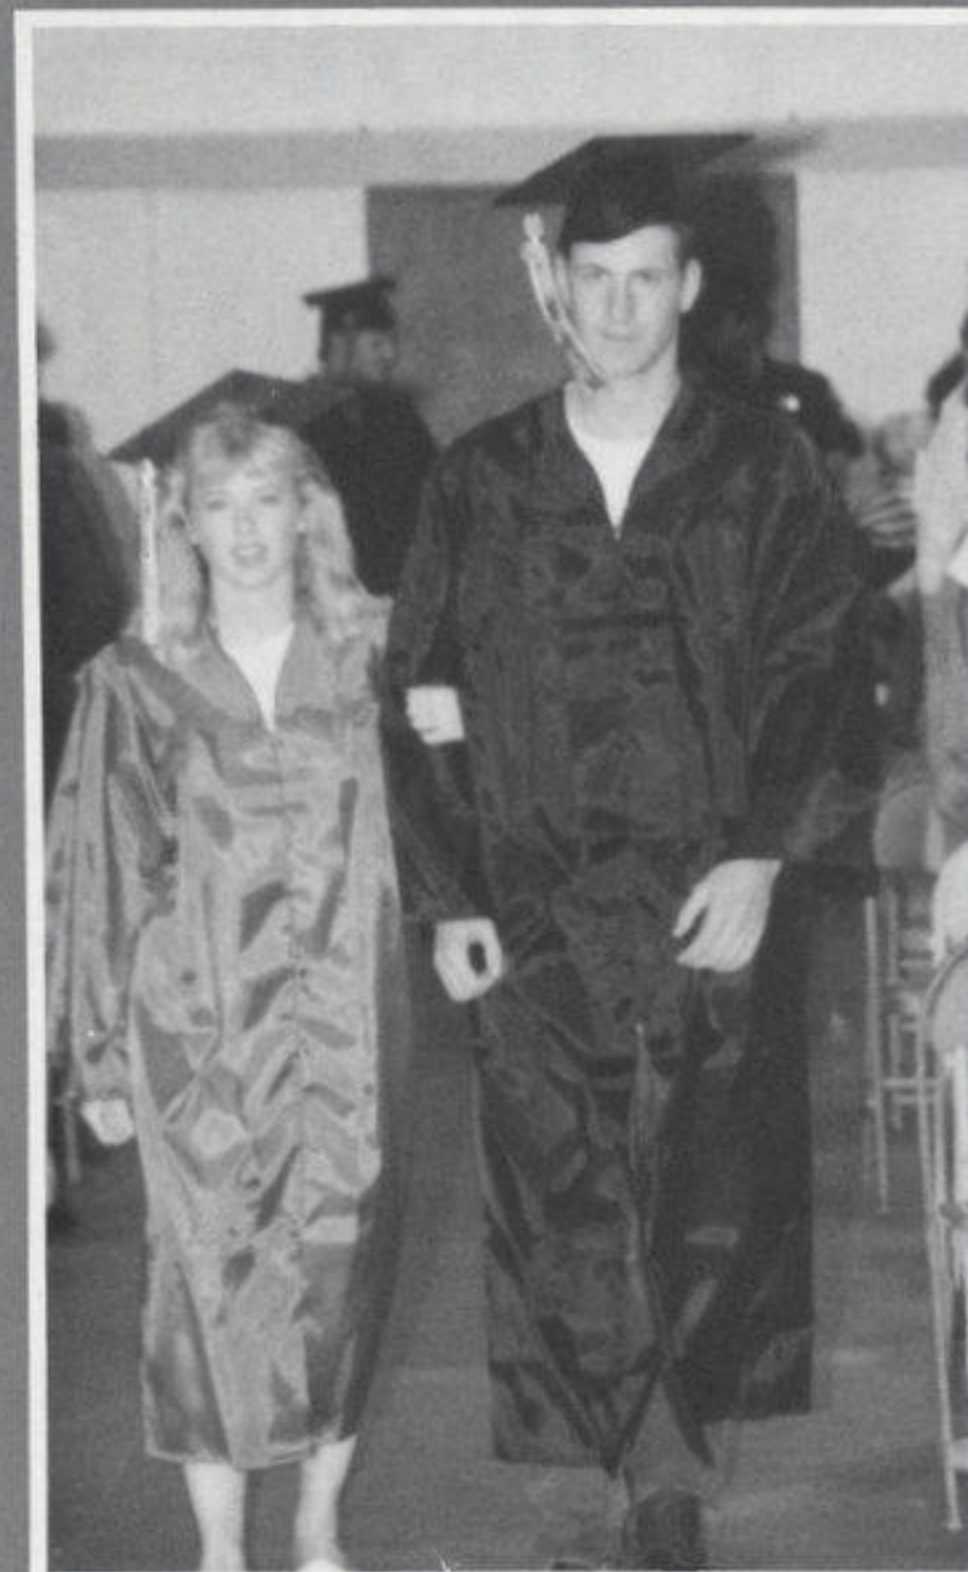

Matt Caughenbaugh, Salutatorian

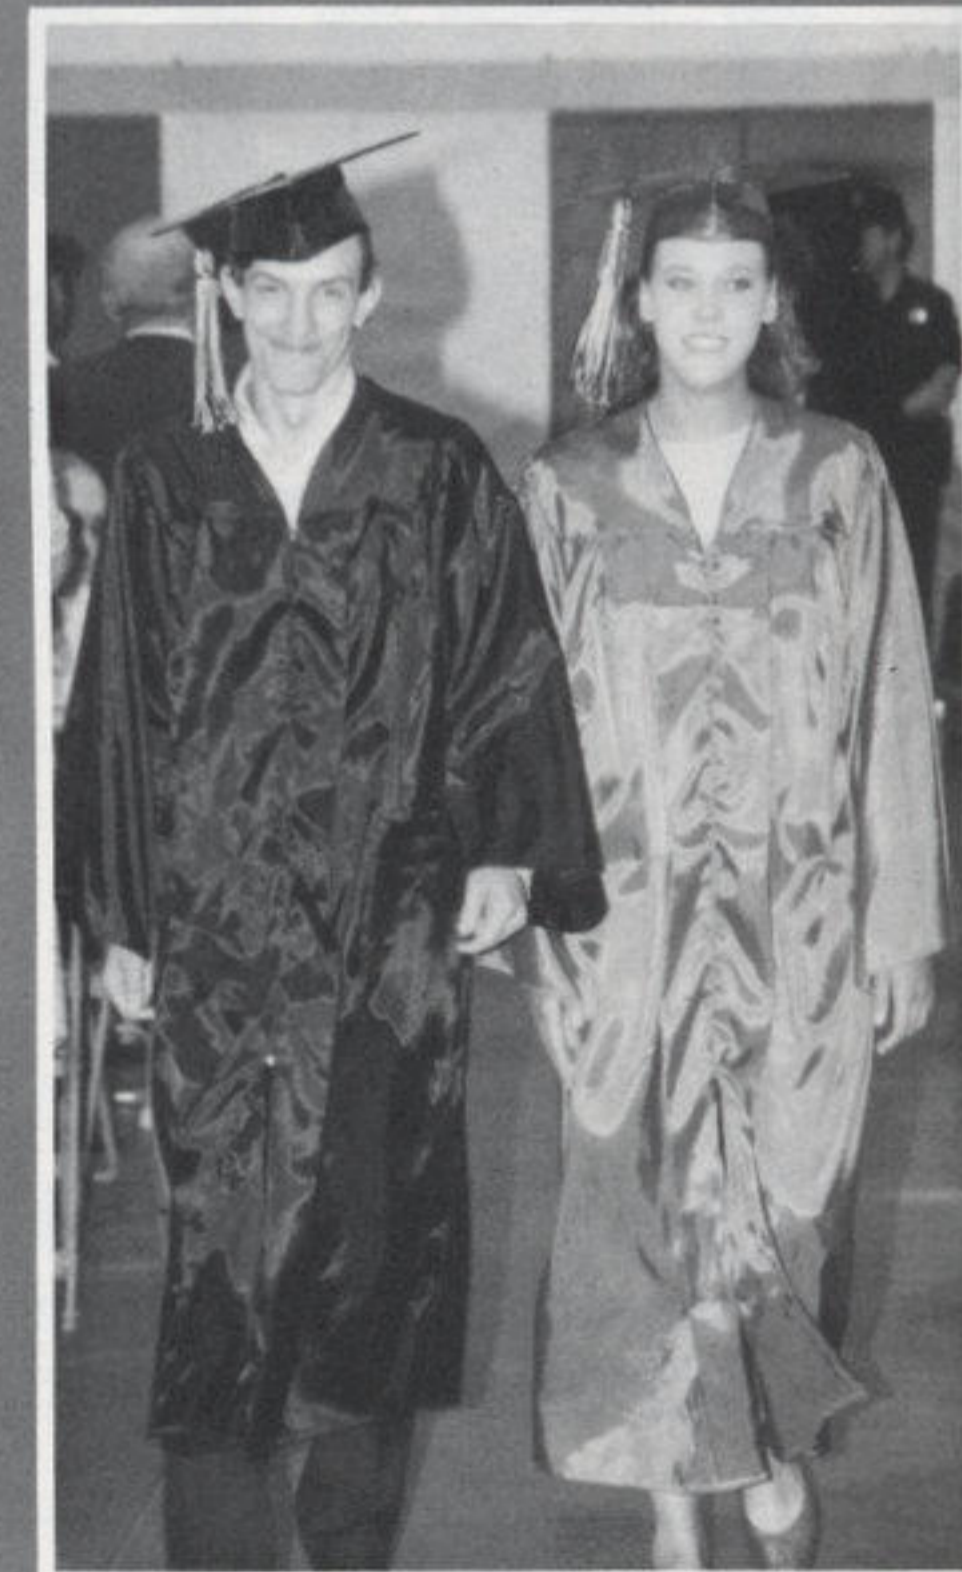

The 116th Commencement service was held on June 2 at 7:00 p.m. in the high school gymnasium. Rev. Robert Nagy, the minister of the Plymouth Presbyterian Church, gave the Commencement Address. A unique addition to the program was a slide show featuring the seniors of 1995. Mrs. Barb Burks and Mrs. Lynn Baker played the processional and recessional numbers on electric pianos.
