Leader's Club

Back Row: Charles Myers, Madeline Baker, Savannah Stephens, Sarah Simmons, Mrs. Bloomfield & Leon Vargas
Middle Row: Dylan Patton, Austin Cunningham, Brayden Creveling & Madison Lasch
Front Row: Alexis Vandervort & Kyle Gayheart

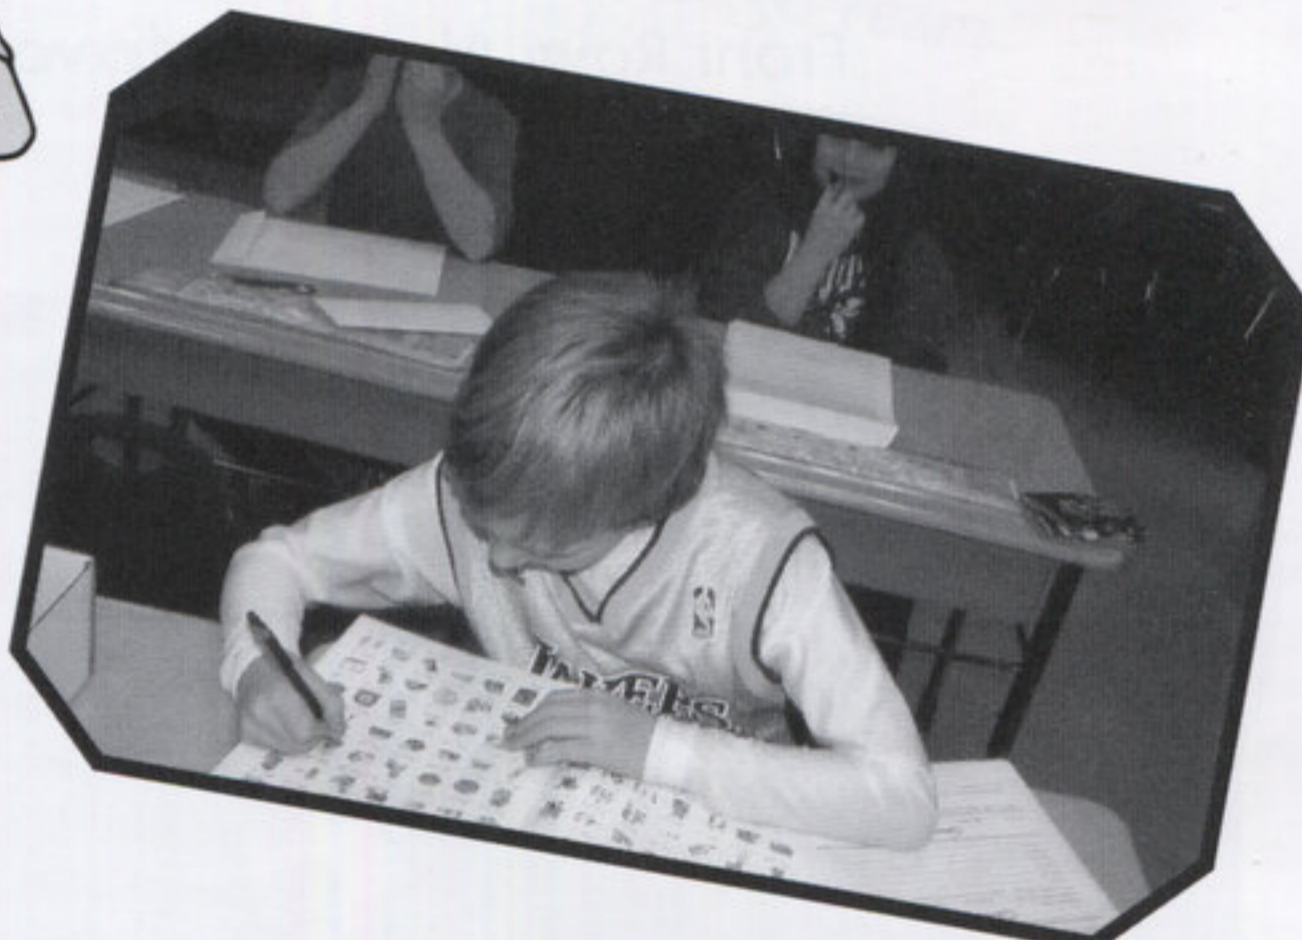

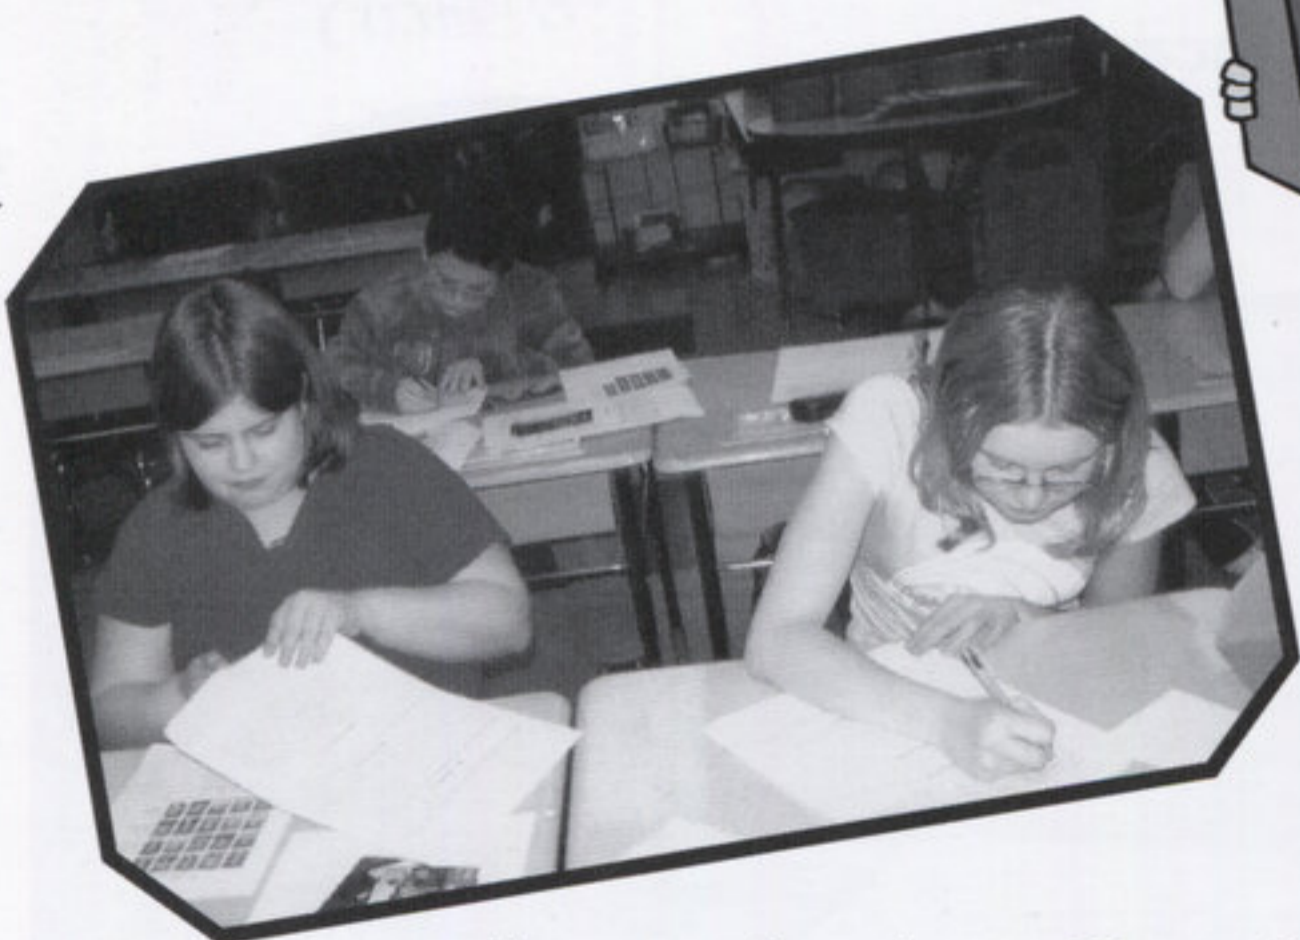

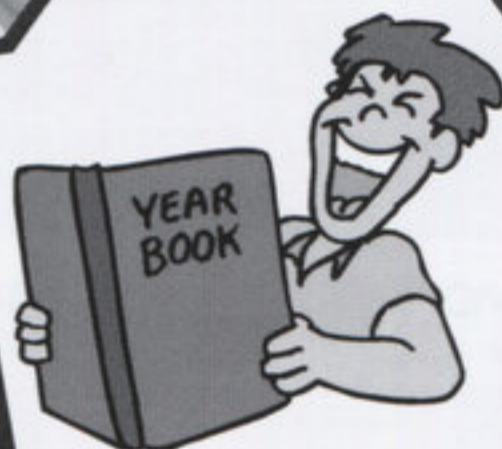

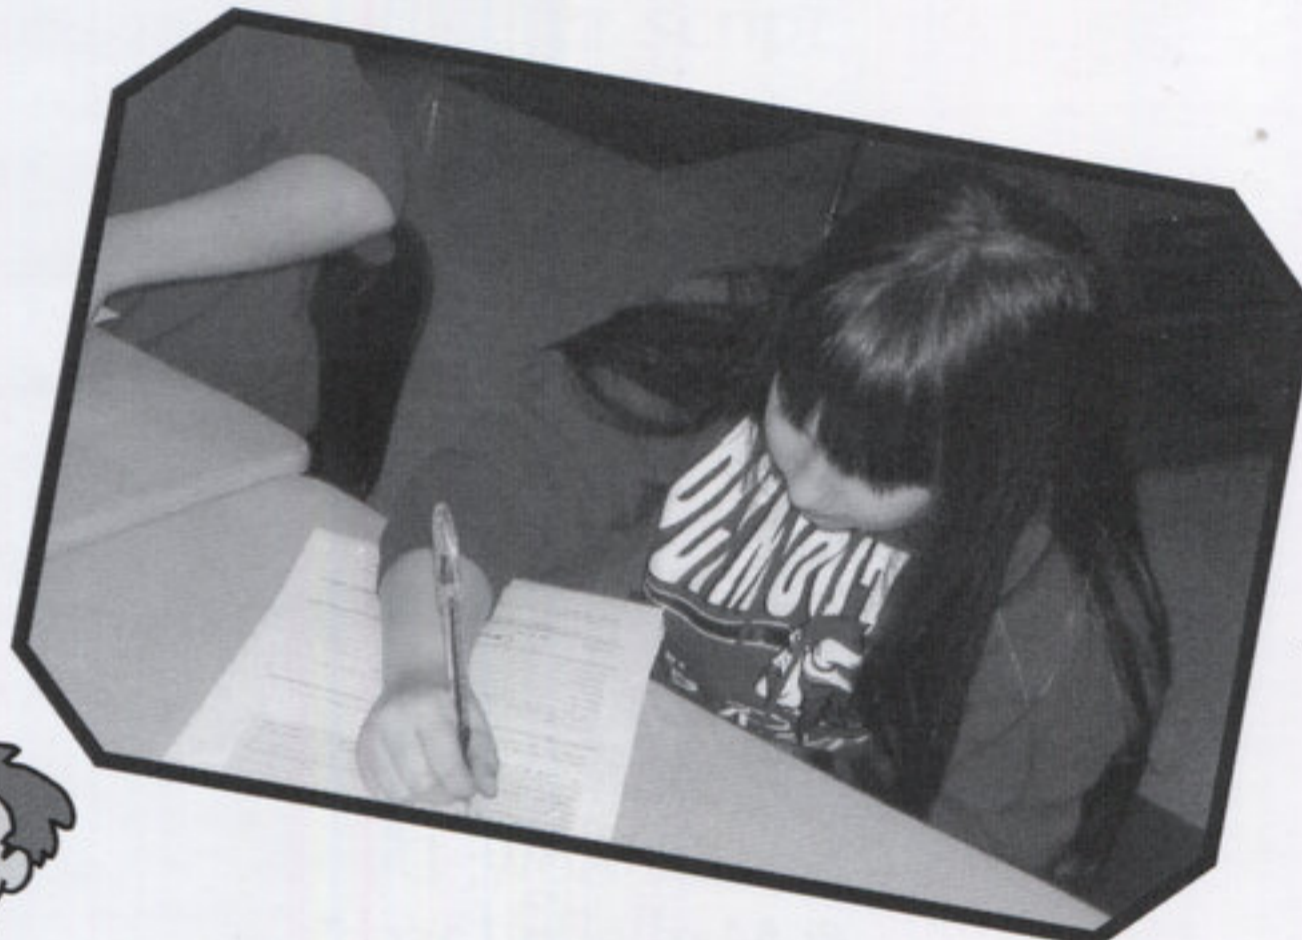

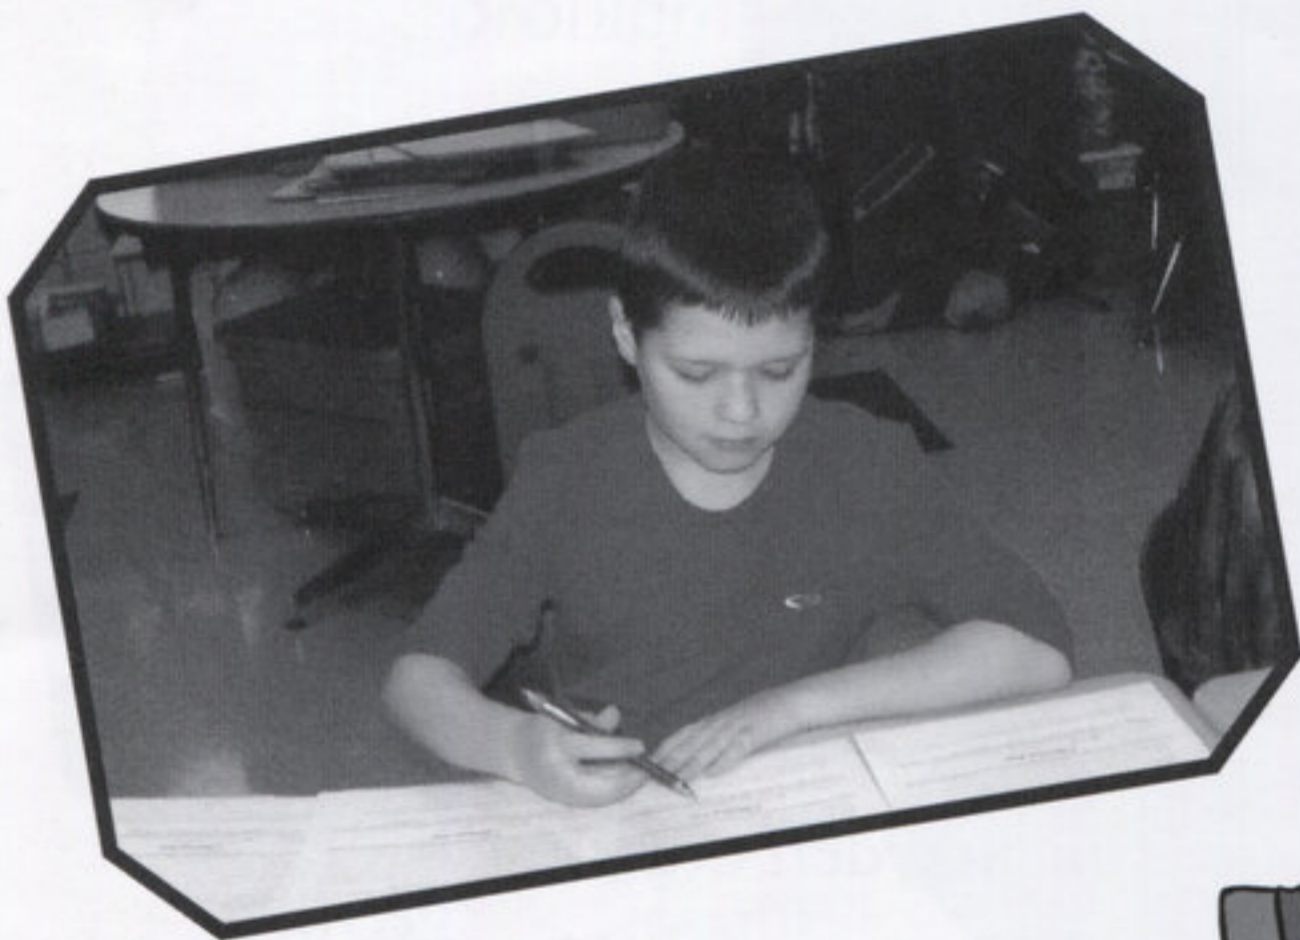

The Leader's Club at Shiloh Elementary was formed to instill the qualities of a good leader in our 5th grade students. The students spend time each week recycling, distributing Food Pantry backpacks and reading with kindergarten students. They are seen as role models to the students at Shiloh Elementary. Mrs. Linda Bloomfield is their advisor.

Yearbook Staff

The yearbook staff students are current 5th graders. They spend time choosing the candids, clip art and borders that go on each page. They choose the pictures for the montage. Each member receives a free yearbook. Their hard work is appreciated by advisor Mrs. Roblin.

Wonderful World of Reading

The students and staff had an especially good time this year during our Right to Read festivities. The theme this year was the "Wonderful World of Reading." To kick off the two weeks of reading fun in January, students got to watch the teachers perform a reader's theatre text. The teachers pretended to be characters from Disney and they needed help from the audience to find props like maps, blueprints, a script and even a mystery. The following week, teachers and students teamed up to compete in Shiloh's version of "Minute to Win It." The winning team was Mrs. Bays and Vanessa Parrigan. The final culmination of all the time spent reading and working on tickets was the reading carnival. Students spent an afternoon playing games and earning prizes that were in classrooms throughout the school.
